VERDICT IN KENNY CASE.

Found Guilty of Manslaughter But Recommended to the Mercy of the Court—Some of the Sentences Imposed. A verdict of manslaughter, accompanied by a recommendation of extreme mercy was returned Saturday afternoon by the jury in the case of Edward Kenny, charged with the murder of Martin Healey, in Archibald, last April.

The agreement was reached at 2:30 o'clock, after a deliberation of a few minutes over forty-eight hours. An hour later, when the defendant and the attorneys had been summoned, the jury came in and rendered its verdict. On Mr. Kenny's motion the jury was polled and each as his name was called answered "manslaughter." A paper signed by every juror recommending extreme mercy was presented with the verdict.

At the opening of court Saturday morning the jury once more sent in word that it could not agree and requested its request to be discharged. Judge Ginter sent for them and explained at length that it was not within the power of the court to discharge them and that nothing except the death of one of their number could effect their release before an agreement was reached.

It is understood that the jury stood seven for acquittal and five for a verdict of manslaughter on the first ballot. Later one of the minority went over to the acquittal side and thus they remained until Saturday afternoon, when the majority gave in.

Verdicts not guilty were returned in the following cases: Edward Mahar, malicious mischief; Edward Lewis, receiving stolen goods; Timothy Brady, statutory burglary; Frederick Skoels, larceny; Thomas Stewart, larceny; Joseph McAndrew, attempted robbery. WEDDED AT GREENFIELD. Miss Hattie Snyder and John L. Slocum United.

A very charming marriage was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Snyder, at Greenfield, last Wednesday evening, when their daughter, Miss Hattie, was married to John Slocum. At 8 o'clock Miss Mervie Hayley, of Scranton, presiding at the organ, the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march were heard and the bridal party passed under the arch leading from the parlor into the drawing room.

LIST OF PENSION CLAIMS GRANTED

SECURED THROUGH EFFORTS OF CONGRESSMAN CONNELL. Claims That Were Filed by Him Numbered Three Hundred and Twenty-seven—Of That Number Sixty Have Been Granted and Two Hundred and Forty-eight Are Still Pending—Names of Those for Whom Favorable Action Was Secured and the Amounts Granted.

From the Scranton Truth (Saturday). An interesting record of pension claims for Lackawanna county, presented and pushed by Congressman Connell has been compiled at Washington. The record shows that during Mr. Connell's first term in congress he has caused to be filed a total of 327 claims, of which 69 have been granted, 19 rejected and 248 are yet pending. The monthly average now paid by the government on claims granted since Mr. Connell went to congress is $311. The total paid out or likely to be paid out on the claims yet adjudicated but nearly completed, estimated on the basis of those already granted, will, with arrears, equal not less than $30,576—a showing for the people of this congressional district which, as has been noted, has not been surpassed by the work of any other member of the Fifty-fifth congress. A list of claims granted in this district follows:

USEFUL TO ADVERTISERS. A Handy Book Issued by a Large General Advertising Agency. Charles H. Fuller's Advertising Directory of Leading Newspapers and Magazines, 1898, is a complete and perfect ready-reference book for advertisers. The information it contains is so arranged that the size of the book is brought down to the proportions of the manual, and there seems to be no omissions of essential materials on that account. The classification of the publications is made on the basis of their character, and the sub-classification is by states and territories. A glance at the table of contents shows the searcher instantly what he wants, and he turns to it easily. It does not purport to be a complete newspaper directory, but points to the leading periodicals of every description—daily newspapers, Sunday newspapers, weekly and semi-weekly newspapers, magazines, monthly and semi-monthly publications, religious papers, Sunday school papers, agricultural, juvenile, medical, sporting papers, all of them the leading ones in their respective fields.

IN POLICE COURT. Nine Offenders Dealt With on the Sabbath Morning. Nine prisoners were brought before Mayor Bailey in police court yesterday forenoon, a larger batch than any that confronted his honor at one time in several months. Saturday was pay day at several of the mills and mines. John O'Brien, an Elmhurst farmer, was fined $5 for taking a nickel from a newsboy on Spruce street. There is a commitment made out for his transfer to the county jail today if the fine is not paid.

POLITICAL JOTTINGS. There was a meeting of the Democratic county committee Saturday night at which matters pertaining to the campaign were discussed. Reports of committee were heard.

Count Chairman Fitzsimmons has issued an address to the Democratic voters of the county, urging them to give assistance to the candidates of the party. The Prohibition county committee is engaged in making preparations for the visit of Dr. Swallow to this city.
