

TYPHOID FEVER PATIENTS REMOVED

NUMBER OF THEM TAKEN TO PHILADELPHIA HOSPITALS.

Private Peck, of the Thirty-third Michigan, Died in the Division Hospital of Fever—Governor is Arranging for the Reception of the Sick Soldiers Who Are Returning from Porto Rico—Mustering Out of Troops Will Begin on Monday.

Camp Meade, Middletown, Pa. Sept. 2.—Ten typhoid fever patients were removed from the Red Cross Hospital today to the St. Clair Infirmary at Harrisburg.

The patients were conveyed from the hospital to the cars in ambulances under the personal direction of Colonel Girard, chief surgeon of the Second corps. There are less than 100 patients tonight in the division and Red Cross hospitals at the camp and these will probably be removed to the city hospitals during the next 48 hours.

In addition to the sick soldiers sent to the Medico-Chirurgical hospital of the University of Pennsylvania took to Philadelphia 100 sick on a special train this evening. Both trains were equipped with physicians, nurses and drugs and the sick were transferred from the hospital to the cars under the personal direction of Chief Surgeon Girard. Tomorrow a number of typhoid fever cases will be sent to hospitals at Columbia and Lancaster. Surgeon Girard having accepted the offers of the hospitals at these places to care for some of the sufferers, Private Peck, company E, Thirty-third Michigan, died tonight at the Second division hospital of typhoid fever.

PORTO RICO TROOPS.

Governor Hastings expects the Pennsylvania troops at Porto Rico to arrive in this country next Thursday. He will go with the hospital train from the University of Pennsylvania, which will take the sick soldiers back to Philadelphia to the hospital.

Sixty men in the Third Missouri were made sick last night by eating corn beef from a can which was opened several hours and partly used. None of the cases are serious.

Lieutenant Kerr, of the One Hundred and Fifty-ninth Indiana, who is charged with conduct unbecoming an officer, will be tried tomorrow by court-martial. Colonel Axelson, Tenth Ohio, is president of the court.

General Graham has issued an order forbidding enlisted men from leaving their camps without a pass properly signed and approved and from congregating about the commissary and quartermaster depot and Camp Meade station.

A detachment of the Third New York was arrested last night by the provost guards and the Fourth Missouri came to their rescue, growing the quartermaster into the camp. General Graham has not yet appointed a court to try First Lieutenant Bowers, of the Sixth Pennsylvania regiment, who was ordered under arrest yesterday without an assignment of the charges.

The men of the hospital corps will be discharged on application when their regiments are mustered out.

MUSTERING OUT TO BEGIN.
The movement of the troops from Camp Meade which have been ordered to their home stations for mustering out will begin Sunday, the detachment of the Ninth Massachusetts being ready to start. The detachments of the Thirty-third and Thirty-fourth Michigan will follow Monday and the Third Missouri and One Hundred and Fifty-ninth Indiana Tuesday.

The muster rolls of the Sixth Pennsylvania and Twenty-second Kansas are completed and the regiments are awaiting orders to start for their home camps. The troops will be given a thirty day furlough before they are mustered out in order that the officers may prepare their accounts and get the papers in shape.

Major General Graham was advised by the war department today that the Third Connecticut would be sent here from Natick, Conn., Major Wright, commissary of subsistence, has been ordered to Camp Alger to relieve Captain Brooks and receive the quartermaster and commissary property which will be turned in by the regiments ordered to be mustered out.

Rev. S. G. Reading, of Williamsport, has been appointed chaplain of the Twelfth Pennsylvania regiment to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Chaplain Rick.

ECHOES OF THE WAR.

Three men from the famous Seventy-first New York spent last night in this city. They were G. S. Clogg and R. H. Clogg, brothers, and E. B. Smith, of Montgomery, the oldest town near Williamsport. They are homeward bound on a sixty days' furlough with the exception of being mustered out at the end of that period and only stopped in this city to avoid the danger and inconvenience of riding freight cars at night.

When they were given their furloughs they had no money and no means of getting transportation and so took to beating their way on the backs of the soldiers in their determination to get home. They came by the Erie to Hawley and thence by the Erie and Wyoming to this city. This morning they intend to get to Sunbury on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western and thence by the Pennsylvania home.

HE HAD A CHEAP RIDE.

Unknown Man Took Possession of a Horse on Franklin Avenue.

H. S. Gorman & Co., the Spruce street liverymen, lost a valuable horse and carriage through a daring theft Thursday night, but the animal was found by the West Side police early yesterday morning.

H. S. Montgomery, of Franklin avenue, telephoned for a single rig about 9 o'clock and it was sent down with a stable boy, who tied the animal in front of Mr. Montgomery's place of business. A short time later Mr. Montgomery called up again and wanted to know why his order had not been complied with. Mr. Gorman drove down to look into the matter and learned that a suspicious looking fellow had been seen by parties, in front of the Elk building, driving away with the horse.

