

LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

VISITING MEMBERS OF THE P. O. S. A. ENTERTAINED.

Were the Guests of Camp No. 33 Last Night—Concert in St. David's Episcopal Church Was Greatly Enjoyed—Reception Given in Honor of Ebenezer Hughes, of Company D, Thirteenth Regiment, Electric City Wheelmen Spend an Enjoyable Evening.

The members of Camp No. 33, Patriotic Order Sons of America, which meets every Tuesday night in Redmen's hall, had as their guests last evening sixteen members of a sister camp, No. 61, of Wilkes-Barre. Following the conclusion of the regular business of the evening a short entertainment was carried out.

Mrs. Randolph Jones presided as chaperone. Solos were sung by Mrs. Jones and Calab Evans. R. Reese gave a comic recitation and Benjamin Evans a whistling solo. Solos were given by the Orpheus Glee club under the direction of Tallie M. Evans and also by the vocal quartet. Addresses were made by Herman Van Why, state conductor and Miss Stella Freeman, district president of Luzerne county.

Refreshments were served by a corps of ladies from camp No. 33. The visiting members were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Graf, Miss Stella Freeman, Helen and Grace Freeman, Tilda Brown, Mrs. Lon Widler, Mrs. Norman Van Why, Thomas Houser, Herman Houser, Miles Keltner, Robert and Edward Horn, H. E. Graf and Mrs. Hannah McDermott.

EXCELLENT CONCERT.

An excellent concert was given in St. David's Episcopal church, corner of Jackson street and Bromley avenue, last evening. The attendance was very large and the scattering quality of the feature room was taxed. Rev. E. J. McHenry, the rector of the church, presided. The special feature of the programme was the selection "Boat Song" rendered by the Orpheus Glee club. This club comprises in its membership about twenty-five young men of this side and is directed by Tallie M. Evans, a rising young leader. Mrs. Myrtle Siebert and David Smith acted as accompanists.

A piano duet was given by Mrs. Myrtle Siebert and Prof. Clark Thomas. Calab Evans and Robert Evans sang several selections. Miss Minerva Hopp gave several of her whistling solos in her usual imitable style. Miss Maud Fisher gave a selected recitation. John Gull played a piano solo and he and his sister, Miss Margaret Gill, played a duet. Miss Rita Dunkerly also played a piano solo.

RECEPTION FOR SOLDIER.

Private Ebenezer Hughes, of Company D, Thirteenth regiment, was tendered a reception at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Alexander Phillips, 119 Epron street, last evening. The affair was of the nature of a farewell for his return today to Camp Meade. In addition to other pleasant diversions, dancing was enjoyed. A large unoccupied hall in the rear was used for the purpose.

Music was provided by Joseph Hughes, James Morrison and Daniel Williams. Several selections were rendered during the evening by the Anthracite quartette. Mrs. Phillips was assisted in receiving and serving by the Misses Rachel and Mary James. There were about eighty guests present, among them being Timothy Jones, John Andrews, of Company D, and Lemuel Phillips, of Company F, comrades of Private Hughes.

FIRE CAUSED BY GASOLINE.

John Brothers hardware store, at 102 North Main avenue, was the scene of a small fire yesterday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock, which at the start promised to be a very serious one. Byron Hibel, an apprentice, was engaged in cleaning a stove in the rear of the shop and was using a paste in which gasoline was mixed.

In some manner the escaping fumes of the gasoline became ignited and flashed up. The young man seized the can of paste and ran out through the door to the street. Before he reached the door the can became so hot to hold and he tried to pitch it through the half open door.

The can struck the door jamb and burning paste was kicked about the entrance. Young Hibel kicked the can into the street and attempted to put out the flames. Two young men, Collins and Morgan, by name, standing near, pulled off their coats and in a few minutes had beaten the flames out. No particular damage resulted, except to the coats.

ASTHMA CURED AT LAST

DR. R. SCHIFFMANN PROVES HIS FAITH IN HIS REMEDY BY GIVING IT AWAY.

Dr. Rudolph Schiffmann is a recognized authority on the subject of throat and lung diseases and has, during a practice of over thirty years, undoubtedly treated and cured more cases of Asthma and kindred diseases than any doctor in the world. He announces that he has at last perfected a remedy which not only instantly relieves the worst attacks, but has permanently cured thousands of so-called "incurable" cases.

Dr. Schiffmann has perfect confidence in his remedy and in order to convince others of its merits in the quickest, surest way, he has arranged with the well known druggist, Matthews Brothers, of 370 Lackawanna avenue, to give a liberal sample vial to each sufferer applying at their store next Thursday. An opportunity to test, without cost, a remedy so celebrated and promising so much, certainly should be eagerly grasped by every sufferer. Those living out of town will be sent a free sample not later than September 30th by writing simply name and address on a postcard and sending to Dr. R. Schiffmann, 317 Rosabel St., St. Paul, Minn.

Dr. Schiffmann is at Syracuse university, Syracuse, N. Y., where he intends taking a course in law.

HAPPENINGS OF SOUTH SCRANTON

OUTLINE OF WORK OF THE Y. W. C. A. FOR THE SEASON.

It is of a Nature to Greatly Benefit Those Who Avail Themselves of the Association—Miss Jennie Morton Tendered a Surprise Party at Her Home on Fig Street Monday Night—Forty Hours' Devotions Close Today in St. John's Church.

The approaching season with the members and energetic workers in the Young Women's Christian association of this side will be more interesting and valuable than any of recent years. Miss Anna Van Nort, the retiring secretary, has returned from her vacation, spent at Northfield, Mass., and Middletown, N. Y. The much needed rest from her arduous duties enables Miss Van Nort to resume her work with renewed activity. The principal feature of this year's labors will be the educational classes, which will be held two evenings each week instead of one session a week, as last season.

