SPECIAL MEETING OF SELECT. Called for Tonight to Consider Repair of Asphalt Streets.

As already told in The Tribune, opposition to the excessive use of asphalt in the proposed resurfacing of the pavements promises to at least delay the awarding of a contract for the work and may result in specifications for stone block or brick on certain sections of streets.

There has been no meeting since Saturday of select council's special com-mittee, and the three city officials who have considered the matter in conjunction with the committee. All have re-ceived notice, however, of a meeting this afternoon at 3 o'clock when a report will be prepared for presentation at a special meeting of select council

The call for the special meeting was issued yesterday. It was signed by Roche, McCann, Shea, Melvin and Lansing, and says the meeting is for the purpose of considering the reof the special committee on repairing asphalt pave and passing upon any legislation recommended by

It is not certain that the committee will recommend the exclusive use of asphalt, aithough it will surely present the urgency of resurfacing cer-tain streets at once. The committee will report the estimated cost and suggest immediate advertisement for proposals to do the work.

Local brick men have not been idle since the proposed repair contract was first suggested. They have elicited the warm support of several councilmen who are pledged to advocate brick ex-

Celebration at Lattimer.

In commemoration of the Lattimer shooting of Sept. 15, a year ago, a large demonstration has been arranged Saturday at Hazleton. A parade will be one of the features.

ANOTHER MEMBER OF THIRTEENTH DEAD

TYPHOID FEVER THE CAUSE OF HIS DEMISE.

Private Alvin L. Evans, of Company C, Was the Victim and He Breathed His Last in Division Hospital No. 1 at Dunn Loring, Va .- He Was the Son of Mr. and Mrs. Jonah Evans, of Eynon Street-Just Reached His Majority-Death of Captain Stearns.

The following telegram was received last night from The Tribune's special correspondent:

Camp Meade, Middletown, Pa., Sept. 6 -Captain Robling, of Company C, rejor Cook, surgeon of Division hospital, No. 1, Dunn Lering, Va., notifying him that Private Alvin L. Evans, or that company, sen of Jonah Evans, of Eynon street, Scranton, had just died there of typhoid fever. This is the sixth death the Thirteenth has had since leaving home. Private Evans was too weak removed with other patients on any of the hospital trains.

Yesterday the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jonah Evans, of 922 Eynon street, were notified by telegram that their son was dead and the authorities awaited information as to the disposition of the remains. Only last week word was received from the soldier lad that he expected to be furloughed this week. on Saturday letters were received by the parents of other boys living nearby and no mention was made of Alvin's illness, His tent mate is home on a furlough egram said that the remains were in the receiving vault at the Arlington emetery in a plain coffin.

Friends telegraphed Captain Robling, of Company C, and confirmation of the death was sent.

The mother and sister are prostrated with grief and the whole neighborhood is disturbed. Hon, John T. Williams, of South Main avenue, had not heard from his son for a week. He left yesterday for Camp Meade.

The dead boy had attained his majority since his mustering in. He joined the company about two years ago and was a model soldier. Quiet, unassuming, steady and industrious, he made a friend and kept him. He finished his apprentice term in the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western shops last December and was popular with his fellow workmen and the bosses. He was a member of the shop Mutual Aid, Railroad Young Men's Christian association, and Electric City commandery, No. 177, Knights of Malta.

Born in the house where his parents still reside, he has always resided here. He is survived by the parents, one sister, Mrs. W. H. Fuller, and three brothers, Frank, Eugene and David. He was the youngest.

The remains are expected to arrive here tonight and Funeral Director P.

W. Tague will take charge. DEATH OF CAPTAIN STEARNS.

Captain Lazarus D. Stearns, of Company B. Ninth regiment, died yesterday at his home on South River street. Wilkes-Barre, of typhoid fever, contracted at Camp Thomas, Chickamauga. This makes seventeen deaths and a brigade clerk, the late T. P. Ryder, who was not an enlisted man. Lazarus Denison Stearns was born in Wilkes-Barre Dec. 27, 1875, and was a son of Irving A. and Clarinda Shoemaker Stearns. He was graduated Phillip's academy, Andover, from Mass., in the class of 1893, after which he entered Yale from which he graduated, in the scientific course, being a member of the class of '96. After the completion of his collegiate course he entered the employ of the Susquehanna Coal company, as coal inspector, his father being at that time general manager for that company. When the recent consolidation in the Hygiene Milk company was effected L. D. Stearns was elected secretary and treasurer In March, 1897, Mr. Stearns joined. as a private, Company D. Ninth regiment, then National guard of Pennsylvania. He was elected second lieutenant of Company B July 1, 1897, and on May 5, 1898, while the Ninth was at Mount Gretna, he was elected captain of Company B. Ninth regiment, Pennsylvania volunteers. In that office he served up to the time of his

