ARE WILLING TO REMAIN IN SERVICE

RESOLUTIONS SIGNED BY MEMBERS OF COMPANY G.

They Declare That They Enlisted for a Period of Two Years and Are Bound by Honor as Good Soldiers to Remain in the Service and Not Embarrass the Administration by Asking to Go Home—Action of Officers Is Endorsed by the Men They Command.

The following letter received from company G, of Montrose, which is part of the Thirteenth regiment, P. V. I., now at Camp Meade, Middletown, indicates that the members of that company are willing to serve the entire period of their enlistment if the government decides that their services are needed:

Camp Mead, Middleton, Pa., Sept. 9.
Editor of The Tribune.

Dear Sir—The enclosed resolutions, which we request you to print in your paper, together with this letter, speak for themselves.

There are fourteen men absent from the company; three at Division hospital, two at Fort Myer, two yet on detail at Camp Alger, Va., five at the Medico-Chirurgical hospital, Philadelphia, Pa., two home on furloughs, leaving eighty-nine members to sign the resolutions. Out of that number seventy men signed, so you can see we are practically unanimous. We have no doubt that the folks at home will accord the organization the same support in the future as in the past.

(Signed) Richard A. Watrous,
Acting First Sergeant,
Company G, Thirteenth, P. V. I.

Our attention having been called to the numerous letters, articles and alleged interviews in the daily newspapers, reflecting discredit on our officers and patriotism of the enlisted men; we, the undersigned members of Company G, Thirteenth regiment, Pennsylvania Volunteer infantry, therefore resolve:

That in view of the fact that we offered our services to our country for a period of two years, we are bound by honor and as good soldiers to remain in the service and not embarrass the administration by asking to go home, believing that the government will respect the wishes of individuals whose future service would injure them or their families; furthermore, that it is as necessary to have an army of occupation as an army of conquest, and as much honor is due the one as the other.

That we endorse the action taken by our officers, especially our captain, R. J. McCausland. That the letters and interviews which have appeared in the several papers reaching camp are prompted solely by selfish desires and only work harm to the regiment and can have no sympathy in our feelings.

That the assurance our captain and colonel have given that those who have good reasons for staying home will be granted discharges, is commendable on their part.

(Signed) W. E. Roach, sergeant; Enoch Smith, sergeant; Richard Watrous, sergeant; Lee A. Taylor, sergeant; Charles F. Read, sergeant; Corporal Benjamin W. Clark, Corporal R. H. NOT CLAMORING TO RETURN.

What Lieutenant Murphy Has to Say About the Thirteenth Regiment.

Lieutenant Thomas Murphy, of company C, Thirteenth regiment, is home on a leave of absence. He speaks in the highest terms of praise of the new camp at Middletown and reports that the men are rapidly recovering from their sorry experience in the unhealthy camps of Virginia.

Referring to an Associated Press dispatch in Saturday afternoon's papers to the effect that "the Thirteenth regiment, to a man, is clamoring to be mustered out." Lieutenant Murphy said: "That and all other reports of that character are a base libel on our regiment. While it may be true that a majority of the men would prefer being mustered out to remaining in the service under the present prospects, it is not true that there is any general clamoring for dismissal. I can say for my own company that there are only three or four men who are in favor of asking to be disbanded. In company B, I am told, a petition was signed by a majority of the members asking that the command be retained in the service. Last week a corporal from a neighboring company came on C street to secure signatures to a petition to the president to have the regiment mustered out. He only escaped being tossed in a blanket by a fleety exit from the street.

"I am not prepared to say what percentage of the regiment is desirous of coming home but I can say that there is mighty small percentage in favor of asking to be sent home. The general trend of feeling among officers and men is that it ill behooves a soldier to expect his superiors to let him direct his own actions. Many of the men of the Thirteenth are anxious to go to Cuba or on some like excursion, many are anxious to come home, but only a very small minority are expecting to have their personal wishes in the matter considered. The Thirteenth regiment is at Camp Meade willing to do whatever is demanded of it."

