

THE PEACE COMMISSION

Question of Philippines Not Yet Discussed.

OUR DIPLOMATS ARE FIRM

Attempt to Open It in Relation to the Present Occupation of Manila Quashed Promptly—The Government at Washington Satisfied with the Progress Made—Cuba, Porto Rico and Guam Alone Discussed Thus Far—Joint Meeting of the Commissioners Resumed This Afternoon.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The peace commissioners at Paris, so far from reaching a point of absolute variance on the question of the Philippines, have not as yet taken up that subject for consideration. It is true that at the first session of the joint commission the Spanish representatives sought to raise a question concerning the occupancy of Manila Bay and town by the United States military and naval forces. The United States commissioners promptly and unequivocally refused to consider this point in any aspect and with some reluctance the Spaniards gave over for the time being the effort to raise that question. Since then the commission, whenever meeting jointly, has been engaged entirely with three questions to the complete exclusion of the Philippines.

These questions relate entirely to Cuba, Porto Rico and Guam, and according to the very last reports from the American commissioners to Washington they are still under consideration. The United States will not assume any financial obligations as a result of the cession or release of Cuba and Porto Rico. It was fully expected by the authorities here that the Spanish contingent on the peace commission would make a strong effort to make the assumption of the heavy financial obligations of these islands a condition of the cession of Porto Rico and the abandonment of sovereignty over Cuba.

COMMISSIONERS INSTRUCTED. But the American commissioners were fully and definitely instructed on these points, and the general tenor of these instructions was that such obligations were not to be assumed by the United States.

No dissatisfaction is felt here at the progress of the commission, and the settlement of the questions assigned to it. It was fully understood that the issue presented would require the most delicate and cautious handling, and while the American commissioners were expected to dissent through a severe practice of an hour this afternoon, McCuskey was again in Overfield's position while the latter is off. The regular men took part in the game at different stages. The 'Varsity players put up a first game, scoring four touchdowns and a field goal. The regulars, however, never endangered Pennsylvania's goal, but Hodge, the scrub full-back, dropped a pretty goal from the 25-yard line.

McCuskey will start in at center against the University of Virginia eleven tomorrow and Sam Goodman will be at left tackle.

WEDDING OR A FUNERAL.

Remark Made by Mrs. George When Buying a Revolver.

Canton, O., Oct. 11.—It is reported the damage done to her former husband against Saxton last week. Now there will be either a wedding or a funeral.

TRUST HAS NO STANDING.

Defense Made by Strikers in an Injunction.

Cleveland, Oct. 11.—The hearing of the injunction proceedings by the American Steel and Wire company against its striking employees commenced here today. General Manager Haackes filed an affidavit denying that the American Steel and Wire company was a trust and saying it had active competitors. The American company, he said, paid wages 15 per cent higher than its two strongest competitors and he denied that the company either armed or desired its men to be armed.

Spanish Victory.

Madrid, Oct. 11.—The government has received an official dispatch from General Rios, the Spanish commander in the Visayas Islands, saying that 4,000 insurgents, including thirty-eight chiefs, have unconditionally submitted to Spanish authority.

Revenue Cutter Service.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Captain Shoemaker of the revenue cutter service, will leave here tomorrow to make the necessary arrangements to establish a revenue cutter service for the coast of Porto Rico. He will be accompanied by Mr. P. K. Lath, of the Philadelphia custom house.

Dr. Swallow Has Friends.

Philadelphia, Oct. 11.—The Temperance Association of Friends of Philadelphia today met at the Friends' meeting and the earnest workers society composed of Friends and others today resolved to join the movement for the election of Dr. Swallow as governor.

THE YELLION IN THE VISAYAS ISLANDS TO BE SUPPRESSED, and he asserts that the natives do not respond to the appeal of the insurgents.

SITE FOR CUBAN CAMP.

The Selection Has Not Yet Been Made.

Havana, Oct. 11.—Colonel Hecker and Captain Clay, Crawford and Clark visited the ground surrounding the neighborhood of Guanabacoa yesterday for the purpose of selecting a site for a camp to be used by the American troops. So far they have made no selection, having found most of the ground marsh and liable to generate malaria and miasm.

The commissioners also find that the railroad facilities for the transportation of troops are most meagre and they have recommended to be begun immediately the extension of a road to the eastern end of the island. They regard such a step as being of the greatest importance for the mobilization of the army of occupation in case of emergency. A corps of engineers will visit several parts of the island. All of the commissioners agree upon one point which was called by President McKinley yesterday, namely the imperative necessity of connecting the eastern and western ends of the island by rail without any delay as a military precaution.

