

DAY'S DOINGS OF NORTH SCRANTON

UNITED CHOIR BEGINS REHEARSALS.

S. Hinerfeld, of Penn Avenue, Brought Before Alderman Roberts on Complaint of a Woman Charging Assault and Battery—Reception to Morgan Powell, of Company H, at the Home of his Parents—Base Ball Game Today—Personal and News Notes.

The North End United choir met in rehearsal last evening in Archbold's hall. The main contest in the Schubert Glee club extended in Company H army on Thanksgiving day, which the choir will strive to win with song with excellent proficiency for the first time. There was a large attendance, among them the best of the local singers in this end, were conspicuous.

The conception of the musical piece was grasped readily. The blendings and harmony exciting warrants the prospect of the choir being a formidable candidate for the honors. Prof. Glenn Mostals, leader of the organization, was favorably impressed with the interpretation of the piece and is confident of landing first prize.

OBITUARY.

Mary, wife of Ross H. Chase, died at the residence, 123 North Sumner avenue, yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock after an illness of eleven weeks. Deceased was born at Tazewell, Va., and came to this city about thirty years ago. She was a member of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church, and was possessed of many Christian traits. Funeral services will be held from the residence on Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment in the Washburn Street cemetery. She is survived by her husband and four children, Beverly, Alton, Kate and Clyde.

M'CONNELL MEETINGS.

Green Ridge Baptist Church Packed Last Night. Last night at an early hour the Green Ridge Baptist church was packed with an audience anxious to hear Rev. J. J. Carroll, of this city, preach on temperance. The music which was begun at 7:45 was a pleasing and interesting feature of the exercises. Rev. Young, of Clark Summit, offered an earnest and impressive prayer and Rev. W. P. Ford read the scriptures lessons. Red ribbons worn by the new pledge signers and white ribbons worn by the members of the W. C. T. U. were noticeable on a large part of the audience. Mr. McConnell although much worn from a long and constant speaking, spoke for an hour and a half on his own struggle from the drink demon. He began by telling of his Pennsylvania nativity and among other things said that he was born in Saksburg, Butler county, Pennsylvania. He gave an interesting account of some of his many experiences.

TO SEE THE SOLDIERS.

Excursion to Camp Meade Will Leave This Morning. The excursion to Camp Meade will leave the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western depot at 7 o'clock this morning, and it has been so arranged that the visitors will have a half an hour with the soldier boys. About 30,000 men are encamped at that place, but will soon be sent south, perhaps to Cuba or Porto Rico. All who desire Pullman car transportation should arrange for the same today. General Graham has ordered a review of the entire corps for 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in honor of Governor Hastings. The governor has accepted and will be accompanied by Adjutant General Stewart and other members of his staff. The Philadelphia councilman committee, which will visit the camp tomorrow to arrange for the shipment of 10,000 troops to the Quaker City to take part in the peace jubilee, are expected to remain to witness the review.

DAY'S DOINGS OF DUNMORE BOROUGH

EVANGELIST COBB EDIFIES WITH HIS DISCOURSES.

Officers of St. Mark's Episcopal Church Chosen for the Ensuing Year—Edward Butler Injured on a Pointed Picket—Party in Honor of Miss Margaret Davis, of Du Bois. Death of Frank Jones—Party at the Home of Mr. Letchworth—Told in a Few Lines.

Evangelist Cobb, who is conducting the great revival now in progress in the new assembly hall on Drinker street, Dunmore, spoke last evening on the subject, "He Callest Thee." He said: "In this beautiful story of Blind Bartimaeus are two great objective points, first God's energy, second man's duty.

Jesus called but it was in answer to the blind man's call. God has some blessings which he bestows with impartial hand upon his children on earth, regardless of their gratitude or ingratitude. The Paul, the desecrated, the sun shines on the evil as well as the good. But there are higher blessings which can be secured by complying with the law enunciated by Christ, "Ask and Ye Shall Receive." Bartimaeus asked and received. Recall the circumstances. A great throng, a king going as all believed to be crowned, a blind beggar daring to ask for help, the obsequious courtiers trying to silence the clamor, the beggar crying out louder: "Jesus thou son of David have mercy upon me." Oh that men and women cared as much today for their soul's salvation as this blind man cared for his sight. How easily some people are discouraged in their efforts to follow Christ. An unkind word, a fancied slight and we give up about another trial. Not so with Bartimaeus. He calls and keeps on calling until Jesus commands him to be brought and grants him his request. So should the "Christ" tonight's subject is "God's Command."

The subject for tomorrow night in the tabernacle will be "The Good Confession," tonight, "God's Command, Repent."

PARTY FOR MISS DAVIS.

