YEAR'S PLANS OF THE ASSOCIATION

WORK THAT THE Y. W. C. A. WILL UNDERTAKE.

There Will Be a New General Secretary and a New Physical Director. As Usual Considerable Attention Will Be Paid to the Educational Classes and to the Chautauqua Circle-Outline of the Religious Side of the Association's Work.

In the main, all details for the coming season's work of the Young Women's Christian association are com-There still remains, however, a few mirer details which will be settled upon in the course of a few weeks. Miss Doersam, office secretary, is now at work preparing a schedule of the work. This schedule will be issued some time next week. After the long summer term of vacations, excursions and picnics, all seem anxious once more to return to the routine of Sunday meetings, educational classes and gymnasium. Several new faces will be seen from the general secretary down to the sev-eral instructors of the educational lasses. Those who are to be in charge this coming season are all highly recommanded and there is every prospec that the season of '98-'99 will be still more successful than previous years. The first work of the year will be the resumption of the Sunday afternoon neetings. Tomorrow afternoon at 3.45 clock a gospel missionary meeting will be held. Considerable preparation has been made and it is intended that the meeting shall be very interesting and instructive. Miss Carrie Bonnie will be in charge. Tuesday after-noon, Oct. 4, a gospel rally will be held, of which Mrs. E. H. Ripple will have charge

WEEK OF PRAYER.

The schedule for the week's meetings has not been prepared, but will be announced some time previous to the beginning. This week of prayer will conclude the special gospel work, but from time to time during each week and every Sabbath afternoon the regular gospel meetings will be held.

On Friday evening, Sept. 20, an educational rally will be held. The attention of all young women is especial ly directed to this meeting which is to be an interesting one. Miss Frances McAlpine, who will be superintendent of education, will preside and will address the meeting. The preliminary work of forming classes, etc., will be considered. The exercises will begin at 7.30 p. m.

Though no person has yet been engaged, several have been approached and one or more will undoubtedly consent to address the young ladies at lunch hour Friday, Sept. 30. The address will be specially devoted to the educational work and its beneficial results. It is expected that some person prominent in educational matters will speak upon this question that day. general routine in the educational work will be much the same as in previous years. So far not any of the assistants to Superintendent McAlpine have been engaged but many are under onsideration and announcement will be made later. For the '98-'99 season the same days and hours for classes in the gymnasium, which opens Oct. 3, will be followed. However, a new physical director will be in charge. Miss Katherine E. Hilis, last year's physical director, is succeeded by Miss Maud Mickel, of Buffalo. Miss Mickel comes accused of basely abusing his wife and | well recommended, being a graduate of Dr. Anderson's school of physical cul-ture, at Hartford, Conn. She will be at the association rooms Monday, Sept. 6. ### VISIT TO JIM JUDGE.

Party of Scrantonians, Accompanied by Sharkey, Saw Him at His Training Quarters Yesterday.

In Excellent Condition.

A large party, of which Tom Sharkey, the sailor pugilist, was one, went from Scranton vesterday to visit Jini Judge at his training quarters, near Carbondale. They found Judge "so hard you couldn't drive a nail in him," according to a statement made by Sahrkey, while talking about the trip. Judge has ideal training quarters at Nick Glenn's establishment, opposite Anthracite Park, Simpson. It is about twenty minutes' ride from the busi ness part of Carbondale. Back of the hotel is a large hand ball court. A gymnasium well equipped with pull-y weights, indian clubs, dumb belis punching bag apparatus and other things essential to the training of a professional athlete is contained in a arge and airy room over a dancing hall attached to the house. Inside Anthracite Park enclosure is a good track and an excellent field. The fine mountain roads, which abound in that re gion complete the facilities afforded Scranton's popular welterweight in his preparation for Monday night's contes with "Mysterious Hilly" Smith.

La yesterday's party of visitors were Sharkey, F. F. Forbes, of the Republican; Will Malia, of the Truth; James O'Toole, of the Times; R. J. Beamish. of the Sunday Free Press; Charles Grogan, of the Elmira Telegram; John McCourt, of the Sunday News; J. J. Coleman, of the Scranton Newspaper union; John McDonough, of the Scran-ton'an; Ed. Whalen, of the bookmakng firm of Murray & Whalen; Charles Waldron, manager of the company now at the Gaiety theater, where Sharkey is boxing, and a Tribune representa-

When they reached the training quarters, about 11.20 o'clock, Judge and his trainer, Bobby Dobbs, were rest-ing after going through a brisk moraing's outdoor work. Judge was asleep and Willie Dobbs, Judge's professional rubber and attendant, was putting things to rights in the gymnasium. Monday and Thursday evenings from After being introduced privately in his room to Sharkey, Judge came downstairs and greeted the remainder of the delegation, nearly all of whom were known to him. A dinner of great vitriety and excellence was served the company under the direction of Mrs. Glenn, whose expert cookery offers another good reason for Judge's choice of training quarters.

