LIVE NEWS OF WEST SCRANTON

IN TWO CHURCHES.

Conducted by Members of the Yale Missionary Band-Marriage of Miss Anna Broadbent and Louis H. Jones In the Broadbent Residence on North Bromley Avenue. Funeral of Mrs. W. T. Lewis from the Residence on Thirteenth Street-Personal Notes.

Special missionary services were conducted at two churches on this side last evening, at the Jackson street Baptist and the Plymouth Congregational churches. The members of the Yale Missionary band, which is at present in this city, were the prime movers of the work. It was intended also to have had a meeting at the Sumner avenue Presbyterian church, but the young man assigned was unable to address this asssion.

At the Jackson street Bapt'st church it was the regular meeting of the Baptist Young People's union. After the routine business, those present were addressed by J. S. Thurston, a member of the Yale band, sir, Thurston spoke upon the "Need of Foreign Misslon Work and How to Do It." His remarks were very interesting. The society agreed to attail the fally this evening at Elm Park church and Friday evening at the First Welsh Paptist church, on South Main ave-

At the Plymouth Congregational church the special meeting of the Young People's Christian Endeavor soclety was addressed by D. B. Eddy. Mr. Eddy spoke upon "Foreign Missions, and Methods of Carrying on the Same." The meeting was very enthusiastic, A. B. Eynon presided.

JONES-BROADBENT NUPTIALS. Miss Anna, only daughter of Mrs. Nettie L. Broadbent, of 301 North Bromley avenue, was united in marriage to Louis H. Jones, of North Hyde Park avenue, yesterday afternoon at 1.30 o'clock. The ceremony occurred in the flower-decorated parlor of the bride's home and Rev. J. B. Sweet, pastor of the Simpson Methodist church, officiated. The couple were unattended. The wedding was very quiet, only the very immediate friends and relatives being present. No invitations were sent out, owing to the recent death of Wright Broadbent, the bride's father. At the conclusion of the ceremony a post-nuptial repast was served. Later Mr. and Mrs. Jones departed on a short wedding journey to New York and Bos-

Upon their return they will reside with the bride's mother. Both are con-nected with West Scranton's best socistructor in No. 19 school and is active in Simpson Methodist church circles, Mr. Jones, the oldest son of ex-City Assessor H. D. Jones, of this side, is a popular young man. He is at present private secretary to Charles R. Connell, general manager of the Lacka-

ton Street Baptist church yesterday afternoon to attend the services held for the late Mrs. W. T. Lewis, whose tragic death occurred last Saturday morning The remains were borne to the church from the residence, 335 Thirteenth SPECIAL MISSIONARY SERVICES street, and the handsome casket was nearly concealed beneath the wealth of floral offerings. Rev. S. F. Matthews, pastor of the church, was in charge of the services. He was assisted by Rev. Hugh Davies pastor of the South Main Avenue Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church, and Rev. L. R. Foster, M. A., pastor of the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church. The choir of the church sang the hymns. Rev. Matthews preached an eloquent sermon and remarks were made by the other pastors.

At the conclusion of the services the remains were viewed and later were borne to the Washburn street ceme tery, where interment was made. The pall-bearers were D. M. Jones, David T. Williams, Bezaleel Davies, Frances, W. Morgan and W. Charles.

NORTH SCRANTON.

Cases before Alderman Roberts yeserday were of an interesting nature. E. S. Palmer was arraigned and placed under bail on the charge of larceny brought against him by his father, W H. Palmer, The prosecutor alleged that the defendant purloined a pair of pantaloons. J. T. Cafferty assaulted Mrs. Elizabeth Hughes, so the latter averred. The evidence warranted his retention for court. Mrs. Mary England, in giving testimony against George Brown, said that he broke down her door with an axe and because she interfered, Brown threatened to annihilate her. Bail in the sum of $500 was asked. At he instance of David Anglemire, W. D. Cole was arraigned before Alderman Roberts, charged with false pretense and fraudulent representation. The defendant settled the case by paying for the goods he received and an addiional cost of $3. Peter Bullum, for assaulting John Caditiz, of Lloyd street, with a pick handle, was placed under $300 bail, in default of which he was sent to the county jail.

