GERSON'S, NO. 413 LACKAWANNA AVENUE.

CARBONDALE.

[The Carbondale correspondence of The Tribune has been placed in the hands of Mr. J. M. Forbes. All complaints as to irregular delivery, etc., also news items, should be addressed to Roberts & Reynolds, news agents.]

A RUNAWAY.

Tucker and Maxey's Team Dash Down Salem Avenue.

One of Tucker & Maxey's horses, attached to a delivery wagon, took fright when turning the corner from Main street to Salem avenue yesterday afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock, and made a dash down Salem avenue. The driver, a young man named Daniel Thomas, was unable to get the animal under control. Many pedestrians, among them numerous school children, were on the street, and it is a wonder that some one was not seriously hurt. The horse ran until it came to the curve at Dundaff street, where the vehicle struck a drag wagon which was coming around the corner. The delivery wagon was turned over and the driver tipped out, but he fortunately escaped injury.

The horse was lifted to its feet and soon none the worse for its spurt. The wagon was not damaged to any extent, neither was the drag into which it collided. The driver was thoroughly scared and bruised a bit, but considers himself fortunate in coming out of the collision as luckily as he did.

A FAREWELL PARTY.

A farewell party was tendered D. C. Burgess at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Davies, on Spring street, Wednesday night. Mr. Burgess is tomorrow for England, where he will join his family. Vocal and instrumental selections were rendered by Mrs. Goodwin, Miss Maude James, Miss Isabelle Stanton, Mrs. Jacobs and Mrs. Grace Hall. Refreshments were served during the course of the evening. Those who were present were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hall, Mr. and Mrs. W. Howells, Mrs. David James, Mrs. S. Goodwin, Mrs. A. Jacobs, Miss Julia Simon, and Messrs. Daniel Davis, Oswald James and Octavius Williams. Mr. Burgess has many friends who wish him a pleasant voyage.

A SMALL BLAZE.

An incident fire in the central part of the city occasioned considerable excitement last night. The whistle at Davies' home, located the alarm, which quickly quenched the burning roof of a small shed in the rear of the Key-stone block. The fire was in a dangerous place and had it gained any headway had caused much damage. The origin of the blaze is not known.

WEDDED LAST NIGHT.

A large number of people from this city attended the wedding of Maurice Forbes to Miss Elizabeth Carroll at Dunmore last night. The ceremony was performed at five o'clock in the afternoon after which a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's mother on Butler street. The groom is at present engaged in New York city, while the bride is a popular Dunmore lady with many friends in this city.

WILLIAM STEPHENS.

William Stephens, who has been ailing for some months past, died at his home on New Cemetery street yesterday morning. The cause of his death was typhoid fever. Mr. Stephens was a popular man, having been a great spokesman in his earlier days. The funeral announcement will be made tomorrow.

Thursday and Friday, Sept. 29th and 30th---
Grand Opening Days in Four Departments.

The event of the season. An occasion of UNMATCHABLE, COMPETITIONLESS display---an exhibit UNRIVALLED in its scope and beauty---an effort emblematic of THIS store and far ahead of anything similar ever produced by us in all the years of our immense growth.

Grand Millinery Opening:

Our display this fall will be the most elaborate ever attempted in this city. It will be the grandest ever thought of here, and will be most remarkable for the beauty and originality of our trimmed hats. The work of our own expert milliners will prove to be in close competition to the best efforts of French artists, many of which are represented in this grand display of women's headgear. Everybody is invited to make an inspection. The most sanguine expectations will be exceeded.

Enlarged Dressmaking Department:

Additional fitting rooms have been added in order to be able to better meet with the demands that will be made here during the coming season. This department is still under the supervision of Mrs. E. A. Pennington, who has engaged the best talent obtainable. A specialty will be made of fine gowns and evening dresses and all work will be of the HIGHEST taste and quality.

Women's Jackets, Capes and Waists:

Really the finest that the market affords, and an assortment of styles that will meet every prevailing taste. Every garment is an extraordinary offering. Unusual value, exclusive effects and superior workmanship are the three prime factors in everything that this department contains. Everything will be ready and complete on the opening days. Then see for yourself.

Upholstery Goods, Rugs, Etc. Second Floor.

The largest—brightest—best equipped upholstery department in Scranton. Entirely re-arranged—replenished—rejuvenated. A new and delightful salesroom with all the necessities and luxuries that go to make up a cozy home. Thenewest in draperies, curtains, carpets and rugs—with nothing to equal this immense assortment in or near this city. Your inspection is invited.
