CITY NOTES

OFFERS OCT. 15.—Sportsmen will remember that the game season does not open until Oct. 15.

IN POLICE COURT.—John Kelly, 19 years old, a blacksmith, was fined $5 in police court yesterday for drunkenness and striking a pedestrian on Lackawanna avenue.

TO RECOVER A BALANCE.—Action was begun yesterday by Zlot Van Loan against the school district of Old Forge, to recover $304.28, which it alleges is still owing on the high school contract.

MRS. COYLE DECLINING.—Mrs. Dennis Coyle, the Yatesville woman who cut her throat with suicidal intent, Sunday night, while visiting on the South Side, is reported to be growing worse at the Lackawanna hospital. The chances are now that she will not recover.

HORSE STOLEN.—The police department has been notified of the theft of a horse from the barn of Mrs. Catherine Crane, at 128 Capouse avenue, last Saturday night. The horse was a bay, weighed about a thousand pounds, and has "24" branded on its shoulder.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.—Clerk of the Court Daniels yesterday granted marriage licenses to John J. Victor and Mary Duffy, of 157 Meyler avenue; Louis Szerszen and Julia Guzik, of Packville; George A. Lorenz, of 42 Franklin avenue, and Helene Schmidt, of 44 Wyoming avenue.

CAPITAL VS. LABOR.—The colored Baptist Young People's union conducted an interesting debate last night at their meeting place, 365 Center street. The subject was "The laborer is the best of all possible masters." The affirmative was sustained by William Smith and Joseph Henley, and the negative by John Bell and Robert Cox.

SEIDL CHORUS.—The Seidl orchestra chorus will begin its subsequent rehearsals beginning with Monday evening next in the Guernsey reception rooms. Among the choruses which will be rehearsed are "The Sanctus" and "The Heavens Are Telling," the "Inflammatus," from the Stabat Mater, and several other well-known compositions. Professor Whiting is very enthusiastic over the promising outlook.

COLONEL WATRES' DINNER.—About forty guests will be present at the dinner to be given this evening by Colonel L. A. Watres to the line, field and staff officers of the new Eleventh regiment. The dinner will be served in the board of trade assembly hall, where tables have already been erected in the form of a keystone. The catering will be by Stewart O'Neill, of the Scranton club.

ART IN ADVERTISING.—Few of the papers which reach our desk show a better arrangement for a full page advertisement than the Scranton Tribune. The advertisement of Jones Long's Sons is very clever and the illustration of the harvest as applied to their special sale is most apt. It is very gratifying to notice the great progress made by the retail merchant in the matter of the local advertising and the one referred to is a particularly good specimen.—From September issue of Art in Advertising.

CLARKE ON MEMORY.—An interesting lecture on this subject attracted a large audience at the Knights of Malta hall in the Guernsey building last evening, when William Clarke introduced for the first time in Scranton his popular subject, "Memory, and How to Improve It." The lecture was interspersed with interesting illustrations of the efficiency of the method which proved beyond doubt that he was not only master of the subject, but capable of imparting the system to others in an incredibly short space of time. Surprising illustrations were given by George Woodworth, of Clark's Summit, who had been under Mr. Clarke's tuition but a few hours. At the conclusion of the lecture a class was formed, which included many prominent ladies and gentlemen of Scranton. The first class meets at the Guernsey building this evening at 8 p. m., where Mr. Clarke's headquarters are located.

BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION.—Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Smith celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of Mr. Smith's birth on Wednesday evening at their home on Ash street. He received a number of beautiful and useful presents. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ready, of Wilkes-Barre, and Mr. A. Kline, of Bloomsburg; Mr. and Mrs. John Bruner, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. LAFAYETTE MEMORIAL.
Superintendent Taylor Addresses a Circular to County Teachers.

The following circular regarding the Lafayette Memorial was sent out yesterday to the county teachers by Superintendent J. C. Taylor:

To school directors and teachers.—The United States commissioner general to the Paris exposition has written me to bring the Lafayette memorial movement to the attention of the school officials and teachers of this county. The object of this movement is to erect, by means of contribution from the school children of the United States, a suitable monument to General Lafayette, to show that he is held in grateful remembrance by the youth of this nation.

This movement has been endorsed by the president of the United States, by the approval of Governor Hastings and Superintendent Schaeffer. For the purpose mentioned Friday, Oct. 15, is the anniversary of the fall of Yorktown, and has been designated "Lafayette Day." For that day teachers are requested to prepare suitable entertainments relating to those great historic events to which Lafayette contributed, and to charge a small admission fee to each child to be forwarded to the Memorial commission. Where an entertainment is not practicable, teachers may prepare Lafayette memorial certificates for their scholars to contribute from one to ten cents each toward the monument. All these contributions will be united one fund at the county institute (Oct. 31-Nov. 1), and sent to the Memorial committee.