The North End united choir met last vening at Archbald's hall and elected the following officers: President, James R. Thomas; secretary, Armit Thomas; conductor, G. R. Davis; assistant conductor, W. J. Davis. The enrollment of members now consists of fifty of the est talent of this end of the city, and it was unanimously agreed to enter for the chief prize at the coming eisteddfod, Nov. 26. The rehearsals will be held on Friday and Sunday evenings, beginning Friday evening next. A very exciting runaway occurred yesterday morning on West Market street, near Garagan's bridge. A team owned by Mr. H. H. Adams, of Dalton, and driven by a twelve-year-old boy, took fright and dashed down the street at a very mad pace. They were capare generally shorter than those worn last tured before any damage was done

DUNMORE BOROUGH

SCHOOL BOARD AND COUNCIL MET LAST NIGHT.

Property Owners of Prospect Park Petition the School Board to Have a School Building Erected on the Throop Plot-Considerable Amount of Routine Business Transacted by the Borough Council-Evangelist Cobb Spoke About "The Wise Fool"

A regular meeting of the school board was held in No. 1 building last evening. The following members were present: Messrs. Wilson, Bronson, Webber, Kellam, Spencer and McPeek. The minutes of the previous meetings were read and approved. A communi-cation was received from W. J. Hayes & Sons, in regard to the bond lately bought by them. There were several parts of the specifications which were not quite plain. The secretary was instructed to proceed to find out from the attorneys what can be done in fixing the matter right and notifying them as soon as possible. The different standing committees reported progress, The following bills were ordered paid: on all these overwrought organs, in-vigorates the body and drives off the $10.31; Mrs. Farrell, $5; School Furnishing company, $507.76; Providence Gas $41.50; G. Swartz, $5; E. W. Osterhout, $900; Mr. Kiefer, $5.

James Quick was present representing seventy or more property owners of Prospect Park in regard to having new school erected on the Throop plot, between No. 2 and No. 8 schools. Messrs, Webber and Wilson were ap pointed a committee to look into the financial condition of the board and see what they can do in buying a tract of land from the Throop estate. The sec retary was ordered to instruct the county commissioners that, hereafter, the No. 3 school building will not be rented for election purposes.

COUNCIL MEETING.

The regular meeting of the council was held in the borough building last evening, all members being present. Mr. McAllister, committeeman on elec tric lights, reported that out of the ninety lights along North Blakely street, seventy-five are not burning, while twenty are broken. The above lights were placed along the car tracks from the corners to Throop, and have given very poor satisfaction.

A resolution was presented by Mr. Weber asking that the necessary 500 feet of hose be purchased for the Nep-tune Fire company. It passed first reading. Several persons were present desiring to be exhonorated from real estate taxes. The exoneration list was laid over until next meeting. The Electric Light company, whose pole is situated in an inconvenient place near the corners, will remove it at the earliest possible moment. The people in the vicinity of the Oral school asked to have a fire hydrant placed in that neighborhood. The matter was placed in the hands of the fire committee.

In spite of the rain last evening, a large congregation assembled to hear Evangelist Cobb in his sermon upon The Wise Fool." Although the rain pattered loudly on the shingles the clear resonant voice of the preacher was distinctly heard in all parts of the

The interest in these meetings is certainly widening and deepening, as can be seen in the faces of the great crowd of men and women. Tomorrow night Evangelist Cobb will take for his subject "Christ Our Leader." Let no on miss this great sermon. THE NEWS IN BRIEF. While the people of this place were returning from their places of worship Sunday afternoon they were greeted by the clamor of foot ball enthusiasts returning to their homes on the West Side victorious. They had come with the intention of winning, also of letting the people in town know it. When the car they were on started for the city noises like the approaching of a thunder storm came floating through the air, filling the ears of the unwelcome listeners. Officer Fritz Beaver, who is always on hand when needed, boarded the car and stopped the racket. Burgess Powell will take the matter in hand, and no more foot ball games or other Sunday amusements will take place in the borough limits. The following list of letters remained unclaimed during the period ending Oct. 1, 1898. Persons calling for these letters will please say advertised in Scranton Tribune: Winnie Boyd, care of Mrs. Walsh, Potter street; Delia Carley, Potter street; Sir Thomas G. Johnson, Peter Lutz, C. S.
