PERSONAL.

Hon. Galusha A. Grow, of Glendow, was in the city yesterday. Corporal James Bafter, of Company C, Thirtieth regiment, is home on a furlough. Miss Kate Malley, of Shenandoah, is the guest of Miss Molly O'Malley, of West Market street. Mrs. Isaac Tibbitts and daughter, Miss Irene, of Honesdale, visited Scranton friends yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Clearwater have returned from a two weeks' trip to Asbury Park and New York. Lieutenant John Davis, of the central police precinct, is ill, and his place is taken by Sergeant Hildway. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Clark, of South Main avenue, have as their guests Mrs. E. S. Kellogg and daughter, Miss Alice, of Ocean Grove. Corporal Bert Kellow, of Company C, Thirtieth regiment, is quite ill at the home of his parents, Alderman and Mrs. Kellow, of Chestnut street. Alderman John T. Howe has gone to West Chester, called there by the illness of his daughter, Miss Mildred Howe, who is attending the State Normal school there. Dr. D. A. Webb, lately resigned from the Lackawanna hospital house surgeons, has begun the practice of his profession at 45 Wyoming avenue, and has been appointed examiner for the Prudential Life Insurance company in this city. Dr. Webb is splendidly equipped mentally and has had a thorough university training. He has made many friends during the nine months of his service at the hospital.

MORE SCARED THAN HURT.

Fortunate Outcome of Being Dragged by a Mule. John Golden, of Orchard street, employed as a driver in Johnson's mine, was caught in that part of the mule's harness known as the stretcher yesterday afternoon and dragged some distance. He was taken to the Lackawanna hospital. Several contusions and slight cuts were found on him, but an examination failed to discover any broken bones or internal injuries. He was more scared than hurt, and will be well in a few days. We have a few bicycles left. Cash talks. Come and see us. Jurisch & Co., 422 Spruce street.

EVENING Y. W. C. A. CLASSES.

Schedule That Has Been Arranged for the Different Studies.

The classes in the Young Women's Christian association in elementary English will meet under the instruction of Mrs. Whitmore on Monday and Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Huislander will have charge of the class in literature on Monday evenings, at 7:30 o'clock beginning October 13. Classes in German, French and needle work are being formed at a nominal rate of tuition. It would be well for those intending to join these classes to send in their names at an early date.

The secretary's bible class will meet on Monday and Friday evenings at 7:45 o'clock. All are cordially invited to the bible classes. A bicycle meet, chapters of Dr. Anna Law, has been arranged for Saturday, October 8, to start from the rooms at 229 N. 1st. All who are interested in the gymnasium are invited to go. Any one intending to join the gymnasium is urged to register at once.

TOMORROW'S EXCURSION

An Unusual Opportunity Afforded to Those Who Desire to Visit Camp Meade—Information About Departure and Return of Train.

The most popular excursion that ever left Scranton will be run on Saturday to Camp Meade. That is the place where nearly 30,000 of Uncle Sam's sturdy defenders, called out by the recent war, have been stationed for some time. An immense aggregation of the men who wear the blue of the Thirtieth regiment of Scranton. The regiment will soon go to the southern states, where the climate is more genial and may eventually be detailed to Cuba or Porto Rico for service, until the United States control is firmly established.

The excursion mentioned in the foregoing will leave this city at 7 o'clock Saturday morning by way of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad. The arrival of the train at Camp Meade and the departure therefrom will be so timed that the entire afternoon will be given to visiting and sight-seeing.

Persons who want Pullman seats should make arrangements therefor early today, so that the company may ascertain how many Pullmans are needed. As made in these cars, the trip will be unusually comfortable. A lunch car will be attached to the train. A large number of conveyances will be available to carry visitors from the train to the camp.

A letter from the camp says: "The coming of the excursion from the Lackawanna valley, on next Saturday, is causing the greatest amount of interest with the Thirtieth boys, and the boys are delighted with the prospect of seeing and entertaining their friends for a day in camp. Especially is this so for the reason that the regiment will soon be going south, to lay away at least several months. The visitors come from home with a cordial welcome here. The boys will be happy to see them."

ORGAN RECITAL.