CAUGHT WITH HIS BOOTY.

Wayne County Thief Arrested by a Scranton Patrolman.

With a quantity of stolen goods in his possession Asa Shaffer, of Varden, Wayne county, was arrested in this city early Saturday morning on Scranton street by Patrolman Hart.

The police department recently received notice that the residences of H. Rockwell and W. H. Moore at Varden had been robbed while the occupants were at camp meeting. A description of Shaffer was furnished. He was suspected of being the guilty party.

Patrolman Hart recognized Shaffer from the description of him given to all the patrolmen. When arrested he had a satchel which contained two watches, razors, revolvers, money, cigars and stamps. He confessed to having stolen them from the houses at Varden and said he had hidden other booty at his home. He was taken to Wayne county Saturday night.

STABBED IN THE NECK.

South Side Boy Narrowly Escapes Death from Loss of Blood.

An accidental knife wound in the neck nearly caused the death Saturday evening of Hugh Foley, a boy residing on Fig street.

Foley while among a crowd of boys held an open knife in his hand. A companion ran against him, forcing the knife blade into his neck. The wound cut into the carotid artery, causing the blood to flow profusely.

Foley was taken to Dr. Manley's office. Dr. Manley was not available, however, and Drs. Quinn, Roos and Fox were summoned. They succeeded in stopping the flow of blood and in dressing the wound. Foley will recover.

THEY NAME A TICKET.

Prohibitionists of the County Held a Convention in the Court House on Saturday Afternoon.

Less than half a hundred men assembled at the court house, Saturday afternoon, in response to the Prohibitionists' county convention call, and after the usual harmonious deliberations, placed the following ticket in nomination:

Congress—Freeman Leach, of Chinchilla.

Additional Law Judge—W. W. Lathrope, of Scranton.

Coroner—Dr. C. W. Treverton, of Scranton.

Surveyor—M. P. Mitchell, of Dunmore.

The selection of candidates for the state senate and legislature was deferred. These vacancies will be filled by the county committee or the senatorial and legislative district committees.

The convention was called to order by Dr. J. C. Bateson and opened with prayer by Rev. J. M. Howell. Permanent organization was effected by the election of A. G. Thomason as chairman and Rev. J. R. Fielding as secretary. Chairman Thomason, on taking his seat, made a speech, characterizing the political boss and the liquor traffic as twin evils, and inviting all opponents of these evils to join in support of the Prohibition platform, handed down from Mt. Sinai: "Thou shalt not steal."

On recommendation of a nominating committee, consisting of Dr. J. C. Bateson, E. F. Altemose, J. F. Lacoe, F. M. Koehler and J. F. Hangi, the following were named as the county committee for the ensuing year: Dr. J. C. Bateson, A. G. Thomason, W. W. Lathrope, Giles L. Clark, Charles L. Hawley, James Fielding, Ira Davis, E. F. Altemose, C. C. White, Pierce Butler, E. S. Williams, Freeman Leach, J. F. Lacoe, W. J. Emery, B. G. Morgan

W. W. Lathrope, P. P. Smith and Rev J. M. Howell submitted the resolutions. They declared that the suppression of the liquor traffic was the greatest political issue before the American people; denounced the army canteen; asked that the Thirteenth be disbanded and sent home now that there is nothing more than police duty to be done; arraigned the state administration as the most corrupt in the history of the commonwealth; denounced the "boss" system in politics, and after expressing the belief that the old parties in this country are composed largely of delegates who sell their votes to the highest bidder, extended a general invitation to all who are opposed to bosses and boodlers to join with the Prohibitionists in electing Dr. Swallow and the county ticket.

The only fight in the convention was on the nomination for judge. Mr. Lathrope tried not to get it and Alderman W. W. Williams, of Carbondale, did the opposite. Mr. Lathrope was persuaded to accept and Alderman Williams was brushed aside with a decision from Attorney C. L. Hawley that "learned in the law" meant that a man must be a lawyer and that a twelve years' experience as justice of the peace did not fulfill the requirements for the judgeship.

