

THIRTEENTH DEATH IN REGIMENT

CORPORAL JOHN EDINGER IS THE LATEST VICTIM.

Expired in St. Joseph's Hospital, Lancaster, to Which Institution He Was Removed a Little Over a Week Ago—His Remains Were Taken to Stroudsburg, Where His Parents Reside—Detail from the Company Will Accompany Them.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Camp Meade, Middletown, Pa., Oct. 16.—One other death has been recorded in the Thirteenth. Corporal John Edinger, of D Company, a typhoid patient, passed away at 2 o'clock this afternoon in St. Joseph's hospital, Lancaster, to which institution he was removed a little over a week ago.

This is the thirteenth death in the regiment, and was due to typhoid and paralysis of the heart. Corporal Edinger saw two years' service in the guard, and had many friends. He was a faithful employe for a long time of the Lackawanna laundry. His untimely death is much regretted. Deceased was twenty-one years old last month.

ISAAC LONG.

OF OURSELVES.

We wish you to know that we do the largest FINE DRY GOODS business in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

We wish you to know this, not by way of brag; but, because it means something to you.

It means this: The biggest business, the greatest power; the greatest power, the firmest control of the markets; the firmest control, the best goods and lowest prices. A reasonable conclusion (while this is not a "cheap" store) it is the best store for the economically minded purchaser. We are aware that all this interests you only as it affects your purchasing power and price economics; and these are the matters which we wish you to test.

And we wish you to know that we are our own importers, having an office in Paris, which is in close touch with the designers and producers of foreign apparel and fabrics. This makes our store worth visiting.

Fifteen daily trains on the D. & H. R. R. and C. R. R. of N. J.—all reaching Wilkes-Barre, before the close of business, make a visit an easy possibility.

If you are in Wilkes-Barre you will come here. If you can't come, you can write. Write us especially about your needs in SILKS, DRESS GOODS, SILK WAISTS, WRAPS, COSTUMES, TRIMMINGS, LACES, EMBROIDERIES, HANDKERCHIEFS, CARPETS, and DRAPERIES, we are DISPENSERS OF INFORMATION in these lines.

OF OUR SUIT EXPOSITION.

It is not only a mercantile enterprise, but it is a demonstration of power of beauty, excellence, style and exclusiveness. Many visitors visitors have come and gone, and few have gone without first leaving an order for a copy of an imported model or leaving their address for the sending of one of the many dress ideas of foreign or domestic production. The consensus of opinion is unanimous, and unanimously favorable. And why not? Our showing is greater than ever before. Greater because of the reception given by the women of Wilkes-Barre (and many from Scranton, too) to our importations of the past two years, thus prompting us to double our imports this Fall. But not all are foreign ideas. The best of leading New York houses are using our Suit Department as display room for their cleverest products.

Will you be our guest, or will you write us? We are ready for you and WELL READY. In either case we can entertain you; either with our show, or with a full description of your designated want.

If you write, address

Transportation has been arranged for, and the remains will be sent to Stroudsburg tomorrow, where his parents now live. A detail of four men will probably represent the company at the funeral services.

TO GET CAMP SITES READY.

Generals Have Been Ordered to Points in the South.

By Associated Press. Camp Meade, Middletown, Pa., Oct. 16.—Major von Schrader, assistant chief quartermaster of the Second corps, has been ordered to Philadelphia by Major General Graham to aid the peace jubilee committee in arranging for the care of the troops to be sent from Camp Meade. General Graham has directed the three division commanders to select a battalion from each regiment in their command to take part in the jubilee procession in addition to the Eighth, Thirteenth, Fourteenth and Fifteenth Pennsylvania regiments. The Ninth Ohio colored battalion and the signal and engineer corps companies have also been ordered to Philadelphia to participate in the festivities.

General Graham has ordered General Young to proceed to Augusta; General Oates to Summerville, S. C.; General Davis to Greenville, S. C.; General Randall to Athens, Ga., and Colonel Kirby, of the Fourth Missouri, to Spartanburg, S. C., to establish camps for the commands designated by the war department in recent orders. These officers will start from here tomorrow with three members of their staff and will return in time to accompany the provisional division to Philadelphia. Chief Quartermaster Howard has been ordered to Augusta to establish corps headquarters.

General Graham has been directed by Secretary Alger not to begin the movement south until the hospitals have been established in the proposed camps and there is no danger of an outbreak of yellow fever. This order was received today and General Graham immediately suspended preparations for the movement, which was to have begun October 27. He says the Second corps will not be shipped south until cold weather sets in and that the last of the troops will hardly get away from here before the middle of November.