Upon returning again to the barn Mr. Gorman was told by one of his men who had just come in from Oliphant, that he had passed the missing horse going out through Green Ridge and that the driver was lashing the horse. Mr. Gorman at once gave chase and succeeded in tracing the thief as far as Peckville.

The police were notified to watch for the outfit. They found the horse tied to a hitching post on North Main avenue just before daylight.

AN IMPORTANT STUDY.

Next in Importance to Grammar.

It is said of some celebrated personage that "he never opened his mouth that he didn't put his foot in it." We are equally unfortunate if, when we wish to pass as educated, cultivated people, we humble or mangle our words, or speak in our throats, or with a high pitched, thin or nasal utterance. Even a boor may pass as a man of learning so long as he remains quiet, but let him begin to converse and the secret is out.

After a knowledge of grammar, there is nothing more necessary than a knowledge of elocution which gives to its practical possessor a rich, beautifully modulated speaking voice, and the power of putting the proper pitch, power and stress to all the varied emotions of the human heart, whether in poetry or prose, or in daily intercourse with others.

The teacher of elocution connected with the Scranton Conservatory of Music, Miss Caroline T. Conkling, has had the highest advantages in her profession that can be obtained in this country and Europe. Classes in elocution and physical culture will begin at the opening of the conservatory on Wednesday next. Students of this or any other of the branches taught may arrange for lessons now.

DEPUTIES HISSED.

Fifty-four Guards at Pana Coal Mines Create Excitement by Parading the City.

Pana, Ill., Sept. 2.—Fifty-four of the deputy sheriffs who have been on guard duty at the Springside coal mine made a demonstration this afternoon by marching in a body through the principal streets of the city with loaded Springfield rifles and fixed bayonets to city hall park, where they rested on their arms for half an hour. They were in charge of Mayor Penwell and Chief Deputy William Baldwin. Later they returned to the Springside mine. All along the line of march citizens hissed the deputies and applied all manner of epithets to them, but the deputies continued the march.

Mayor Penwell said the deputies were brought to the city on orders of Governor Tanner, but the state secretary of the labor bureau, David Ross, the governor's representative, looking into the situation denied the statement of the mayor. Mayor Penwell said it was feared the lives of the deputies and operators' families were in danger. The demonstration created great excitement.

MAKING SLOW PROGRESS.

Only Thirty-nine Election Contest Witnesses Examined Yesterday.

Progress in the election contest hearing continues to be slow, only thirty-nine witnesses being examined yesterday. They were from the Second district of the Fifth ward and Third district of the First ward. Four illegal votes, it is claimed, were discovered. The witnesses examined were: Nicholas Stagliano, Angelo Pettinato, Joseph Molinaro, Filippo Tolarico, Dennis Finnegan, Alex. Mann, James Dallilo, John Gargallo, Angelo Mazza, Michael Coolican, Joseph Farro, Anthony Conny, Francis Cerra, Anthony Sealzo, W. H. Mahady, Vincenzo Serrianni, Thomas Monahan, George W. Monahan, Patrick Lynch, Larry Gillen, W. T. Carahn, Charles McCabe, Angelo Tolarico, Carmine Perri, Patrick Carden, Salvatore Chellino, Patrick Sullivan, Michael Hagan, Rosano Scarso, Antonio Musseri, P. T. Duffy, Patrick Newcomb, Andrew Tige, John Bridgett, Michael Clune, Patrick C. Hart, Patrick Brennan, Carmine Tolarico, Antonio Geliotto.

Pana Mine Troubles.

Pana, Ill., Sept. 2.—It was reported that a conference between operators and miners would be held today, but David Ross, secretary of the state labor bureau, announced that the operators had refused to confer. Operator Overholt, of the Springside mine, denies that he promised a conference.

T. P. RYDER DIES OF TYPHOID FEVER

SAD EVENT OCCURRED AT CAMP HAMILTON, LEXINGTON.

When the War Opened He Left Wilkes-Barre with the Ninth Regiment as the Wilkes-Barre Record's Special Correspondent—Later He Relinquished That Position to Become a Clerk at Third Brigade Headquarters—Remains Will Arrive in Wilkes-Barre Tomorrow Morning.

Thomas P. Ryder, the well known Wilkes-Barre newspaper man, died yesterday at Camp Hamilton in Lexington, Ky., of typhoid fever. He was a special writer on the Wilkes-Barre Record at the breaking out of the war and was sent out by that paper to accompany the Ninth regiment as its special correspondent. At Camp Thomas gave up his newspaper work to enlist and become a clerk of the Third brigade, First corps, then commanded by Colonel C. B. Dougherty. He continued in that position under Colonel Dougherty's successor.

