TALK ON PHYSICAL CULTURE

Delivered by Miss Caroline T. Conkling in the Scranton Conservatory.

"Physical Culture" and how best to quire it, was the subject of an instructive talk given by Miss Caroline T. Conkling on Saturday afternoon at the Scranton Conservatory of Music After explaining that the care of the said that the first step in body training must be the bringing up to a nor mal position and activity of the vital organs. Before good blood can be made the heart, lungs, liver, etc., must be in their proper place, doing smootly their appointed work,

Miss Conkling gave a series of drills which exhibited how these vital organs could be exercised, and later showed now the currents of vitality thus quickened could be most advantageously and equally distributed throughout the system. Her system of training comsines hygienic gymnastics with Delsarte gestures, giving both vigorous exercise and grace, rhythm and symmetry of movement. The talk was clear, direct and most enjoyable. At a later date Miss Conkling will consider the subject of "Expression."

In traveling, the four most important points to be considered are safety. punctuality of service, comfort and speed. The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern raliway combines them all. Its roadbed and equipment surpass those of any other railway in America. The largest attendance ever present at an annual meeting of the Plorence mission was at the new home for the institution on Harrison avenue yesterday afternoon. Many ladies of other towns who are interested in the work were present. At the conclusion of the session dainty refreshments were served and visitors were shown over the new institution.

In the absence of Mrs. Thomas Dickson Mrs. W. W. Lathrope presided and opened the meeting by a Scriptural reading. Rev. G. E. Guild offered prayer: Mrs W. S. Diehl read the minutes of the last annual meeting; Mrs. Lathrope read the report of the last year, a strong and well-written paper. She gave a brief resume of the year's progress in the new building, and then spoke of the objects of the work and its far reaching influence. OPENING EVENING CLASSES.

Exercises Held in the R. R. Y. M. C. A. Last Night.

At the Railroad Young Men's Christian association last night there was a very interesting and entertaining time in connection with the opening of the educational classes. The large number of young men present listened to several excellent addresses, some sweet music and afterwards were regaled with a lunch served by the ladies auxiliary.

The exercises were arranged by F W. Pearsall, the association secretary A. B. Clemons, of the Dickson works formerly educational secretary of the New Jersey state committee of the Young Men's Christian association, made the principal address of the evening. One of the facts stated by him is that one-sixth of the night school work of the country is done by the Young Men's Christian association. Other addresses were made by J. A Mellen, instructor in the mechanical drafting department of the evening school; F. D. Glever, who teaches penmanship, arithmetic and grammar, and John Armstrong, who directs the gymnasium work. Mr. Mellen has had charge of this department of the work for six years, and Messrs. Glover and Armstrong for four years each.

Music was furnished by the Crpheus instrumental quartette. The exercises were presided over by D. J. Whiteford, chairman of the educational committee. Before the exercises concluded a