This Evening at Elm Park Church by Prof. Pennington.

The following is the programme of the organ recital to be given this evening at Elm Park church by Professor J. Alfred Pennington, assisted by Mrs. Joseph O'Brien, soprano, and Miss Caroline T. Conkling, of the Conservatory of Music, reader: Organ, Grand Chœur (Grand Chorus) in E Flat—Gullmann Reading, "The Fiddle Told"—Franklin Soprano Solo, "The Promise of Life." Organ, Marche au Concert, Prelude, Theme, Variations and Finales. Gullmann Reading, "Sedn' Things"—Eugene Field Soprano Solo—Selected Organ—(a) Meditation—Lemaigre (b) Pastoral—Lemaigre (c) Wely Reed—Lemaigre (d) "The Land"—with organ—Lemaigre Organ, Marche Solennelle—Lemaigre The organ numbers will be played for the first time in these concerts. Admission to the recital, silver offering.

PLEASANT BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Miss Ethel Woodruff Entertains in Honor of Her Anniversary. Miss Ethel Woodruff pleasantly entertained a number of her friends at her home last evening in honor of her sixteenth birthday. The hours were pleasantly spent in music, games and dancing. At a late hour refreshments were served by Mrs. Woodruff, assisted by Mrs. Eynon and Miss Ella Davis. Those present were Misses Sadie Costlett, Luna Glader, Maydel Davis, Anna Morton, Sallie McCracken, Gwen Jones, Doris Waite, Bessie Beavers, Mary Heberling and Ella Davis, Messrs. Edward Davis, Fred Warner, Milton Moore, Harry Caryl, David Griffiths, Arthur Davies, Rex Faunham, Frank Tropp, Will McCracken, Llewellyn Lewis, Ralph Waring, Howard Eynon, Paul Eynon, Bennie Eynon and Morgan Hawkins.

UNIFORMS ARE HERE.

Probable That the Guardsmen Will Go to Philadelphia. The uniforms for the local companies of the Eleventh regiment have arrived and their equipment is now complete. The clothing is similar to that worn by the old national guard, the cap being of flat-top style. The cross-guns are of a new pattern, having as a center piece a keystone to designate the brigade, red, white and blue being respectively for the First, Second and Third brigades.

It is very probable, according to a statement made by Adjutant General Stewart, to Adjutant D. B. Atherton, that the whole provisional guard will be taken to Philadelphia October 27, on the occasion of the peace jubilee.

PLEASANT SOCIAL EVENT.

Conducted by the Enterprise Dancing Class Last Night. The opening social of the Enterprise Dancing class was held in Excelsior hall on Wyoming avenue last night and was attended by about seventy couples.

It was one of the most enjoyable and successful socials ever conducted by the class. Professor Harry D. Taylor, who is the class instructor, had charge of the dancing and Miss Nellie Curran furnished the music.

MAKES IMPOSITION HARDLY POSSIBLE

STEPS TAKEN TO ESTOP COSTS ON FICTITIOUS CASES.

County Commissioners on the Suggestion of Solicitor Knapp, Will Hereafter Require from Constables and Justices of the Peace Certain Oaths and Information That Will Make the Collection of Costs on Fictitious Cases a Dangerous Proceeding—Judge Knapp's Letter.

Not that they suspect for an instant that any alderman or justice of the peace would do such a thing, but just to make assurance doubly sure by removing the temptation, the county commissioners will hereafter require with each return of a discharge a lot of oaths and information concerning it, removing thereby the existing facility for sending in fictitious cases. They will also, in the future, decline to pay costs on cases amicably settled.

At present a discharge case is turned on an ordinary transcript and in most instances all that the transcript bears is a statement that "John Smith was arraigned before me, an alderman etc., on the charge of assault and battery preferred by James Brown and an account of insufficient evidence. Defendant was discharged." There is nothing to tell who the parties are, who the witnesses were or whether or not costs were not already collected from the parties, because of the settlement being amicable. Under the new order of things the addresses of the parties and all the witnesses must be given and the alderman in addition is required to make oath that the discharge was not the result of amicable settlement.

LETTER FROM SOLICITOR.

