THE COUNCIL MEETING.

The councils convened in joint session last night but transacted little business. The committee on light, fire and water were not ready to report on the adoption of a fire alarm, but stated that they favored the Gamewell system. A letter from V. H. O'Hara asking to be relieved from his contract was read and it was decided to reject all the bids, Mr. O'Hara's included, that were received in answer to the last advertisement. Professor Hockenberry was present and informed the councils that he did not sign the petition to have sewers put in on High street. His name was on the petition read at a former meeting of the councils, but he claims he did not sign it. No other business of importance was transacted. It is the same old story with the fire alarm system, Foreman Van Gorder of the committee reporting that they were not ready to make a selection. The councils will fool away another year before they know what they are about. The citizens have shown great interest in the matter by being present at the meetings.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING.

Director Moon was the only member absent at the special meeting of the school board last night. The session was called for the purpose of considering the rental of a room to accommodate the pupils who cannot find room in the High school, which is at present overcrowded. The project was discussed at length and several buildings were mentioned by different members as suitable for the purpose, but no selection was made. Mr. Hughes made a motion that the board procure a room suitable to accommodate the eighth grade pupils who can not be located in the central or No. 3 buildings. The motion was carried and the matter of furnishing the room was placed in the hands of the building committee, of which Mr. Colvile asked to be considered a member. Some other business of little importance was transacted, after which the session adjourned.

SPOONERS LAST NIGHT.

An immense audience witnessed the Spooners produce "The Little Maverick" at the Grand last night. The play was admirably presented by the company, each member of which is deserving of special praise. The Spooners have played to three of the largest houses ever drawn by any attraction in this city, and it only goes to show how deserving are their performances. The matinees are well attended. This afternoon will be no exception when "Becky Bliss, the Circus Girl," will be presented. Tonight a strong play is on the bill.

A boy named Cregan was struck by a street car on Belmont street yesterday afternoon. He was riding on a wagon and jumped off, running directly in front of the car. He was knocked to the pavement and received several bad gashes in his head. It is almost a miracle that he escaped being crushed to death under the car.

BURGLARS ABROAD.

Burglars tried to enter the home of Larry Coggins on River street early yesterday morning. They cut a large piece out of the screen door which was locked over the front door to the house. They awoke Mr. Coggins in trying to burst the door in and he frightened them off. Mr. Coggins looked out and saw two men running away in the darkness. He failed to recognize either of them or note anything by which he could do so.

At 3 o'clock Miss Mary Campbell, of Brooklyn street, and Michael Moran, of Pike street, were married at St. Rose church. The three marriages were the prettiest of the season and The Tribune joins with the many friends in congratulating the happy couples.

HIS HAND CRUSHED.

Frank Williams, a train hand on the Delaware and Hudson, met with an accident last night, which will incapacitate him for duty for some time. At about 8.30 o'clock he went between two cars to couple them and in doing so his right hand was badly crushed. Several fingers were so badly lacerated that it was thought amputation would be necessary, but such is not the case. Dr. D. L. Bailey dressed the wound.

RUBY LIPS.—And a clear complexion, the pride of woman—have you lost these charms through Torpid Liver, Constipation, Biliousness or Nervousness? Dr. Agnew's Liver Pills will restore them to you—40 Little "Rubies" in a vial—10 cents. Act like a charm. Never gripe. Sold by Matthews Bros. and W. T. Clark.

According to the novels of Richardson and his contemporaries, in the olden days men used to admire women who screamed upon the least provocation and fainted on all opportunities. Richardson's heroines were always toppling out of their chairs, falling in a "dead faint" in their lovers' arms, having their stays cut and their hands slapped, their temples bathed and their noses smelling-salted.

Both the women and the men have changed radically since those days. The modern man does not admire the fainting woman, neither does he marry her. If by chance he does, he is only a man, and lives to regret it. There is no reason why any woman should be a fainting woman. General bodily weakness and nervousness in women are due to weakness or disease of the delicate, special organs of the sex. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific and unfailing remedy for all disorders of this description. It imparts health and strength to the sensitive and susceptible organs upon which a woman's general health is largely dependent. It quiets and tones up the nerves, restores the vigor of youth, rounds out the emaciated form, imparts the glow of health to the complexion and transforms weak, sickly, nervous invalids into new, healthy, happy women. It fits for wifehood and motherhood.

"Words fail to describe my suffering before using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription," writes Mrs. Sallie Key, of Tampico, Granger Co., Tenn. "I had inflammation, irritation and profuse flowing and was very nervous and suffered terribly at all times. My feet and limbs were cold. I had palpitation of the heart, and my back was so weak that I could not turn myself in bed. The thought of food sickened me. My kidneys were very badly affected. I had been down six months. I could not sleep night or day and had given up all hope. My husband got me some of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. I took it for five months and at the end of that time could walk a mile and do all my own housework. I am sure I would be in my grave if it had not been for the 'Favorite Prescription.'"
