

This Vote Not Good After ov. 7, 1895.

Go where you will you can't find such a splendid line of pianos as the Knabe, Vose, Briggs and Ludwig.

PERRY BROS

No fancy prices. Every instrument sold at the lowest possible price and guaranteed

205 Wyoming Avenue.

PHOTOGRAPHIC SUPPLIES

A new departure at The Griffin Art Studio. We are now prepared to fill the wants of the amateur and professional.

WE SOLICIT YOUR TRADE.

DR. A. A. LINDABURY.

Specialties—Surgery, Diseases of Women. Office Hours: 9 to 10 a. m. 1 to 3 p. m. At Residence: 419 Spruce St. Office—Williams Building, Opp. Postoffice. Residence—210 South Main Avenue.

COLUMBIAN DETECTIVE AGENCY

Matters Solicited Where Others Failed. Moderate Charges.

Mrs. Geo. Carr Piano

Mr. Carr Mandolin Banjo and Guitar. Studios in the new Geary Building, 314 West Washington Ave. Seventh year in this city.

CHAS. McMULLEN & CO.

Have opened a General Insurance Office in 111 Traders' National Bank Bldg. Best Stock Companies represented. Large Losses especially solicited. Telephone 1863.

Lackawanna "THE" LAUNDRY.

305 Penn Avenue A. B. WARMAN.

PERSONAL.

Hugh Rooney, of Lafayette street, is in Chicago. Miss Alice Tanfield, of Moscow is visiting relatives here. Rev. J. P. Moffat, of Washburn street, is in Indiana on business. Judge and Mrs. H. M. Edwards have returned from a western trip. Miss Elizabeth Thomas, of Carbondale, is visiting West Scranton friends. Mrs. L. W. Peck, of Chestnut street, has returned from a visit in Binghamton. Miss Kitty Gannolly, of Madison avenue, has returned from a visit to Philadelphia. Prof. Robert Bauer, of Bauer's band, has returned from a business trip to New York city. Miss Minerva Sand and Miss Jessie Denike have returned from a week's stay at Philadelphia. Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Roberts, of South Main avenue, have returned from a visit with relatives in Middle Granville, N. Y. Mrs. H. S. Sanders, and Mrs. M. E. Sanders, of North Scranton, are home from a visit at Woodbury, N. J., and Philadelphia. M. A. O'Malley, formerly doing business as Murphy & O'Malley, on Spruce street, has accepted a position with the Myer Davidow shoe store, 37 Lackawanna avenue. Miss Mamie Gilligan, of Dunmore, returned yesterday from New York, where she was the guest of Miss Marie Walsh, formerly teacher of education in the Dunmore public schools. James J. Corbett, of Pittston avenue, a private in Company C, Thirtieth regiment, at Camp Meade, will return to his command today. He has been home for two months on a sick leave. Contractor and Mrs. William R. Williams, of South Main avenue, are home from a visit at Middle Granville, N. Y., where they attended the wedding of their son, G. A. Williams, last Wednesday. P. J. Casey is back from Philadelphia, where he witnessed the jubilee celebration. At the Union League club he had the pleasure of meeting President McKinley. General Miles, General Staffer, Hobson and many other of the nation's celebrities.

SUPREME COURT OPINION.

