

WILL MUSTER OUT EIGHT REGIMENTS

GOVERNOR HASTINGS CONSULTS WITH WAR DEPARTMENT.

The Eight Regiments to Be Mustered Out Will Be Announced Tomorrow—This Number Includes the Regiments Already Ordered to Be Mustered Out—Troops Will Be Given Furloughs After Reaching Home and Then Discharged.

Washington, Sept. 1.—Governor Hastings, of Pennsylvania, was at the war department today and made his recommendations regarding the mustering out of the Pennsylvania volunteers.

The Pennsylvania troops in Porto Rico which are ordered home for mustering out will sail direct for New York and will not go through the detention camp hospitals or be detained at all, going directly aboard trains from ships and thence home.

SIXTH TO LEAVE MONDAY.

After a Furlough It Will Be Mustered Out of Service.

Camp Meade, Middletown, Sept. 1.—The Sixth Pennsylvania regiment of Chester expects to leave Camp Meade Monday on its furlough trip.

The assignment of the various regiments to brigades will cause the Sixth Pennsylvania battalion and a half dozen regiments to change the location of their camps.

The patients in the division hospitals will be discharged from the service if they make application through the proper channels. The men of the Third New York deny the story that they refused to drill or that the regiment is in a state of mutiny.

MEMBERS OF THIRTEENTH

They Arrive in Philadelphia on a Hospital Train.

Philadelphia, Sept. 1.—A hospital train which left Washington this afternoon for Camp Alger and Dunn Loring under the auspices of the Medical-Chirurgical hospital, of Philadelphia, reached this city tonight with 60 enlisted men and one officer all suffering with typhoid fever.

Following are the members of the Thirteenth: Harry McDaniel, company E; Jacob Sohus, company B; Scranton, Pa., Morris Embury, company C, Scranton.

ANOTHER HOSPITAL TRAIN.

Harrisburg, Sept. 1.—The Medical-Chirurgical hospital will send a hospital train to Camp Meade tomorrow to take 200 sick soldiers to Philadelphia for treatment in that institution.

JACK SKELLY IN THE CITY.

Came Here in Reference to Judge-Smith Match.

Jack Skelly, of Brooklyn, came to Scranton last night on business connected with the approaching boxing contest between Jim Judge, of this city, and "Mysterious Billy" Smith, the welterweight champion of the world.

"I have already posted $100 with the New York Police Gazette to bind Judge to sign articles next Monday. On that day I will post $1,000 as a side bet for Judge, $50 of the amount to be for weight and appearance. We will then wait a few days to receive the offers of several clubs which are bidding for the match. It is my personal wish to have the contest decided in Scranton."

IS GOING TO BOSTON.

The twelfth annual convention of factory inspectors begins in Boston Monday and will be attended by E. W. Bishop, deputy factory inspector of this district. Mr. Bishop will be accompanied by his wife and Miss Ruby Yost.

The speaking in Laurel Hill park will begin at 2 p. m. The speakers for the day and evening are Mr. Frank McGowan, secretary of the American Federation of Labor; Mr. Henry White, secretary of the United German Workers of America; Mr. George Chance, president of the Pennsylvania State Legislative Labor League; Rev. W. S. Hamilton, of Hazleton; Mr. F. Conroy, of Scranton, and others. Music, dancing, and all the other amusements in the park are provided. Contests and games have also been arranged.

Arrested! for not chewing Battle Ax PLUG. "He don't chew Battle Ax, yer Honor." "He looks it!" Ignorance of the Law is no excuse, but ignorance of BATTLE AX is your misfortune—not a crime—and the only penalty is your loss in quantity as well as quality when you buy any other kind of Chewing Tobacco. Remember the name when you buy again.

KEARNEY WAS BLUFFING.

He Spent the Night Behind Bars for It, However.

Based on the experience of a prisoner at the Center street police station last night, this advice is offered: Don't make a suspicious movement with your right hand toward your hip pocket. It was tried by a man named Kearney, of Sanderson avenue, and he missed a chance to gain his freedom.

NOVEL WEAPON USED.

Daniel Counterman Succeeded in Ending His Life.

Daniel Counterman, of Bark street, Tobyhanna, died at his residence Monday from the effects of an attempt at suicide about two weeks ago. On the afternoon of Aug. 20 he went into the rear of his house with a piece of gas pipe. The pipe was about two and one-half feet long and one end was stopped up by a bolt.

THE ELECTION CONTEST.

Interpreter is Kept Busy at the Carbonade Session.

At the session of the election contest commissioners in Carbonade, yesterday, it was possible to examine only two witnesses because of the majority of the voters examined being Italian, who had to have the assistance of an interpreter in giving their testimony.

Connolly and Wallace 127 AND 129 WASHINGTON AVENUE.

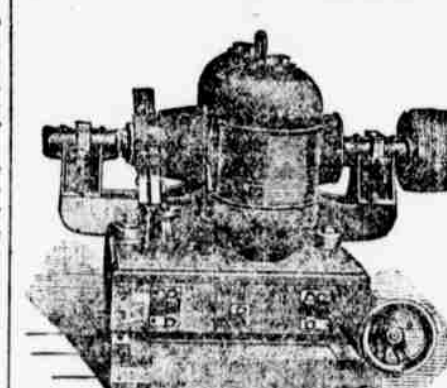

This Week Our Great Suit Store Holds Its Annual Fall Opening . . .

WHEN the Ready-to-Wear Costume first appeared it was greeted with enthusiasm by thousands of women, who saw in it not only a saving of time, but a saving of money. But there were objections. The chief objection was a marked similarity of style. One costume was very like another, and the purchaser found herself duplicated at every street corner.

Our showing of Separate Skirts, Jackets, Capes, Collarettes and Neck Scarfs is most complete.
