EARLY DEMAND FOR SEATS.

Many Anxious to Get Tickets for the Smith-Judge Contest. No better illustration could be had of the interest in the approaching Smith-Judge glove contest, than an incident of yesterday. Two-score or more of persons applied at the drug store of Loftus & Melvin for tickets, although it had been widely announced that seats could not be reserved before Monday.

There were several requests by telephone from Wilkes-Barre and Carbondale and one from Binghamton and many personal visits and telephone inquiries from persons in this city. They were told no seats could be reserved before Monday. All offers of money in advance were refused.

It was learned by officials of the American Sporting club that speculators intended purchasing a large number of the best seats. Orders were at once given that no more than five scats should be sold to one person.

Jack Skelly, manager of the club, eached here last night from Brooklyn. He was accompanied by Bobby Dobbs and the latter's cousin, Will Dobbs, Bobby was resplendent in a silk hat, patent leathers, gloves and a general attire that made persons walk tippye who saw him. He showed no evidence of his engagement with Billy Ernst in Brooklyn Thursday night. Articles for Dobbs and Joe Gans to box for the colored lightweight championship have been signed in New York by Jack Skelly for Dobbs and Al. Herford for Gans. The articles are witnessed by Bayard Brasher, of the New York Journal. The men agreed in consideration of a guaranteed purse of $1.-500 offered by any responsible club, with a privilege to work on the percentage olan, to box twenty-five rounds to a decision within six weeks after signing articles. They further agreed to weigh 125 pounds or under at the ringside on the day of the contest and posted with Sam C. Austin $250 to guarantee the stipulated weight. In case both are at the correct weight the $250 is to go as a side wager and in case either is overweight the one being at the stipulated weight has the privilege of taking the $250 and not box. They mutually agreed that a referee be named one week before the date of the contest. In case no club offers a guaranteed purse of $1,500 the principals agreed to have Morans Do Not Want to Remain in the Vicinity of the Recent Tragedy-Poor Board Gives Assistance.

At yesterday's meeting of the poor board, Mrs. Moran, of Miller's row, mother of the girl who accidentally shot and killed the Russell girl, asked the board for transportation for herself and daughter to Jersey City.

Mrs, Moran appeared to be very sad. As she answered the questions addressed to her, she plainly showed her grief over the distressing accident. She said her daughter had been almost heartbroken over the shooting and could not live in the vicinity of the occurrence any longer. On her account the family wanted to go to Jersey City. Mr. Shotten was directed to furnish

The Jewish New Year, 5659 after the reation, according to Jewish belief, began at sundown yesterday. The New Year's Day will end at sundown tonight. Until then Jewish business houses will be closed.

Services in the Linden street temple last evening were conducted by the rabbi, Rev. Dr. Chapman, His sermon was on the topic "Retrospection." During this morning's services, which segin at 9.30 o'clock, he will preach on the subject, "The Writing on the Wall."

The blowing of the ram's horn will be included in this service. It has a symbolic meaning jealously cherished by the Jewish people. The service will be interspersed with special music. is not generally known among Christians that the New Year's celebration is in the same tongue and after much the same ceremony as were used in Jerusalem in Solomon's day. This is true, however, and speaks much for the faith and steadfastness of the Jewish people who have seen the downfall of many generations of persecuting nations. Their celebration of Rosh Hoshanna now, 5659 years from its incep-tion, is an astounding evidence of loyalty and perseverance. On the 26th comes the Day of Atone, ment, the most important religious festival of the Jewish church. It is a day of prayer, fasting and service, services generally lasting the whole day.

Relations of Provisional Guard to the privilege, in four weeks, of with-Guardsmen at the Front. An interview had on Thursday by the Pittsburg Dispatch with Adjutant General Stewart is of local interest. Said the adjutant general: The work of celisting and arming men for the provisional guard has nearly been completed. By the end of the month it will have been finished. The organizing of these commands has been conducted with the express provision and under standing that the officers and enliste men who serve as the National Guard shall have their old positions back at the conclusion of the war with Spain. There seems to be an opinion that as soon as each regiment that volunteer for service in the United States army has en mustered out it will assume its original identity at once. #### Class Instruction in Music.

The conservatory system of class in struction in music is taught in all the conservatories of the world, notably the conservatories of Paris (founded in the last century), Berlin, Leipzig. Dresden, St. Petersburg (founded Rubinstein), Munich, Stuttgart, Cologne, and is indorsed by the greatest musicians of the world as being superior to private lessons. The following famous musicians have taught, or are now teaching in conservatories of Europe: Mendelssohn (founded the Leipzig conservatory), Moscheles, Rubinstein, Reinicke, Joachim, Kullak Tausig, Ehrlich, Jensen, Raff, Bargiel Gade, Guilmant, Dubois, Widor, Shearwenka. Klindworth and scores of others. The great master, Liszt, the greatest planist that ever lived, instructed in no other way: the same is now true of Madame Marchesi, the celebrated voice teacher of Paris. A prominent musician has said: "When I see how much better my class pupils play than my private pupils, I feel that I never want to give another private lesson. The class system is used in the Scranton Conservatory of Music because it is the best.

HOW REVENUE IS RAISED.

No Farmer, Laborer or Mechanic Pays State Taxes. Colonel Stone, at Williams' Grove.

Thestate revenue today is raised from taxes on corporations, taxes on money at interest, taxes on collateral inheritances, fees paid on writs, liquor licenses and taxes paid by merchants engaged in mercantile business. Not one foot of land in Pennsylvania paid dollar to the state; no farmer, no laborer, no mechanic nor any man following a profession contributes to the expenses of the state.

We began by taking taxes off the and, then from trades and professions then from horses, cattle, gold watches and carriages. The purpose and policy of the Republican party has been to emove the burden of taxation from the people and place it upon those who obtain some franchise or benefit from the state, and who can better afford to pay it?
