THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-MONDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1898

mud that they had to wallow through in all this time. Mr. Hopewell insinuated that the opposition to the paving project by cer-tain city officials was questionable. He session was held.

prayed fervently for a deliverance from lows:

Moran will be held in St. Mary's hall, Wednesday evening, Oct. 5 In the absence of the member of the Yale band in attending the Epworth league union meeting in the Methodist even remarked Friday evening that 'she was feeling first rate" then.

Mrs. Lewis was born here Septema produce farmer, residing just below the southermost limit of the Lincoln several days and was being attend-Height's Land company. The fire was ed by Dr. C. W. Treverton. She was, discovered by a farm hand about 9.15 however, able to do her usual work o'clock and was still burning at an about the house and was happy. She early hour this morning.

The barn stood about 2,000 feet from the main road in toward the Sloan the right going towards cohiery on

It's a wearer.

This Month It's 98c.

Globe Warehouse

~~~~~

Men's Underwear

Men are beginning to realize the importance that attaches to perfect fitting, correct, weighty, texture, underweal. There was a time when, if an undergarment was big enough, and not too thin or heavy, according to the season, it was considered all are better equipped. right. Those days have passed, however, and a demand for the highest degree of comfort obtainable has led to many important changes. All for the better, because they add materially to both health and happiness.

"Oneita" Combination Suits

Or shirt and drawers in one garment, are nearer perfection than any other form of underwear that has yet been invented. They fit like a glove, admit of perfect freedom of action, and leave no creases or superfluous bunches of useless skirts, extra widths, etc., to be stowed away in the clumsy fashion which wearers of two-piece underwear must resort to. We have these combination suits in all weights, from the lightest to the heaviest, and in all the popular shades, as well as white. Prices, $1.25 to $2.50 Per Sult.

We Also Handle

The underwear made by the Lackawanna, Luzerne, Nor folk. New Brunswick and other mills, and guarantee better values to our patrons than can possibly be obtained by them elsee where, ber 8, 1871, and was twenty-seven years of age. She was well known and highly respected. She was an active member of the Scranton street Baptist church. The husband and three girls, May, 6 years; Emma, 4 years; and Bertha, 2 years; survive her. The fun-cial will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be conducted at the Scranton street Baptist church and interment will be made at the Washburn street cemetery.

EDUCATIONAL WORK.

Every prepartion for the winter's work of the members of St. Brenden's council, No. 243, Young Men's Institute, along educational lines has been made, and this evening the initiatory session will be held. The council's rooms, over Jenkins' drug store, will be held for the sessions. The work will be directly in charge of Rev. A. T. Broderick, of St. Patrick's church, who s spiritual director of the council. In several branches of the work prooosed Father Broderick will be assisted by competent members of the council.

The schedule is a broad one and ranges from the rudiments to the classics Those who cannot read or write will be cared for as carefully as those who work is classed under four The heads. First ,or primary, will be the reading, writing, arithmetic and spelling. The members qualified will assist in the instruction of this department's studies. Every Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings, between the hours of 7.30 and 9 o'clock, the classes of this department will meet, Thursday evenings between 8 and 9.45 o'clock the class of the second department, known as the literary department will meet. Rev. Broderick will be in charge. The readings for next Thursday evening will be Campbell's "Gertrude of Wyoming." Irving's "Sketch Book," newspaper topics and Shakespeare's "Merchant of Venice." Incidental topics will be discussed where kindred interest exists. The third division covers advanced work in higher mathematics, such as geometry, surveying, etc. This class will meet Tuesday evenings between 7.30 and 8.30 o'clock. The pupils for this class will be designated by Rev. Broderick.

The fourth and last department is also advanced and is optional. The work covered in this division is Latin Tuesday and Thurstay and Logic. evenings between 8.30 and 9.45 o'clock and 7 and 8 o'clock respectively, will be allotted to this department. It is desired that all members of the council who are desirous of joining any of the classes, will please file their names with Rev. Broderick or the council's secretary.

INSTALLATION OF OFFICERS. Slocum Lodge, No. 976, Independent order of Odd Fellows, met in regular session Saturday evening in Masonic hall, on North Main avenue. The transaction of ordinary routine business be ing concluded, officers recently elected for the ensuing year were duly installed. District Deputy Grand Master David Cadwgan acted as installing officer and was assisted by a "team' comprising the following: Grand Grand Warden John H. Kelly, Grand Secretary John Frances, Grand Treasurer John W. Horn, Grand Marshal David . Davis, Grand Guard William Lewis. This was Deputy Cadwgan's first e stallation since his election to office in March last. He. however, performed the exac ing yesterday in W. kes-Barre.

Taylor, and there was absolutely no facilities for ext pgi ishing the flames. The loss will amout to about $15,000. Forty tons of hay, ten tons of straw, 253 bushels of calls, quantities of oth : farm produce a d some farm implements represent the barns contents. Mr. Veith held no insurance. The original frame worl: of the barn was put up some cighty-five years ago and was a land mark for many years.

EXPECT TO REORGANIZE.

All those who were connected with the old Eyde Park Literary and Debating society and any others interested in like matters are carnestly requested to attend a meeting which will be held this evening in Ivorite hall, The intention of the meeting is to subject will be "Good Resolutions." take steps toward the reorganization of the old society or the organization of a new one. Considerable discussion has been going on in reference to the matter and the call is a result thereof. It is hoped that all young men on this side interested will attend.

at 8 o'clock.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

Meat Merchant W. T. Shipman, of Jackson street, met with a painful accident Saturday afternon at his place of business. He was in the act of cutting some meat with a large knife when his left hand slipped off the "shoulder" of meat and directly against the keen eged blade. An ug's gash resulted which required several stitches to close. Dr. D. J. Jenkurs dressed the wound.

The missionary committee of the Y. P. S. C. E., of the Plymouth Congregational church, have secured the services of one of the Yale college band, who are in the city engaged in that work. Tomorrow evening beginning at o'clock there will be a special missionary meeting there to which every member is invited to be present. The public is also invited. An interesting meeting is expected.

The friends and patients of Dr. Lloyd are glad to hear that he has recovered from his recent illness and will resume his pratice at his office at corner of Main avenue and Jackson street, over Musgrave's drug store, today. **

PERSONAL MENTION.

D. D. Evans, of South Main avenue, s in New York city on business. Patrick McAndrew, of Grant avenue s visiting in New York city. Mrs. Frank Cummings and children, of Buffalo, have returned home after a visit here with Mr. and Mrs. John Cummings, of Hampton street. Miss Mayme McCormack, of Hampton street, is visiting in Binghamton. Albert Edwards, of Archabld street is visiting in Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. George Watkins, of South Main avenue, have as their guests their daughter, Mrs. O. S. Stearns, and son, of New York city. M. J. Williams, of Archbald street. is in New York city, where he will permanently reside.

train. Mrs. Thomas Kilgallon and daughter, Miss Loretta, of Butte City, Montana, have returned home after an extended visit among friends here.

Misses Jemima Thomas, of Corbett avenue, and Rachel Williams, of Eyion street, are in New York selecting fall styles in millinery. Miss Lulu Futts, of Dalton, is the guest of Mrs. Roy Colvin, of Chestnut street. Ell Harris, of Eynon street, spent ner to gain the blessings and indulgences rewarded the faithful. During the afternoon the single women of the parish went to confession, and will receive communion at the masses this morning.

omitted this week.

61'8

Christ, of Lebanon, celebrant: Father

Straub, of Wilkes-Barre, deacon; Rev.

G. J. Stopper, sub-deacon, and Father

Christ, of St. Mary's, master of ceremonies.