Justice Sterrett's Ruling in the Electric City Land Case. Justice Sterrett's opinion in the case of the Electric City Land and Improvement company against the West Ridge Coal company was received by Prothonotary Copeland yesterday. The suit, as previously told at length in The Tribune, was brought by the land company to prevent the coal company from erecting mine structures adjacent to its building plot. The land company bought from the Von Storch estate and in the transfer a stipulation was made that no shaft, mine buildings or anything of that sort should be erected on the plot. The West Ridge company, which owned the coal, purchased five lots on the plot and, disregarding the stipulation in the transfer, proceeded to construct a shaft and tower on the surface. The land company secured an injunction restraining the coal company from making these improvements, but when the matter came up for final hearing the injunction was dismissed. Justice Sterrett, for the Supreme court, rules that the local court erred in this decision and says: "That it was never intended by the parties that the purchase of a few of the surface lots, by the owner of the coal and minerals, should in any way impair the force and effect of the proviso, much less 'destroy' the same. The bill is reinstated and the injunction made perpetual at the cost of the defendant. OBSERVANCE OF HALLOWE'EN. Large Number of Parties Held Last Night in the City. Halloween was observed last night in the usual fashion. Children in masquerade costumes were plentiful on the streets during the early hours of the evening as they scoured from house to house, making calls. A large number of parties were held. There was a large gaming party at the home of Dr. P. F. Gunstery, of Mulberry street, and a number of young people were entertained. Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hackett gave a party in honor of their daughter, Miss Mary Hackett, at their home on Monroe street. The guests were entertained at a number of her young friends at her home on Webster avenue, at which games characteristic of Halloween were played. Miss A. C. Burke entertained a large party of friends at the home of North Adams avenue, and Miss Lulu Thompson entertained at her home on Gibson street. SEVERAL RIBS BROKEN. George Bailey Injured While Responding to a Fire Alarm. George Bailey, driver of the General Pharmacy's horse carriage, had several ribs broken yesterday afternoon while responding to the alarm of fire sent in from No. 64. At Dickson avenue and Green Ridge street there is a deep gutter and in crossing it the hind end of the horse carriage broke and the front and rear wheels parted company. Bailey was thrown in the air with the result above noted. He was taken to his home on Delaware street, where he received surgical attention. The necessity of the alarm to which Bailey was responding, as the fire was in the rear of A. L. Spencer's residence which is in Dunmore. The fire was extinguished, however, by the Scranton companies. MUST RESPECT THE LAW. Mayor Bailey Issues an Order with Reference to St. Denis. Testimony given in police court yesterday morning would indicate that the St. Denis hotel on Lackawanna avenue is not kept as tightly closed as it might be on Sunday. After the hearing Mayor Bailey gave the following order to Desk Sergeant Bittway: "Detail an officer to notify the proprietor of the St. Denis hotel, on Lackawanna avenue, that he must stop selling intoxicants to minors and close up his place of business on Sundays, or I will cause a warrant to be issued for his arrest and will prosecute him to the fullest extent of the law." TELL FROM A SCAFFOLD. William Truss, of Pittston Avenue, Was Painfully Injured. William Truss, of Pittston avenue, South Scranton, a painter engaged at the Connel building, was injured while at work yesterday morning. He was with a companion workman standing on a swinging scaffold when he lost his balance, falling about forty-five feet. Truss was carried into an office and Dr. Wentz was called. He found that the man was suffering a fracture of three ribs and external bruises. He was removed to the Lackawanna hospital and is resting easily. MARRIED THE CO-RESPONDENT. Susan Green and William Dalzell United by Alderman Kason. Alderman Kason yesterday united in marriage William Dalzell, of North Abington and Miss Susan Green, of Benton. The ceremony was performed in the marriage license room at the court house. "Until last Thursday the bride was Mrs. Susan Green Franklin. Her husband, Dayton Franklin, on that day was granted a divorce on the ground that she was unfaithful. Dalzell was named as co-respondent. The Battleship Wisconsin Will be launched in San Francisco Saturday, Nov. 26th. The official train carrying state officials and the christening party will start from Marinette, Milwaukee and Chicago, Saturday, Nov. 26th, going via the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railway. Stops will be made at St. Paul, Tacoma, Portland, San Francisco, Los Angeles and Denver. Pullman Palace sleeping cars, dining cars, observation cars for the exclusive use of the party for the entire trip, under the direction of Mr. Reau Campbell, general manager of The American Tourist association. A limited number of tickets at reduced rates covering all expenses will be sold; they include railway and sleeping car fares, meals, dining cars, hotels, carriages, etc. For details address The American Tourist association, 1124 Marquette building, Chicago. Richards, Wirth & Lewis, exclusive clothing, 226 Lackawanna avenue, as usual, will be open late on Saturday evening. They desire to apologize to those who were unable to be waited upon last Saturday night, and state they have made ample preparation to care for all traders who may favor them with their patronage in the future, having secured the services of several more salesmen. The past week has been a busy one, and those who call at their store will find a much larger assortment of fall and winter garments for men and boys. Bargains At Kemp's Photo Stock house this week only; 40-cent print rollers for 10 cents. 393 Wyoming avenue.

John Wanamaker in Lackawanna. Addressed three meetings in this county yesterday. At the Evening Meeting He "Answers" an Editorial Comment in The Tribune by Making a Personal Attack on Congressman Connell. Comes Out Flat-Footed Against Stone and Gives His Reasons Why. No Question About Swallowing Being Anti-Quay and Scarcely Any About Jenks. Hon. John Wanamaker and his accompanying party visited Lackawanna county yesterday, conducting meetings in Carbondale, Olyphant and this city. They had large audiences at all three places and, at the armory meeting in this city, the audience had the distinction of being the first to hear Mr. Wanamaker in person since his little journey in this and Schuylkill counties, two years ago, and Mr. Wanamaker's valet and some newspaper men. They left Philadelphia at 9 o'clock yesterday morning via the Lehigh Valley and taking the Delaware and Hudson at Wilkes-Barre continued on to Carbondale, stopping in this city only long enough to take aboard the local managers of the War-amour tour, James J. H. Hamilton, John G. McAskie and John H. Fellows. MEETING AT CARBONDALE. The party was an hour behind schedule time in reaching the Pioneer city but a large crowd waited at the theater to hear the eloquent and interesting merchant prince and was entertained with a twenty-minute speech, during which Mr. Wanamaker, to show that he is not promoted in his party-wrecking by personal spite, advised the people of the north district to return home, John P. Reynolds, attorney, Mr. Reynolds voted against him for senator. Mr. Reynolds proved himself honest and capable. Mr. Wanamaker said: Olyphant gave its distinguished visitor a good reception at Father Matthew Opera house. Mr. Wanamaker severely criticized Senator Vaughan in his Olyphant speech. Olyphant is the home town of Senator Vaughan's opponent, "Squire" W. W. Cummings. The Scranton was reached at 6.10. The Wanamaker party registered at the myn and remained secluded until the hour for the armory meeting approached. It was advertised that there would be a reception at the hotel at 7 o'clock, but Mr. Wanamaker was too fatigued after his day's work, and it was abandoned. There were a dozen persons outside of the hotel guests about the lobby at the hour announced for the reception. Mr. Wanamaker and Senator Kauffman came downstairs at 7.25 and were at once taken in tow by Messrs. Hamilton, McAskie and Fellows and escorted to the armory. His entrance did not provoke much of a demonstration, but there was a general craning of necks to get a view of the famous Philadelphia. On the platform with the speakers were Messrs. Hamilton and Fellows, L. M. Meyers, Almazana Porter, Rev. Robert F. Pierce, Attorney Arthur Dunn and Rev. J. J. Lansing, D. D., who presided. The invited list of honorary vice presidents as read out by Mr. Hamilton was as follows: E. B. Sturges, esq., J. George Eisele, William J. Hand, Rev. James McLeod, D. D., Hon. John H. Fellows, John G. McAskie, W. W. Patterson, P. K. Tracy, Rev. W. C. Watkins, M. M. Bennett, James H. Hopkins, Ernest Conroy, Dr. H. V. Logan, Louis M. Meyer, Professor H. D. Buck, Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, Rev. J. B. Sweet, Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce, D. D., John W. Howarth, LeGrand D. Coleman, H. G. McKee, Arthur Dunn, T. R. Jackson, P. H. Gerlock, W. G. Douglass, esq., Almazana Porter, esq., James A. Hand, Mosie; Dr. W. W. Fletcher, Carbondale; T. G. Robinson, Carbondale; Rev. B. F. Hammond, Olyphant; Matthew Gray, Olyphant. After an orchestra of five pieces had rendered a patriotic air, Rev. Dr. Lansing called the meeting to order. He said they were there in the interest of better government in Pennsylvania. They were not opposed to the national administration and had no desire to embarrass it. It was their intention to rid Pennsylvania of political bosses, for the people of Pennsylvania do not need bossing. In introducing Senator Kauffman, the first speaker, Dr. Lansing referred to him as one of the seventy-six members of the last legislature who opposed the outrageous and unprecedented jobbery of the last legislature. SENATOR KAUFFMAN'S ADDRESS. Senator Kauffman spoke for about half an hour, entering into a defense of himself against the accusation that he was opposed to organized labor, giving (Continued on Page 3)