The success of the course of the instructors was so gratifying the last term that it was decided at a recent meeting of the board of managers to place the work on a more advanced and specially strong basis. The several branches of the taught will be in charge of Miss Anna Rankin, of public school No. 8; Miss Martha Dyer, of No. 36; Miss Amelia Helm, of No. 3, and Miss Weinschank, of No. 13.

Miss Mame Clearwater, a student at the Scranton Business college, will be the instructor of penmanship. One night of every week will be devoted to classes in gymnasium exercises. This will be one of the number of new features to be introduced. It will be the direction of the physical instructor of the central city association, Miss Maud Milled.

Professor Derman will have charge of the classes in singing. The Loyalty club and the Juniors will resume their weekly sessions the first week in October with a large increase in membership.

The initial social event of the year will take place in the rooms tomorrow night. The occasion will be "A Northfield evening," and is appropriately termed from the fact that it is at Northfield, Mass., that the annual general conference of the associations of the country are held. The programme to be carried out will consist of the singing of college hymns, talks on the trip to the conferences and the work of the Young Women's Christian association. The local association at Northfield last and this year will be the speakers. Elaborate decorations will be arranged in the parlors and meeting room. Music and refreshments will close the evening's pleasure.

Tuesday night of the coming week the annual committee dinner will be given commencing at 7 o'clock. It will be attended by the several committees and the board of managers. The chairman of the committees will be called on to give a short talk outlining the work which it is proposed will be taken up during the year. The programme for that affair will be of an informal nature. Thursday night of next week the educational reception will be held, and an excellent array of pleasant numbers will constitute the programme. Mrs. E. H. Ripple, president of the central city association, will make an address. The Lawrence orchestra will furnish the music.

Miss Mame Clearwater will resign her position as assistant secretary Oct. 1. She will be succeeded by Miss Daisy Huber, of this side. The gospel meeting Sunday afternoon will be led by Captain May Thompson, of New York city, connected with the American volunteers. The members of the association will enjoy a trolley ride Saturday afternoon, starting at 4 o'clock from the corner of Pitston avenue and Maple street. The trip will embrace all the city street car lines.

SOCIAL AFFAIRS.

Miss Jennie Martin was tendered a surprise party at her home, 211 Fig street Monday night. The occasion was one of much pleasure to the guests and the hostess. Those in attendance were Misses Margaret Collins, Emma Martin, John Keener, George Worthner, August Rahr, Jacob Smith, Charles James, Charles Routhier, Emil Kolb, George Andrews, Andrew Miller, William Poul, Alfred McCormack, Frank Doud, Jesse Paul, James Walker, John Pinger, Frank Wenz and George Hartman.

Mr. and Mrs. August F. Kraft, of Alder street, gave a reception last night to the members of their Sabbath school classes of the Hickory tree Presbyterian church. The affair was held in the rooms of the Y. W. C. A. on Cedar avenue, and was in honor of the marriage of the esteemed couple, which took place two months ago. The guests numbered sixty-five young women and men.

NEWS OF NEWS.

Mrs. Justina Hall, of Locust street, was the defendant in an assault and battery charge referred by her husband, Joseph Hahn, the hearing being conducted in Alderman Leiser's court. Hahn in his testimony stated that he has been subjected to cruel treatment at the hands of his wife, and on Saturday last she beat him severely. Several neighbors of the Hahns testified that the wife was justified in thrashing her husband. The alderman dismissed the case, telling the prosecutor he should have better sense, and that it was his duty to let her be at large with her partner. The advice, apparently, was well taken and the crowd went away rejoicing.

Forty Hours' devotion services at St. John's Catholic church will conclude this evening with the celebration of a high mass at 8 o'clock. Last night Rev. M. H. Lynnott, of Jermyn, preached.

Thirteen years ago yesterday Mr. and Mrs. John Phillips, of Hotel Bonar, were married. The happy event was quietly commemorated last night in their rooms in the hotel. The guests were members of the two families and immediate friends.

The Century Military company will meet for drill practice tonight at 8 o'clock.

The funeral of Miss Lulu Castles took place yesterday afternoon from the home of her father, John Castles, on Palm street. Rev. F. P. Doty, of the Cedar Avenue Methodist Episcopal

ASSOCIATED CHARITIES.

Regular Meeting of the Board Was Held Last Evening. At last night's regular monthly meeting of the Associated Charities, business of only an ordinary kind was transacted. There were present: Colonel E. H. Ripple, president; Rev. Rogers Israel, secretary; D. J. Phillips, treasurer; W. Gaylord Thomas, J. R. Cohen, T. J. Kelley and the agent, Mrs. W. B. Duggan.

The report of D. J. Phillips showed a total expenditure of $1577 since the last meeting, and a balance of $28.98. The report was approved.

Mr. Gibbons, of the committee on employment, reported that the number of idle men seemed to be decreasing. He had received few applications from men who wanted work. There seemed to be, he said, a greater demand for workmen than a few weeks ago. He was told by a local coal operator that the latter needed forty laborers and was having difficulty in securing them.

The report of the agent contained the following: Cases investigated since last meeting, 44; transportation for 5, employment for 6, lodging and meals for 5, to Lackawanna hospital, 2; to Hillside Home, 2; to Florence mission, 1; to Home of Good Shepherd, 5; to relief of the city cases, 4; arrested for non support, 2; to chief of police, 2.

The agent made a special report on the case of a man in the jail who refuses to permit his wife to draw the $50 due him from the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company. The wife is supporting herself and children as best she can. Power to secure the order from the husband or to obtain the money by other means from the company was given the agent.

It was announced that the annual meeting of the board would be held during the first week in October.
