QUESTIONS OF THE EVACUATION

DIFFICULTIES BEFORE THE CUBAN COMMISSION.

The Point of Agreement from Which Both Sides Start-Spanish Procrastination Likely to Open Many New Questions-Duties Levied on the Red Cross Supplies.

Washington, Sept. 7.-With the arrival of the Cuban military commission at Havana within the next few days the real work of terminating Spanish rule in the island will begin. It is realized that many difficulties will confront the commission in working out the details of the Spanish evacuation. The only point of agreement from which both sides start in is the clause of the protocol providing for the "immediate "evacuation of Cuba and other Spanish West Indian possessions by the Spanish forces. But the word "immediate" is a relative terms, and it remains to be determined when the actual embarkation of the Spanish forces is to be begun and under what circumstances the departure is to be conducted.

In some quarters it is felt that if the American commissioners confine the discussion to the essential question of evacuation the work can be concluded in two weeks. In other quarters it is, felt that Spanish procrastination is likely to open many incidental questions, each leading to a long controversy and division, with reference to Washington and Madrid for instructions, so that the actual sailing of the Spanish forces from Havana may not begin before next December or lat-

About 100,000 Spanish troops are scat tered through Cuba, it is reported Many of these are in the western provinces, only about 20,000 being in the For that reason it is being urged that the evacuation by the Spanish should begin at the east end of the island, working westward until Havana and the western end are included. In Santiago province only 8,000 Spanish troops are left. In Puerto Principe province next west of Santiago, there are about 12,000 troops. By getting those out of the island practically the entire eastern half of Cuba would be evacuated. That, it is said, would permit farming, sugar and tobacco culture to be resumed in a large and productive area.

WESTERN SECTIONS.

In evacuating the western sections it is held by those well informed of the situation in Cuba that the Spanish forces should not be concentrated at Great Bend. Havana, as they can be handled best In small sections at the numerous coast ports, such as Mantanzas, Sagua la Grande, etc. It is expected that the evacuation of Havana is to be last, as the large Spanish interests there doubtless will make the Spanish element most tenacious of their stay at the

If the commission confines its discussions to the time and places of evacuation it is felt, as said before, that the work will be comparatively brief. But the fear is that the Spanish commissioners will seek to bring up the question of the future government of Cuba the payment of the Cuban debt, the immunity of government reservations forts, prisons, etc., from forfeiture to the United States, the right of the Spanish troops to carry their arms and ials that the American commissioners to take up the manifold questions on the future of Cuba with which Spain will have no concern once the evacuation is accomplished.

Much will depend on the instructions which the state department has Dime matinee cally except Monday. given the commissioners, but it is believed that the orders guard against procrastination and an endless diplo matic collateral issues. It is expected that the first few sessions of the commission at Havana will disclose wheth er the Spanish policy is to be one of delay, or whether the immediate evacuation provided by the peace protocol is to be cheerfully and frankly carried

The despatches from Havana, saying that the Spanish authorities have levicled heavy duties on relief supplies, and Donnelly's part is played by Edward Gara fine of $500 on a Red Cross con- vie who, for the past five seasons, was signment, is not reassuring. They suggest that the Spanish will insist to the letter on the principle that Spanish sovereignty and authority in Cuba exist, and will continue until the peace treaty is signed at Paris. With that principle recognized, the depleted Spanish treasury will have the customs receipts for some time to come.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, Sept. 7 .- The bears got the upper hand very decisively in the stock market today and precipitated a more active selling movement than has yet ccurred. Torrents of stocks were dislodged on the decline and all the use-ful devices were emptied to give an appearance of inside selling. The final rally in the stock was only feeble, the last price being 5% below last night's closing. The demoralization in sugar affected the whole list, but especially the industrials, tobacco, the American Steel and Wire stocks, lead, Manhattan and Rubber all show sharp losses. The railroad list held out longer against the downward course, especially the Grangers, led by St. Paul. Railroads ultimately yielded, however, many of them showing losses between 1 and 2 points. Rock Island broke badly in the final dealings, showing an extreme decline of 1%, and the Pacific stocks were conspicuously weak on realizing in connection with the announced determination of Canadian Pacific officials to accept the decision of the inter-state ommerce commission against the difcrential in their favor on freight rates.

The total sales were 407,700. Furnished by WILLIAM LINN ALLEN
