SOCIAL SESSION OF CAMP 333, P. O. S. OF A. IN MASONIC HALL.

Feature of the Affair was the Delivery by Past President D. J. Davis of Oration That Won for Him the Prize at State Camp-Electric City Wheelmen's Clam Bake-Valuable Horse Owned by Carson & Davis Injured and Had to Be Killed.

The social affair given last evening at Masonic hall by the members of Washington camp, No. 335, Patriotic Order Sons of America, was a complete success. It was given immediately after the close of a short business session and many friends and visiting members were present. Wilbur Bisbing acted as chairman.

The feature of the unusally excellent programme was the delivery of his prize winning oration by Past President D. J. Davis. It was the oration entitled "A Revelation of American Manhood," with which he won a beau-tiful gold medal at the state camp at York. Pa., in August, Mr. Davis' effort last evening was a splendid one and earned him hearty applause. Each of the other participants in the exercises were fully appreciated. Solos were given by Miss Rhoda Clark; duets were sang by the Misses May Jones and Anna Clark; several selections were given by the Anthracite quar-tette; recitations were given by Misses Geraldine Phillips, Mildred and Lillian Anthony. The exercises were opened and closed with patriotic songs

ENJOYED A CLAM-BAKE. Members of the Electric City Wheelmen met in regular session last evening in their club house on Jackson street. President Mears and Secretary Relph acted in their official capacities. Three new members, viz.: Dr. B. C Green, Frank Mansfield and Charles Marion were enrolled. The happy part of the proceedings was the announcement of the treasurer that all debts were cleared and a balance left, Chas, Paine was elected first lieutenant of

Following the conclusion of the business the members present were served with clams, etc., by the officers. This proved to be an enjoyable feature. A unique arrangement by Isaac Price, with gas pipes placed down the centre of the bunquet table kept the clams and sauce warm until eaten.

ST. CECELIA'S SOCIAL AFFAIR. The ladies of the St. Cecelia's Total Abstinence society conducted a social last evening in their rooms in St. David's hall, on North Main avenue. The affair was particularly for the ladies themselves, but brothers and friends, members of St. Leo's battalion, were invited guests. Miss Belinda Bolton presided and a short programme

The Misses O'Boyle, Theresa and L. Burnett, Thomas Ford and John Shaughnessy sang several solos. Miss Sheerin acted as accompanist and played a piano solo, as also did Miss Miss Jordan. Rev. A. T. Broderick, of St. Patrick's church, made a short address and in behalf of the ladies presented Miss Sheerin with a C. T. A. gold badge as a testimonial of their appreciation of her work in the society. Twelve new members were admitted

NEW SCHOOL OPENS TODAY. After considerable preparation on the part of the pastor, Rev. E. J. McHenry, of the St. David's Episcopal church, the new school of music, literature, etc., will be opened today. Only the department of music (vocal and instrumental), which will be in charge of Professor Clark Thomas, will be gotten underway to begin with, but later on as time and attendance permit the other branches will be placed in working order. The intention is to provide the younger members of the congregation and of the Sunday school, an opportunity of acquiring useful knowledge conveniently. The pastor has given the idea much thought and has been ably assisted by the church officials. In all instances the highest standard will be sought and it is expected that a hearty response will be given upon the part of those who will be directly benefited

Professor Thomas, who will take charge of the music, is an able and proficient instructor. He has resided here for many years and, though modest and reticent, has always had large classes of pupils. During the last few weeks, daily from 3 to 4 p. m., candidates for admission to the musical department have been examined and arranged in classes. It is expected that the beginning class will be a large Later classes in short-hand, bookkeeping, languages, literature, mathematics etc., will be formed and competent teachers engaged. The Sunday school class rooms will be devoted to the uses of the school.

MINER SEVERELY INJURED. Patrick Cadden, of 918 Scranton street, employed as a miner in the Bellevue coiliery, was painfully though not seriously injured yesterday morning shortly after beginning work for the morning shift. He and his laborer were placing a heavy prop beneath a weak place in the roof.

The spot the men were compelled to vork in was rather awkward to get at and the prop slipped from their grasp. The laborer got out of the way, but before Mr. Cadden could step back the falling prop struck his foot and badly crushed the member. Many of the smaller bones in the foot were broken and the flesh was lacerated. The injured man was assisted to his residence and Dr. O'Brien attended him. He will be unable to work for some time.

