LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

HISTORY OF WASHINGTON CAMP, NO. 333, P. O. S. OF A.

Organized a Little Over Ten Years Ago It Has Had a Very Successful Career—Names of the Charter Members and the First Officers of the Camp—Scranton Railway Company Is Putting in Connecting Link on Its Road to Providence.

Washington camp No. 333, Patriotic Order Sons of America, which has now reached its tenth year, is one of the most prominent of the younger fraternal societies in West Scranton, the "Section of Societies." The camp has passed through many vicissitudes during its ten years of life, which would have destroyed one less stronger.

On the evening of June 6, 1888, a meeting was held in Co-operative hall, on North Main avenue, for the purpose of considering the organization of a new camp. At that time there was only one such camp on this side, and that was Washington Camp No. 178, which still exists as one of the strongest lodges in West Scranton.

This extraordinary meeting was well attended and the presiding officer of the Lackawanna-Western district, W. H. Coons, presided. From this meeting, with its enthusiasm, it was only a step to the organizing, and on June 8, 1888, there was instituted a new camp, known as Washington camp No. 333. The ceremonies were held at Masonic hall, and continuously from that date every Tuesday evening the camp has held a session in this hall.

There were forty-four charter members enrolled that evening. Officers for the term, which is six months, were: president, Eli J. Davis; vice president, L. L. Stanton; master of forms, B. R. Anthony; recording secretary, Louis Schoen; financial secretary, J. P. Harris; treasurer, C. Hornung; conductor, W. A. G. Giesler; inner guard, F. E. Jones; outer guard, J. Wilson; trustees, for eighteen months, Bert Scott, and for six months, B. R. Anthony.

The charter members were: E. J. Davis, J. H. Reynolds, Orlando Utter, J. S. Crawford, R. H. Hobbes, A. G. Giesler, W. W. Abbott, C. Hornung, C. W. Coons, Louis Schoen, William Lyman, Jacob Wilson, Elmer Stover, W. C. Vosburg, Bert Scott, J. J. Washburn, B. R. Anthony, Richard Williams, J. H. Wasieleski, C. Corless, S. L. Stanton, H. T. Page, F. E. Jones, E. L. Crawford, S. A. Hartman, D. M. Jones, C. S. Holbert, B. E. Thomas, E. T. Bailey, John Gudekunst, John Groves, J. P. Harris, Fred Rittenauer, John Roberts, Charles L. King, T. G. Giesler, Daniel Robertson, D. T. Barr, William Klinger, H. E. Ferber, Frank Woodruff, J. S. Piper, D. J. Harris and S. B. Adkins. The majority are still members in good standing.

The camp now has 120 members in good standing, and has had as high as 125 during the ten years. During its life the camp has only been called upon but three times to perform the ritualistic burial service for a dead member. These deaths are: John H. Woodruff, William Jenkins and H. A. Woodruff. Few lodges, proportionately as old and as large, have as low a record of deceased brethren.

From the camp's membership the district presidency has been filled five times during the ten years. The feature of giving a prize for activity at the state camp was only instituted four years ago. David J. Davis, a member of the camp, has captured the first and second prizes in two consecutive years. He carried off first prize the first year. The other prizes were won by members of other camps.

When a call for volunteers was issued the camp sent its quota—six compared with other lodges of equal numbers. Four members were taken but one was released for a slight physical deformity of the hand. The other five are still in the service. They are: Archie Bisling, past president and a member of Company B, Thirteenth regiment; Private Edward Edwards of Company F, same regiment; and Fred Giesler of Company K, Ninth regiment. In addition the nucleus of a company was formed from camp members if necessity arose to require them. This was mostly among married men of whom the membership is largely composed.

During the past fiscal year $1,029 was paid out in benefits. The camp is worth approximately $1,000. The present officers are: Junior past president, Samuel Jones; president, J. W. Gritman; vice president, L. L. Stanton; master of forms, B. H. Holbert; recording secretary, W. H. Harris; financial secretary, W. B. Bisling; treasurer, E. E. Knapp; conductor, W. J. Sutton; inner guard, Fred Back; outer guard, Jasper Webster. It ceases for eighteen months. D. J. Davies, for twelve months, Samuel Jones; for six months, I. A. Daniels.