John Wanamaker in Lackawanna. Addressed three meetings in this county yesterday. At the Evening Meeting He "Answers" an Editorial Comment in The Tribune by Making a Personal Attack on Congressman Connell. Comes Out Flat-Footed Against Stone and Gives His Reasons Why. No Question About Swallowing Being Anti-Quay and Scarcely Any About Jenks. Hon. John Wanamaker and his accompanying party visited Lackawanna county yesterday, conducting meetings in Carbondale, Olyphant and this city. They had large audiences at all three places and, at the armory meeting in this city, the audience had the distinction of being the first to hear Mr. Wanamaker in person since his little journey in this and Schuylkill counties, two years ago, and Mr. Wanamaker's valet and some newspaper men. They left Philadelphia at 9 o'clock yesterday morning via the Lehigh Valley and taking the Delaware and Hudson at Wilkes-Barre continued on to Carbondale, stopping in this city only long enough to take aboard the local managers of the War-amour tour, James J. H. Hamilton, John G. McAskie and John H. Fellows. MEETING AT CARBONDALE. The party was an hour behind schedule time in reaching the Pioneer city but a large crowd waited at the theater to hear the eloquent and interesting merchant prince and was entertained with a twenty-minute speech, during which Mr. Wanamaker, to show that he is not promoted in his party-wrecking by personal spite, advised the people of the north district to return home, John P. Reynolds, attorney, Mr. Reynolds voted against him for senator. Mr. Reynolds proved himself honest and capable. Mr. Wanamaker said: Olyphant gave its distinguished visitor a good reception at Father Matthew Opera house. Mr. Wanamaker severely criticized Senator Vaughan in his Olyphant speech. Olyphant is the home town of Senator Vaughan's opponent, "Squire" W. W. Cummings. The Scranton was reached at 6.10. The Wanamaker party registered at the myn and remained secluded until the hour for the armory meeting approached. It was advertised that there would be a reception at the hotel at 7 o'clock, but Mr. Wanamaker was too fatigued after his day's work, and it was abandoned. There were a dozen persons outside of the hotel guests about the lobby at the hour announced for the reception. Mr. Wanamaker and Senator Kauffman came downstairs at 7.25 and were at once taken in tow by Messrs. Hamilton, McAskie and Fellows and escorted to the armory. His entrance did not provoke much of a demonstration, but there was a general craning of necks to get a view of the famous Philadelphia. On the platform with the speakers were Messrs. Hamilton and Fellows, L. M. Meyers, Almazana Porter, Rev. Robert F. Pierce, Attorney Arthur Dunn and Rev. J. J. Lansing, D. D., who presided. The invited list of honorary vice presidents as read out by Mr. Hamilton was as follows: E. B. Sturges, esq., J. George Eisele, William J. Hand, Rev. James McLeod, D. D., Hon. John H. Fellows, John G. McAskie, W. W. Patterson, P. K. Tracy, Rev. W. C. Watkins, M. M. Bennett, James H. Hopkins, Ernest Conroy, Dr. H. V. Logan, Louis M. Meyer, Professor H. D. Buck, Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, Rev. J. B. Sweet, Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce, D. D., John W. Howarth, LeGrand D. Coleman, H. G. McKee, Arthur Dunn, T. R. Jackson, P. H. Gerlock, W. G. Douglass, esq., Almazana Porter, esq., James A. Hand, Mosie; Dr. W. W. Fletcher, Carbondale; T. G. Robinson, Carbondale; Rev. B. F. Hammond, Olyphant; Matthew Gray, Olyphant. After an orchestra of five pieces had rendered a patriotic air, Rev. Dr. Lansing called the meeting to order. He said they were there in the interest of better government in Pennsylvania. They were not opposed to the national administration and had no desire to embarrass it. It was their intention to rid Pennsylvania of political bosses, for the people of Pennsylvania do not need bossing. In introducing Senator Kauffman, the first speaker, Dr. Lansing referred to him as one of the seventy-six members of the last legislature who opposed the outrageous and unprecedented jobbery of the last legislature. SENATOR KAUFFMAN'S ADDRESS. Senator Kauffman spoke for about half an hour, entering into a defense of himself against the accusation that he was opposed to organized labor, giving (Continued on Page 3)

