QUAKER CITY REPUBLICANS

DAVID MARTIN NOMINATED FOR STATE SENATOR.

The Secretary of the Commonwealth Makes a Speech in Which He Promises to Make Things Lively for His Enemies in the Legislature If Elected.

Philadelphia, Sept. 22.-The Republican convention today nominated the following ticket: District attorney, P. F. Rothermel, Jr.; recorder of deeds, John Virdin; controller, Captain John M. Walton; coroner, Samuel H. Ashbridge; clerk of quarter sessions, Henry Brooks; judges of orphans' court, William N. Asman and Clement B. Penrose; congressman, first district; General H. H. Alman: twenty-sixth district McCiellan Hersh; twenty-seventh district, Adam C. Ackerman, George W. Williams.

The county ticket went through smoothly and without opposition, but emy there were several vigorous contests for some of the congressional and state legislative offices. Rothermel, Virdin and Brooks are new men. The others are renomina-

MARTIN'S SPEECH.

Secretary of the Commonwealth Martin, who was nominated for the state senate, made a significant speech of acceptance in the course of which would not take any nomination for public office, but when the crusade was made on me by the senate of 1895. which threatened to drive me out of politics and ruin my reputation, the thought came into my mind that there would be a chance for me some day to strike back, and I promise that if elected I will, on the floor of the senate, and in the presence of some of the men who tried to ruin my character men who tried to ruin my character sayings by a company of unusual merit, and reputation, fling back into their in the list is Miss Ada Rich, Miss Lada teeth the scandal that they tried to Dexter, prima donnas, all the comedians cause, and show to the citizens of my native city that a politician can be as honest as any other man. I will vote and work for the good of the whole people, and I desire to impress on the minds of the delegates in this convention that I am a Republican, and will vote with my party on all party questions. I am not pledged to any one for any place and will make no promise until after I am sworn in as a senator at Harrisburg. I will not Vote to cut down the school appropriations; I will not vote to pay the expenses of the Lexow committee; I will not vote for any of the expenditure bills that were vetoed by that honest governor now at Harrisburg nor will I vote for any of the bills that were passed by the last legislature and vetoed by Governor Hastings."

The liveliest fight of the day was for the senatorial nomination from the Fourth district, where J. Bayard Henry, on an aggressive anti-Quay platform, defeated Harry D. Beastor by a vote of 104 to 59. Mr. Henry will succeed C. Wesley Thomas, a strong Quay man, who is now collector of th

There was another close contest between James Rankin Young and John Reyburn for the congressional nomination in the Fourth district, Mr. Young winning by a handsome majority. He is the present incumbent, having defeated Reyburn for renom-Ination two years ago.

Nearly all the legislative nominees are said to be favorable to Mr. Quay's return to the senate.

In the Twenty-seventh district, however, a hard contest resulted in the selection of Laubach and Allen, who were both instructed to vote, if elected, against Senator Quay.

ket was largely given over to what are known as the specialties. There was an upward rush of prices in these stocks at the opening but the evi-dence of weakness in sugar, which dominates the specialties, quickly brought realizing sales. The tone was rather heavy and at times somewhat feverish for the rest of the day. Movements of individual stock were very erratic and the market was excessively irregular. The railroad lists were rather sluggish and resisted the depression in the specialties, except for few stocks. The total sales were $58,