The civil governor and the commission held a long conference this morning on municipal matters. The United States transport Resolute arrived here today from Key West and the United States dispatch boat Scorpion sailed this morning. Major Beebe is reported to be improving today.

PEACE JUBILEE.

Citizens of Philadelphia Will Have Several Warships.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The secretary of the navy has yielded to the importunities of the citizens of Philadelphia and has given orders for the attendance of several of the United States warships at the peace jubilee to be held in that city on the 27th inst. The vessels selected have all seen the hardest kind of service during the war, and included in the list is the now famous Texas, sister ship almost to the Maine, on which will be Commodore Philip, who commanded the ship in the battle of July 3, when the Spanish squadron was destroyed.

The other vessels have all been connected with some important action. They are the New Orleans, Marblehead, Topeka, Mayflower and the Winslow. The New Orleans is now at San Juan, Porto Rico, but orders have been sent to her to come home. She will first connect with the Newark, the Cincinnati and other warships on the station which have also aboard naval militia men from Illinois and take these aboard for return to the United States, where they will be honorably discharged.

THE U. P. IN PRACTICE.

Coach Woodruff Puts the Men in Good Condition.

Philadelphia, Oct. 11.—Coach Woodruff put the University of Pennsylvania football team through a severe practice of an hour this afternoon. McCuskey was again in Overfield's position while the latter is off. The regular men took part in the game at different stages. The 'Varsity players put up a first game, scoring four touchdowns and a field goal. The regulars, however, never endangered Pennsylvania's goal, but Hodge, the scrub full-back, dropped a pretty goal from the 25-yard line.

WEDDING OR A FUNERAL.

Remark Made by Mrs. George When Buying a Revolver.

Canton, O., Oct. 11.—It is reported the damage done to her former husband against Saxton last week. Now there will be either a wedding or a funeral.

TRUST HAS NO STANDING.

Defense Made by Strikers in an Injunction.

Cleveland, Oct. 11.—The hearing of the injunction proceedings by the American Steel and Wire company against its striking employees commenced here today. General Manager Haackes filed an affidavit denying that the American Steel and Wire company was a trust and saying it had active competitors. The American company, he said, paid wages 15 per cent higher than its two strongest competitors and he denied that the company either armed or desired its men to be armed.

Spanish Victory.

Madrid, Oct. 11.—The government has received an official dispatch from General Rios, the Spanish commander in the Visayas Islands, saying that 4,000 insurgents, including thirty-eight chiefs, have unconditionally submitted to Spanish authority.

Revenue Cutter Service.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Captain Shoemaker of the revenue cutter service, will leave here tomorrow to make the necessary arrangements to establish a revenue cutter service for the coast of Porto Rico. He will be accompanied by Mr. P. K. Lath, of the Philadelphia custom house.

Dr. Swallow Has Friends.

Philadelphia, Oct. 11.—The Temperance Association of Friends of Philadelphia today met at the Friends' meeting and the earnest workers society composed of Friends and others today resolved to join the movement for the election of Dr. Swallow as governor.

SENATOR PENROSE ON WANAMAKER

REMARKS MADE AT RALLY AT READING.

Serious Charges Are Made Against the Men Who Are Probably Back of the Swallow Campaign.

Reading, Pa., Oct. 11.—Candidate Stone and Senator Penrose were the principal speakers at tonight's Republican meeting here. Senator Penrose referred to Representative Liden, of this city, and said he walked the streets of Reading with the brand of "Wanamaker" on his brow. It was this same Wanamaker, he said, who when a postmaster general turned down John H. High, the Berks Republican leader, when the latter was a candidate for postmaster. The speaker pledged himself to do all in his power to right the wrong and secure the appointment of Mr. High as next postmaster of Reading. He extolled President McKinley and the American army and navy, and said the present situation was that of a few disappointed candidates who were attempting to befuddle the people.

"The first," said he, "is John Wanamaker. I have met him, and every time I met him his scalp belonged to my belt. Where he is known, where the people know him, they are against him. What does he do when he stands up before the people of Pennsylvania as a Christian gentleman? He has openly charged him with trying to purchase the United States senatorship for $250,000 against me and I have not yet been sued for libel. He paid $50,000 to settle the case of the commonwealth against John Wanamaker in Pottsville in order that his inquiry would not be laid bare. I will go further and say that the night before he had an agent on hand to fix the jury. I refer you to the criminal records of Schuylkill and Northampton counties to show the open debauchery of John Wanamaker. What is more, he was instrumental in having the warrants issued against Senator Quay and others. A warrant was sworn out in a detective's name. Senator Quay does not know the man who is the real prosecutor."

