A JACK THE HUGGER IS CAUS-ING CONSTERNATION.

Flag Raising at Hyde Park Colliery-Speeches Made by E. E. Robathan, F. W. Fleitz and City Solicitor McGinley-Rolland Phillips, the Six-Year-Old Son of Mr. Injured by Being Run Over by a Wagon.

Caesar had his Brutus, King George his Cromwell, Whitechapel its Jack the Ripper, and "Teddy" Roosevelt has his troubles, but all these are as naught compared to the new excitement that an alleged "Jack the Hugger" is ereating on this side. So great has the fear among the women folks become that most dances at several halls are stag affairs, there is a notable absence of fair ones in the nightly promenades on Main avenue, and some of those of the married women who must be out to call or shop in the evening have notified the police that protection must be afforded them. This talk of the "hugger" has been in vogue for about two weeks. It first started from the story a young lady, well known on this side, told her friends. Some big, strong young man had grabbed her on a dark corner, had hugged her and then ran away. A newspaper man investigated and found hat the "hugger" was a near and dear friend of the young lady and was only joking, and had told the young lady's friends all about it beforehand.

Of course, only the hugging part became known to the public and since then all sorts of "stories" have been circulating. The alleged hugger has already been in two different places at the same time-so it is said.

Wednezday evening, however, affairs assumed a serious phase. Mrs. Saunders, of Price street, who is in charge of the branch confectionery store on this side of J. D. Williams & Bros., was passing up North Lincoln avenue on her way home after closing the store that evening. It was about 9.30 o'clock and just as she was about to pass an alley leading off Lincoln avenue, a big fellow stepped out and flashed a light in her face. She ran back towards the residence of D. H. Davis, corner of Jackson street and Lincoln avenue, and called for help.

When help reached her she had fainted. Dr. J. J. Carroll was called and she was taken to her home. She recovered consciousness about midnight. Yesterday though still nervous. she was at the store. She stated that the fellow did not strike her or speak

The members of the Excelsior Dramatic and Social club entertained their friends last evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Malley, of 308 North Bromley avenue. Recitations, vocal and instrumental selections, etc., were enwyed. At a seasonable hour refreshments were served.

A large and cultured audience enloved the rare treat provided for them last evening at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church by the members of the Chi Upsilon society of the church. "The Courtship of Miles Standish" was recited by Rev. I. J. Lansing, D. D., pastor of the Green Ridge Presbyterian church. #### BOY BADLY INJURED.

Rolland Phillips, the 6-year-old son f Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Phillips, of 141 South Hyde Park avenue, narrowly escaped death yesterday at noon by being knocked down and stepped on by a horse. He was a lously injured and still remains in a serious state from the shock. Drs. W. A. Paine and H. C. Comegys are in attendance.

The accident occurred at the intersection of Washburn street and South

An approaching team of horses, which he either did not notice or thought he could got across before they reached him, struck him and knocked him down.

The outfit was a farmer's, and he drove off without waiting to ascertain the extent of the lad's injuries. Bystanders conveyed the lad into Dr. Paine's office, nearby, and Drs. Paine and Comegys dressed the wounds. A long, jagged cut extends from the forehead around above the right ear. Fifteen stitches were required to close this His upper lip was cut and several teeth loosened. Several minor injuries were also discovered. He was later taken to his parents' residence.

No blame is attached to the man who drove the wagon, as an uncle of the lad witnessed the accident and said it was almost unavoidable, Rolland having run out so suddenly.

MURPHY-GAUGHAN NUPTIALS. The marriage of Miss Nellie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Murthy, of 506 North Sumner avenue, to John Gaughan, of Chestnut street, was solemnized at St. Patrick's church, Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock. Only a few friends and relatives were present. Rev. D. A. Dunne performed

Miss Mary Gaughan, a sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid. Both ladies were prettily attired and carried roses. Robert E. McNicholas was best man. Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party were given a reception at the residence of the bride's parents. A wedding supper was served. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Gaughan will reside on North Filmore avenue. They are both well known young people. Mr. Gaughan is the first baseman of the Lackawanna base ball club.

FUNERAL OF MRS. W. KLOTZ. The funeral of the late Mrs. Wendell Klotz was held yesterday afternoon from the residence on West mountain The remains were taken to St. Mark's Lutheran church, where services were held. The auditorium was crowded by the attendance of friends. Many beautiful floral tributes were placed on and about the casket.

Rev. A. L. Ramer, pastor of the church, conducted the service and preached an eloquent sermon. The church choir sang the hymn selections. At the conclusion of the services the remains were viewed and later borne to the Washburn street cemetery, where interment was made. The pall-bearers were Messrs, Straub, Wilson, Berge

DAY'S DOINGS OF DUNMORE BOROUGH

ADJOURNED SESSION OF THE BOROUGH COUNCIL.

A Great Deal of Important Business Was Transacted-Houses Occupied by the Fire Companies to Be Inspected-Number of Additional Fire Hydrants Are to Be Erected. Funeral of the Infant Son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gillette.

The adjourned session of the borough council was held in the borough building last evening. Messrs, Medway. Harper, Weber and McCullough being present. The minutes of the previous regular and special meetings were read and approved.

