

DAY'S DOINGS OF NORTH SCRANTON

FALL OF ROCK YESTERDAY INJURES JAMES GILGALLON.

He Was Hurt in the Von Storch Colliery—Young Edmund Thomas Narrowly Escapes Losing a Leg. It Was Caught in the Wheel of a Dray—Farewell Party for Robert Cuthbertson, of the Thirteenth. Bicyclist's Presence of Mind Saves Him from Serious Accident.

James Gilgallon, a young man employed in the Von Storch colliery, was the victim of a fall of rock yesterday. Gilgallon is engaged as a laborer. He was loading a car of coal when a portion of the roof collapsed.

Gilgallon was pinned beneath the mass. Fellow workmen extricated him. He was removed to his home on Keyser avenue in the mine ambulance. He received bruises and contusions about the chest and head. His recovery is probable.

NARROW ESCAPE. Edmund, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas, of Wayne avenue, had a narrow escape from serious injury last evening on the road in front of his home. A similar accident recently to a young boy on the South Side nearly deprived him of a leg.

Young Thomas boarded the dray wagon of Undertaker Jones. His foot became entangled in the wheel and he was falling heavily to the ground. The driver heard a piercing scream and brought the horses to a standstill.

RETURN TO CAMP. Robert Cuthbertson goes to Camp Mendez today to join his company, H, of the Thirteenth. He leaves with pleasant memories of a seven day furlough, in which a farewell reception, tendered him last evening at his parents' home on Von Storch avenue, was one of the chief incidents.

There were present: Messrs. Charles Pons, Joseph Bone, Crad. Harvey, Thomas Laird, David Laird, Robert Larkin, Edgar Hartshorn, Samuel Hartshorn, Frank Smith, David Nicholas, John Evans, Thomas Odgen, James Oakley; Misses Lizzie Cuthbertson, Sarah Anderson, Katie Powell, Alice Hartshorn, Alice Laird, Mary Cuthbertson, Lena Stout, Mary Atherton, Jennie Kelly, Mary Harvey, Edith Jones, Bella Wrightson, Mary Wrightson, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholson, Mr. and Mrs. S. Oakley, Mr. and Mrs. E. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. G. Appleby, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Bone, Mrs. W. M. Bone, Mrs. E. Oliver and Rev. and Mrs. Charles Prosser.

PRESENT OF MIND. William Smith, of Wayne avenue, used great presence of mind and jumped from a runaway bicycle yesterday and escaped a serious accident. Smith, who is a carpenter, was on his way to work. While descending West Market street, the chain of his wheel slipped its bearing and there was nothing to check the speed of the bicycle. Smith slipped to mother earth, landing on his feet and retaining his equilibrium, although he was rather shaky for a few seconds. The guideless bike found its way to the sidewalk, escaping with little damage.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Cavanaugh were placed under bail by Magistrate Roberts last night, on complaint of Thomas Connor, of Putnam street, who accused them of committing an assault on him and threatening his life. A charge of assault and battery was preferred against David Reese, of East Market street, by his wife. Bail was required in the sum of $400. Charges of malicious mischief were entered against Oliver Cromwell, Alvin White and Joseph Fox, at the instance of Mrs. Bridget Francy, of Brick avenue. Decision was reserved.

William F. Burke, manager of a theater in Buffalo, N. Y., is visiting his parents, Policeman and Mrs. Burke, of Jones street.

A. F. O'Boyle is on a fishing expedition in Susquehanna county. Colonel T. D. Lewis council will conduct a picnic in Frear's grove Sept. 3. Good music for dancing. Refreshments of all kinds.

John Burke, William Healey and James J. May returned to Epiphany college, Baltimore, yesterday to resume their studies. Ex-Alderman T. J. Thomas and wife, of Wilkes-Barre, are visiting Constable and Mrs. Seth Smith, of Hill street.

Colonel T. D. Lewis council, United American mechanics have paid over the death benefit of $50 to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Jones, bereaved parents of Thomas E. Jones, jr., who was killed by falling down the Storrs shaft.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Stevens, of North Main avenue, returned from a week's vacation spent at the Lake yesterday. Miss Fannie Shipman who has been visiting Miss Nellie Tuttle, of Diamond avenue, returned to her home in Hawley yesterday.

Felix Miller, of Theodore street, was painfully injured in the West Ridge colliery yesterday morning. While engaged in making a coupling the cars unexpectedly came together, catching his right leg between the bumpers. The member was painfully squeezed. He was attended by a physician.

Mrs. Stephen Middleton, of North Main avenue, is home from Lake Winola. Mrs. W. E. Wolfe and daughter, Kathryn, of Church avenue, are visiting relatives in Nanticoke and Merwick yesterday.

Miss Nellie Duggan, of West Market street, returned from a week's visit to Carbondale yesterday. Mrs. Sydney Lewis, of Leggett's creek, is visiting her mother in Taylor. Miss Margaret McCloskey, of Sayre, is the guest of Miss Nellie Moran, of Hollow street.

