

NO COMMENT CAUSED BY NEW ORDERS

MEMBERS OF THIRTEENTH ARE NOT DISSATISFIED.

Chances Just Now Are in Favor of an Early Move to Augusta, Georgia—Regiment Remembered in a Substantial Manner by the King's Daughters of the North Scranton Presbyterian Church—Company D Had a Four-Mile Practice March to Round Top.

Special to Scranton Tribune. Camp Meade, Middletown, Pa., Oct. 24.—The so-called official orders which are published in the papers relative to the discharge from the service of the Fourteenth and the Fifteenth Pennsylvania regiments and the retention of some other commands, now on furlough, in their place, are arousing little or no comment in the Eighth or in the Thirteenth, the members of which have become settled and satisfied with the present situation. They are in the service, and it is now the exception to hear any one express himself to the effect that he desires to leave.

The chances just now are in favor of an early move south to the city of Augusta, Georgia. A member of the medical staff, in speaking to The Tribune correspondent this morning in regard to this matter, stated that it is undoubtedly becoming uncomfortably cold for the men here, and that, with the advent of frosty weather in the fever zone of the south, there is every reason to suppose that there will be no delay in transporting the troops from this camp. The movement can not be begun any too soon to suit the majority of the rank and file.

THE PHILADELPHIA TRIP. With the exception of the statements published in the newspapers that the Thirteenth during its stay in Philadelphia would be quartered in a large hotel building on South street, nothing is known. The reports are not official; and, as yet, no message has been received here, or, as far as any one is aware, at either division or corps headquarters, in regard to the selection of any place for the accommodation of the regiment.

The boys of the regiment have once more been remembered in a very practical and substantial way—this time by the society of the "King's Daughters" of the Presbyterian church of the North End. Yesterday afternoon Harold L. Gillespie received from Miss Jackson, the daughter of Mr. Jackson of the First National Bank, and Miss Fish, in the name of the society, a large box containing twelve dozen pairs of woolen socks, thirty-two housewives, a liberal assortment of cakes, doughnuts and canned goods.

Mr. Gillespie and Mr. Kelly, the two efficient and obliging members of the hospital corps, have taken charge of the box and have inquired the names of those members of the regiment who are most in need, and who have no parents or friends at home to remember them. These will be the first recipients of the liberal and timely charity of the good ladies of the society of the "King's Daughters," whatever is left will be distributed to any one who is in need and asks for it. The woolen socks are in greatest demand, and during the cold nights especially, and when men are standing guard in the frosty grass, the movers in this emin-

THE CASE OF GILL

Word was received here yesterday to the effect that Private Frank Gill, alias McLean, of Company B, who in the night time, over two weeks ago, broke loose from the regiment guard house, where he was undergoing a sentence of four months and 40 fine for having left his post without authority while on a tour of guard duty, was captured by the police and lodged in the Danmore borough jail. This information was communicated to division headquarters, and Major General Young had an order issued at once that he be brought back to camp. For that purpose Corporal Klemm, of A, and Private Fred Brouer, of F, were detailed to go for the escaped prisoner. It will probably go hard with Private Gill when he is brought back.

Sergeant William Hall, Jr., of A, and Corporal Hanford Swingle, of C, Alfred Berry, of B, and Samuel Guise, of G, are on brigade guard today. Chaplain Stahl conducted religious services yesterday morning, and was well pleased with the large attendance. Immediately after dinner he thoughtfully paid a short visit to those members of the regiment who are sick in quarters. The chaplain's presence is always welcomed by the boys, whether they are sick or well.

Company D has had one practice march to Round Top mountain, which is four miles distant from camp. They stood the trip well.

Dr. Blanchard has been given a five days' leave of absence; and Lieutenant H. B. Cox company B, who is an ex-member of the Russian army, during the cold mornings illustrates the Russian military hula-hula dance in order to keep himself warm.

REPORTED FOR DUTY.

Private Lewis A. Mack, of D, reported to his company last night after an absence of two months. He was one of the typhoid patients removed from Dunn Loring, to Philadelphia the latter part of August and was brought to the Medico-Chirurgical hospital for treatment. He was discharged from there a month ago, and was given a thirty-day furlough. Private Mack reports that he was in the same ward with Private Martin Howley, of C company, and says that the latter will soon be able to go home.

Private Jacob Burkholder has been installed as chief of B company. He is an expert at the business and wears a Gus Williams style of hat which is quite attractive.

Sergeant Chester M. Smith, of B, received a message from home this morning notifying him of the serious illness of his wife. He at once left for home on furlough.

D company has a musical organization which is known as the "Castle Garden Orchestra." It is composed of Alex. Hazlett, fife; Charles Bacon and Edward Finneran, guitar and mandolin virtuosi, respectively. They give concerts every evening.

Sergeant George Downey is acting first sergeant of Company F.

TROOPS MAY NOT GO.

General Graham Not Pleased with the Arrangements Made. By Associated Press.

Camp Meade, Middletown, Pa., Oct. 24.—Major General Graham is waiting to hear from Chief Surgeon Girard before making up his mind whether to send his troops to the Philadelphia jubilee. The general is not pleased with the arrangements which have been made to take care of the soldiers and if the committee does not provide better quarters the boys will not go.

