OLD GRAVITY ROAD TO BE ABANDONED

DELAWARE AND HUDSON SECURES A NEW OUTLET.

Has Made Arrangements with Erie for Sending its Coal to Tidewater and Will Abandon its Gravity Road and Canal—Coal Will Be Delivered Over the Erie and Wyoming Valley Road on Which the Erie Has Trackage Rights—Disastrous to Many Towns.

The Delaware and Hudson Canal company is to abandon its gravity road and canal route to tidewater and ship its coal via the Erie.

Authoritative announcement of this was made yesterday by the posting of the following notice at the company's office in Carbondale and Honesdale:

Office of the Second Vice President of the Delaware and Hudson Canal Company, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 29, 1898.

Beginning January 1, 1899, no passenger freight or coal trains will be run over the Delaware and Hudson Canal company's gravity road and canal. The company's coal will be delivered over the Erie and Wyoming Valley Road on which the Erie has trackage rights. This other connection, which it is intended to abandon, is between Carbondale and Honesdale and the canal, reaching from Honesdale to Rondout, N. Y.

SOME OF THE BENEFITS. In addition to making a saving in haulage, Mr. Young said, it will save the breaking of bulk and consequent loss of coal in the Delaware and Hudson canal, where it is transferred from the cars to canal boats and then at Rondout, where it is transferred from the boats to Hudson river barges.

THE CASE IS SETTLED. Chief Hickey was in communication over the long distance telephone yesterday with Lebanon the result of which was that an agreement was reached to settle the matter upon payment of $50 by him.

AT SHERIFF'S SALE. The sale of the stock of E. E. Leonard's tinning and hardware establishment yesterday by Sheriff Fryor brought $230. The purchaser was John A. Redding, proprietor of the restaurant of that name in Wilkes-Barre.

WANDERINGS IN PERU. On Tuesday evening, Nov. 1, at 5:45 in the Green Ridge Presbyterian church, Rev. Theodore F. Clark, the noted traveler will lecture on "Wanderings in Peru with Camera, Spade and Pen."

RESOLUTION SIGNED. Mayor Bailey yesterday afternoon signed the resolution extending the time for paying city taxes without penalty until December 15.

ELECTION OFFICES. Court yesterday appointed Walter W. Sampson judge of election of the Third district of the Second ward, and Attorney H. S. Alworth, majority inspector in the First district of the Second ward, to fill the places vacated by the absence of Lieutenant John Huff at Camp Meade.

FUNERALS TODAY. The funerals of Alice and Grace Palmer, the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Palmer, will occur this afternoon at 5 o'clock, interment in Forest Hill cemetery. Both died of diphtheria. Alice died at 11 o'clock yesterday morning. Grace died at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Funeral private.

"CITY TRAPS AND TRAPPERS." Crowded congregations at the Penn Avenue Baptist church Sunday evening attest the general interest in the series of practical sermons which Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce is delivering. The subject for the third sermon in the series announced for tomorrow evening is "City Traps and Trappers."

BODY NOT CLAIMED. The body of the man killed Wednesday night above Nay Aug tunnel on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad, was shipped to Philadelphia this forenoon by Undertaker Raub, no one having claimed it. Two of three persons came yesterday to see if they could identify the body. The poor board refused to defray the burial expenses on the ground that the body should be sent to Philadelphia for dissection purposes.

DONATIONS ACKNOWLEDGED. The Home for the Friendless acknowledged with gratitude additional gifts as follows: Mrs. C. S. Weston, $5; N. E. Rice, $25; a friend, $5; Mrs. H. M. Boles, $25; total, $100; two barrels crackers, Scherer Bros.; quantity crockery and glassware, Wilson Bros.; box children's wear, Mrs. Richard Osland, Jr.; one-half dozen bottles chowchow, Mrs. George Miller; case peas, John Genter, Jr.; quantity vegetables, P. P. Carter.

Dress Goods Cheap. Saturday and Monday we sell certain lines of desirable dress goods at half price. See our advertisement, Mears and Hag-n.

DIED AT THE HOSPITAL. Michael A. Manchi Succumbed to Liver Disease. Michael A. Manchi, died at the Lackawanna hospital at 10:15 last night of a disease of the liver. He was admitted to the hospital on October 16.