Mrs. W. J. Edwards, of Spring street, is sick. The Misses Mammie and Lizzie Stott have returned from their vacation. The Ladies Aid society of the First Welsh Baptist church will meet in the lecture room of the church at 1 p. m. sharp this afternoon.

P. J. Kane, of Keyser avenue, has gone to Butte, Montana, to reside. Mr. and Mrs. Jeremiah Belles, of North Main avenue, are entertaining Mrs. R. J. Ludden and children of Newport, Northampton county.

LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

BODY OF PRIVATE SYLVESTER DETRIKCH ARRIVED HERE.

Remains Brought from Philadelphia by the Parents—Annual Reunion of the Stanton Family Is Held. Flag Raising to Be Held at the Home of John Smith, on North Filmore Avenue—P. O. S. of A. Camp to Hold a Smoker—Former West Side Resident, Mrs. F. E. Bell, Is Injured.

The remains of Private Sylvester Detrick, of Company F, who died at the Philadelphia hospital of typhoid fever Tuesday, arrived here last evening on the 9 o'clock train, accompanied by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Detrick, who left Philadelphia at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Private Detrick became ill about two weeks after the Thirteenth regiment arrived at Mount Gretna, and he was granted a thirty-day furlough. He arrived home and underwent an operation. He returned to camp where he was stricken with the disease to which he succumbed. He was the first member of the Thirteenth and his brother, Willie Detrick, is now sick at camp. The funeral will be held Friday morning. Interment will be made in Dunmore cemetery.

REV. MILL'S VISIT. Rev. M. H. Mill, formerly pastor of St. David's Episcopal church, accompanied by his wife, has been visiting on this side. He is now located at St. Johnsbury, Vt. He left here a little over a year ago and is pastor of St. Andrew's church, which is somewhat larger than his former charge here, having 200 members. St. Johnsbury is a pretty little town, and is composed of an excellent class of people—very few foreigners reside in the place. It is away beyond the ordinary New England town. It seemed odd to the reverend gentleman to walk along the streets of Scranton and see so many saloons. In his new home town, there are no saloons, and he has seen only one intoxicated person.

Mr. and Mrs. Mill have enjoyed their visit immensely. While here they have found lots of their old friends, and while their new home is a decided improvement they are glad to meet their former parishioners. The first three weeks of their vacation was spent at Hartford, Conn., and in Southern Pennsylvania. Mr. Mill occupied the pulpit of St. Martin's church, at Raynor, near Philadelphia, for the last three Sundays. Rev. and Mrs. Mill will leave today for Lancaster, where they will visit the latter's parents. Mr. Mill expects to fill his pulpit at St. Andrew's church next Sunday.

FAMILY REUNION. The eleventh annual reunion of the Seth Stanton family was held at the home of W. H. Diehl, on Hampton street Tuesday. Levi Stanton, the oldest member of the family, delivered the annual address. The officers elected for the ensuing year are: President, L. B. Stanton; vice president, W. H. Diehl; secretary, Mrs. W. H. Diehl. It was decided to hold the next reunion at the home of Levi Stanton, at Eddie, Pa.

FLAG RAISING. A flag raising will be held at the home of John Smith, on North Filmore avenue, tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock. It is to be in honor of the peace established. Attorney George L. Peck will be chairman of the exercises. Addresses will be made by W. G. Clark, Thomas Lee, John R. Edwards and Wallace G. Moser. Mr. Gideon Moser's Sunday school class of the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church will give a lawn social after the flag raising.

WILL HOLD A SMOKER. Camp 233 Patriotic Order Sons of America, will hold a smoker after the meeting next Tuesday evening. Mr. David J. Davis will add to the enjoyment of the occasion by giving the competitive oration which won admiration at the recent state convention of the Patriotic Order Sons of America. All camps are cordially invited to attend.

SERIOUSLY SCALDED. Mrs. F. E. Bell, of Foster, formerly Miss Anna Harris, of this side, recently met with a serious accident at her home. She stumbled and fell, a boiler of hot water falling on her. She was badly injured internally and scalded. Her life was despaired of at the time. Her brother, William Harris, of North Hyde Park avenue, has just returned from Foster and reports that she is improving.

PERSONAL MENTION. Mrs. Spencer and Miss Reba Thomas, of Pittsburg, are the guests of Mrs. D. M. Jones, of South Main avenue. Mr. and Mrs. James Peters, son Walter, and daughter Ruth, of Fourteenth street, are spending two weeks with friends in Albany, N. Y.

Miss Emma Thomas, of Saddle place, left yesterday for New York on a business trip. Miss Jennie Morgan, of North Filmore avenue, has returned from a sojourn at Asbury park. Miss Margaret Grossmann, of Lafayette street, left yesterday for a two weeks' visit in Wayne county.

Al. Davis, of South Main avenue, has returned from a sojourn at Lake Winola. Miss Millie Gleason, of Dickson City, is visiting at the home of her uncle, Frank Gleason, on Fourteenth street. Miss Cora Eddy, of Shamokin, who has been spending some time with her grandmother, Mrs. Joseph Hughes, of South Hyde Park avenue, has returned home.

