THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-THURSDAY, OCTOBER 20, 1898.

PEACE CELEBRATION HELD IN ST. DAVID'S HALL.

Exercises Were Presided Over by T. J. Jennings Who Delivered an Interesting Address-Mr. and Mrs. Max Krummer Celebrated the Fifth Anniversary of Their Marriage. Funeral of Mrs. Harriet Lewis. Foot Ball Game Won by the No, 14 School Team.

The cassation of hostilities was celebrated in St. David's hall last evening by the two branches of the Catholic Benevolent association of this side Many invitations were sent out and nearly all were accepted judging from the number in attendance. The fore part of the evening was devoted to the enjoyment of a short programme appropriate to the evening's intent. School Controller T. J. Jennings presided during the exercises. His opening remarks were a short and pithy review of the "late" interesting events and the purpose of the peace observance as set on foot by the members of Branches 97 and 44 of the association. An instrumental dust was played by Messrs, Hale and Williams. Following the recitation of "The Liberty Bell" by Miss Henrietta Cummings, an interesting address upon "War Reminiscences" was given by Captain P. J. McAndrew.

Miss Rena Langan gave a short talk upon "Our Brave Boys in Plue" which indicated decided originality in preparation and was replete with entertaining anecdotes. Miss Langan is possessed of a winning personality and her talk delivered in an easy style evoked much applause, A solo by Miss Rhodz Clark was followed by the reading of a poem by Miss B, Judge. This poem was composed by John McComb and dedicated to the Union Veterans' union. John R. Barrett delivered an address upon the "Growth of Our Societies. The exercises were concluded with a special and timely feature, the presentation of an embiematic watch charm to Captain P. J. McAndrew for "services rendered." Miss Sarah Mc-Donnell made the presentation in behalf of the two branches, in a happy manner and as she attached the charm to the gallant captain's chain hearty applause ensued. Captain McAndrews expressed his deep appreciation of the gift in a few well chosen words.

Refreshments were served and dancing followed. The members of the several committees who were in charge last evening were; Reception committee, Mrs. Kate Crossin, Mrs. McGool, Mrs. J. B. Connor, Mrs. John R. Barrett, Miss Lizzie Carcy, P. J. McAndrew, John R. Barrett; ushers, John J. Sweeney, Thomas J. Quinnan: floor committee, T. J. Egan, Thomas J. Walsh, Thomas P. McLain, John J. Among other reasons for this fact are the following:

First-Their light weight and warmth.

Second-Their easy and perfect fitting qualities.

Third-Their soft, clinging qualities and special adaptability for wear under a close fitting over-garment.

Fourth-The beautiful shades and color effects, which the fine wools from which the fabrics are woven make possible. Fifth-Their moderate cost and great durability.

Flannel dress waists are even more popular than their prototype, the summer shirt waist, and the long and persistent efforts of the designers and modistes have at last evolved a garment with all the charm of its forerunner, and a good deal more comfort and common sense.