John Wanamaker in Lackawanna. Addressed three meetings in this county yesterday. At the Evening Meeting He "Answers" an Editorial Comment in The Tribune by Making a Personal Attack on Congressman Connell. Comes Out Flat-Footed Against Stone and Gives His Reasons Why. No Question About Swallowing Being Anti-Quay and Scarcely Any About Jenks. Hon. John Wanamaker and his accompanying party visited Lackawanna county yesterday, conducting meetings in Carbondale, Olyphant and this city. They had large audiences at all three places and, at the armory meeting in this city, the audience had the distinction of being the first to hear Mr. Wanamaker in person since his little journey in this and Schuylkill counties, two years ago, and Mr. Wanamaker's valet and some newspaper men. They left Philadelphia at 9 o'clock yesterday morning via the Lehigh Valley and taking the Delaware and Hudson at Wilkes-Barre continued on to Carbondale, stopping in this city only long enough to take aboard the local managers of the War-amour tour, James J. H. Hamilton, John G. McAskie and John H. Fellows. MEETING AT CARBONDALE. The party was an hour behind schedule time in reaching the Pioneer city but a large crowd waited at the theater to hear the eloquent and interesting merchant prince and was entertained with a twenty-minute speech, during which Mr. Wanamaker, to show that he is not promoted in his party-wrecking by personal spite, advised the people of the north district to return home, John P. Reynolds, attorney, Mr. Reynolds voted against him for senator. Mr. Reynolds proved himself honest and capable. Mr. Wanamaker said: Olyphant gave its distinguished visitor a good reception at Father Matthew Opera house. Mr. Wanamaker severely criticized Senator Vaughan in his Olyphant speech. Olyphant is the home town of Senator Vaughan's opponent, "Squire" W. W. Cummings. The Scranton was reached at 6.10. The Wanamaker party registered at the myn and remained secluded until the hour for the armory meeting approached. It was advertised that there would be a reception at the hotel at 7 o'clock, but Mr. Wanamaker was too fatigued after his day's work, and it was abandoned. There were a dozen persons outside of the hotel guests about the lobby at the hour announced for the reception. Mr. Wanamaker and Senator Kauffman came downstairs at 7.25 and were at once taken in tow by Messrs. Hamilton, McAskie and Fellows and escorted to the armory. His entrance did not provoke much of a demonstration, but there was a general craning of necks to get a view of the famous Philadelphia. On the platform with the speakers were Messrs. Hamilton and Fellows, L. M. Meyers, Almazana Porter, Rev. Robert F. Pierce, Attorney Arthur Dunn and Rev. J. J. Lansing, D. D., who presided. The invited list of honorary vice presidents as read out by Mr. Hamilton was as follows: E. B. Sturges, esq., J. George Eisele, William J. Hand, Rev. James McLeod, D. D., Hon. John H. Fellows, John G. McAskie, W. W. Patterson, P. K. Tracy, Rev. W. C. Watkins, M. M. Bennett, James H. Hopkins, Ernest Conroy, Dr. H. V. Logan, Louis M. Meyer, Professor H. D. Buck, Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, Rev. J. B. Sweet, Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce, D. D., John W. Howarth, LeGrand D. Coleman, H. G. McKee, Arthur Dunn, T. R. Jackson, P. H. Gerlock, W. G. Douglass, esq., Almazana Porter, esq., James A. Hand, Mosie; Dr. W. W. Fletcher, Carbondale; T. G. Robinson, Carbondale; Rev. B. F. Hammond, Olyphant; Matthew Gray, Olyphant. After an orchestra of five pieces had rendered a patriotic air, Rev. Dr. Lansing called the meeting to order. He said they were there in the interest of better government in Pennsylvania. They were not opposed to the national administration and had no desire to embarrass it. It was their intention to rid Pennsylvania of political bosses, for the people of Pennsylvania do not need bossing. In introducing Senator Kauffman, the first speaker, Dr. Lansing referred to him as one of the seventy-six members of the last legislature who opposed the outrageous and unprecedented jobbery of the last legislature. SENATOR KAUFFMAN'S ADDRESS. Senator Kauffman spoke for about half an hour, entering into a defense of himself against the accusation that he was opposed to organized labor, giving (Continued on Page 3)

