BROKE A SHOW CASE.—Charles Smith, 23 years old, whose home is in this city, was arrested Sunday afternoon on Penn avenue for breaking a show case with his fist. He paid $5 fine yesterday in police court.

AN IMPARTIAL OFFICER.—Henry Jacoby, a barber, was arrested Sunday night by his father-in-law, Special Officer Armstrong, for drunkenness and disorderly conduct at his home. He was fined $1 yesterday by the mayor.

COMMISSIONER APPOINTED.—Atorney J. W. Guernsey is the commissioner who will take the testimony in the impeachment proceedings against Alderman Kelly of the Eleventh ward. L. M. Sheehy was appointed stenographer.

WARRANT FOR DESSERTION.—Mrs. George W. Turner, of Roaring Brook township, swore out a warrant before Alderman How yesterday for her husband for desertion and non-support. The constable will bring the defendant in today.

WEEKLY DEATH RATE.—The total mortality for the week ending Saturday was 28. Two died from diphtheria and one from membranous croup. Thirty cases of contagious diseases were reported, of which 21 are diphtheria and scarlet fever.

FOR STEALING COAL.—W. S. Langstaff, foreman at the Diamond mine, caused the arrest of two Italians yesterday afternoon on the charge of stealing coal from the breaker. They were taken in the act, so it is alleged, and were taken to the central police station.

THIRD LECTURE.—Mrs. J. A. Pennington will give the third in her series of lectures on musical history tomorrow afternoon commencing at 4 o'clock in the Scranton Conservatory of Music. Mrs. Pennington's topic will be "Medieval Church Music."

FUNERAL OF CHARLES MALLA.—The funeral of Charles Malla will take place from his late home this morning on Prospect avenue, at 9.30 o'clock. A mass of requiem will be celebrated in St. John's church. Interment will be made in the Cathedral cemetery.

VOLUNTEERS MASS MEETING.—The rally in the interest of the Volunteer work in Scranton Wednesday night, Oct. 14, at Grace Reformed church, no doubt will draw a large audience. Beside Colonel Patten Lindsay and Lieutenant Colonel Fred Lindsay, Staff Captain Forrest is arranging with local talent to assist in the meeting.

PAVES GOING OUT OF BOND.—The joint paving committee of councils, the city engineer and the street commissioner will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock to inspect the vitrified brick work on Madison avenue, the stone block on North Main avenue, and a section of the asphalt on Lackawanna avenue. The guarantee on these paves is about to expire.

ST. LUKE'S DAY.—At St. Luke's church, this morning, holy communion will be received. It being St. Luke's day throughout the episcopalian churches of the land. The services will be at 7.30 and 10.30 o'clock. There will be a parish meeting this evening at 7.30 o'clock, at which reports of the guilds will be heard, and the work of the parish assigned for the ensuing year.

BICYCLE ACCIDENT.—A collision occurred yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the corner of Monroe avenue and Linden street between a buggy driven by Charles Raffell and a bicycle ridden by Joseph Howe, son of Alderman Howe. Young Howe was thrown under the buggy, the hind wheel of which passed over his left leg, inflicting severe injuries but fortunately not breaking the limb. The bicycle was pretty well demolished, and will require considerable repairing to be again serviceable. Neither party attaches any blame to the other.

CLOSE OF THE MEETINGS.—Lecturer Will J. McConnell closed his meetings in Green Ridge last night with a big rally at which was present one of the largest audiences of the series. Rev. William J. Ford, of the Green Ridge Baptist church conducted the devotional exercises and Mrs. B. T. Mayo, rector of a solo. Tonight, at 7.30, the series of lectures in the Peckville Methodist church.

HAD A SECRET.—A young man 21 years old, giving his name as W. G. Nicholson, and his occupation that of superintendent of a mine, was picked up on Wyoming avenue last Sunday night in a helplessly drunken condition. He told Mayor Bailey yesterday in police court that he could give a good reason for being found that way, but he wanted to keep it secret. The mayor did not try to find out the secret and fined him $5, which he paid.

FOURTY HOURS DEVOTION.—In St. Paul's Catholic church, Green Ridge, Sunday afternoon, the 29 o'clock mass forty hours devotion to the sacred heart of Jesus were begun. At the evening services, Rev. A. J. Broderick, of West Scranton, presided. Last night, Rev. J. J. MacDonnell, of St. Peter's cathedral, officiated, and tonight Rev. John Loughlin, of the Holy Trinity church of the Holy Cross, Bellevue, will preach.

