EVEVLIN JONES HAD A NARROW ESCAPE FROM INJURY.

Run Down by a Horse and Carriage While Returning from School—Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Miller Entertained Friends at Their Home on North Main Avenue—Rock Drilling Contest Has Been Arranged for Oct. 8 That Promises to Be Interesting. Personal Notes of Interest.

Evelyn, the young son of Rev. H. S. Jones, D. D., had a narrow escape from injury after being knocked down by a horse on West Market street yesterday afternoon. The boy had just been dismissed from school, and with a number of youths ran across the street. An approaching horse and carriage coming at a fair rate of speed escaped his notice and he was knocked to the ground.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Miller, of North Main avenue, entertained a party of friends at a reception held at their pleasant home last evening. The occasion was one of great pleasure for all present. The guests were: Alma Clancy, Bertha Clancy, Jennie Fields, Minnie Kiese, Lizzie Davis, Rachel Davis, Rachel Evans, Cora Harvey, Mattie Huntman, Hannah Davis, Mrs. Fred Phillips, Mrs. Irwin, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Freas and Messrs. Fred Hartsell, Harry Danvers, William Iger, William Lewis, Theatras Knos, Thomas Evans, William Evans, Edwin Evans, Bert Kiese, Benjamin Thomas, Alvin Morgan, Harry Freas, Harry J. Danvers, John Payne, Richard Ascott.

ROCK DRILLING CONTEST. The sweeping challenge for a rock drilling contest, issued by David John and William Nichols, local experts, through The Tribune some time ago, has been the cause of matching Messrs. Nichols and John with Lewis Beavan and George Dixon, of Miners' Mills, in a rock drilling contest for a purse of $100.

TOLD IN A FEW LINES. The Christian Endeavor choir will meet for rehearsal in the Providence Presbyterian church this evening at 7:30 o'clock. Ted Fritchard, of Court street, has gone to a hospital in Buffalo for treatment. Miss Margaret Moran has returned from a long visit with relatives in Syracuse.

department is called to the condition of the sewer basin in front of the Bristol house. Lack of cleaning has left the refuse standing and the unbearable gases which arise from the matter is causing many people to leave a hasty retreat to escape it. It should be renovated at once. Misses Bertha Reese and Gertrude Harris, of Taylor, were the guests of Miss Marie Thomas, of Spring street, yesterday.

DUNMORE. For the past three or four weeks a gang of boys have been raising considerable disturbance along Drinker street, the neighborhood of Allison's hotel. The officers have grown on various occasions and had chased them several times. Last night they were still at it and Officer Hoover gave chase and managed to catch them on farms, being conspicuous. His father interceded and after trying the boy a severe talking to Burgess Powell allowed him to go home. This will probably be the means of breaking up the gang.

LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

FLAG RAISING AT NO. 13 SCHOOL THIS AFTERNOON.

Programme of the Exercises That Has Been Arranged—Alvin Conklin Had His Right Wrist Fractured—Members of St. Brenden Council Held a Progressive Euchre Party—Change in Service on the Swetland Street Line—Personals and Minor News Notes.

From a high point near public school No. 13, of which David Owens is principal, a beautiful flag 20x30 will be unfurled to the breeze this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with appropriate exercises in conjunction therewith. Long have the preparations for this event been under way and ably have the pupils of the school, from the primary room up, seconded the efforts of Principal Owens toward procuring this beautiful emblem.

Each pupil and teacher subscribed and a fund of $52 was raised. The flag was purchased and Tuesday an eighty-four foot pole was erected and today the long-looked-for event of unfurling will occur. The pupils of public school No. 22, of which H. S. Morgan is principal, have been invited to participate and will attend in a body. The exercises will be very interesting. Principal Owens will act as chairman and the several teachers under him will assist.

CHANGE IN SERVICE. Owing to the necessity for a re-arrangement for the time schedule of the newly-extended and extended lines of Swetland street and North Main avenue, respectively, a new time service has gone into effect on these lines. This change caused a rumor that the old "sawing" time would be introduced on all lines, but this is not so, as was stated by a prominent street railway official.

LOST CHILD FOUND. The little four-year-old Polish lad, who was missing by his parents early Tuesday morning, was discovered yesterday morning at Duryea. The parents reside at 91 Robinson street, and were almost distracted. As was stated in yesterday's Tribune, the lad left home in company with two Italian lads of about his age, and whose parents reside in the same building.

MAN'S STRANGE ACTION. Patrolman Collins arrested a young man on West Lackawanna avenue last evening who was acting very strangely. After being brought to the West Side station house the young man gave his name as William Van Horn, and said his wife resided at 85 Keeffe street, Elmira, N. Y.

SCHOOL BOY'S ACCIDENT. Alvin Conklin, 15 years of age, was severely injured yesterday at No. 13 school just before the calling of the afternoon session. As a result of the accident, his right wrist was badly fractured. Dr. F. C. Hall set the broken member.

IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN. "Murder! Help! I am being killed!" and similar yells of distress awoke the echoes of Jackson street, near its intersection with Robinson street, last evening about 9 o'clock. Instantly a curious crowd congregated.

PERSONAL MENTION. Mrs. R. S. Storm, of South Main avenue, is visiting friends in Waverly, Pa. Bruce Hartman, of Benton, Pa., has returned home after a visit here with friends.