John Wanamaker in Lackawanna. Addressed three meetings in this county yesterday. At the Evening Meeting He "Answers" an Editorial Comment in The Tribune by Making a Personal Attack on Congressman Connell. Comes Out Flat-Footed Against Stone and Gives His Reasons Why. No Question About Swallowing Being Anti-Quay and Scarcely Any About Jenks. Hon. John Wanamaker and his accompanying party visited Lackawanna county yesterday, conducting meetings in Carbondale, Olyphant and this city. They had large audiences at all three places and, at the armory meeting in this city, the audience had the distinction of being the first to hear Mr. Wanamaker in person since his little journey in this and Schuylkill counties, two years ago, and Mr. Wanamaker's valet and some newspaper men. They left Philadelphia at 9 o'clock yesterday morning via the Lehigh Valley and taking the Delaware and Hudson at Wilkes-Barre continued on to Carbondale, stopping in this city only long enough to take aboard the local managers of the War-amour tour, James J. H. Hamilton, John G. McAskie and John H. Fellows. MEETING AT CARBONDALE. The party was an hour behind schedule time in reaching the Pioneer city but a large crowd waited at the theater to hear the eloquent and interesting merchant prince and was entertained with a twenty-minute speech, during which Mr. Wanamaker, to show that he is not promoted in his party-wrecking by personal spite, advised the people of the north district to return home, John P. Reynolds, attorney, Mr. Reynolds voted against him for senator. Mr. Reynolds proved himself honest and capable. Mr. Wanamaker said: Olyphant gave its distinguished visitor a good reception at Father Matthew Opera house. Mr. Wanamaker severely criticized Senator Vaughan in his Olyphant speech. Olyphant is the home town of Senator Vaughan's opponent, "Squire" W. W. Cummings. The Scranton was reached at 6.10. The Wanamaker party registered at the myn and remained secluded until the hour for the armory meeting approached. It was advertised that there would be a reception at the hotel at 7 o'clock, but Mr. Wanamaker was too fatigued after his day's work, and it was abandoned. There were a dozen persons outside of the hotel guests about the lobby at the hour announced for the reception. Mr. Wanamaker and Senator Kauffman came downstairs at 7.25 and were at once taken in tow by Messrs. Hamilton, McAskie and Fellows and escorted to the armory. His entrance did not provoke much of a demonstration, but there was a general craning of necks to get a view of the famous Philadelphia. On the platform with the speakers were Messrs. Hamilton and Fellows, L. M. Meyers, Almazana Porter, Rev. Robert F. Pierce, Attorney Arthur Dunn and Rev. J. J. Lansing, D. D., who presided. The invited list of honorary vice presidents as read out by Mr. Hamilton was as follows: E. B. Sturges, esq., J. George Eisele, William J. Hand, Rev. James McLeod, D. D., Hon. John H. Fellows, John G. McAskie, W. W. Patterson, P. K. Tracy, Rev. W. C. Watkins, M. M. Bennett, James H. Hopkins, Ernest Conroy, Dr. H. V. Logan, Louis M. Meyer, Professor H. D. Buck, Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, Rev. J. B. Sweet, Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce, D. D., John W. Howarth, LeGrand D. Coleman, H. G. McKee, Arthur Dunn, T. R. Jackson, P. H. Gerlock, W. G. Douglass, esq., Almazana Porter, esq., James A. Hand, Mosie; Dr. W. W. Fletcher, Carbondale; T. G. Robinson, Carbondale; Rev. B. F. Hammond, Olyphant; Matthew Gray, Olyphant. After an orchestra of five pieces had rendered a patriotic air, Rev. Dr. Lansing called the meeting to order. He said they were there in the interest of better government in Pennsylvania. They were not opposed to the national administration and had no desire to embarrass it. It was their intention to rid Pennsylvania of political bosses, for the people of Pennsylvania do not need bossing. In introducing Senator Kauffman, the first speaker, Dr. Lansing referred to him as one of the seventy-six members of the last legislature who opposed the outrageous and unprecedented jobbery of the last legislature. SENATOR KAUFFMAN'S ADDRESS. Senator Kauffman spoke for about half an hour, entering into a defense of himself against the accusation that he was opposed to organized labor, giving (Continued on Page 3)

John Wanamaker in Lackawanna. Addressed three meetings in this county yesterday. At the Evening Meeting He "Answers" an Editorial Comment in The Tribune by Making a Personal Attack on Congressman Connell. Comes Out Flat-Footed Against Stone and Gives His Reasons Why. No Question About Swallowing Being Anti-Quay and Scarcely Any About Jenks. Hon. John Wanamaker and his accompanying party visited Lackawanna county yesterday, conducting meetings in Carbondale, Olyphant and this city. They had large audiences at all three places and, at the armory meeting in this city, the audience had the distinction of being the first to hear Mr. Wanamaker in person since his little journey in this and Schuylkill counties, two years ago, and Mr. Wanamaker's valet and some newspaper men. They left Philadelphia at 9 o'clock yesterday morning via the Lehigh Valley and taking the Delaware and Hudson at Wilkes-Barre continued on to Carbondale, stopping in this city only long enough to take aboard the local managers of the War-amour tour, James J. H. Hamilton, John G. McAskie and John H. Fellows. MEETING AT CARBONDALE. The party was an hour behind schedule time in reaching the Pioneer city but a large crowd waited at the theater to hear the eloquent and interesting merchant prince and was entertained with a twenty-minute speech, during which Mr. Wanamaker, to show that he is not promoted in his party-wrecking by personal spite, advised the people of the north district to return home, John P. Reynolds, attorney, Mr. Reynolds voted against him for senator. Mr. Reynolds proved himself honest and capable. Mr. Wanamaker said: Olyphant gave its distinguished visitor a good reception at Father Matthew Opera house. Mr. Wanamaker severely criticized Senator Vaughan in his Olyphant speech. Olyphant is the home town of Senator Vaughan's opponent, "Squire" W. W. Cummings. The Scranton was reached at 6.10. The Wanamaker party registered at the myn and remained secluded until the hour for the armory meeting approached. It was advertised that there would be a reception at the hotel at 7 o'clock, but Mr. Wanamaker was too fatigued after his day's work, and it was abandoned. There were a dozen persons outside of the hotel guests about the lobby at the hour announced for the reception. Mr. Wanamaker and Senator Kauffman came downstairs at 7.25 and were at once taken in tow by Messrs. Hamilton, McAskie and Fellows and escorted to the armory. His entrance did not provoke much of a demonstration, but there was a general craning of necks to get a view of the famous Philadelphia. On the platform with the speakers were Messrs. Hamilton and Fellows, L. M. Meyers, Almazana Porter, Rev. Robert F. Pierce, Attorney Arthur Dunn and Rev. J. J. Lansing, D. D., who presided. The invited list of honorary vice presidents as read out by Mr. Hamilton was as follows: E. B. Sturges, esq., J. George Eisele, William J. Hand, Rev. James McLeod, D. D., Hon. John H. Fellows, John G. McAskie, W. W. Patterson, P. K. Tracy, Rev. W. C. Watkins, M. M. Bennett, James H. Hopkins, Ernest Conroy, Dr. H. V. Logan, Louis M. Meyer, Professor H. D. Buck, Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, Rev. J. B. Sweet, Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce, D. D., John W. Howarth, LeGrand D. Coleman, H. G. McKee, Arthur Dunn, T. R. Jackson, P. H. Gerlock, W. G. Douglass, esq., Almazana Porter, esq., James A. Hand, Mosie; Dr. W. W. Fletcher, Carbondale; T. G. Robinson, Carbondale; Rev. B. F. Hammond, Olyphant; Matthew Gray, Olyphant. After an orchestra of five pieces had rendered a patriotic air, Rev. Dr. Lansing called the meeting to order. He said they were there in the interest of better government in Pennsylvania. They were not opposed to the national administration and had no desire to embarrass it. It was their intention to rid Pennsylvania of political bosses, for the people of Pennsylvania do not need bossing. In introducing Senator Kauffman, the first speaker, Dr. Lansing referred to him as one of the seventy-six members of the last legislature who opposed the outrageous and unprecedented jobbery of the last legislature. SENATOR KAUFFMAN'S ADDRESS. Senator Kauffman spoke for about half an hour, entering into a defense of himself against the accusation that he was opposed to organized labor, giving (Continued on Page 3)

