IN THE PLAY HOUSES.

"My Friend from India."

A large audience saw "My Friend from India" at the Lyceum last night and laughed at his many trials and tribulations. It is the first and best of the farces written by H. A. Du Souchet. The situations are highly amusing and the farce rolls along from ris to fall of curtain at the rate of speed a well-regulated farce should.

In the company that produced it last night were Charles H. Bradshaw, who was excellent as Erastus Underholt. the retired pork packer. George Mack did very intelligent work in the difficult role of A. Keen Shaver, the friend from India, Miss Ethel Strickland, Miss Louis Arnot, Miss Mabel Strickland, Miss Madge Otis, Miss Ada Gilman and Lute Vroman were other members of the very competent company that presented the farce.

Good Play Well Played.

A good play needs no eulogistic introduction. To announce the return of "Faust," with the only Lewis Morrison in his original role of "Mephisto," is sufficient. The story of "Faust" i as well known as Rip Van Winkle or Robinson Crusoe. A resume, #herefore, is superfluous. Suffice it to say, the production from a theatrical stand-With it comes the positive assurance that the entire producion of this year given this classical gem. This is Mr. Morrison's farewell tour in "Faust." appear in a character new to the stage, and in which he expects to duplicate his success as "Mephisto." The supporting company is one of exceptional and tomorrow afternoon.

The Sensation Burlesquers.

The company known as the European Sensation Burlesquers opened a three days' engagement at the Galety last night but did not create a very large sized or profound sensation by the performance they gave. It was a trifle ragged to put the matter mildly.

Several members of the company did not reach the city and others were indisposed and unable to appear. This was the excuse given by the manager of the company to Mr. Van Ogten, the manager of the theater, when he entered a protest against the kind of a show that was given. Mr. Rush. the owner of the show, wired the manager last night that a number of people had been sent on from New York to join the show here today. It is stated that they will materially strengthen the company.

"Esmeralda" Tonight.

The Academy of Music was thronged yesterday at the second presentation of "Jim the Penman" by the New England Stock Dramatic company and last night "Trilby" was received with great favor.

This afternoon "Trilby" will be repeated and tonight there will be a fine presentation of "Esmeralda," one of the prettiest dramas seen on the American stage in years.

The Jeff De Angells Opera company, which will appear in this city at the Lyceum theater, Monday, Includes, besides the favorite comedian, an excellent singing company, and if reports are true, a remarkably .. ne chorus. The new work which Jeff De Angelis will produce is called "The Jolly Mus-keteer." It is the joint work of Julian Edwards, that excellent musician (one time the musical director at Covent Garden, London) and Stanislaus Stange, one of the most promising playrights and libbrettists in this country. Both book and music are said to be very fine and from the names, alone, we are assured of a splendid singing ensemble.

Lessons from Russia. from the Providence Journal.

Is it possible that, after all, foreigners nay teach Americans how to make trave luxury? One cannot but think so when plete trains just put on the Trans-Si-perian Railway. There are five couches connected by vestibules; one is a duning car and another a sleeper; passengers are not forced to sit in the sleeping car y day, and the other coaches include a baggage department and a day or observation car. In these are provided a bath room, a small gymnasium, a libcary plane, and newspapers, the books and the papers being in several languages. Such an equipment rivels anything on this continent, we believe. Yet in addition to these luxuries each of the through day ars will carry a barber, who, after the Russian idea, is also qualified to serve as a doctor; a conductor who speaks Russian, French, German and English, and other extras. Evidently, the Russian gov-ernment means to open Siberia with this callroad, for the whole outfit of each rain, of which several like this one are being built, is for the tourist first of all.