This decision on the part of the commissioners was arrived at yesterday after the receipt and consideration of the following communication from Hon. H. A. Knapp, county solicitor, to whom was referred a great bulk of these discharge cases: To the County Commissioners of Lackawanna County, Gentlemen: I return herewith 250 transcripts, from the various aldermen and Justices of the peace of this county, of what purport to be discharge cases. The proceedings in these cases are confined to by the officers upon blanks which were prepared for an entirely different purpose, to wit: For the purpose of certifying proceedings, where the defendants were required to give bail, and the proper changes have not been made in any of these transcripts to make them conform to the actual facts in the case. It will, therefore, appear that the transcripts are not consistent with themselves, each case first stating that, on account of insufficient evidence, the defendant was discharged, and then going on in the printed form of the blank to state that the defendant was required to give bail, conditions for his appearance at the next term of court. Some time ago in a written communication to your office I disapproved of the practice of sending in these discharge cases which were certified on these improper blanks, and I am not willing any longer to approve of these proceedings. The enormous increase in the number of these discharge cases certainly gives rise to strong suspicions that costs are being claimed from the county in cases where no legal obligation exists. If upon the hearing of a criminal case before a magistrate, the parties arrange their differences amicably, and the defendant is discharged, this should not be returned as a discharge case and costs claimed from the county, as it does not come within the meaning and intent of the act of assembly.

FURTHER RECOMMENDATION.

I would further recommend that magistrates be required to give the address of the defendant and prosecutor, together with the names and address of the witnesses sworn to and to appear in each transcript an affidavit in the following form, to wit: I, being duly sworn, say: That he is a ——— in and for the county of Lackawanna, and state of Pennsylvania; that a criminal prosecution was instituted before him upon the complaint of ——— and that upon a hearing had before him on the ——— day of ———, A. D. 18—, the said charge appeared to him to be unfounded and he declined to accept of the charge. No costs whatever were paid to the said magistrate or constable by either party to said criminal proceeding; said criminal proceeding was not settled amicably between the parties, by the payment of money or otherwise; the said case was a bona fide case, and the names and addresses of the prosecutor and defendant and of the various witnesses sworn in the said cause appear on the transcript accompanying this affidavit; and the said transcript is a true and correct transcript of all the proceedings had before me in said case.

AMOUNT OF COSTS.

The costs taxed in each case is about $5, but a number of magistrates figure $7 and $8 as the amount to which they and their constable are entitled. One magistrate alone has eighty of these cases and his bailiwick is a ward of such little importance that it is not divided into districts. The costs he had taxed up amount to over $500.

Susquehanna County Fair.

Saturday, the annual fair of the Susquehanna County Agricultural society will occur. The fair, postponed from Wednesday on account of the rain, always attracts thousands of persons.

HARVEST HOME SUPPER.

Was Served Last Night at the Elm Park Church.

An elaborate harvest home supper was served last night at Elm Park church and was largely patronized. The tables were beautifully decorated. The church people and their friends were very glad to greet each other after the summer separations and the opportunity to thus meet was welcomed. Mrs. William Connell, Mrs. C. B. Scott and Captain May received the guests as best attendants. The supper committee was directed by Mrs. S. T. Jones, Mrs. A. R. Raub, Mrs. Arja Williams and others who assisted were Mrs. William Connell, Mrs. G. F. Reynolds, Mrs. C. S. Woolworth, Mrs. Fenwick Peck, Mrs. W. H. Peck, Mrs. C. B. Scott, Mrs. W. H. Littell, Mrs. W. R. McClave, Mrs. Frank Bond, Mrs. T. R. Brooks, Mrs. Surdam, Mrs. Willard, Mrs. Matthews, Mrs. Bookman, Mrs. Enos Hall, Mrs. Milnes, Mrs. Brock Mrs. I. F. McFarrell, Mrs. L. A. Alhabach, Mrs. Busch, Mrs. H. G. Brooks, Mrs. J. T. Porter, Mrs. C. D. Jones.