He was a descendant of old and distinguished families. Elijah Shoemaker, who was killed in the Wyoming massacre, was his great-great-grandfather, as was also Colonel Nathan Denison, who, in conjunction with General Butler, commanded the force which defended Wyoming from the attack of Butler and his Indian allies. His grandfather on his father's side, George W. Stearns, was associate judge of Ontario county, New York. He was named after his maternal grandfather, Lazarus Denison Shoe maker. Dr. Shoemaker, of Wilkes-Barre, is an uncle of deceased. Besides the parents he is survived by one sister, Esther Shoemaker Stearns. The funeral will be held Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when services conducted at the house by Rev. Dr. F. H. Hodge. The funeral will be a simple one and no military feature will be connected with . Interment will be made in Forty-Fort cemetery. Captain Stearns was the youngest captain in the Ninth regiment, and was one of the youngest in the ser-

when he was run down by the Delaware and Hudson passenger train which arrives in Pittston at 6.36 p. m. The remains were badly mangled and death must have been instantaneous. Deceased was 35 years of age, and resided with his mother, who is a widow. He was a brother of P. J. Kelley, the Pittston eigar dealer.

N. Y., O. & W. OFFICIALS.

Reached Here Last Night on an Inspection Trip. A party of New York, Ontario and Western officials reached here last evening in a special car from New York city and will return this morning. They came on an inspection trip and had as their guest Joseph Price, an official of the London and Northwestern Railroad company, of England.

Last evening the party had dinner at the Scranton club where privacy and an exceptionally fine repast had been arranged for them by Steward O'Nelli. In the company were: Mr. Price, John B. Kerr, James E. Childs, Thomas P. Fowler, R. D. Ricketts and James C. Anderson, all of New York city; Edward Campbell and George W. West, of Middletown, N. Y., and one or two

WILL MAKE A FIGHT.

North Main Avenue Property Owners Are Determined to Have a Pave-Committees Named

North End property owners along the line of the proposed Providence road and North Main avenue pavement do not propose to allow the efforts in court to halt the improvement to be successful. At a meeting of the property owners held last night since Friday. He knew nothing of Al's in company H armory it was decided illness. Yet, he was dead and the telwith City Solicitor McGinley in opposing the equity proceedings instituted by property owners between Wood and Jones streets who explain their position by saying they want a sewer

> A committee with power to employ counsel was appointed and another committee was named to procure the necessary funds. A bill in equity has been filed in behalf of the sewerites. It must be answered on or before Saturday. Meanwhile an injunction has been asked because the work has not been started by the contractor, George McDonald.

A comprehensive idea of the situation may be learned from the remarks of M. H. Dale who attended last night's meeting. He is secretary and general sales agent of the Scranton Vitrified Brick company, whose brick is to be used on the work. He attended the meeting only as one interested in the outcome of the legal proceedings but was called upon to speak.

From Mr. Dale's remarks it was gathered that the contractor and the brick company had executed their contract for brick. The company has on hand 2,000,000 brick to be used in the work and has obtained the necessary dies and is arranging to make the pecultarly shaped brick which will lie next to the rail. The latter preparation has involved no little expense.

Mr. Dale understands that the contractor is to immediately begin operations-perhaps today-in order to determine the effect of the injunction proceedings. It is a matter of vital importance for the contractor to know whether the bonds to be issued in payment for the work will be good and than a nominal expense. It would clude a captain and first lieutenant hardly be possible to pave more than the distance between Green Ridge street and the square before cold weather, Mr. Dale thought. Concrete cannot be laid after the season of frost

> It was further stated that the Scranton Railway company had purchased the special type of rail the use of which is necessary in the new method of track construction to be followed. When Major J. B. Fish called the neeting to order about fifty persons were present. M. E. Saunders, a disinterested resident of the North End. was made chairman on motion of William Chappell. Attorney A. A. Vosburg was later made secretary,

> In response to Chairman Saunders' request for information as to the object of the meeting, Major Fish said it had been suggested by the proceedings instituted by the property owners between Jones and Wood streets who opposed the laying of a pavement between those two streets before a sewer had been laid. The grounds for the suit were based on alleged faulty construction of the ordinance and its irregular passage by councils, > Select Councilman Finn, in answer to a question by Chairman Saunders, said the ordinance, in his opinion, had been legally passed.

