THOMAS REED INJURED IN VON STORCH COLLIERY.

Huge Mass of Rock Falls Upon Him After Firing a Blast--Chances of His Recovering Are Unfavorable-Young People Entertained by Mr. and Mrs. John Morgans in Honor of Their Daughter-Personal and Other News.

Thomas Reed, of West Market street, a miner, employed at the Von Storch colliery, was seriously injured by a fall of rock yeterday hortly after dinner hour. Mr. Reed had just fired a blast and entered his chamber, when a huge mass of rock fell upon him while in a stooping position. The weight of the rock struck him diagonally across the back, but miraculously did not fall upon him so as to remain stationary when he fell to the ground.

He was knocked unconscious and was assisted from the mine to the company ambulance, in which he was conveyed to the Lackawanna hospital for treatment. His injuries are confined to the back. His life was despaired of last evening. Mr. Reed is a young man and unmarried.

YOUNG PEOPLE ENTERTAINED. Mr. and Mrs. John Morgans, of Margaret avenue, entertained a number of young people in honor of their daughter, Hattle . The guests enjoyed themselves thoroughly until a seasonable hour, when refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Hattie Lloyd, Sadie Devine, Annie Devine, Annie O'Hara, Nellie O'Hara, Nellie Tilson, Kate Sullivan, Bessle Etherby, Alice Leonard, Messrs, Edgar Richards, Rossar Price, Arthur Chase, Thomas Williams and Dantel Phillips.