Among those who assisted in serving were the Misses Raub, Jones, Phillips, May, Fox, Musser, Schlager, Hess Peck, Bond, Mrs. George Scott, Mrs. Knox, Miss Phillips, Mrs. Brandamora. An object of interest during the evening was the beautiful set of China presented to Mrs. S. T. Jones by the Ladies Aid society.

THE DANCE HALL EVIL.

Petition Signed by Many Clergymen Asks Mayor Bailey to Put an End to It—Some of the Suggestions.

Mrs. W. B. Dugan, agent of the board of associated charities, has a petition which is signed by several clergymen of the city and is addressed to Mayor Bailey, asking him to take such steps as may be necessary to root out the "dance hall evil" in the city. The first name on the petition is that of Rt. Rev. M. J. Hoban, coadjutor bishop of Scranton, and following his name are the names of Rev. Dr. James McLeod, of the First Presbyterian church; Rev. Dr. Charles E. Robinson, of the Second Presbyterian church; Rev. C. M. Giffin, of Elm Park church; Rev. N. J. McManus, of Holy Rosary church, Providence; Rev. George Bubeck of the German Methodist Episcopal church, South Side; Rev. John P. Moffat, of Washburn street Presbyterian church; Rev. J. B. Sweet, of Simpson Methodist Episcopal church; Rev. William A. Nord, of Hickory Street German Presbyterian church; Rev. Robert F. Y. Pierce, of Penn Avenue Baptist church; Rev. Philip Haendiges, of Adams Avenue German Methodist Episcopal church; Rev. P. J. McManus, of Green Ridge; Rev. J. B. Whelan, of the West Side; Rev. Peter C. Christ, of the South Side.

The petition does not specify any particular church, but complains of the general way of the several places where girls of tender years are allowed to attend dances. In her work among the unfortunate Mrs. Dugan finds that the downward path in a majority of the instances begins at the cheap dance hall.

She was informed a few days ago of an incident that occurred on Washington avenue near the corner of Lackawanna at 132 a. m. A business man had occasion to go to New York on an early morning train, and on his way to the station he saw a girl not over 16 years of age striving to steady a drunken young man, who every now and then would embrace her, and utter profane and repulsive language.

Mrs. Dugan has concluded that will be of material assistance to the mayor in whatever course he may adopt to wipe out the evil. The dance house evil, according to reports, is on the increase. There are several halls in the city where such dances are given at frequent intervals and the most of the female attendance comprises girls not yet out of their teens, and many of them not much over 15.

PROTECT THEIR CITIZENSHIP.

Polanders and Hungarians Had Their Tax Receipts With Them.

No particular class of witnesses thus far examined in the election contest showed a cleaner bill of citizenship than the Poles and Hungarians from Dickson City, who were before the commissioners yesterday. It was one of the poorest days, comparatively speaking, that the contest has had. The voters examined were: Patrick Messitt, Thomas Reilly, James McHale, Patrick Langan, Anthony Schuster, Martin Wade, Wall Kiefer, Michael Donnelly, Wash Gratonski, George Miskovitz, Louis Wisencski, John Robecky, John Kreyzganowski, Thomas Dolphin, Ignatz Skypczyzniski, Frank Plaski, Stanislaus Watkowski, John Lagan, Stanislaus Opawowicz, Joseph Sourwiski, Andrew Zellewski, Anthony Kozicki, George Sosnoski, Carl Siekiewski, Thomas Kelly, Patrick Healy, Joseph Sordikowski, Poch Pertz, Adam Shepenki, John Goska, John Sobkowicki, Patrick Langan, Anthony Cawickinski, John McCrea, Jacob Yerkie, Roman Yastulka, Frank Kolaski, John Suttala, John Zielazenski, James Riley, Frank Surtowski, Andrew Gryga, Leon ardowski, Mike Maljewicz, Thomas Luby, Thomas Klenich, Anthony Glowinski, John Silkowski, Morris Weiss, Joseph Obiel, Andrew Gajgik, Joseph Zaleswski.

INSANE MAN HAD A REVOLVER

Michael Smith, of Washburn Street, Arrested None Too Soon.