THREE IN ONE DAY.—Three marriages were solemnized in the office of Clerk of the Courts Danahy yesterday. Alderman Myron Kason, of the Ninth ward, officiating in each case. The contracting parties were Thomas Moran, of Wyoming, and Grace Graham, of Moscoe; Henry L. Williams and Bella Smith, of Glen Lake, and Frank White and Mary J. Lane, of Old Fort. These make twenty-three marriages that Alderman Kason has performed since taking his office in May.

SUES FOR $50,000.—Letter Carrier Harry E. White instituted proceedings yesterday to recover $50,000 from the Scranton Railway company for the injuries he received in the runaway on Mulberry street last August 8. The car in which he was riding got beyond the control of the motorman coming down the hill and at the turn on Jefferson avenue gave such a violent jolt that he was thrown against the seat and then on the floor sustaining injuries to the spine that will, he alleges, disable him permanently. E. W. Thayer and O'Brien and Kelly are his attorneys.

VIOLATED AGREEMENT.—A bill in equity was yesterday filed by Attorneys Vesting & Dawson on behalf of Dr. R. P. Taylor, a dentist of this city. It is alleged in the bill that the plaintiff purchased the defendant's good will and equipments and that the defendant agreed not to practice dentistry in this city or its adjoining towns, but that the defendant has violated his agreement by opening an office in Green Ridge. An injunction is asked for to restrain the defendant from violating the alleged agreement.

BOOK RECEPTION.—John Hoyle O'Connell, No. 331 Young Men's Association, will conduct a book reception tomorrow evening at the institute rooms on Lackawanna avenue. Among those who will participate in the entertainment programme are Miss Kate Reardon, Miss Minnie Moore, Miss Lizzy Gilbarde, William Sheehan, James Snydler, Frank O'Hara, William Lyonn, Thomas Conery, Peter McLaughlin, Sydney Hughes, James Moran and M. J. Coyne. Address 331 Young Men's Association.

SEMI-ANNUAL ENTERTAINMENT.—Scranton circle, No. 88, Companions of the Foresters, composed of a membership of women, conducted an entertainment last night in the new corner building. Mrs. P. M. Barlow was presiding officer. A programme of vocal and instrumental music began at 8 o'clock and was kept going until 1.30, when preparations began for the cake walk. Two hundred couples joined in the walk. The first prize was won by the winner of a fine cake. Ralph Jarwood, of Dunmore, and his little daughter were the lucky couple. The affair was concluded with cake, coffee and tea cream. It was a semi-annual event.

ELECTION CONTEST WITNESSES.—In the election contest yesterday the following witnesses were examined: Thomas Gilbride, John Sheridan, Richard Coughlin, Michael Reid, John Harkin, John T. O'Boyle, Mathias Thross, John Astringer, T. J. Mullally, Mathias Imersheit, Daniel Cavanaugh, Patrick P. Madden, of the First district; John J. Lynch, Michael Corlies, Timothy Cotter, Southwest district of Lackawanna township; William Nalin, Stephen Healey, First district, Second ward; Summers, Anthony Gentry, James Carroll, Second district, Sixth ward, Scranton; Thomas McCormick, Second ward, Dunmore; John J. Lynch, Michael Corlies, of Lackawanna township, was sworn to have been voting a number of years a declaration of intention to become a citizen, believing it was a naturalization paper.

MALL MISSION.—The first annual meeting of the McAll mission was held yesterday at the handsome new home of the McAll family on Madison avenue. A large number of managers, members, and friends were in attendance. Mrs. Price presided and the ordinary routine of business was transacted. Letters were read from Mrs. Emma Lynn, whose summer abroad was chiefly devoted to visiting mission. She wrote enthusiastically of the McAll work and is prepared to give talks on the result of her visits. Mrs. Selden Blair and Mrs. M. H. Holgate read articles on the work. Mrs. E. A. Larbie gave the secretary's report and Miss Adela Clark read the report of the treasurer. Mrs. Price urged all to secure at least one new member. Refreshments were served to the guests at the close of the meeting. The November session will probably be held at the home of Mrs. S. P. Hall in Green Ridge.

WILL HOLD TWO SESSIONS.—The teachers' committee of the board of control will meet tomorrow afternoon at the city hall at 1.30 sharp to visit No. 20 and No. 21 schools and decide the question of issue between Controllers Leonard and Francis. At the last meeting of the board Superintendent Howell recommended that an annex be provided at No. 21 school. Mr. Francis, in whose ward the school is, made a statement in line with the recommendation that twenty or twenty-five pupils have been turned away this term from No. 21 from lack of room. Mr. Leonard arose with a paper in his hand purporting to contain the names of twenty or more pupils of the Twenty-first ward that are going to No. 21, and he claimed that his ward was the one entitled to the annex. To settle the question, the committee will visit the school this afternoon. The committee will meet again at 7.30 in the evening to take action on opening night schools wherever petitions have been presented for them.