John Wanamaker in Lackawanna. Addressed three meetings in this county yesterday. At the Evening Meeting He "Answers" an Editorial Comment in The Tribune by Making a Personal Attack on Congressman Connell. Comes Out Flat-Footed Against Stone and Gives His Reasons Why. No Question About Swallowing Being Anti-Quay and Scarcely Any About Jenks. Hon. John Wanamaker and his accompanying party visited Lackawanna county yesterday, conducting meetings in Carbondale, Olyphant and this city. They had large audiences at all three places and, at the armory meeting in this city, the audience had the distinction of being the first to hear Mr. Wanamaker in person since his little journey in this and Schuylkill counties, two years ago, and Mr. Wanamaker's valet and some newspaper men. They left Philadelphia at 9 o'clock yesterday morning via the Lehigh Valley and taking the Delaware and Hudson at Wilkes-Barre continued on to Carbondale, stopping in this city only long enough to take aboard the local managers of the War-amour tour, James J. H. Hamilton, John G. McAskie and John H. Fellows. MEETING AT CARBONDALE. The party was an hour behind schedule time in reaching the Pioneer city but a large crowd waited at the theater to hear the eloquent and interesting merchant prince and was entertained with a twenty-minute speech, during which Mr. Wanamaker, to show that he is not promoted in his party-wrecking by personal spite, advised the people of the north district to return home, John P. Reynolds, attorney, Mr. Reynolds voted against him for senator. Mr. Reynolds proved himself honest and capable. Mr. Wanamaker said: Olyphant gave its distinguished visitor a good reception at Father Matthew Opera house. Mr. Wanamaker severely criticized Senator Vaughan in his Olyphant speech. Olyphant is the home town of Senator Vaughan's opponent, "Squire" W. W. Cummings. The Scranton was reached at 6.10. The Wanamaker party registered at the myn and remained secluded until the hour for the armory meeting approached. It was advertised that there would be a reception at the hotel at 7 o'clock, but Mr. Wanamaker was too fatigued after his day's work, and it was abandoned. There were a dozen persons outside of the hotel guests about the lobby at the hour announced for the reception. Mr. Wanamaker and Senator Kauffman came downstairs at 7.25 and were at once taken in tow by Messrs. Hamilton, McAskie and Fellows and escorted to the armory. His entrance did not provoke much of a demonstration, but there was a general craning of necks to get a view of the famous Philadelphia. On the platform with the speakers were Messrs. Hamilton and Fellows, L. M. Meyers, Almazana Porter, Rev. Robert F. Pierce, Attorney Arthur Dunn and Rev. J. J. Lansing, D. D., who presided. The invited list of honorary vice presidents as read out by Mr. Hamilton was as follows: E. B. Sturges, esq., J. George Eisele, William J. Hand, Rev. James McLeod, D. D., Hon. John H. Fellows, John G. McAskie, W. W. Patterson, P. K. Tracy, Rev. W. C. Watkins, M. M. Bennett, James H. Hopkins, Ernest Conroy, Dr. H. V. Logan, Louis M. Meyer, Professor H. D. Buck, Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, Rev. J. B. Sweet, Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce, D. D., John W. Howarth, LeGrand D. Coleman, H. G. McKee, Arthur Dunn, T. R. Jackson, P. H. Gerlock, W. G. Douglass, esq., Almazana Porter, esq., James A. Hand, Mosie; Dr. W. W. Fletcher, Carbondale; T. G. Robinson, Carbondale; Rev. B. F. Hammond, Olyphant; Matthew Gray, Olyphant. After an orchestra of five pieces had rendered a patriotic air, Rev. Dr. Lansing called the meeting to order. He said they were there in the interest of better government in Pennsylvania. They were not opposed to the national administration and had no desire to embarrass it. It was their intention to rid Pennsylvania of political bosses, for the people of Pennsylvania do not need bossing. In introducing Senator Kauffman, the first speaker, Dr. Lansing referred to him as one of the seventy-six members of the last legislature who opposed the outrageous and unprecedented jobbery of the last legislature. SENATOR KAUFFMAN'S ADDRESS. Senator Kauffman spoke for about half an hour, entering into a defense of himself against the accusation that he was opposed to organized labor, giving (Continued on Page 3)

