PROSECUTOR IN JAIL.

Settled with Assaultants and Refused to Prosecute. The police allege that Arthur Gregory, a young man who was held up and robbed on the West Side about two weeks ago, was given $50 not to prosecute the two men he accused of the crime.

Gregory and his two assaultants, Michael Walsh and William Durkin, were all arraigned before Alderman Millar yesterday.

Gregory was committed to jail on $100 bail in order to hold him as prosecutor. For Durkin $500 bail was furnished.

Gregory was with Walsh and Durkin on the night of the robbery, Sept. 8. The three started for home together, and while en route Gregory was knocked down by his two companions and relieved of $18. He made complaint to the police and had warrants issued for the arrest of his assaultants.

Later, the police say, Gregory agreed $50 from Walsh and Devine and agreed not to prosecute them. At all events they kept away from the police and were not rounded up until Monday night.

The three were locked in the West Side station house and brought to Alderman Millar's office for a hearing yesterday morning.

Walsh and Devine were quickly disposed of. Gregory could give no good excuse as to why he had not reported the case. He was held until late in the afternoon, and, not having secured bail, was committed to jail.