Senator Penrose referred to District Attorney Graham "as the once great moral reformer. He fell deep into the moral pit and in a moment when under the influence of drink he issued a midnight letter announcing his candidacy that disgusted every man. That man, in collusion with John Wanamaker and Judge Gordon, brought about the arrest of Senator Quay. They sought to smear Quay and they will fall in their enterprise."

The speaker next charged Mr. Wanamaker with open knowledge of the over issue of stock of the Keystone bank of Philadelphia, and said it was by Wanamaker's request that John Pardsley deposited city money in that bank. "What I say is open to the inspection of the world. But the citizens should be careful how he investigates because every night copies of the testimony taken before committee was taken to John Wanamaker's store and he subjected to the censorship of his advertising agent."

SHOOTING AT DOVER.

Zachariah Gibbs Kills Edward Harper.

Dover, Del., Oct. 11.—Zachariah Gibbs, colored, aged 22, today shot and killed Edward Harper, also colored, aged 23, in Gibbs' house. Harper went to Gibbs' house between 2 and 3 o'clock in an intoxicated condition. He was advised by Nellie Palmer, with whom he had kept company, as soon as Harper entered he began to talk in a loud tone to the girl. Gibbs, who was in bed upstairs, remained quiet until Gibbs and Gibbs, going down stairs, ordered Harper and the girl to leave the house. Harper began to quarrel with Gibbs, the ball entering just over the heart. After Harper fell Gibbs fired again, the bullet entering the back of the head. Harper died ten minutes later without speaking a word.

VAN WYCK ACCEPTS.

Lack of Medical Supplies at Santiago Accounted For.

Washington, Oct. 11.—Surgeon General Sternberg today sent to the war investigation commission a report on medical supplies furnished the army, accompanying it with a letter in which he said "The temporary deficiency in medical supplies at Santiago is fully accounted for by the fact that some supplies were left at Tampa and owing to the rapidity with which the troops were disembarked at the island and dispatched to the front, considerable quantities of supplies taken were left upon the transports."

Deaths at Ponce.

Washington, Oct. 11.—The following dispatch has been received at the war department: Ponce, Porto Rico, Adjutant General, Washington: Deaths, Oct. 10, 1898. Private John Vincent, typhoid fever; Private John Walker, cholera; Private John Vincent, typhoid fever; Private John Vincent, typhoid fever. (Signed) Brooke.

New Torpedo Boat.

Philadelphia, Oct. 11.—The torpedo boat Mackenzie built at Hillman's ship yard was given her second builders' trial today over the government course at Deep Water Point in the Delaware bay. The specific purpose of the trial was to test the boat under the new forced draught introduced by the navy department and there was no trouble in getting speed.

Knights of Golden Eagle.

Baltimore, Oct. 11.—The nineteenth annual session of the supreme castle, Knights of the Golden Eagle, began today. Eugene C. Moore, of Philadelphia, presided. Routine business took up the time of the two sessions held today. The annual election will probably be held on Friday.

PRESIDENT AT OMAHA.

The Journey Westward Was a Series of Continuous Overtakes.

Omaha, Oct. 11.—President McKinley's journey from Chicago to this city today was a series of tumultuous overtakes. Brief stops were made at many stations and at some of them the president made short speeches. At Cedar Rapids, Ia., he spoke from the platform. Here he said in part: "This war that was so speedily closed through the valor and intrepidity of our soldiers will bring to us, I trust, blessings that are now beyond calculation. It will bring also burdens, but the American people never shirk a responsibility and never unload a burden that carries forward civilization. We went into this war for humanity. We can accept no terms which will not be in the interest of humanity. That hostilities have ceased upon the islands is a source of gratification."

"Out of the bitterness and woe the privations and sufferings and anxieties of the past five months will flow benefits to the nation, which may be more important than we can now realize. No development of the war has been more gratifying and exalting than the complete unification of the nation. Sectional lines have been obliterated; party differences have been brushed in the great chorus of patriotism which has been heard from one end of the country to the other. To the executive's call for volunteers no prompter response was received than came from the patriotic people of the South and the West, and none were more prompt than those of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail to give tribute to the people of Iowa. And when the orders were given to advance into a foreign territory every soldier was disappointed whose regiment was not included in the orders to march. All were anxious to be with that portion of the army which was first to meet the enemy. Our gratitude is boundless to the brave men and the nation will hold them in perpetual memory. In paying tribute to the patriotism and valor of the army engaged in the war we must not fail