Nothing was known of his illness until yesterday morning when John Gorman, of South Main street, Wilkes-Barre, received a telegram from Surgeon-Major Weaver, of the Ninth regiment, saying: "Ryder is ill with the fever. There is no chance of his recovery. Please write me if you can break the news to them." In the afternoon at 2:20 o'clock the Wilkes-Barre Times received a message announcing his death.

HIS LAST LETTER.

The Tooles referred to in the telegram are the family of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Toole, of Lincoln street. They heard from him three weeks ago by letter in which he stated that he was in perfect health and wanted for nothing necessary to his comfort. A letter was sent in response to this and later two others were despatched inquiring the reason for his failure to answer the first, but none of them were answered.

As he had mentioned in his letter that he would come on inside of a week or ten days it was taken for granted that he was expecting to answer the letters in person and in consequence no great alarm was felt on account of the failure to hear from him.

The news of his death came as a terrible shock to his friends and a sad surprise to the city where he was known personally or by reputation to everyone it might be said.

Mr. Ryder was born in Ireland thirty-eight years ago, coming to this country when ten years of age. After finishing his school education he became a teacher and later entered the newspaper field working first on the News-Dealer and then at the Record. He had an interruption of two years spent as a clerk in the prothonotary's office. Of recent years he has confined himself principally to special writing, editing the "Waterbury" column, which was regarded by his paper as its leading special feature and which won for him an enviable reputation as a wit and satirist. He also wrote some excellent verse and short stories and contributed many excellent articles for the periodicals.

SOCIETY CONNECTIONS.

For two terms he was president of the Catholic Total Abstinence union of the Scranton diocese. He also was honored with the presidency of the Wilkes-Barre Press club and served a term as vice-president and member of the board of managers of the International League of Press clubs. At the time of his death he was a prominent member of the Young Men's Institute and Grand Knight of the Wilkes-Barre council, Knights of Columbus.

MEETING OF HOME MANAGERS.

Considerable Amount of Routine Business Transacted.

The managers of the Home for the Friendless held a regular monthly meeting yesterday at the Home and transacted routine business. Mrs. W. D. Kennedy presided, owing to the illness of Mrs. C. P. Matthews. Mrs. E. F. Chamberlin acted as treasurer in the absence of Mrs. Taylor. E. B. Sturges, Charles Schlager and W. D. Kennedy were appointed as a committee to plan for the grading of the grounds. The following list of donations was read and thanked extended for them: Huntington's, Lindner's, Rohwaser's bakeries, quantity of bread, etc.; Dodge Mine Accidental fund, sandwiches; Clay Pipe club, quantity of bread, pickles and mustard; Mrs. B. M. Winton, Mrs. W. D. Kennedy, fruit and delicacies for the sick; Mrs. J. E. Carmalt, cake; Mrs. J. C. McClure, quantity of dishes; work of team and self, Mr. Oliver; Mrs. David Spruiks, condensed milk; Miss E. Evans, patterns; Miss Maggie Zeidler, barrel of bread, etc.; Mrs. Bailey (West Scranton), carpet rags; Jermyn & Duffy, Rice, Levy & Co., boxes of soap; A. D. Pierson, tomatoes; Mrs. Beck, boxes of crackers, cabbage; Mrs. John Genter, jelly, etc.; Luther Keller, donated bill, $48.25; E. J. Taylor, City Directory; Mrs. E. D. Churchill, reading matter; Mrs. M. D. Bird, quilt; Mrs. B. W. Watson, fruit and bread; Mrs. B. H. Pratt, Mrs. J.

J. Kline, Mrs. C. P. Davidson, Mrs. C. C. Rose, clothing; Mrs. W. H. Richmond, large quantity of vegetables and fruit; Mrs. B. M. Winton, Mrs. J. A. Robertson, vegetables; A Friend, quantity of corn; Mrs. Menzo Williams, vegetables; St. George's lodge, quantity of provisions, delivered by Thomas Arner; Boyle & Mucklow, six wash suits; Mrs. J. E. Carmalt, milk daily for sick; Consumer's Ice company, ice daily.

Dr. Sureth, Dr. Brewster and Dr. Stevens were in attendance. Total number in family, 62. Desserts were furnished by Mrs. William H. Pleyer, J. D. Williams & Bro., Mrs. W. W. Mason, Mrs. J. E. Carmalt; little chairs, fruit, flour. If some kind friend will send a few low chairs for the playroom at the Home for the Friendless, the generous friend will be much appreciated. Change is also sadly needed, as fruit for preserving and canning.

ANGRY RELIEF APPLICANTS.

They Became Disorderly at Yesterday's Poor Board Meeting.