Miss Mary J. Evans, of Washburn street, is home from Atlantic City. Mrs. Frederick Boldry, of Washburn street, is at Asbury Park. Private George Thomas is home on a furlough. Bert James, of North Bromley avenue, will leave tonight for a visit at Toronto, Canada.

Mrs. Engle, of Ashland, has returned. Joseph Geiger, of Company H, Thirteenth regiment, at Camp Alger, whose alarming illness has been noted in The Tribune frequently, and who was removed from Dunn Loring to his home on Cedar avenue, is improving. Yesterday he was able to sit up. Dr. Kolb, his attending physician, states his patient's complete restoration to health is assured.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES. Miss Van Nort, secretary of the South Side Young Women's Christian association, has returned from a two weeks' vacation. The Gospel meeting Sunday afternoon will be led by Miss Van Nort. The association will hold an outing at Nay Aug park on Thursday, Sept. 5.

NUBS OF NEWS. Mrs. Charles J. Conrad and daughter, Edna, of Cedar avenue, are spending their vacations at New York city and Far Rockaway. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Kramer and children, of Cedar avenue, have returned from a visit to New York city. The condition of Mrs. James Kessler, whose shocking experience was noted in this column yesterday, has not undergone the slightest change. Her advanced years and intense suffering are the greatest barriers to her recovery.

Mrs. F. L. Terpe, of Cedar avenue, is slowly recovering from the serious illness which attacked her at Lake Sheridan ten days ago. Jacob Rosar and daughter, Lizzie, of Cedar street, are visiting at New York city. Misses Gertrude and Lizzie Fischer, of Pittston, and Miss Voght, of Wilkes-Barre, are guests at the residence of George S. Miller, of Hickory street. Peter Schumaker, of Beech street, is recovering from a long siege of typhoid fever.

ed home from a visit with her son, George Engle, of Washburn street. Mrs. W. T. Davis, of Washburn street, has returned from Asbury Park. Miss Della Evans, of Washburn street, has returned from Clifford. Miss Gertrude John, of Decker's court, has returned home from a week's visit at Westport, Conn.

MINOR NEWS NOTES. William Gray, of the Sloan, was bitten by a dog while riding his wheel from Dursey on Tuesday evening. Dr. St. Patrick's parochial school will open next Monday. The funeral of the late Henry Roche, of Lafayette street, will take place this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment will be made in Washburn street cemetery.

Mr. James A. Evans has raised a flag pole in his yard on North Hyde Park avenue, and will soon raise a flag thereon. The picnic of the Summer Avenue Presbyterian Sunday school was held yesterday and was largely attended. The Alumni foot ball team will practice on the Brown's grounds this afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The funeral of the late Simon Fox took place at the home on Price street yesterday afternoon. Interment was made in Washburn street cemetery. There will be a meeting of the West Side Central Republican club at the rooms this evening at 8 o'clock.

SOUTH SCRANTON.

Independent Milk Dealers Will Advance Prices—Well Crank Injures Young Robert Lewert—Lost Boy Found.

At Hotel Rosar last night a meeting of the independent milk dealers of this side was held. The purpose of the session was to take action on the alleged move of the Scranton Dairy company to raise the price of milk to seven cents a quart.

It was decided last night to keep abreast of competition. Today the independent dealers will raise their rates to seven cents a quart, the price to be charged by the Scranton Dairy company. The dealers at the meeting were: Peter Rosar, jr., John Mack, Michael Barry, John Williams, William Jansen, Henry James, Henry Burachell, John Sweeney, J. J. Manley, John Hartman, Conrad Matern, John Deiter, Max Ludwig and J. J. Tierney.

YOUNG BOY HURT. Robert Lewert, of 420 Willow street, 9 years old, met with a severe and painful accident at his home last night. He went to the well in the yard to raise a bucket of water, and in hoisting it he lost his hold on the well crank. With great rapidity the instrument revolved. In his attempt to stop it, he was struck on the forehead, which was cut badly. The little fellow fainted. While in that condition he was found by a member of the family. He was removed to the house, and Dr. Kolb was sent for. It was necessary to insert seven stitches to close the wound.

LUCKY LOST BOY. Patrolman George Jones found a lad 6 years of age, Elmer Williams, on Cedar avenue, last night. He told the patrolman that his home was at 316 Haslam court on the West Side. With a party of older boys he had wandered from his home yesterday morning. His companions deserted him, and he was unable to retrace his steps. He said that he knew a Mr. Kohnstamm, a printer, who lived next door to his parents. The Mr. Kohnstamm is a member of the firm of R. Kuntz & Co., 612 Cedar avenue. Mr. Kohnstamm remained in the printing office several hours later than usual, and was about to close when the passing policeman and lost child walked up to him. Elmer was taken home in safety.

GEIGER IS IMPROVING. Joseph Geiger, of Company H, Thirteenth regiment, at Camp Alger, whose alarming illness has been noted in The Tribune frequently, and who was removed from Dunn Loring to his home on Cedar avenue, is improving. Yesterday he was able to sit up. Dr. Kolb, his attending physician, states his patient's complete restoration to health is assured.