ONE FIRE COMPANY LESS.—Probability That Century Hose Company Will Be Off Duty for a Time. Temporarily, at least, it seems that the Century Hose company, of Pittston avenue, will be mustered out of the services. On the tour of inspection of the Century, Neptune and Cumberland houses yesterday afternoon by Mayor Bailey, Chief Hickey, Building Inspector Nelson and Councilmen Wade Finn, Simon Thomas, T. C. Melvin, and F. W. Zitzelman and District Chief Wright, the quarters of the Century company were found to be in such a dilapidated shape that the building inspector said the building would have to be condemned immediately. WHAT LOCAL BOARD WILL RECOMMEND

RESOLUTIONS TO BE PRESENTED TO NATIONAL BOARD.

They Contemplate the Taking Off of Certain War Taxes; Recommend the Completion of the Nicaragua Canal; Favor Permanent Control of Conquered Colonies, and Urge Amendments to Financial Laws. Interesting Address by A. B. Dunning on Steel-track Wagon Roads.

At the regular meeting of the board of trade last night Colonel F. L. Hitchcock and Captain W. A. May were elected delegates to the national convention and Colonel H. M. Bales alternates to the national convention of boards of trade to be held in Washington Dec. 13, and instructions were given them to present for consideration the following resolutions:

Resolved, That congress be asked to repeal the revenue tax on promissory notes, the mortgages and bonds accompanying them, protests of bank notes, and all conveyances by sheriff, arraigner or official courts, that the act be amended so as to require express, telegram and telephone companies to pay the tax imposed upon bills of lading, shipping receipts and bills of exchange, and to permit for collecting the tax from the shipper or sender.

Resolved, That the national board of trade, that it is the sense of this board that the interests of American trade and commerce in the far east, and every consideration of national honor, self-interest, as well as good faith with the people who became our friends and allies in the war against Spain, demands that our warlike and aggressive policy in the Philippine, Caroline and Ladrones islands and their dependencies, at least until such a government has been established as shall guarantee to the people the same rights of civil and religious liberty as are enjoyed by ourselves.

NICARAGUA CANAL. Resolved, By the national board of trade, that reaffirming its utterances for the past five years, it earnestly urges upon congress such action as will secure the immediate completion of the Nicaragua canal, and the absolute control of the United States. That the building of this canal is not only a commercial and military necessity in view of our interests in the middle Pacific and the far east, but is demanded by every consideration of common prudence for the protection of our vast coast lines upon both the Atlantic and Pacific oceans.

Resolved, That the national board of trade hereby reaffirms its action adopted at its annual convention in 1897, in regard to the banking and currency questions, and urges upon congress immediate legislation in accordance therewith.

The first resolution was offered by Col. Hitchcock, and the last three by Col. Bales. The last resolution refers to the recommendations of the monetary conference which were approved by the national board of trade. They contemplate a gradual withdrawal of the United States notes and the establishment of national banks in smaller towns.

A resolution transmitted by the Philadelphia board of trade looking to the increasing of the American ocean carrying trade by congressional action was approved by the board.

The resignation of Myer Davidson was accepted, Charles W. Schank was elected to membership and an application for membership was received from A. B. Dunning, Jr.

A vote of thanks was tendered to ex-President John M. Kemmerer for his gift of a life sized portrait of himself. The request of the loyal knights in inviting the supreme commandery to come to the city for the first time in this city was complied with.

The following resolutions on the death of ex-Secretary R. W. Luce were adopted:

Whereas, By the Providence of the Almighty he is called upon to mourn the loss of our fellow citizen, ex-Secretary, R. W. Luce. Therefore, be it

Resolved, That by the death of R. W. Luce the city of Scranton has lost an active and enthusiastic member, one of its original number, who, in the early years of our city's history, did much towards its advancement and honor in the several positions to which he was elected or appointed.

Resolved, That this board feels keenly the loss thus sustained and hereby extends to his bereaved wife and children its sympathy and consolation in this their great grief. And further,

Resolved, That this preamble and resolution be recorded upon the minute book of the board, a copy sent to the family of the deceased.

(Signed, H. B. Atherton, W. H. Peck, H. E. Paine, committee.)