John Wanamaker in Lackawanna. Addressed three meetings in this county yesterday. At the Evening Meeting He "Answers" an Editorial Comment in The Tribune by Making a Personal Attack on Congressman Connell. Comes Out Flat-Footed Against Stone and Gives His Reasons Why. No Question About Swallowing Being Anti-Quay and Scarcely Any About Jenks. Hon. John Wanamaker and his accompanying party visited Lackawanna county yesterday, conducting meetings in Carbondale, Olyphant and this city. They had large audiences at all three places and, at the armory meeting in this city, the audience had the distinction of being the first to hear Mr. Wanamaker in person since his little journey in this and Schuylkill counties, two years ago, and Mr. Wanamaker's valet and some newspaper men. They left Philadelphia at 9 o'clock yesterday morning via the Lehigh Valley and taking the Delaware and Hudson at Wilkes-Barre continued on to Carbondale, stopping in this city only long enough to take aboard the local managers of the War-amour tour, James J. H. Hamilton, John G. McAskie and John H. Fellows. MEETING AT CARBONDALE. The party was an hour behind schedule time in reaching the Pioneer city but a large crowd waited at the theater to hear the eloquent and interesting merchant prince and was entertained with a twenty-minute speech, during which Mr. Wanamaker, to show that he is not promoted in his party-wrecking by personal spite, advised the people of the north district to return home, John P. Reynolds, attorney, Mr. Reynolds voted against him for senator. Mr. Reynolds proved himself honest and capable. Mr. Wanamaker said: Olyphant gave its distinguished visitor a good reception at Father Matthew Opera house. Mr. Wanamaker severely criticized Senator Vaughan in his Olyphant speech. Olyphant is the home town of Senator Vaughan's opponent, "Squire" W. W. Cummings. The Scranton was reached at 6.10. The Wanamaker party registered at the myn and remained secluded until the hour for the armory meeting approached. It was advertised that there would be a reception at the hotel at 7 o'clock, but Mr. Wanamaker was too fatigued after his day's work, and it was abandoned. There were a dozen persons outside of the hotel guests about the lobby at the hour announced for the reception. Mr. Wanamaker and Senator Kauffman came downstairs at 7.25 and were at once taken in tow by Messrs. Hamilton, McAskie and Fellows and escorted to the armory. His entrance did not provoke much of a demonstration, but there was a general craning of necks to get a view of the famous Philadelphia. On the platform with the speakers were Messrs. Hamilton and Fellows, L. M. Meyers, Almazana Porter, Rev. Robert F. Pierce, Attorney Arthur Dunn and Rev. J. J. Lansing, D. D., who presided. The invited list of honorary vice presidents as read out by Mr. Hamilton was as follows: E. B. Sturges, esq., J. George Eisele, William J. Hand, Rev. James McLeod, D. D., Hon. John H. Fellows, John G. McAskie, W. W. Patterson, P. K. Tracy, Rev. W. C. Watkins, M. M. Bennett, James H. Hopkins, Ernest Conroy, Dr. H. V. Logan, Louis M. Meyer, Professor H. D. Buck, Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, Rev. J. B. Sweet, Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce, D. D., John W. Howarth, LeGrand D. Coleman, H. G. McKee, Arthur Dunn, T. R. Jackson, P. H. Gerlock, W. G. Douglass, esq., Almazana Porter, esq., James A. Hand, Mosie; Dr. W. W. Fletcher, Carbondale; T. G. Robinson, Carbondale; Rev. B. F. Hammond, Olyphant; Matthew Gray, Olyphant. After an orchestra of five pieces had rendered a patriotic air, Rev. Dr. Lansing called the meeting to order. He said they were there in the interest of better government in Pennsylvania. They were not opposed to the national administration and had no desire to embarrass it. It was their intention to rid Pennsylvania of political bosses, for the people of Pennsylvania do not need bossing. In introducing Senator Kauffman, the first speaker, Dr. Lansing referred to him as one of the seventy-six members of the last legislature who opposed the outrageous and unprecedented jobbery of the last legislature. SENATOR KAUFFMAN'S ADDRESS. Senator Kauffman spoke for about half an hour, entering into a defense of himself against the accusation that he was opposed to organized labor, giving (Continued on Page 3)

