SABBATH SCHOOL TEACHERS.

The Protestant Sunday school teachers met in the Presbyterian lecture room last night and discussed the les sons to be given to the Sunday school pupils during the month of October. he session was well attended and afforded much valuable instruction to the teachers. Several papers, which treated on the subject of teaching, were read during the course of the conference. "The Essentials of the Teaching Process" as read by W. W. Fletcher, was a very interesting part of the programme. A. C. Purple's essay on "The Kings of Judah" was delivered in excellent style and elicited many favorable words of commendation. After the reading of several other papers. all of which were more or less instructive and interesting, a short social was held, during which the teachers of the different churches were made acquainted with each other.

HOME FROM CUBA.

Thomas Lunney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Lunney, of Main street, arrived home from Camp Wickoff yesterday afternoon where he has been lying ill for some time. He is a member of the regular army and was with them in Cuba, where they took part in severparing to hold a benefit and it is hoped al engagements. He has completely that one and all will help the boys to recovered from his illness and bears no scars from the skirmishes in which participated. He has a poor idea of Spanish marksmanship,

AT ALDERMAN JONES'.

Two young females from a neighboring village were up before Alderman Jones yesterday morning. The girls had been out for a time and had ordered a bottle of champagne, not knowing that the price of it is quite high. After drinking the wine they refused to pay the amount demanded by the walter, and he accordingly had them arrested. They were fined two dollars and a half each and allowed to depart.

MILLINERY OPENING.

Three Great Exhibition Days.

During which time the most magnificent collection of Trimmed Hats ever gathered together will be on view. Every one of them the personification of style, elegance and grace, bearing the stamp of originality in design and perfection in art,

We Command Leadership in Millinery

Because the combined output of our two big stores in Scranton and Wilkes-Barre is greater than all the other stores together. Our Mr. Edward Long has devoted his life to the study of fashion. Surrounding him is a corps of the ablest associates and assistants that money and brains can procure. Our show rooms are the finest in the state. Very few houses in America are as well equipped as we.

Paris, London and Berlin Come to Our Own Show Rooms

Thus do the fashions of the world congregate here and mingle with our own creations-so near alike as to be twins. And no matter what your hat requirement may be, whether for every day wear or for the swellest of functions, price will be found absolutely lowest, for we lead in lowness of prices as strongly as in height of style.

As Millinery Marks the Season's Opening=-

So Do Other Departments Don Autumn's Garb

And our display throughout the store on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday next will be worth a journey of miles to see. Under this massive roof is gathered an unequalled collection of the World's Finest Merchandise. Not a season's novelty but what is first shown here-a matchless, inconceivable array that we shall take great pride in showing to you.