The initiation fee is $3, and any American-born, white man, between 16 and 25 years of age, is eligible to membership. The camp meets regularly every Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in Masonic hall, North Main avenue. All members of the order are welcome.

PUTTING IN CONNECTION LINK.

Just at present the aim and desire of the Scranton Street Railway company's policy seems to be earnestly directed towards keeping their promise as far as West Scranton is concerned. Their latest move in this direction is the putting in of the missing link of straight traffic on the North Main avenue line, via West Scranton.

The company tried, unsuccessfully, to cross the northern division of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad tracks at what is known as Tripp's crossing. In this they were unsuccessful, and for sometime have been allowing passengers to walk across the tracks from terminus to terminus.

Early this year a large tract of land was opened up into building lots. This tract lies directly back of the Tripp homestead and, of course, approaches as far as West Scranton is concerned. This was the opportunity for the Railway company, and they promptly embraced it. Permission was obtained to run into this new territory, and by crossing beneath the grade of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western tracks return to North Main avenue. Of course, the route is thus lengthened, but there is no delay, and beside a large territory of residences is thus tapped and a patronage guaranteed.

THEY WANT TO TELL

These Fraternal Women Who Have Been Helped by Mrs. Pinkham.

Women who have suffered severely and been relieved of their ills by Mrs. Pinkham's advice and medicine are constantly urging publication of their statements for the benefit of other women. Here are two such letters:

Mrs. LIZZIE BEVERLY, 255 Merrimac St., Lowell, Mass., writes: "It affords me great pleasure to tell all suffering women of the benefit I have received from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I can hardly find words to express my gratitude for what she has done for me. My trouble was ulceration of the womb. I was under the doctor's care. Upon examination he found it very large, and he failed to do me any good. I took several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, also used the Sanative Wash, and am cured. Mrs. Pinkham's medicine saved my life, and I would recommend it to all suffering women."

Mrs. AMOS THOMBLEAY, Ellenburgh Ctr., N. Y., writes: "I took cold at the time my baby was born, causing me to have milk legs, and was sick in bed for eight weeks. Doctors did me no good. I surely thought I would die. I was all so troubled with falling of the womb, I could not eat, had faint spells as often as ten times a day. One day a lady came to see me and told me of the benefit she had derived from taking Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine, and advised me to try it. I did so, and had taken only half a bottle before I was able to sit in a chair. After taking three bottles I could do my own work. I am now in perfect health."

through the Tripp land tract is as follows: Leaving North Main avenue, at this side of Tripp's crossing, at Passaic, a new street running west from North Main avenue one proceeds to Summit avenue, some distance north of the Tripp mansion; thence along Summit avenue to the Tripp culvert, where passing under the Lackawanna and Western railroad tracks and following the new street along the east side of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western tracks, the return to the junction with North Main avenue, just south of the Tripp crossing, is made.

The work of laying the tracks along this route was begun Thursday morning, and a large force of men being employed, will be rushed through before winter sets in.

DOOR BOY INJURED.

Martin Heffron, of Luzerne street, is employed as a nipper in the Hampton mines, his duties consisting of opening and closing a big door when trips of cars are taken in and out of the "branch" on which the door is placed. This position is considered a responsible one. Heffron was badly injured in an unexplainable way Thursday

He had opened the door for a loaded car to pass and the car had gone almost by when the driver heard a yell. He stopped his car as quickly as possible and ran back. Heffron was lying motionless and bleeding from a bad rash on the head and minor cuts about his neck and face. The injured lad was removed to his home, Heffron thinks he leaned too far out and a piece of "topping" caught him and threw him down.

FUNERAL OF HIRAM STARK.

The funeral of the late Hiram Stark will be held tomorrow afternoon at the residence, 213 North Main avenue. The services were in charge of Rev. S. E. Matthews, pastor of the Scranton Street Baptist church. At the conclusion of the service the remains were viewed and closing a big door when trips of cars are taken in and out of the "branch" on which the door is placed. This position is considered a responsible one. Heffron was badly injured in an unexplainable way Thursday

HAPPENINGS OF SOUTH SCRANTON

SOUTH SIDE SEWER BEING USED AS A BLIND.