At yesterday's meeting of the poor board Superintendent Beemer's report for the month of August was as follows: Inmate July 1; inmate admitted during month 18; burn during month 2; insane admitted during month 15; total, 409; sane discharged during month 15; insane died 1; sane died 1; remaining August 31, 411; classified, 127 males, 62 females, 180 insane males, 135; insane females, 128. Among the applicants for relief was Patrick Gilbride, whose plea for assistance has been more frequent than warranted. When told that the board could do nothing for him while he created a disturbance in the corridor and would not leave the building until threatened with arrest.

Another visitor created a disturbance because he was denied an audience with the board. Sen-tims ago he charged the authorities with the Hill-side home with retaining $30 which had been sent to him from England by relatives. At that time he complained to the board but was informed that the money had been sent as part payment of his board while a charge on the district. He stormed furiously yesterday when Superintendent Beemer told him the board declined to hear any further complaint from him.

Later in the afternoon he was seen telling his story to a representative of the news service. The board decided not to grant the request of the Associated Charities to furnish a pair of spectacles for an old man of the Seventh ward who appeared and made his plea in person.

IT WILL NOT DISBAND.

Stories About the Phoenix Company Are Without Foundation—Why the Inventory Was Taken.

Someone with a strong imagination has spread an incorrect report of a meeting of Phoenix Chemical company which does the company and Chief Hickey of the fire department an injustice concerning the meeting of Thursday night. It was stated that it was held behind closed doors; that the company was not in good grace with the chief; that it was common talk that the company intended to disband, and that an inventory of uniforms, etc., was taken in view of the probable disbandment.

Not only is there no truth in any of these statements, but there is no foundation for them. The meeting was held on the ground floor of the engine house, was open to all who wished to come, and a doorway in which non-members stood, means "open." No company in the city is on better terms with Chief Hickey than the Phoenix. The statement about the inventory and disbandment is ridiculous, the inventory was ordered for the same reason that nearly every company in the city has had or will have an inventory in order to properly account for uniforms, etc., previous to the approaching annual parade and inspection.

They have been in the same room for the action of the company several months ago in refusing to join the Firemen's Relief association as a body. There has been considerable discussion over the matter; in fact, it was discussed Thursday night and probably will be discussed at some time to come. But in justice to Chief Hickey and the company the latter's members protest against unwarranted rumors that the Phoenix organization will play the dog in the manger or forfeit its status and reputation by talk of disbandment.

HAD TO DO SOME WEIGHING.

Judge Archbald Called Upon To Decide a Delicate Case.

In the equity suit of Mary Lally against Mary Moran and her husband, Patrick Moran, Judge Archbald yesterday rendered a decision in favor of the plaintiff, accompanying it with a legal opinion. The matter in controversy was a $150 lot and house situated in Old Forge.

Mrs. Lally claims that she and Mrs. Moran, who is her first cousin, bought the lot in common from John Fallon eleven years ago, each paying $75. It was agreed that the deed should be made out in Mrs. Moran's name and that each should stipulate in her will that the other was to be her heir for her interest in the property.

Mrs. Lally managed the property, making the improvements, collecting the rents and paying Mrs. Moran her share of the proceeds. Four months ago Mrs. Moran waited on the tenants and had them make out a lease with her and proceeded to exclude Mrs. Lally from any share in the earnings of the property. To establish her claim to a half interest Mrs. Lally instituted the equity proceedings.

APPEAL FROM ASSESSMENT.

W. E. Thayer is Aggrieved at City Assessor's Work.

Another appeal from the city assessment, or rather from the decision of the board of tax revision and appeal, was made in court yesterday. The appellant, W. E. Thayer, sets forth that he is the owner of two

This Week Our Great Suit Store Holds Its Annual Fall Opening

WHEN the Ready-to-Wear Costume first appeared it was greeted with enthusiasm by thousands of women, who saw in it not only a saving of time, but a saving of money. But there were objections. The chief objection was a marked similarity of style. One costume was very like another, and the purchaser found herself duplicated at every street corner. Things are different now, and we have done our share in bringing about the revolution. The objection of duplication has not been fully removed as a whole, but it has been entirely eliminated from this store. There is no point in which we are so particular as in this matter of exclusiveness of style. The gowns you find here have no duplicates elsewhere. The first thing you'll notice will be the jaunty, snappy, tasteful, stylish air about them. The next thing will be the exquisite finish and detail of their manufacture, made as they should be made. Made as you like to have them made. The materials are Coverts, Broad Cloths and Cheviots, in the season's new shades. Most of the suits are fully silk lined, some tight-fitting, others in double-breasted or reefer effect. The skirts are made in all the new shapes.

Our showing of Separate Skirts, Jackets, Capes, Collarettes and Neck Scarfs is most complete.