It was announced during the convention that Dr. Swallow would stop off in Scranton Wednesday afternoon on his way to Carbondale, Farview and Honesdale, where he is billed to make speeches. He will hold an informal reception in the corridor of the Jermyn between 3 and 5 o'clock.

OLYPHANT WITNESSES HEARD.

Contest Commissioners Sit in the Court House.

As is their custom on Saturdays, the contest commissioners held a half-day session in the arbitration room of the court house, examining witnesses from the First district of the Third ward of Olyphant. Today's session will be in the same place, that the attorneys may be at hand for the opening of the fall term of court. Tomorow the sittings in Carbondale will be resumed.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS WILL OPEN TODAY

ESTIMATED THAT 13,000 PUPILS WILL BE ENROLLED.

During the Summer All the Buildings Have Been Thoroughly Renovated and Repaired and Are in First-class Condition—297 Teachers Will be Engaged in the Thirty-seven Bildings and Seven Annexes. Permits Must Be Obtained for Pupils Who Do Not Enroll.

It is estimated that nearly 13,000 pupils will this morning report for study in the public schools of Scranton. The number will be about 700 greater than attended the opening session at this time last year.

The vastness of the public school system of a city of the size of Scranton may be appreciated from the statement that the city employs 297 teachers, including the force at the High school, and has 37 school buildings and 7 occupied annexes for overcrowded buildings. These figures show an average of about 44 pupils per teacher and 333 pupils per building, assuming that the seven annexes have a capacity of two average-sized buildings.

During the summer vacation all the buildings have been thoroughly repaired and renovated. Each pupil will have a single seat, the old system of seating two pupils together having been abolished in every building. Other improvements have been made gradually or recently until now no city in the country excels Scranton in point of general equipment, sanitary precautions and other arrangements for the mental and physical welfare of the rising generation.

NEW BUILDINGS.

No new buildings are to be opened tomorrow, although one, No. 3, in the Eleventh ward, is well under way and will be ready for occupancy about Jan. 1. During the last two years, however, the following modern and well-appointed structures have been built: Nos. 6, in the Eighth ward; 10, Nineteenth ward; 13, Fifteenth ward; 15, Twentieth ward; 15, Fourteenth ward; 19, Fourth ward; 23, Third ward, and 28, Thirteenth ward. The need of even more facilities is shown in the existence of one annex on the South Side, two in Petersburg, one on "the hill," one in the North End and two on the West Side.

There will be no confusion this morning in assigning pupils to their proper grades, as all the promotions were made at the close of the spring term. Each pupil knows which grade and room he or she will enter and this knowledge will save the teachers much trouble. During this week all pupils will be admitted without permits, but thereafter permits must be secured at the office of the superintendent of schools in the city hall. This rule is to prevent the overcrowding of rooms where the enrollments will be systematized this week.

Some of the buildings will receive in certain rooms more pupils than they can accommodate. This is the case every year, however, and the overcrowding will be overcome by proper distribution under Superintendent Howell's direction. The buildings which will most likely require his attention today and tomorrow are: No. 14 in the Fifth ward; 21 in the Second ward; 33 in the Ninth ward, and 36 in the Seventeenth ward.

FORCE OF TEACHERS.

The force of teachers is about the same as last year. The only change in a principalship is at No. 2 building, where William Fitzgerald succeeds Professor John P. Quinnan, retired. All the 1897 teachers, excluding the few who have resigned on account of removal from the city, retirement or marriage have reported, excepting Miss Amsden, of No. 36, and Miss Lizzie Evans, of No. 18. Miss Amsden is ill at Brooklyn, N. Y., and Miss Evans in Wales, where she went last summer on account of ill health. Their places will be occupied temporarily by Miss Burke and Miss Lulu Leader, respectively.