The erection of such a monument by school children of this country is a grateful and proper expression of the feeling entertained by the American people toward Lafayette, and these exercises may each many historical facts and inculcate lofty patriotic sentiments.

Very respectfully yours,
J. C. Taylor.
Scranton, Sept. 28, '98.

In this city the matter has been referred to the teachers' committee of the board of control by Superintendent Howell.

ROGERS WAS INSANE.
Ended His Life By Hanging Himself in the Hillside Home.

He Leaves a Wife and Two Children.

Miner Rogers, an insane patient at the Hillside Home, committed suicide yesterday morning by hanging himself with strips made of a bed sheet. News that he was a father impelled him to the deed.

Rogers was thirty-one years of age and a resident of Dunmore. Insanity is hereditary in his family, it is said, and in August last it developed in him in the form of a religious mania. He was despondent rather than violent and was not regarded as a dangerous patient.

Wednesday his wife gave birth to their second child and when news of it was brought to him he became unusually morose and gave every evidence of being deeply affected.

His condition became such that the night nurse treated him with special care. At 4:30 o'clock a. m. a nurse brought him a glass of water which he drank. Half an hour later when the day watchman was making his first rounds he found Rogers hanging from the top of his bed sheet into strips and tying the pieces together. It is supposed he stood on the bed before tying the rope around his neck. There were two other patients in the rooms but none of them were awakened by Rogers' act.

The remains are still at the home awaiting Coroner Longstreet's directions. He will go there this morning to conduct an inquest. This is the first happening of this kind at the home in six years.

POLITICAL JOTTINGS.

The executive committee of the Republican county committee will hold a meeting tomorrow afternoon in the Central Republican club rooms, at which the county committee will be completed. Campaign headquarters have been opened at the Central club rooms, on Washington avenue, and after Saturday's meeting the work of the campaign will be prosecuted aggressively.

The sub-committee of the Democratic county committee which was appointed to secure suitable rooms for campaign headquarters has about closed negotiations for apartments in the Guernsey building, on Washington avenue. Early next week the county committee will be called together and the Guernsey, or some other suitable building decided upon. Colonel Fitzsimmons, the county chairman, said yesterday that headquarters will be opened the latter end of next week, and the work of the campaign actively entered upon. George Jenks, the party's candidate for governor, has promised to deliver at least one, and possibly two, speeches in this county before the campaign is over. They will have to be in rapid succession, as Mr. Jenks refuses to do any out-door speech making.

ACTION RECONSIDERED.

Mr. Oliver introduced another West Lackawanna avenue viaduct resolution directing the mayor, city controller and city engineer to secure options on the property on the south side of the avenue between Seventh and Ninth streets, and to have the same surveyed by the board to the mayor before the campaign is over. The resolution did not indicate the object of securing such options. Consequently the effort to have the resolution adopted failed and it was referred to the committee on streets and bridges.

There was a long wrangle and some criticism of the board of revision and appeal suggested by a petition of some one to be exonerated from a dog tax. The petition was referred by the board to the mayor before whom he had made affidavit and later referred by the board to the council. When the petition was read last night many of the members took a crack at the board which was soundly accused of not performing its duties.

A motion by Mr. Keller seconded by Mr. Grier prevailed to refer the petition back to the board for action and to have appointed a special committee to see if the board is doing its duty. Messrs. Keller, Gilroy and Oliver were appointed on the committee.

Proposals for paving Hyde Park avenue with vitrified brick between Division and Lafayette streets were received from Messrs. & Flynn, the Alcatraz Paving company, per W. V. Dixon, and George McDonald, and referred to the pavements committee for a report at the next meeting.

On recommendation of the pavements committee W. W. Davis was awarded the contract for laying sidewalk and paving the gutters on certain West Side streets at the following prices: For 4-foot walks, 13 cents, and 5-foot walks, 14 cents per square foot for gutters, 40 cents per square yard.

Ordinances passed third reading as follows: (Common) narrowing the roadway and widening the sidewalks on Delaware street between Washington and Wyoming avenues; (Common) providing for sidewalks on Prospect avenue between River and Beech streets; (select) providing for paving Forest court south of Spruce street with sheet asphalt.