That Is the Charge Brought Against Councilmen Who Favor a Bond Ordinance—"Northfield Evening" at the Y. W. C. A. Rooms Attracts an Interested Gathering of Members and Friends of the Association—Night Watchman Employed by L. I. & S. Company is Assaulted and Brutally Bent.

In the event that the proposed special bond ordinance, now being considered by a special committee of councilors, is presented to be voted upon at the coming spring election, the promoters will find considerable opposition in this part of the city. The story of the fight being made against it is interesting, and Harry Klumizer, of Pittston avenue, in an interview with a Tribune reporter last night, made sweeping assertions against councilmen of the city whose names he did not mention. He said:

"The councilmen and other politicians, who are exceedingly anxious to feather their nests by having the bond ordinance voted upon favorably at the spring election will find that the game they are engaged in will result disastrously for them. Why is the work of constructing the new sewer not commenced? The reason is this: Fully ten councilmen have gone to Lunn Brothers, to whom the contract was given, and asked them to delay the work as they are eager for the success of the construction campaign in tending to blindfold the people of the South Side by telling them that the only way the sewer can be built is by voting for the ordinance and that the money needed will be provided by that measure."

"One of the Dunn Brothers told me this," Mr. Klumizer continued. "The clever dodge will not be a success, and we will fight those scheming ward politicians to the bitter end."

"It is an outrage that the long-suffering and patient people over here must be the subjects of more suffering in order that the ambitions of a few may be realized. The money that was intended for the sewer, I understand, is to be used on the North Main avenue pike."

"This statement that the contractors are waiting for the arrival of pipe is all bosh. They have had sufficient time to get enough pipe to sewer the whole South Side."

The organization of the forces against the bond ordinance will ensue in a short time, and it is intended to place the fight on a substantial footing.

NORTHFIELD EVENING.

The Young Women's Christian association rooms, on Cedar avenue, were crowded last night by the members and friends at the opening event of the fall and winter season. The occasion was a "Northfield evening," and was a delightful affair.

It is at Northfield, Mass., that the annual conference of the Young Women's associations of the country are held. The programme carried out last night was given by the delegates from the central city and South Scranton associations, who were in attendance at the conference at Northfield, this year. The room was decorated with banners, with the inscriptions "Scranton," "Northfield" and "Pennsylvania." American flags were placed to good advantage with the banners.

Miss Anna Van Nort, secretary of the South Scranton branch, presided. The opening number was the singing of the national association hymn.

Miss Anna Rankin, a delegate of last year, from this side, told of the pleasures of the Northfield trip. Miss Mary Gowan, delegate of the year of the central city society, spoke of the Bible classes held during the conference. Miss Lizzie Stahlheber, who was one of the representatives from this side a year ago, gave a glowing description of "College Day" in Northfield.

Miss Jessie Hagen, this year's delegate, was entertaining in her talk of the receptions at Round-top, and the twilight meeting held there. Sketches of the scenery at Northfield were shown. Miss Van Nort gave the closing talk. She told of the work which will be done at the next conference. The concluding number was the rendering of the hymn "Saved by Grace."

This afternoon the members of the association will enjoy a trolley ride, starting from the Scranton avenue and Maple street at 4 o'clock. The trip will embrace all the city street car lines.

Miss Mary Thompson, of New York city, a captain in the Volunteers of America, will deliver the Gospel meeting tomorrow afternoon.

BRUTALLY ASSAULTED.

Charles Hoffman, of the Nineteenth ward, who is employed as night watchman at the shops of the Lackawanna Iron and Steel company, on South Washington avenue, was brutally beaten on a Sunday morning by three men.

Hoffman was on his usual tour about

INSTANTANEOUS RELIEF FROM ASTHMA

Has Been Afforded Many Sufferers in Scranton.