The office of the secretary of the board of control will be open at 7 o'clock this morning for the purpose of receiving contract signatures from teachers who have neglected this important obligation. To comply with the law it is necessary for a teacher to sign a contract before he or she can draw a salary. Before a contract can be signed, the teacher must show his or her certificate to the secretary of the board.

MATTERS NEED ATTENTION.

Select Council's Judiciary Committee Has Work to Do.

Quite a batch of important papers lie in the judiciary committee box of select council awaiting action by the committee. The members of the committee meet infrequently and an accumulation of matters needing their attention is the result.

The demand of the board of control through its attorney, D. J. Reedy, for an accounting of police court fines collected, has not been reported by the judiciary committee to councils. A recent letter from the attorney threatened legal action if the accounting was not paid.

Among the other matters awaiting the committee's attention are the following: A resolution directing the city controller to withhold payment to Contractor McNamara for work on the Sanderson avenue and Cherry lane sewer in the Fourteenth sewer district until the claim of Conrad Reihl is paid; an ordinance awarding $625 to T. B. Jackson, common councilman from the Thirteenth ward, for damages sustained by his property in the grading of Monsey avenue and New York street; an ordinance, supplementary to the plumbing inspector ordinance, providing for fees, penalties and permits in connection with the recently created office of plumbing inspector; the claim of D. A. O'Connor for damages sustained by his property on Robinson street between West Lackawanna avenue and Chestnut street; the claim of Ellen Burnham for $429, damages sustained by her property, corner of New York street and Monsey avenue, in the grading of the latter thoroughfare.

FATHER GARVEY MENTIONED.

May Be the Successor of the Late Bishop McGovern, of Harrisburg.

The Pittsburg Catholic says: "The question of a successor to the late Bishop Thomas McGovern, of Harrisburg, is being actively discussed. The leading candidate seems to be the Rev. Edward Garvey, of Williamsport. Others mentioned are Doctor Laughlin, chancellor of the Philadelphia diocese; Doctor Koch, the administrator of Harrisburg; Doctor Tierney, of Mary's, and Fathers Kaul, Barry and Donovan."

Rev. Father Garvey belongs to the Scranton diocese and ranks very high among the priests of the Catholic church for piety, learning and executive ability. He was prominently mentioned for the office of coadjutor bishop to Bishop O'Hara. He is a brother of Dr. Garvey, of Dunmore.

WANT THE BRIDGE CHANGED.

D. & H. Structure Occupies Too Much of Blakely Street.

Action against the Delaware and Hudson company for maintaining a nuisance in Blakely borough was begun Saturday afternoon before Alderman Kasson. The borough appears as prosecutor in the case and is represented by I. H. Burns. James H. Torrey appears for the company.

The company is charged with maintaining a bridge over a roadway near "Mott Haven," in the northern part of the borough. The roadway's natural width is fifty feet, but the bridge masonry occupies all but seventeen feet of that width, it is claimed. The bridge was built fifty years ago.

A Big Furniture Sale.

Almost a train load of furniture carefully arranged on the Fourth floor of the big department store of Jonas Long's Sons will attract thousands of visitors there this week, it being the first annual sale in that department. Several months ago Mr. Arthur Long, the resident partner of the firm, accompanied by the furniture buyer, Mr. Mandeville, made a tour of the great western furniture markets. The bigness of there purchases attracted widespread attention at that time, and they were deluged with requests from different sources to examine into particular lines. One of the biggest and best manufacturers of fine chairs had a particularly good line to dispose of at a sacrifice, and they are now a part of the great stock in the great store—bought at half their worth and to be sold at about the cost of raw materials. This is but one of the several instances that might be cited to tell of particular and unusual purchases that were made by these gentlemen while in the west, and it is not presuming to say that no sale of furniture has ever been held in this section of the state that will attract such widespread attention. The big announcement of the firm in this morning's paper will be read with interest by the thousands who value economy and who appreciate the efforts of the big firm in placing at their command the highest class of merchandise at the lowest possible prices **