Special orders were issued today granting an honorable discharge to Major Jackson, chief surgeon of the Second division hospital and detailing Major Joseph K. Weaver, of Norristown, as his successor. Major Jackson has resigned to accept the chair of surgery in the University Medical college, Kansas City. Two hospital cars filled with sick soldiers were sent away this afternoon. The invalids were taken to Philadelphia hospitals, which are now caring for over 700 sick of the Second corps.

The trouble among the officers of the Fourteenth Pennsylvania, caused by the request of some to be mustered and others to ask that the regiment be retained in the service, has culminated in the resignations of Majors Thompson and Jackson and half a dozen other officers of lower rank. Governor Hastings will fill these vacancies as soon as he is officially notified of the resignations.

THEY SPAT ON THE FLOOR.

Six Italians Had a Lively Time on a Trolley Car.

They were six Italians and had boarded an in-bound Dunmore suburban car at the corner of Mulberry street and Adams avenue yesterday morning about 8:45 o'clock. Conductor Powell was in charge of the car and Motorman Doherty was "running" it. All went well until one of the six spat upon the floor, almost upon the conductor's feet and in close proximity to the only lady passenger's dress.

Conductor Powell, who is small but brimful of grit and politeness, stated that "spitting in the car" was against the rules. All the six began promptly to break the law. The car had reached the corner of Wyoming avenue and Spruce street and Conductor Powell gave the six the option of "a mixup ensued. The motorman helped and so did Conductor McNulty, who had just arrived at the scene on an in-bound Laurel Hill-Washburn car. The six were badly bruised and cut, and were ejected.

The six went to Traction headquarters and laid down their ultimatum and later tried to waylay the crew again. One particularly obnoxious fellow was arrested and taken to the Centre street police station. Later in the day he left a deposit of $5 and was allowed to go until this morning. A few bruises and small cuts remain as reminders to Conductor Powell and Motorman Doherty, but Conductor McNulty is a hero, all the same.

FOR THE KILLING OF HEALEY.

Edward Kenny to be Called for Trial Today.

The second week of the October term of criminal court will open today with the trial of Edward Kenny, of Archbald, accused of the murder of his neighbor, Martin Healey.

April 9 of this year the men were in a saloon and had some words about a set of miner's tools. Blows were struck and Kenny left the place. Healey followed and they met again. During a second encounter, and while on the ground Kenny struck Healey with a pocket knife in the breast. Six days later, when Healey died, Kenny started back from New York, where he had gone in the interim, and gave himself up.

John J. Murphy, M. P. Conry and J. J. Manning are Kenny's attorneys. The Tracy embezzlement cases and six shoplifting cases against Mrs. H. M. Williams and Magie Thomas are among the cases on the week's list.

EXTENSION OF TIME.

Ninth Regiment Will be Mustered Out Oct. 29.

The latest circular concerning the mustering out of the Ninth regiment, of Wilkes-Barre, says: "The men will be mustered out ten days after the expiration of the thirty days' furlough on October 29. All men will be on active duty with their companies after the expiration of the furlough and the men will be allowed their regular pay and ration money, amounting to 50 cents per day for the extra ten days—this is an increase of 25 cents per day. This extension of time is given in order to give the officers in charge of the work of mustering out sufficient time to make the physical examinations of the men and look over the records of the companies."

Pennsylvania Inspection. Philadelphia, Oct. 16.—President Frank Thomson and the directors of the Pennsylvania railroad tonight left this city on their annual tour of inspection of the lines west of Pittsburgh. The party left in special cars attached to the 8:50 o'clock express due in Pittsburgh at 7:15 o'clock tomorrow morning.

POLICY OF MODERATION.

Adopted by the Dowager Empress of China.

Pekin, Oct. 16.—The reactionary policy of the dowager empress seems likely to return to moderation. An edict just issued promises to attend to the welfare of the people and to do the best to secure prosperity. The edict provides for the appointment of two boards of trade, one at Shanghai and one at Hankow, having jurisdiction over the whole south empire and Yangtze valley, including Shan Si.

Although separate the two boards are enjoined to work in harmony. Shank Chi Lum, viceroy of Hankow, is responsible for the reform, which, though of doubtful ability, is important as showing that the dowager empress has embarked upon a policy having tendencies towards reforms.

Our baby's face and neck was all raw meat, and something awful to look at.