If there was doubt in the mind of any sufferer from Asthma in this city as to the truth of the claims made for Dr. Schiffmann's Asthma Cure, that doubt is no longer remaining, providing he was among those who called at Matthews Brothers' drug store, last Thursday, and obtained a free sample package. A great number who have already tried the same doctor's medicine testify that relief was instantaneous; that the wretched spasms were checked; that free expectation was induced; that a reclining position was readily assumed and gratefully maintained; that the sleep which followed was restful and unbroken, and that the morning brought a clear head and a feeling of delighted thankfulness which no words are too strong to describe.

Abundant voluntary testimonials prove that Dr. Schiffmann's Asthma Cure not only gives instant relief in the worst cases, but has positively cured thousands who were considered incurable. The remedy is now sold by all druggists in packages of 50c, and 10c, thus bringing it within the reach of all. Should any reader be unable to obtain it of his Druggist, it will be sent, postpaid, by sending to Dr. R. Schiffmann, 216 Rosabel street, St. Paul, Minn.

THE PLACE WHEN THE THREE MEN SPRANG ON HIM FROM BEHIND A PILE OF IRON.

It was quickly gagged and a severe beating was given him. The men jumped on Hoffman's body and kicked his head and face.

A heavy blow on the head made Hoffman unconscious. When he regained his senses it was daylight. He was able to walk home, but later in the day his condition demanded the attention of a physician. It will be several days before Hoffman will be well. The motives of the men who beat him cannot be understood. There was no attempt made, as far as can be learned, to identify the three men. Mr. Hoffman says he knows of nobody who would assault him for personal reasons.

MISS ROBINSON IMPROVED.

Councilman Robert Robinson received a cablegram yesterday from his mother, stating that she, her daughter, Lenahan, and sons, Otto and Edwin, had arrived safely at Lauterbach, Germany, from Carlsbad, Austria. Miss Robinson, who was alarmingly ill at Carlsbad, is improving, and her complete restoration to health is quite assured. The party will leave for home Tuesday of next week.

MISS GIBBONS ENTERTAIN.

Misses Theresa and Anna Gibbons, of Pittston avenue, gave a dancing party in Pharmacy hall last night in honor of their cousin, Thomas Casey, of Company D, Thirteenth regiment, who is home on a furlough. The affair was most enjoyable and was attended by a large number of the representative young people.

NUBS OF NEWS.

John Hehn, one of the boys mentioned in yesterday's Tribune, and for whose arrest warrants were issued, was arrested by Lieutenant Zang yesterday. He was arraigned before Alderman Lentz. At the hearing it developed that the names given for the other four boys were incorrect. Hehn refused to tell who his companions were in the mischievous work done. He was released for a further hearing today, when the desired information will probably be given.

The Century Hose company met in special session last night. Arrangements for the trip to Lebanon were completed.

J. George Fruehan, of Hickory street, who has been employed at the pharmacy of McGarrath & Thomas, in the central city, will leave Monday for Philadelphia. He will pursue a course of study in medicine at the University of Pennsylvania.

Andrew Hayes, of the Thirteenth regiment band, is home on a furlough. John May and Richard White, of Prospect avenue, have returned from a trip across the ocean.

Patrick McHale has accepted a position with Jordan & Connolly, the liverymen.

Of the new clothing firm of Richards, Wirth & Lewis, of the central city, George Wirth, of Pittston avenue, is a member. He has been connected with the business several years, and is well and favorably known among the people of this side. Mr. Wirth succeeded Chief Hickley in common council, and is an active member of the Scranton Athletic club, Fourteen Friends, Washington Camp, 430, P. O. S. of A., and other societies.

Mrs. T. B. McClintock, of Jefferson avenue, is spending a few days in Philadelphia.

Mrs. B. S. Lewis, of Marion street, is seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Garrett, of Sanderson avenue, are in Honesdale.

Albert Barry, of the United States Engineers, stationed at Porto Rico, is home on a furlough.

The New Government club will hold its regular meeting at Nettleton's hall this evening.

CRYSTAL HOSE WAGON.

It Has Just Been Rebuilt at a Cost of $275.

Practically a new apparatus has been made out of the Crystal Hose wagon which was so badly damaged in the collision with the Phoenix Chemical wagon two months ago.

The wagon has been rebuilt at a cost of $275 at Gould's wagon works. It was inspected by the chief of the fire department yesterday. He will recommend its acceptance.