Michael Smith, a young man living with his widowed mother at 1616 Washburn street was arrested in Thomas' hotel, on lower Lackawanna avenue, early yesterday morning by Patrolmen Haggerty and Goerlitz on a charge of brandishing a revolver. At the police station the revolver and fifteen cartridges and $10.00 were taken from him. He is afflicted with this form of dementia. Dr. Fulton and Gunster examined him yesterday and he will be taken to the Hillside Insane Asylum today. He has a hallucination that some prominent persons on the West Side are persecuting him and evidently might do damage with his weapons. He was in the asylum before.

WILL WIND UP ITS BUSINESS AFFAIRS

ACTION TAKEN BY SOLDIERS' RELIEF ASSOCIATION.

By the Terms of a Resolution Adopted Yesterday It Will Close Its Books on Nov. 1 if Possible. Heads of Families Can Secure Their Discharges if They Make Application in Proper Form. Financial Statement Read by Secretary D. B. Atherton.

Resolved, That in view of the fact that the war has practically ceased and there is no pressing need for men remaining in the service who have dependent relatives, that this association take means to wind up its affairs and dissolve, if possible, on November 1. That the secretary have all cases re-investigated by the agent of the association and that he notify the captains of companies of the Thirtieth regiment that the association is about to wind up its affairs and urge the captain to have men in their commands who have dependent ones make out applications for discharge from the service as early as possible.

The above resolution was passed by the Soldiers' Relief association at its meeting in the board of trade rooms yesterday afternoon. It was discussed at some length by all of the members of the association present before a vote was taken. It was agreed by them that the war is practically over; that the men who have families or relatives dependent on them for support can readily be spared from the service of the nation; that the national danger has passed and that now their first duty is to provide for those who look to them for support; that the war department is in accord with this view of the situation and is willing to grant discharges to men whose requests are properly vouched for; that the country will not sustain any loss of its armed strength by such action for the reason that a large number of single men, not bound by family ties, are anxious to enlist in the volunteer and regular armies.

CAN BE DISCHARGED. In view of this condition of affairs it was decided that the emergency that called the association into life has almost passed and that as soon as the soldiers who have wives, families or other dependent ones are honorably discharged from the service it will have fulfilled its mission. If the men make applications it is thought that all of them can be discharged from the service inside of a month. An interesting feature of the meeting was the verbal report of Secretary D. B. Atherton concerning his visit to Camp Meade. He had conferences with General Gobin, Colonel H. A. Courson, Captain N. P. Stahl and the commanders of the various companies. As a result of his labors before he left camp that night the applications for discharge of forty men whose families are being cared for by the association had been made out in proper form, filed with company commanders and were en route to corps headquarters along the proper military road. Some little trouble was encountered by the secretary but it was surmounted by the exercise of diplomacy.

A Heart of The Season Sale

Right in the heart of the season circumstances force us to cut prices. When we bought the Kerr stock we were obliged to buy the store lease, too. So that up to date we've had plenty of room. Today we Rented the Old Kerr Store Room to some parties who will open a candy store therein. We promised them quick possession, and as a consequence

We Must Get Out in One Week

Anybody who has seen our own store knows we keep it well stocked. Knows, too, that we simply can't put the contents of another store into it. We simply haven't got the room. Especially is this true of the more bulky goods. So whether we want to or not, we're obliged to sacrifice these goods. The sale is bona-fide, the bargains are genuine. Here's a few of the more bulky goods we want to move quickly:

Parlor Rockers. Real golden oak and mahogany finished rockers, back upholstered in fleish tapestry. Sold usually for $6. Now... $3.90

Fancy Tables. Oak finish tables, Top is 24 inches square, with fancy curved edge. A pretty table and easily worth $2.00, for... $1.35

Tabarets. Or Jardiniere Stands, quite a lot of pretty ones to sacrifice. Nice ones as low as... 50c

Corduroy Couch. Nicely upholstered, tufted couch that sells for $12 in our big furniture stores. To go during this sale 8.90 at...

Tapestry Couch. Fancy wood frame couch, prettily carved and upholstered in good tapestry covering, best of workmanship. Worth $20.00. Now... $14.90

Paper Baskets. Work stands, tripod tables, screens, fire screens, and all other goods in old store at a big reduction.