At 1.30 o'clock, about an hour after he had caten. Judge began his work in the gymnasium. He worked fifteen minutes with the dumb bells, indian clubs and pulley weights; fought the punching bag three rounds, and, without taking a long breath, would up with five three-minute rounds with Dobbs. The concluding bit of exercise was one of the fastest and hardest bouts one is privileged to witness in a professional boxer's quarters. When it was over Judge was apparently as fresh as when he opened the afternoon programme.

Sharkey lost no time in showing his appreciation of Judge and the exhibition he had given. To those about him, Sharkey said that if Smith wins from Judge he will win from about as good a man as it is possible to develope in the welter weight class. He said Smith was the stronger of the two, but did not excel the Scrantonian in real deverness, agility and hitting power. Pefore leaving, Sharkey and Dobbe discussed the arrangement made by he former's manager, O'Rourke, with Jack Skelly, Dobb's manager, whereby Dobb and Sharkey will spar three exhibition rounds at the Galety theater tonight. As a piece of recreation, Judge will probably come to Scranton to see the bout.

EHRGOOD JURY IS HAVING A FIGHT

HAD NOT REACHED AN AGREE-MENT LATE LAST NIGHT.

Doings of the Day in Common Pleas Court-Suit Instituted to Test the Title to Chapman Lake-Young Married Couple That Had a Brief and Stormy Career-Another Appeal from the City Assessment.

Up to a late hour last night the jury in the case of E. J. Ehrgood against the Moscow Water company had not reached an agreement. They went out at noon on Thursday and nothing has been heard from them since then, except at 4.30 o'clock Thursday afternoon when they came in to get some light on the concluding portion of Judge Love's charge, which, apparently, was misunderstood by one of the jurors.

The jury in the case of C. P. Jadwin against H. E. Hurley also gives evidence of being in dissension. It went out early yesterday afternoon and was still deliberating at a late hour last night.

In the case of B. P. Huffling against Malvina Street the jury yesterday re-turned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff in the sum of $40. Huffling was a tenant on Mrs. Street's property and built a barn, with the understanding, so it was alleged, that Mrs. Street would buy it when he moved off the premises. She denied this and suit was brought to recover the value of the barn. The plaintiff claimed it was worth $120, but the jury though one third that amount was sufficient recom-

In the Springer case the jury is not listening to arguments of Major War-ren, of counsel for the plaintiff. The case will probably get to the jury before noon today.

TO TEST A TITLE.

Among the new suits instituted yes erday was one to test the title to Chapman lake, in Scott township, where the Jermyn and Rushbrook Water company secures its water supply.

Hon. Alfred Darte, of Wilkes-Barre is the plaintiff. It appears that both he and the water company hold deeds for the one hundred and eighty acre plot containing the lake. Attorney G. J. Clark, of Wilkes-Barre, represents he plaintiff. Another appeal from the city assessment was filed and allowed. The appellant, E. A. Smith, complains that his property, at 724 West Lackawanna avenue, is assessed at $2,900 this year, while last year it was only $1,950, the $950 increase being ade without the property being improved any in the meantime, E. W. Thayer and J. E. Watkins are his attorneys. The case partment at the proper time, will be heard this morning at 9 o'clock, with the others that are pending. Two divorce cases were among yes

They were married November 25, 1890, and lived together until January 1, 1894. M. J. Ruddy is the libellant's attorney. In the criminal libel case of Rose E

Depuy against F. J. Fitzsimmons, ignored by the grand jury at the cost of the prosecutrix, application was made by E. W. Thayer, attorney for Mrs. Depuy, asking that the costs be remitted and the case submitted to the next grand jury for a rehearing. Court granted a rule to show cause why this should not be allowed, returnable at argument court.

John F. Reynolds, J. M. Stuart and J. S. Robinson were appointed viewers to assess the cost and damages of widening Church and Canaan streets in Carbondale.