FUNERALS ON THIS SIDE. The funeral of the late William Huton was held yesterday morning from the residence, 210 North Hyde Park avenue, and many friends were in attendance, Many floral offerings were placed on and about the casket. Rev. S. F. Matthews, pastor of the Scranton Street Eaptist church, officiated and preached an eloquent sermon The hymn selections were rendered by a quartette comprising the Misses Margaret Jones and Elizabeth Thomas and Edwin Bowen and P. H. Warren. At the conclusion of the services the remains were viewed. They were taken to Montrose via the noon Delaware, Lackawanna and Western train for interment. The pallbearers were: Walter Northup. Virgyl Chase, William Bet-terly and W. Sprague Many friends attended the funeral

Patriotic Cantata "Our Flag" in St Mary's Hall Tonight-Funerals of Alferd Humbley and Evan J. Thomas.

"Our Flag." a patriotic cantata, will e produced this evening at St. Mary's hall on West Market street, by the members of the choir of the Wayne avenue Baptist church. Considerable time has been spent in rehearsals and a first class reproduction is expected. The principal parts in the cantata will be assumed by local vocalists of ability. Much attention has been paid to the costuming and a fine effect will thus be gained. The chorus parts will be supported by a chorus of eighty voices. The principals are Miss Norma Hughes, as Liberty; Miss Margaret Thomas, as Columbia: Richard Beitland, as Uncle Sam; David Smith, as Father Time; Mrs. C. Richards and Miss Margaret Richards as Daughters of Liberty; Charles Richards, a war

Polish Catholic congregation on Pros-pect avenue. Today at 1.55 o'clock Father Dembenski will leave for Blossburg, Tioga county, to become paster of St. Mary's Polish Catholic church. Three months ago he had an audience with Bishop Hoban, coadjutor bishop of the Scranton diocese, and made known his intentions of resigning his charge here. The resignation went into effect Monday. Rev. Andrew Zwcho- street; Mr. S. S. Martin, Mr. W. E. Pow effect Monday. Rev. Andrew Zwchowiz, of Glen Lyon, Luzerne county, will succeed Father Dembenski, and his predecessor at Blossburg will go to Glen Lyon. The parish at Blossburg was established twenty-three years ago and is the oldest and best Polish congregation in this diocese. The formal farewell given to Father Dembenski by his parishioners was held last evening on the spacious grounds surround ing his residence and the church. Andrew Woyshner was the chairman of the event. To the priest was imparted the knowledge that a committee was formed after he made the announce-ment of his departure to his flock, which went to Bishop Hoban and implored him to use every honorable effort to induce Father Dembenski to remain. Bishop Hoban told the committee it was their pastor's desire to leave. and all arrangements were made for his change. Father Dembenski responded feelingly to his parishioners He told them that it was pleasing to leave them under such pleasant circumstances. Father Dembenski closed by earnestly requesting his flock to ac-

A Tribune reporter waited on Father Dembenski at his residence after the meeting and to him the priest stated that his resignation was not due to the least friction with members of his congregation. ate here is wonderful. His congregation when he was sent from Hazleton to Scranton two years ago was in a state of chaos. The disgraceful scenes which were enacted on several Sunday mornings previous to his coming were the cause of nearly disorganizing the parish. Father Dembenski was placed in charge to restore peace and bring about many needed changes. When he issumed his post the debt on the church property was over $15,000. In one year $5,000 was cleared, and a new parsonage at a cost of $4,000 was erected and paid for. The balance now due on the big debt is but $3,000. The ladies' societies organized by Father Dembenski accomplish great good, The Daughters of America union council No. 4, conducted an ice cream social in Germania hall last night. The affair was liberally attended and a pleasant occasion ws spent. The committee in charge was composed of Mrs Warren Dunning, Mrs. Hattie Bochs piec, Mrs. Frank Tisdale, Mrs. Fred. Dickman, Misses Ina Daley, Fanny Miller, Pearl Loveland, Lizzie Penman and Lizzie Davis.

Mrs. Joseph Ryder and daughter, Esther, of Philadelphia, are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Saul, of Cedar