A motion that the chairman appoint committee of three with power to oploy associate counsel to aid the solicitor in the present litigation and to aid in every way possible a quick disposition of the case, was offered by Major Fish and adopted. Chairman Saunders appointed William Chappel, Walter B. Christmas and Patrick P. Jordon. Later two others, D. B. Atherton and Edward Roderick, were added to the committee on motion that it consist of five members. The first bit of applause followed ome lively comment by D. B. Ather ton. He said the North End had stood still for thirty years; it was standing still now, and would do so if the peo ple continued willing to live any longalong a thoroughfare of filth. They had the opportunity to get their main street paved and if they did not fight for it they deserved to live in filth

A financial committee of three, Major Fish, Charles Henwood and C. H. Von Storch, was appointed to procure fundfor employing counsel.

A motion presented by Rev. George E. Guild, that the North End councilmen be directed to introduce a new ordinance, if an injunction is made permanent, was adopted.

GRATIFYING GROWTH OF A LO-CAL INSURANCE COMPANY.

American Mutual Indemnity Company Began Business a Year Ago and Is Now Far Beyond the Experimental Stage-Arrangements Have Been Made to Thoroughly Organize This and Other States That People Generally May Have the Benefit of the Insurance.

A good illustration of the growing importance of Scranton in the business world is given by the American Mutual Indemnity company which was organized by business men of this city a little over a year ago. The company was chartered under the laws of Pennsylvania to do a general casualty insurance business and on September 1, 1897, without any fuss or blare of horns, began business in a modest suite of rooms in the Traders' National bank building. It was the intention of the company to give insurance at the lowest possible rate and at the same time guarantee absolute safety to the insured and to settle claims promptly and fairly and only to resort to litigation when absolutely compelled to do so. This policy has been strictly adhered to and as a logical result the business of the company is growing and expanding inside and outside of the state with great rapidity.

As an example of the promptness with which the claims of the company are settled one case may be cited. The company insures a Utica trolley company against loss from accidents on its road. Recently two trolley cars went through a bridge into a canal and thirty persons were injured, one fatally. An adjustor was sent to Utica immediately and within five days every case, in which damages were claimed from the trolley company as a result of this accident, were settled. Long and expensive litigation for the company and those injured was avoided.

GRATIFYING SUCCESS.

Although the company has been doing business only the short space of one year its success has been most gratifying to those interested in it. It has made the necessary arrange-ments with the insurance departments of Tennessee and Georgia to do business in these states and proposes to invade other states in the near future. The company's charter enables it to do business in Pennsylvania but before soliciting business in other states the rules of the insurance departments of such states must be conformed to. There is nothing to prevent a person living in another state from sending business to the local company, but before the latter can go into another state to look for business the incurance department must approve the company and the guarantee deposit which it makes. With a view to keeping apace with the substantial growth of the company which has $10,000 in assets and all claims paid, to show for its first year's business, the company has secured the services of W. C. Teter who has been engaged in the insurance business in the south and in the west. He will be the special agent of the company and after thoroughly organmarketable before he goes to more izing the state of Pennsylvania and establishing local agencies he will do similar work in other states. Those who are interested in the new com-pany are confident that the expansion and development during the next fev years will be murvelous and make Scranton known far and wide and be of material assistance also from the fact that it is the home office of the company. OFFICERS OF COMPANY.

At the head of the company are the ollowing well known business men: Hon. W. W. Watson, president; Elmer Lawall, vice-president: E. P. Kingsbury, treasurer; T. R. Brooks, secretary, directors: C. H. Zehnder, Charles Robinson, R. G. Brooks, W. W. Watson, Elmer H. Lawall, E. P. Kingsbury, Alfred Harvey, A. C. Fuller, W. S. Diehl, Dr. F. W. Lange and T. R. Brooks. If anything was needed to give the company a character for responsibility these names furnish it. As to the kind of policies the company issues the following will be of PETER T. MULLIGAN ARRESTED Gunners Accused of Threatening a Workman and of Other Things.

Peter T. Mulligan, a contractor, was held in $300 ball by Alderman Millar vesterday for threatening to kill Stephen Huydok, who waited upon him to ollect his July wages, Huydok earned $25.25 working for Mulligan at some excavating done for Colonel Boies. Mulligan failed to pay and Huydok sued him. Judgment was given for the plaintiff by default, but Mulligan came around a few days after the hearing and appealed the case to court. The poor ignorant Hungarian was left to whistle for his money. Alderman Millar says that there are half a dozen similar cases on his docket. In every one of them Mulligan took an appeal and sent the mat ter into court,