Miss Margaret Davis, of DuBois, Pa., who is the guest of her cousin, Miss Margaret Davis, of Hyde Park, was tendered a reception and banquet in Keystone hall last evening by a large number of friends. The hall was tastefully decorated with flags and bunting. Those present to make the happy throng were Misses Nellie Calpin, Della Mooney, Lucy Morrison, Catherine Harris, Nellie Logan, Mary Richardson, Margaret Moran, Mary Luby, Margaret Morgan, Nellie Fryner, Ethel Piper, Sarah German, Annie Hieby, Mary and Nellie Tighe, Mary Rees, Emma Gaffney, Margaret Langan, Lottie Wertz, Louise Schell, Rebecca Howells, Louise Jenkins, Louise Evans, Mary Evans, Mamie Form, Norma Andrews, Olive Jones, Addie Joseph, Leta Sterns, Mattie Mecher, Annie Sterns, Mary Horan, Nellie Horan, Jennie Williams, Lizzie Haggerty, Lizzie Joyce, Lillie Davis and Miss Cassie Dice, Messrs. PLEASANT RECEPTION.

The home of Mr. T. P. Letchworth, of Chestnut street, presented a very pretty appearance last evening when a reception was held. The house was decorated with flowers, ferns and autumnal tints in an artistic manner. Music, vocal and instrumental, was provided, and at midnight the guests adjourned to the dining room where eight small tables were filled with delicious eatables. After partaking of the supper the merry party divided, going to the homes of the various hosts for so pleasant an evening.

CHURCH OFFICERS ELECTED.

The following officers were elected last evening at the meeting of the teachers and officers of St. Mark's church, to serve one year: Superintendent, William R. Wilson; assistant superintendent, James McKane; secretary, Charles Watson; assistant secretary, Roy C. Stryker; organist, Leslie Marsh; organist, Miss Sadie Wartel.

THE DEADLY IRON PICKET.

Edward Butler, of Elm street, was quite seriously injured while playing with several companions yesterday. They were playing tag. He climbed upon a fence to catch one of his companions and slipped and fell upon one of the sharp iron pickets.

NEWS NOTES.

Word has been received from V. H. Pinkney, who is with the Eleventh United States infantry, stating that he is recovering rapidly from his illness. This is good news and was gladly received. Edward Early of Bloom street was arraigned before Justice of the Peace Krotzer yesterday afternoon on a charge of assault and battery preferred by Patrick Carey, of Hinkley street. Early denied the charge at the hearing, so Squire Krotzer held him under $300 bail for his appearance at court, his mother going his bail.

SICK SOLDIERS GLADDENED.

Dr. Shoemaker Sends Thanks for Aid from Here. The following letter received by J. H. Frutcher from Dr. Shoemaker of the Medico-Chirurgical college at Philadelphia, is in acknowledgement of donations sent to the sick soldiers: Medico Chirurgical Hospital, Cherry Street, below Eleventh, Philadelphia, Oct. 6, 1893. My Dear Mr. Frutcher: I must ask your pardon for not replying to your last letter which was duly received. I have been so busy looking after the sick that I have not had the opportunity of answering any of my letters. Your first as well as your last boxes were duly received and very much appreciated. We also had through the clergyman the check for $50, all of which has helped to gladden the hearts of many of the soldiers in the hospitals. The gentleman named in your letter was certainly wrong in his collection that we did not need anything more for the sick soldiers in the hospital. We are adding every day to our present number, by many who are sent of bright from the different camps to our institution. We can utilize all that can be collected or sent and these poor fellows will certainly obtain the benefit.

FIVE CASES OF INSANITY

Reported at Yesterday's Meeting of the Poor Board—Wives Complain That Their Husbands Do Not Support Them.

Brim full of exceptional incidents was yesterday's meeting of the Scranton poor board. Insanity cases were in the majority with "deserted" wives, seeking redress, a close second. In addition, Superintendent Beemer submitted his report for the month of September and Dr. J. R. Murphy a report as outdoor physician for the same month. Even Attorney Seragg brought considerable business before the board for its consideration.

Every member of the board was present when President Langstaff opened the session. Since the last meeting of the board five insane patients were sent to the home from this district. Two from Director Shotten's sphere of action, the same number from Director Murphy's and one from Director Payne's. The board concurred in the action of the several directors in each instance.

No less than four women made application for the use of the board's attorney to compel recalcitrant husbands to produce sufficient support for them and their children. In three of the cases, orders from court had not been obeyed and the women were poor to compel payment thereof. All cases were referred to Attorney Seragg for investigation.

Superintendent Beemer's report for September indicates an increase of these inmates for the month. Twenty-five were admitted, twenty-two discharged and one died. Admissions were: Same males, 11; females, 4; insane males, 7; females, 3; total increase 25; discharged, same males, 3; females, 4; total decrease, 22. The classification is, same males, 133; females, 15; total sane, 148; insane males, 124; females, 124; total insane, 248; grand total 44, for month ending September 30.

Out-door Physician Dr. J. R. Murphy's report showed that he had made fifteen visits, written forty-four prescriptions, examined three insane patients and attended two confinements. In one part of his report one visit was to a woman, vagrant insane, and right next man, gentleman, insane. The disease is no respecter of persons. Charles Sargeant, of Nicholson, again appeared before the board. Old request "want my boy." The lad, Charles Sargeant, fourteen years old, is now with James McDavid, of Danascus, Wayne county, and doing nicely. He has been there over a year and has apparently broken off his incendiary instinct. The father, who so persists in his efforts, will in all probability be given the child.