Among the new resolutions were the following:

M. V. Morris—Directing the city engineer to prepare specifications and estimate of cost for repairing the culvert

WILL NOT INTERFERE WITH GLOVE CONTEST.
COMMON COUNCIL DECIDES BOXING IS LEGITIMATE.

Resolution Brings Forth Opinion That Sport Is Within the Law.

Mr. Keller's Asphalt Repair Ordinance Has the Approval of the City Solicitor and Passes Third Reading—Is Now Before Select Council. Members Take a Few Cracks at Board of Revision and Appeal.

The boxing contest to be decided in Music hall next Monday night between Jim Judge, the local favorite, and "Mysterious Billy" Smith, of Boston, the world's welterweight champion, caused quite a stir in common council last night. A resolution drafted by President Morris was introduced by Mr. Keller, of the Thirteenth ward, directing an inquiry into the legality of the sport, but after a spirited bit of procedure the resolution was sent to oblivion. The members finally reached the conclusion that the law was not being violated and that councils had no province in the matter.

Following was the resolution:

Whereas serious allegations have been made that prize fighting is practiced without hindrance in this city, that reckless and unscrupulous gamblers, and the consequent side-betting, the same, if true, being detrimental to the moral of our city; therefore be it Resolved, That the mayor be referred to our committee on vice and immorality to inquire into the same, and if the laws are systemically broken, and avoided that they report to this council the facts, so that steps may be taken to enforce the laws against prize fighting.

The introduction of the resolution caused quite a commotion among the members, particularly so in view of the fact that many of them, including President Moir, attend the bouts and are prominent admirers of the manly art. After the reading of the resolution several of the members were on their feet. President Moir, seconded by Mr. Grier, who offered a motion to table the measure. The motion was lost by the following vote of 7 to 10:

Ayes—Grier, Gilroy, Monahan, C. E. Wenzel, Coleman, T. Morris, Cusick, Sayre-Moore, E. J. Zwick, W. J. Wirth, Jackson, Oliver, Keller, Sheridan, Norton, Moir.

VIADUCT ORDINANCE.

Later in the session Mr. Sheridan said he had voted under misinformation in favor of sending the resolution to committee. He moved for reconsideration and was seconded by Mr. E. F. Wenzel, also one of the number who had voted to refer. The motion prevailed without a dissenting vote and Messrs. Walker and Coleman moved that action on the resolution be indefinitely postponed.

The reason for the change of sentiment appeared in a statement made by President Moir. He said he had approved the resolution for only the purpose of having it officially determined that councils had nothing to do in the premises, as no city law was being violated. He had heard, he said, that councils were being taken to task for permitting glove contests. Personally he liked to see the council's hand in the matter, but he thought it was better to have it determined that there was any ground for interference by an individual, as he could not see that even a state law was being violated.

Others expressed the same view and when the motion to indefinitely postpone was finally put, it was carried unanimously.

Mr. Keller's ordinance for repairing the asphalt pavements passed third reading and is now before select council. Attached to the measure is a communication from the city solicitor attesting its legality. The city solicitor's opinion was dated yesterday and was read last night, as follows:

I have made a careful examination of ordinance file of common council, No. 30, 188, "providing for the annual and necessary repair of the sidewalks on Broadway street, and am of the opinion that it is a legal measure.

I will send you a communication at an early date stating my reasons for this conclusion.

DANGER IN SODA.
Serious Results Sometimes Follow Its Excessive Use.

Common soda is all right in its place and indispensable in the kitchen and for cooking and washing purposes, but it was never intended for a medicine, and people who use it as such will soon lay down their lives.

We refer to the common use of soda to relieve heartburn or sour stomach, a habit which thousands of people practice almost daily, and one which is fraught with danger; moreover, the soda only gives temporary relief and in the end the stomach trouble gets worse and worse.

The soda acts as a mechanical irritant to the walls of the stomach and bowels and causes an acid secretion which accumulates in the intestines, causing death by inflammation or peritonitis.

Dr. Harlanston recommends as the safest and surest cure for sour stomach (acid dyspepsia) an excellent preparation sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. These tablets are large 20 grain lozenges, very pleasant to taste and contain the natural acids, pepsines and digestive elements essential to good digestion, and when taken after meals they digest the food perfectly and promptly before it has time to ferment, sour and poison the blood and nervous system.

Dr. Wuerth states that he invariably uses Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in all cases of stomach derangements and finds them a certain cure not only for sour stomach, but by promptly digesting the food they create a healthy appetite, increase flesh and strengthen the action of the heart and liver. They are not a cathartic, but intended only for stomach diseases and weakness and will be found reliable in any stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50c. per package.

