

LABOR DAY IN SCRANTON

Was the Best of its Kind in the City's History

P. RADE A BIG FEATURE

It Was Composed of Thousands of Organized Laboring Men and a Splendid Industrial Division, the Whole Requiring Nearly an Hour to Pass a Given Point—Big Crowds at Laurel Hill Park Afternoon and Evening—Speeches by National Officers and Local Orators.

Scranton had its biggest and best labor day yesterday. There was a larger parade and a parade of more varied and pleasing features than ever before...

Late last night when it was all over Martin D. Fiherty, president of the Central Labor union, P. J. Thomas, organizer of the American Federation of Labor, A. Langerfeld and others who with them bore the brunt of the early executive work were more than satisfied with the result of the day's programme.

Early in the day all the lines of the Scranton Railway company had their capacity severely taxed by the thousands of persons who came from outside the city. By 10 o'clock, a half hour before the time officially announced for the parade to start, every sightly spot and some that were not sightly, along the line of march was occupied, especially south of Linden street.

WHERE THEY FORMED. The marchers formed on Wyoming avenue and the cross streets north of Linden street. There was no more confusion that is usual in getting so large a mass of untrained men in their proper positions.

Following was the line of march: Down Wyoming avenue to Lackawanna avenue, to Eighth street, counter-marching to Washington avenue, to Pine street, to Clay avenue, to Laurel Hill park. Lack of proper police arrangements was the only thing to criticize in connection with the parade.

ORDER OF PARADE. Lawrence Band, Building Trades Council and Central Labor Union.

Carpenters and Joiners' Unions, Nos. 481 and 482. A. F. of L. Drum Corps of Camp 429, P. O. S. of A. Painters' Local Unions, Nos. 118 and 215. Lathers' Union, No. 651.

Master Horsehoopers' Association, Horseshoers' International Union, No. 78, Central Labor Union, No. 78, Industrial Division.

Scranton Woodworking Company, Hunt & Connell Company, Four Wagons, Lackawanna Laundry, Thirteen Wagons and Two Carts.

B. Siebecker, Grocer, Three Wagons. Helms' Pickles, One Wagon. E. Robinson's Sons, Brewers, Two Wagons. M. Robinson, Brewer, Two Wagons. Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company, Eleven Wagons.

NEARLY TWO MILES LONG. The procession was nearly two miles long and required about three-quarters of an hour to pass a given point. There were many interesting features to note in both the labor and industrial parts of the parade.

DAVID WALSH KILLED. Run Down While Walking on the D., L. & W. Track Near Taylor Body Terribly Mutilated. Yesterday saw another addition to the long list of unfortunate victims of the thoughtless act of stepping out of the way of one train into the path of another.

ANOTHER OBJECT LESSON. Morgan Harris Has a Remarkable Escape from Serious Injury. While lounging about the Jersey Central station in company with two other young men at 2:30 o'clock yesterday morning, Morgan Harris toppled over a railing and fell a distance of twenty feet without breaking a bone or sustaining any injury other than a few slight cuts on the skin.