MR. DUNNING'S ADDRESS. At the conclusion of the meeting the members listened to an address by A. B. Dunning, Jr. on the Good Roads movement in connection with the Omaha exposition, and to which he was a commissioner from this state. He gave an exhaustive history of the good roads movement and a sketch of the practical work of the committee, the road and the Abington Turpike company. Mr. Dunning said, had concluded to lay a mile of double track for an experiment.

A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. Dunning and the board gave its approval of the steel track represented on Mr. Dodge's design.

ONE FIRE COMPANY LESS. Probability That Century Hose Company Will Be Off Duty for a Time. Temporarily, at least, it seems that the Century Hose company, of Pittston avenue, will be mustered out of the services. REMAINS WENT ASTRAY.

Casket Containing Soldier's Corpse Was Missed.

The remains of Corporal John Edinger, of Company D, who died in Lancaster Sunday, did not arrive as expected at his father's home in Stroudsburg yesterday, and inquiries failed to locate them up to a late hour last night.

Judge Edinger, the dead soldier's uncle, was in telephone communication with Major Stillwell last evening, and was told that the remains were started all right from Lancaster with a detail in charge. The parents also started down to accompany the remains home. It is thought that in changing cars at Philadelphia the remains were put on a wrong train.

SHE WAS TIRED OF LIFE.

Sixteen Year Old Lulu Walter Committed Suicide by Taking Carbolic Acid—Wants to Be Buried in Night Robe.

Lulu Walter, the 16-year-old daughter of Mrs. Mary Walter, of 916 West Linden street, committed suicide last evening with an ounce of carbolic acid. She was employed at 2.30 to find her only child in her bedroom partly conscious and moaning fearfully with pain.

Dr. McKeure was the nearest physician and was hurriedly called. A little later Dr. Hall was sent for, and both worked with untiring effort to antidote the terrible poison. The girl was beyond recovery and she died at 9.30. An ounce bottle labeled carbolic acid was found in the room empty. It had been purchased during the day at a central city drug store.

The girl was employed in the Scranton laundry on Washington avenue, and was not permitted to be at work until 10 o'clock on Monday morning. When her mother left in the morning at 7.30 for her daily avocation she was sleeping.

There is a family living upstairs in the house, but none of its members were apprised of the girl's presence during the day. There was a note on the table in the bedroom which read:

Dear Mama: Forgive me. Under my pillow is my sorry. I try me in my night dress. I am sorry but I was tired of life.

The week's wages minus the amount as directed, Mrs. Walter was unable to come to the funeral, which was held in the morning at 10 o'clock on Monday morning. When her mother left in the morning at 7.30 for her daily avocation she was sleeping.

TOWNSHIP BOOKS STOLEN.

Sensational Pass in Lackawanna Township Indebtedness.

All the books, papers and everything in the shape of records of Lackawanna township that were in the hands of the township clerk, James Lynch, have been stolen and probably destroyed. Lynch lives near the Archbald mines, and to save himself the trouble of carrying the books, etc., to and from the meetings of the auditors, which are held in Minooka, he oftentimes leaves the books in the care of some responsible friend in the latter place.

On Monday last subpoenas were issued for the township auditors James Langan and Michael Lyden, summoning them to appear before Commissioner John P. Quinlan, who is entering upon an investigation of the alleged forged orders which have been discovered in the marshalling of the township's indebtedness. Clark Lynch brought the books to Minooka, and left them over night in the care of a man named Bowen, who is a clerk in Merlyn McDonough's general store. The next day when Lynch went to secure the books he discovered that they had been stolen.

WAS KILLED IN SOUTH DAKOTA.

The Relatives of John Weir Are Inquired for.

The following letter was received yesterday by Postmaster Ripple and is self-explanatory:

Central City, S. D., Oct. 4, 1898. To the Postmaster, Scranton, Pa.

Dear Sir: John Weir, an old timer and pioneer of the Black Hills, was on the morning of August 11, accidentally shot and killed while in the act of rescuing a friend from imminent danger.

In searching his effects no trace of his people could be found, but some time before his death he mentioned to me that he had a sister, the name of which he lived at your place but that they were now dead and that he had friends and relatives still living at Scranton.

Heir's estate is in good hands and it would afford his many friends great pleasure to know that his heirs become possessed of the same.

If you have any knowledge of his people please refer this letter to the chief of police at your place. Any information as to the whereabouts of his people will be greatly appreciated by yours truly.

DIED.

SWIFT.—In Scranton, Oct. 16, Gabriella Swift, widow of the late John Swift, and daughter of the late William Brock, of this city, died at St. Luke's church yesterday afternoon at 11 o'clock. Interment private at the Hill cemetery.

