STARS WON BASKET BALL CON-TEST IN ARMORY.

Playing Was of a Brilliant Character from Beginning to End-Mrs. Jane Herbert, of North Main Avenue, Severely Injured by Falling While Returning from Church. Marriage of Thomas Jehu and Mrs. Ann Hopkins-Movements of Well Known Persons.

The basket ball game last night between Zang and his coterie of players and the Stars in Company H armory, was one of the best seen in many seasons. The game was one of fast playing from start to finish, keeping the spectators continually interested. Brilliant playing was characteristic throughout the entire contest. Mc-Closkey played an excellent game for the home team scoring three baskets on fouls in the first half. The second half closed with the score five to three in favor of the Stars.

MRS. HERBERT INJURED. Mrs. Jane Herbert, of North Main avenue, was severely injured Sunday morning while returning from attending church. The plank side walk in front of W. D. Davis' drug store is responsible for her injuries. Mrs. Herbert was walking over it when a portion gave way, tripping her. She fell with great force on a number of flag stones which had been placed there to take the place of the board walk.

Mrs. Herbert is a very heavy woman and her injuries were consequently severe. Her right arm and other portions of her body were painfully

MINOOKA.

The Minooka Athletic association has organized a foot ball eleven for the coming season. The plan of the promoters of the scheme is to play only Saturday afternoon games with some of the leading elevens in northeastern Pennsylvania. The team will be under the management of T. J. Connell. James Powell, of Stroudsburg '96, will coach the club. The line up will possibly and probably be as follows: P. O'Neill, centre; J. Joyce, left guard; Coggins, right guard; Flannery, left tackle; M. O'Neill, right tackle; M.

Private James Duckly, of Company A. Thirteenth Pennsylvania infantry, is home from Camp Meade on a sevenday furlough.

Thomas Davin is home after a few onths' stay in Pittsburg. Michael Corbett, of Pittsburg arrived here yesterday to attend the funeral of his brother, John, which took place yesterday afternoon. Patrick Connolly, the well known Nimrod, left yesterday for a week's hunt at Lehigh Centre.

Fashion's Ideas Have Matured.

There's no longer any doubt as to what is the correct thing to wear. Weaves, fabrics and shades have now been definitely passed on by a critical public, and their verdict is final, for, no matter what the designer, weaver or modiste may plan or scheme for women's delight, if their ideas fail to meet with popular approval, they have surely labored in vain.

For This and Other Reasons

MASS MEETING IN ST. DAVID'S HALL FRIDAY NIGHT.

Number of Able Speakers Will Deliver Addresses at a Republican Mass Meeting-Annual Banquet of St. Paul's Pioneer Corps-Weekly Deposits of School Children-Farewell to Captain and Mrs. Williams of the Salvation Army-Minor News Notes and Personsals.

The first gun of the campaign in this part of the city will be fired Friday night, when a flerublican mass meeting will be be St. David's hall. This will be et- the first meetings held in the county during this campaign, and will, it is needless to say, parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isnac Edwards, attract a large number of voters. In fact it is entirely probable the hall will be much too small to accommodate all those who will desire to attend.

> That as many as possible may secure admission to the hall arrangements will be made to economize space so that the largest number of persons consistent with comfort may be enabled o hear the speakers. Before the close of the campaign several other Republican mass meetings will be held in this part of the city.

Those who will speak at Friday night's meeting are Hon. J. M. Evans, of Mercer; Hon. W. G. Thomas, of Mauch Chunk; Hon, John R. Farr, R. A. Zimmerman and W. Gaylord Thom-

ST. PAUL'S BANQUET,

Without any special ostentation, but uletly and thoroughly as is their wont, he members of St. Paul's Pioneer corps bserved their twelfth anniversary last evening at St. David's hall on North Main avenue. A banquet, post-prandial exercises and dancing were the pleasures of the evening. The hall was artistically decorated with streamrs and the national colors. The members of the corps were in full uniform and their lady friends were prettily costumed

The banquet tables were arranged in three parallel rows, running lengthwise of the hall and there along them were placed vases of cut flowers. The menu was a well selected one, comprising the season's dainties. M. J. Kelly was caterer, assisted by a corps of young lady waitresses. The viands were served in courses. Seated about the tables were one hundred and forty persons. At the head of the centre table sat toastmaster P. F. McCoy and heading the right and left tables were Walter McNicholas and Frank McLain respectively After all had partaken of the banquet dainties, the post prandial exexercises were carried out. J. J. Sweeney made the opening address expressing his appreciation of the honor conferred. He spoke in a laudatory manner of the corps and gallantly referred to the ladies. He then introduced Toastmaster McCoy with a few well chosen

Charles Graham entertained with a whistling solo, and the exercises were ncluded with a piano solo by Thomas McNamara.

Before leaving the banquet table, Poastmaster McCoy tendered his apreclation of the attendance of so many members, the hearty response of each speaker and the presence of the ladies. He then called for a rising vote of thanks, indicating their respect for and appreciation of their newspaper friends present. It was promptly given. The floor was then cleared and terpischore was supreme as the music for dancing was played by Joseph Mc-Toastmuster McCoy and sister, Miss Margaret McCoy, lead the grand march.

ACCIDENTS OF YESTERDAY. Frank, the 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Reese Carson, of 328 Seventeenth street, was painfully injured yesterday afternoon at his home. He was seated in his high-chair at the dinner table and was tipping the chair back by pushing against the table. He pushed too far, and before his mother could eatch him he toppled over. His right arm was broken by the fall. A physician attended the injured child. Mrs. H. P. Ranck, of 228 North Ninth street, was seriously and painfully injured yesterday morning at her home. She was engaged in her household duties and had stepped out onto the porch carrying in her hands a large piece of glass. She tripped and in falling the glass came beneath her. Her right limb was gashed terribly. Dr. Carroll was summoned and it required twelve stitches to close the wound. The injured woman was also very weak from oss of blood, the wound bleeding profusely before the veins could be closed.

FAREWELL TO CAPT. WILLIAMS. Captain and Mrs. Charles Williams, who for nearly six months have labored hard and persistently for the advancement of the local Salvation army corps and its work, are now to leave this field of labor to enter a broader one. They depart Thursday for Allentown, and this evening the members of the corps will tender them a farewell reception at the barracks on Price street from 8 to 9.30 o'clock. All friends are cordially invited to be present.

Captain and Mrs. Williams succeeded Captain and Mrs. Ackerson, who went to Wilkes-Barre. The new leaders here will be Captains Young and Andrews, both young ladies.

the course of his discourse last night

Mr. Cobb said in part: "The difference in the death of these two men were not in any sense depen dent on their external circumstances If men are simply what their environment makes them, then Judas should have been the better man, for he was personally acquainted with Jesus, wit nessed His miracles, listened to his teachings and was one of the apostles. On the other hand, Stephen never say Jesus, except in his dying moments when he exclaimed: 'Hehold, I see th heavens opened and the glory of God and Jesus standing on the right hand of God.' Surely then we are justified in saying that the manner of their death was not dependent on external circumstances. In point of fact their deaths were the logical outcome of the live they had lived."