John Wanamaker in Lackawanna. Addressed three meetings in this county yesterday. At the Evening Meeting He "Answers" an Editorial Comment in The Tribune by Making a Personal Attack on Congressman Connell. Comes Out Flat-Footed Against Stone and Gives His Reasons Why. No Question About Swallowing Being Anti-Quay and Scarcely Any About Jenks. Hon. John Wanamaker and his accompanying party visited Lackawanna county yesterday, conducting meetings in Carbondale, Olyphant and this city. They had large audiences at all three places and, at the armory meeting in this city, the audience had the distinction of being the first to hear Mr. Wanamaker in person since his little journey in this and Schuylkill counties, two years ago, and Mr. Wanamaker's valet and some newspaper men. They left Philadelphia at 9 o'clock yesterday morning via the Lehigh Valley and taking the Delaware and Hudson at Wilkes-Barre continued on to Carbondale, stopping in this city only long enough to take aboard the local managers of the War-amour tour, James J. H. Hamilton, John G. McAskie and John H. Fellows. MEETING AT CARBONDALE. The party was an hour behind schedule time in reaching the Pioneer city but a large crowd waited at the theater to hear the eloquent and interesting merchant prince and was entertained with a twenty-minute speech, during which Mr. Wanamaker, to show that he is not promoted in his party-wrecking by personal spite, advised the people of the north district to return home, John P. Reynolds, attorney, Mr. Reynolds voted against him for senator. Mr. Reynolds proved himself honest and capable. Mr. Wanamaker said: Olyphant gave its distinguished visitor a good reception at Father Matthew Opera house. Mr. Wanamaker severely criticized Senator Vaughan in his Olyphant speech. Olyphant is the home town of Senator Vaughan's opponent, "Squire" W. W. Cummings. The Scranton was reached at 6.10. The Wanamaker party registered at the myn and remained secluded until the hour for the armory meeting approached. It was advertised that there would be a reception at the hotel at 7 o'clock, but Mr. Wanamaker was too fatigued after his day's work, and it was abandoned. There were a dozen persons outside of the hotel guests about the lobby at the hour announced for the reception. Mr. Wanamaker and Senator Kauffman came downstairs at 7.25 and were at once taken in tow by Messrs. Hamilton, McAskie and Fellows and escorted to the armory. His entrance did not provoke much of a demonstration, but there was a general craning of necks to get a view of the famous Philadelphia. On the platform with the speakers were Messrs. Hamilton and Fellows, L. M. Meyers, Almazana Porter, Rev. Robert F. Pierce, Attorney Arthur Dunn and Rev. J. J. Lansing, D. D., who presided. The invited list of honorary vice presidents as read out by Mr. Hamilton was as follows: E. B. Sturges, esq., J. George Eisele, William J. Hand, Rev. James McLeod, D. D., Hon. John H. Fellows, John G. McAskie, W. W. Patterson, P. K. Tracy, Rev. W. C. Watkins, M. M. Bennett, James H. Hopkins, Ernest Conroy, Dr. H. V. Logan, Louis M. Meyer, Professor H. D. Buck, Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, Rev. J. B. Sweet, Rev. R. F. Y. Pierce, D. D., John W. Howarth, LeGrand D. Coleman, H. G. McKee, Arthur Dunn, T. R. Jackson, P. H. Gerlock, W. G. Douglass, esq., Almazana Porter, esq., James A. Hand, Mosie; Dr. W. W. Fletcher, Carbondale; T. G. Robinson, Carbondale; Rev. B. F. Hammond, Olyphant; Matthew Gray, Olyphant. After an orchestra of five pieces had rendered a patriotic air, Rev. Dr. Lansing called the meeting to order. He said they were there in the interest of better government in Pennsylvania. They were not opposed to the national administration and had no desire to embarrass it. It was their intention to rid Pennsylvania of political bosses, for the people of Pennsylvania do not need bossing. In introducing Senator Kauffman, the first speaker, Dr. Lansing referred to him as one of the seventy-six members of the last legislature who opposed the outrageous and unprecedented jobbery of the last legislature. SENATOR KAUFFMAN'S ADDRESS. Senator Kauffman spoke for about half an hour, entering into a defense of himself against the accusation that he was opposed to organized labor, giving (Continued on Page 3)

John Wanamaker in Lackawanna. Addressed three meetings in this county yesterday. At the Evening Meeting He "Answers" an Editorial Comment in The Tribune by Making a Personal Attack on Congressman Connell. Comes Out Flat-Footed Against Stone and Gives His Reasons Why. No Question About Swallowing Being Anti-Quay and Scarcely Any About Jenks. Hon. John Wanamaker and his accompanying party visited Lackawanna county yesterday, conducting meetings in Carbondale, Olyphant and this city. They had large audiences at all three places and, at the armory meeting in this city, the audience had the distinction of being the first to hear Mr. Wanamaker in person since his little journey in this and Schuylkill counties, two years ago, and Mr. Wanamaker's valet and some newspaper men. They left Philadelphia at 9 o'clock yesterday morning via the Lehigh Valley and taking the Delaware and Hudson at Wilkes-Barre continued on to Carbondale, stopping in this city only long enough to take aboard the local managers of the War-amour tour, James J. H. Hamilton, John G. McAskie and John H. Fellows. MEETING AT CARBONDALE. The party was an hour behind schedule time in reaching the Pioneer city but a large crowd waited at the theater to hear the eloquent and interesting merchant prince and was entertained with a twenty-minute speech, during which Mr. Wanamaker, to show that he is not promoted in his party-wrecking by personal spite, advised the people of the north district to return home, John P. Reynolds, attorney, Mr. Reynolds voted against him for senator. Mr. Reynolds proved himself honest and capable. Mr. Wanamaker said: Olyphant gave its distinguished visitor a good reception at Father Matthew Opera house. Mr. Wanamaker severely criticized Senator Vaughan in his Olyphant speech. Olyphant is the home town of Senator Vaughan's opponent, "Squire" W. W. Cummings. The Scranton was reached at 6.10. The Wanamaker party registered at the myn and remained secluded until the hour for the armory meeting approached. It was advertised that there would be a reception at the hotel at 7 o'clock, but Mr. Wanamaker was too fatigued after his day's work, and it was abandoned. There were a dozen persons outside of the hotel guests about the lobby at the hour announced for the reception. Mr. Wanamaker and Senator Kauffman came downstairs at 7.25 and were at once taken in tow by Messrs. Hamilton, McAskie and Fellows and escorted to the armory. His entrance did not provoke much of a demonstration, but there was a general craning of necks to get a view of the famous Philadelphia. On the platform with the speakers were Messrs. Hamilton and Fellows, L. M. Meyers, Almazana Porter, Rev. Robert F. Pierce, Attorney Arthur Dunn and Rev. J. J. Lansing, D. D., who presided. The invited list of honorary vice presidents as read out by Mr. Hamilton was as follows: E. B. Sturges, esq., J. George Eisele, William J. Hand, Rev. James McLeod, D. D., Hon. John H. Fellows, John G. McAskie, W. W. Patterson, P. K. Tracy, Rev. W. C. Watkins, M. M. Bennett, James H. Hopkins, Ernest Conroy, Dr.