MURDER TRIAL WAS POSTPONED A DAY

TWO JUDGES WERE DELAYED ON THEIR WAY HITHER.

Case Will Come Up This Morning Before Judge McClure or Judge Love—Number of Verdicts Rendered in Minor Cases—Riker Pleads Guilty of Horse Stealing and Burglary and Goes to the Penitentiary for a Year and a Half.

The trial of Edward Kenny for the killing of Martin Healey in Archbald, in April last, which was marked for yesterday, went over until today, owing to the fact that Judge McClure and Judge Love, one of whom was to try the case, both failed to reach the city in time. They were expected to arrive here at noon, but telegraphed that because of a railroad delay they could not get here until late in the afternoon.

Pending the calling of a jury in the murder trial the jurors were utilized in disposing of some of the minor cases on the list.

A fifth member for the party that will accompany Sheriff Pryor to Cherry Hill next week was found in the person of Harry Riker, who pleaded guilty of horse stealing and burglary. He was arrested last spring for stealing a bear skin overcoat from Horse Dealer Waldron and was sentenced by Judge Edwards to thirty days in the county jail. On the night of the day he was released, he stole a horse and carriage belonging to Albert Wicks from in front of Thomas' hotel on Lackawanna avenue, and drove to Dunmore with it and robbed John A. Wood's general store.

He tried to sell some of the stolen goods to Fred Naylor, whose place of business is only a few doors below the scene of the robbery and was taken by the Scotland police a few minutes later while driving back towards Scranton. His record, according to the police archives, also shows that he served a term in the Luzerne county prison for stealing and that he is wanted in Pittston for a similar offense.

PLEA FOR LENIENCY. Attorney John F. Martin made a plea for leniency, alleging that Riker is a good man, and that he is the only support of a widowed mother. He particularly asked that his client be sent to the penitentiary. Judge Gunster was lenient, but not to the extent prayed for by Mr. Martin. He sentenced Riker to one year and six months in the Eastern penitentiary in the burglary case and suspended sentence in the other.

Deyanbert Stenohenson plead guilty of stealing two Delaware and Hudson excelsior stoves from the show case of Harry Dolph's store in Carbonate and was given thirty days in the county jail.

The malicious mischief case in which Michael Leonard was charged by James J. Gallagher with tearing down a fence was settled, upon the defendant paying the cost.

Similar disposition was made of the case in which Frank Lowry was charged with attempted criminal assault upon Sarah Ann Morris.

Simon Norushan and his wife Suscha asked permission to withdraw their counter charges of assault and battery and it was allowed them.

The jury in the assault and battery case of Stephen Sherwood against Peter Jacony returned a verdict of non guilty and divided the costs. The parties engaged in an altercation at a Saturday night dance in John Biesky's hotel in Jersey and after it was over Sherwood on his way home was assaulted by some one who had laid in wait for him behind a coat shed. He was positive, but the jury only half believed him.

Mary Moran was muled for two-thirds of the costs in the assault and battery case she prosecuted against her neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. John Mack.

VERDICT OF NOT GUILTY. Mrs. Kate Naughton was returned not guilty of the charge of stealing $14 from her friend, Mrs. Ann Gallagher, of the North End. Mrs. Gallagher alleges that she hid $14 under the carpet of her front room and that Mrs. Naughton, who saw her concealing the money, snaked in later and stole it. She further alleges that when she accused Mrs. Naughton of the theft, Mrs. Naughton gave her back $8. Mrs. Naughton denied the whole accusation and explained that she did not give Mrs. Gallagher $8, but that Mrs. Gallagher met her one day when she was out shopping and grabbed her purse, containing $8.

A jury went out just before adjournment on the case of Ray L. Smith, charged by O. F. Gunther with assault and battery. The prosecutor is the old Fleetville farmer, who secured a wife last June by advertising in the New York papers. The boys of the neighborhood tendered him a "hazing" one night shortly after his marriage and during the excitement, some one threw a stone, which hit the aged bridegroom on the head, inflicting a painful wound.

He claims he recognized young Smith as the one who threw the stone, but a number of witnesses for the defense swore that at the time the hazing was on the Smith boy was at the village grocery store.

Another case between Maggie Dimler and Ida Swartz, in which the former accused the latter of keeping a house of ill repute and selling liquor without a license, was given to the jury during the afternoon, but no verdict had been reached at adjournment. The Dimler woman was on Saturday sentenced to six months in the county