SECURED VERDICTS IN FOUR DIFFERENT CASES.

Mrs. Smith Awarded a Verdict of $377.50 Against the Jernyn and Rushbrook Water Company—Mary C. Duffy Wins in the Ejectment Suit Against Her Aunt—Travis Defeats Ackerman and Another Verdict by Default is Entered Against Adolph Breschel.

Four verdicts for the plaintiff were yesterday's record of jury findings in common pleas. In the case of Margaret J. Smith against the Jernyn and Rushbrook Water company the plaintiff was awarded $377.50, over four times the amount of the arbitrators' award from which the appeal was taken. It was a suit for damages caused by the company entering upon the defendant's land with a water conduit, destroying, among other things, a natural spring that furnished the whole water supply for Mrs. Smith's farm. The company admitted its liability and the only question for the jury was the extent of the damage.

The other three plaintiff's victories were in the Duffy ejectment suit; the case of Travis against Ackerman, for the possession of a piano, and the assumpsit suit of the E. P. Dodge Manufacturing company against Adolph Breschel. The verdict in the last-named case was entered by default, no one appearing for the defense. The action was for the recovery of $195.15 for a bill of goods.

In court room No. 2, before Judge Guernsey, the case of Mrs. W. J. Sullivan against the Hudson train, is seeking to recover $5,000 from the city for a permanent injury to his hip, caused, he alleges, by his leg slipping into a hole in a culvert on Depot street.

BOX CULVERT DID IT.

The accident occurred February 18, 1897. He and a party of friends came down from Carbondale on the Hudson train, and were on the train when they alighted at the Providence station and started over Depot street towards their homes in Providence. Extending diagonally across Depot street, just off the railroad, is a box culvert, an extension of which forms part of the sidewalk.

A hole had been broken in the covering of the culvert, it is alleged, and into this Collins stepped. His hip was so badly injured that he is even yet, when working, compelled to use a cane, and to rest his left hand on his knee to take some of the weight off the injured hip. He says he has decreased in weight from 180 to 151 pounds since the injury befell him. Doctors L. Woblan, J. J. Sullivan and Reed Burns gave it as their opinion that Collins is probably permanently injured.

The defense will be that there was no hole in the culvert, as alleged, and that Collins was intoxicated and slipped on the ice. It may also be shown that the city does not own or control the street, it never having been expressly accepted from the Gilbert estate, which laid out the plot embracing that street.

Ex-City Solicitor I. H. Burns represents the plaintiff and City Solicitor M. A. McGinley, the defense. The plaintiff's side has not yet completed its testimony.

The Keystone Brewing company, of Dunmore, was defendant in a trespass suit that was called before Judge Archbold, in the main court room. The plaintiff is Volody Kosloski, of Wayne avenue. His eight-year-old son had his leg fractured by being run over by one of the Brewing company's wagons, October 2, 1896. The accident occurred on West Market street, at its intersection with Waverly avenue, while the lad was walking on the crossing, it is alleged. The plaintiff claims that the driver of the wagon was watching some boys engaged in kicking a foot ball when the accident took place. It is also alleged that the team was going at a full trot.

DEFENDANT MAKES DENIAL.

The defendant denies this story almost in toto. The driver, John Noon, says that he was driving along at a moderate gait and at some distance below the crossing the boy ran in front of the wagon between the horses and the front wheels.

The plaintiff was making its closing argument to the jury when court adjourned. Vosburg & Dawson represent Kosloski, and E. C. Newcomb the Brewing company.

A recess had to be taken in Judge McClure's court because of the absence of Captain P. DeLacy, Democratic candidate for secretary of internal affairs. He is an important witness for the plaintiff in the case of J. J. Woodling against F. S. Godfrey, and Mr. Chase, the plaintiff's attorney, did not care to proceed without him. Judge McClure issued an attachment for the absentee and declared a recess until 9 o'clock this morning. In the meantime Mr. Chase will endeavor to locate the captain by telegraph and have him on hand. He is at present making a stumping tour of the western part of the state and was in Altoona, Tuesday night.

Application was made to Judge McClure, by Willard, Warren & Knapp, for a rule or injunction trial in the case of Jones Simpson against the Howell-King Brewing company, a suit for damages for a horse killed in a street collision, in which a verdict of $27.30 was rendered for the plaintiff, Wednesday. The motion was overruled.

Ceremony Performed by the Rev. A. F. Y. Pierce at Bride's Home.

The marriage of John Hicks and Miss May Weed was solemnized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George I. Weed, No. 5 Oakwood place, Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock.