He has directed Colonel Girard to make an investigation of the sanitary condition of the buildings in which it is proposed to shelter the Second corps. The colonel went to Philadelphia this morning and will return tomorrow and make his report. It depends entirely on his report whether the troops will go to Philadelphia and General Graham expects to know definitely by tomorrow evening. His intentions were to take the four Pennsylvania regiments, Ninth Ohio colored battalion, a provisional battalion from every other regiment in the Second corps, the engineer and signal corps companies and the division, brigade and regimental commanders and their staffs.

If General Graham agrees to make the trip the movement will begin Wednesday morning and by evening 10,000 troops will contribute to the crowds in the Quaker city. Governor Bushnell and staff will stop over in camp tomorrow to visit the Ohio troops. A brigade review will be ordered by General Graham in honor of the Ohioans, who will go from here to the jubilee.

JERMYN AND MAYFIELD.

In Enterprise hall tomorrow evening there will be a Republican rally that should be attended by every citizen of this vicinity. The issues of the campaign this fall will be ably, forcibly and honestly explained and placed before the people in their true light by such able speakers as Hon. Jere Snyder, of Lehigh; Hon. John F. Reynolds, George D. Taylor, C. W. Dawson and Captain L. M. Scoch.

First, as they are filed by the superintendent; second, by the principal teachers, as they (the papers) are assigned to the different schools. Each teacher shall review and rework the work of the examining board of his or her pupils before the final mark is recorded, but no mark shall be changed without a majority vote of the examining board.

P. J. Langan, J. J. Evans, H. J. O'Malley, teachers' committee.

D. A. Stone, David Owens, E. A. Crutten, committee of Grammar A principals.

Objection was made by Mr. Evans to a bill for paper, amounting to $18.25, on the grounds that the supply committee had purchased it from a dealer other than the contractor and had paid $5 more than the contract price.

The matter of selecting a site for an annex to No. 29 school was left to a committee composed of Mr. Francois, Mr. Leonard, Superintendent Howel, and Mr. Langan. It was arranged that night schools should open Nov. 14 and that the salaries should remain the same as last year.

OLYPHANT.

Justice of the Peace William Mason had the misfortune to have his wrist broken on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Mason was about to descend the stairs to the cellar at his residence, when he tripped and fell to the bottom, sustaining the injury.

A fair-sized audience witnessed the first performance of Downing & Strimmond's Vaudeville and Operetta company at the Father Mathew opera house last evening. The organization is a clever one in every respect, the programme being filled with good specialties, introducing new songs and dances. The laughable farce, "Our Husbands," cleverly performed by Tom Carter, the author; Mattie Downing, Harry Gates and Grace and Cora, who opened the bill, Mounthey and Neff came next in their singing and dancing act, which scored a big hit. In a refined musical act which followed, William DeWille caught the fancy of the spectators, Kennedy and Hays sang parodies on popular songs in good style and the comedy four captured the house with their singing. The Darrells performed marvelous feats of strength on the Roman rings. Miss Darrell possesses a remarkable baritone voice and sang "Break the News to Mother" with telling effect. This evening the company will give new specialties and also produce the operetta "Honolulu." A full house should greet the clever performers.

Miss Alice Rapson, who has been visiting Mrs. Mathew Mackey, returned to her home in Wilkes-Barre yesterday.

Some freight was being unloaded from a car and a plank was stretched from the porch of the depot to the car door. Mr. Hochkins was about to enter the car, when he slipped off the plank and fell to the ground, sustaining a dislocated shoulder. Dr. Crans was called to attend the injured man. He advised taking him to the Lackawanna hospital, which was done.

Messrs. M. J. O'Malley, James Lally and John O'Malley left yesterday to spend a week in Philadelphia.

Golf Capes Man Tailored

A London tailor has the knack of metamorphosing the handsome Scotch Plaid Shawls, that come mostly from Paisley, into picturesque golf capes, making these more beautiful in their transformed state than they were in their original. Some of his clever cape ideas came to us Saturday and get first showing this week. Warm, rich plaids emphasize their popularity, although plain cloths are in demand. Soft Montaigne weaves have great dignity and rule largely in the gathering.

Flounce effects are a predominant feature and are seen with the contrasting plaid inner surface used as a bounce on the plain, making a most fetching garment.

Many of the elegant sorts will not be seen after this week, for women wishing exclusive beauty will choose early. There are no duplicates of these single garments in this part of the state.

Exclusive Tailor Gowns

We are showing this week some copies of Laferriere, Couturiere to the Princess of Wales. His specialty is dignity, and although these are only copies of some of his famous street costumes, yet in the reproduction none of the quiet richness of the model has been lost.

A feature that you will notice about these suits of ours, aside from their novelty and cheapness, is the really excellent manner in which they are put together. None of the perfections which you might expect in the originals are lacking in these copies.

Prices are about half what the imported gowns would bring, and you may choose Coverts, Brocade, Venetians, Irish Frieze, Cheviots and Scotch mixtures.

Our Dollar Gloves

A half dollar more would not be too much to ask—in fact, we invite comparison with the output of a certain maker whose gloves bring $1.75. Ours have the manish appearance so much in keeping with tailored costumes. Two clasps and all new colorings. A pair by mail if you ask—send back if not suited.

We have time for correspondence about your needs if you ask, for we are DISPENSERS OF INFORMATION. ISAAC LONG, 73 and 75 Public Square, WILKES-BARRE, PA.

The sheriff and his aides formed a circle about the negroes, and with drawn revolvers forced their way through the mob.
