CELEBRATED ANNIVERSARY.

The Father Mathew Society Was Organized Thirty Years Ago. The Pioneer Father Mathew society, as they are familiarly known, celebrated its thirtieth anniversary yesterday. Rt. Rev. Bishop Hoban, assistant bishop of the diocese, delivered an address appropriate to the occasion in St. Rose's church last evening. The church was crowded with persons anxious to hear the young bishop speak. He expatiated on the benefits to be derived from total abstinence and showed ample reason why everybody should abstain from the use of intoxicants. The discourse throughout was most interesting and delivered in true oratorical style which affected many of the listeners,

The peroration was exceptionally fitting and brought tears to the eyes of many. The society as well as the other T. A. B. societies of the city, attended in a body. "The Pioneer" is the oldest society of its kind in this section and the meeting last night brought back to many recollections of years long

THOMAS LESTER, PEDESTRIAN.

Thomas Lester, the champion pedestrian of this section, formerly of this city walked in Saturday from Jackson, Susquehanna county, where he resides. Mr. Lester is eighthy-three years of age and still hale and hearty, possessing all his faculties except his hearing, which is slightly defective. The old gentleman is well known in this and surrounding cities. He holds a num-ber of records for walking long diswhich he made when in younger days. He has issued a challenge to any man his age to walk him from here to Scranton and back. As yet none have accepted him as his merits as a pedestrian are too well known. He is known hereabouts as "Tom Lester, pedestrian."

FUNERAL OF J. H. BYRNE.

The remains of the late James H Byrne were entered Saturday in St. Rose's cemetery. A high mass of requiem was celebrated in the morning Rose's church. The Independent Order of Heptasophs attended in a body. Many persons from out of town were present at the services. The floral offerings were numerous and

HOME ON A FURLOUGH.

Messrs, Michael Mooney, James Nealon, Frank Histed, William Loftus and Barence Morgan arrived in this city rom Camp Meade Saturday morning. They are all members of the Thirteenth regiment and are home on a ten days furlough. The boys are busy shaking hands with their friends who are more than pleased to see them.

A CARBONDALE BIDDER.

M. A. Reynolds, of this city, was the successful bidder for the erecting of a borough building in Forest City. Mr. Reynold's bid was five dollars lower than the next highest bidder. Some technicality caused the council to decide to reconsider the bids which will be done at this evening's meeting.

SPOONERS TONIGHT.

The Spooners, Edna May and Cecil, will open their engagement in this city tonight when they will present the "Pearl of Savoy." The Spoonoers were always popular with this city's theatergoers and no doubt this week's visit vill prove no exception. Matinees will be given each afternoon, commencing