Mr. Harper, committeeman on electric lights, reported that he had seen the managers of the Dunmore Electric Light company in regard to having the prices for the six new are lights reduced. They informed him that the borough had a contract drawn between them for furnishing lights for the borough and must abide by it. Mr. Weber, committeeman on new fire company buildings, in making his report said the buildings were ready for occupancy now except for a few minor details, such as hinges, etc. He recommended that councils pay the rooms a visit in a body and inspect them, and if they proved satisfactory to accept them, the rent starting from November 1, 1898. Not having all the members present a day was set to visit the rooms in a body. Street Commissioner Jackson stated that the bridge erected by O. S. Johnson, and which is situated near his breaker, is in a dangerous condition and unsafe for passage when large loads are being carried over. The bridge committee was instructed to repair the bridge.

Under the head of grievances three complaints were heard. Mrs. McCann, of Collins street, stating that the waste water was running into the cellar of her residence from the opposite side the street. Street Commissioner Jackson was instructed to abate the nuisance. Thomas Golden, of Blakely street, facing Dudley, stated how a forstreet commissioner had undermined the dirt around the posts and as a consequence his fence fell over. The matter was referred to Mr. McCullough, who was instructed to investigate and report his findings at the next eting. The waste water nuisance on Grove street and Clay avenue was also referred to Mr. McCullough,

Mr. Fleming, of Oak street, was present. Having had a nuisance in front of his property for the past four years thought it time to have it abated and had asked Mr. Jackson, who several times had been in his vicinity repairing the street and cleaning the ditches in front of other property, but when he came to his passed it by and Dunmore Gas and Water company to place three in the following localities: Clay avenue and Drinker street, Drinker and Ward streets, Depue and North Blakely streets. A resolution allowing the Neptune and Electric Fire companies $10 per month until April 1, to feed their teams, was passed. A communication was received from Mrs. Burschel informing the council that she intended to make improvements upon the building occupied by the Independent Fire company and would raise the rent acordingly $5 per month after January 1899. The fire committees were diected to report at next meeting.

Mrs. Martha H. Van Peit, of Philaielphia, who owns property on Irving avenue and Dudley street, sent a communication by Tax Collector Correll, asking him to instruct the council to have a nulsance abated near her prop-erty. It was placed in the hands of the committee. A letter was received from Borough Engineer Knight, informing the council he had inspected the bridge at Nay Aug, which passes over Roaring Brook, and found it to be safe in carrying loads that do not exceed 6,000 pounds, and that he had informed Mr. Reeves, of the Scranton Gas and Water company, if he carried loads exceeding this amount he would do so at his own risk. Mr. Harper, of committee on building and grounds, said he had awarded C. Cole the contract for laying the stone steps leading into the borough yard from the street. Patrick O'Hora, of Chestnut and Willow streets, was allowed $15 damages for destruction of property. Bills to the amount of $1,275.48 were ordered

SOUTH SCRANTON.

There are strong reasons to believe that within a short time the plant of the National Elevator works, now located at Honesdale, will be added to the list of industries of this side. In fact, for the past four years negotiations have been under way to bring the large concern to this city. When the South Scranton board of trade was one of the leading and active organizations of this section, a committee composed of John J. Scheuer, ir., M. P. Judge and C. G. Boland went to Honesdale to confer with the owners of the plant relative to moving to Scranton. The local committee saw a good future for the works, and in their report at ensuing meeting of the board, Messrs, Scheuer, Boland and Judge strongly urged that the moneyed men of the city subscribe stock in the company. Acting on their recommendation, a number of prominent men became interested in the affair, which re guited in the plant being almost owned by Scranton capital. Since the abandonment of the Cravity road of the Delaware and Hudson railroad the move to have the works brought here has been revived. To The Tribune correspondent Mr. Scheuer, who has been particularly active in the matter from the very first, stated last night that he has been in conference with two of the officials of the concern during the week They, too, are now exceedingly anxious to come to Scranton, giving preference to this side for location. Interesting developments are expected shortly.

The formal opening of the new Hotel Rosar, at the corner of Cedar avenue and Alder street, took place last night, Proprietor Phillips Issued invitations to over two hundred of his friends and the response was big. From 9 o'clock until midnight lunch was served in the large dining room, which was handsomely decorated with flags, bunting, ferns and cut flowers. The Wakefield orchestra rendered a programme of popular music. The guests were escorted through the new building, one of the finest in any of the suburbs of the city.

would clean the ditch. After thinking sewered, I take this method of putting the facts as they are and don t want the public to think that I alone was the cause of helding of the same of the to go there and see what could be done of holding off this pave until the ave-before a pave, and as we have used this nue was sewered, but I am one who wants a severe a good many years without a sewer first and a pave after, and do pave, let us get along a year or so more not want the work done over three times and see if our councils will not give us a presented by Mr. Weber and adopted at the expense of the tax payers, and by the council: That the fire committee be instructed to purchase for the mittee be instructed to purchase for the such as any man with an ounce of brains sadly in need of both. ought to know better than to do. It is characteristic of this city to do a job over and over again, and why is this?

By permission I will give you names of a few who are trying to hold off this pave until the avenue is sewered. The first name I will give you is George Brown, who owns, with his mother, double block and two lots on North Main avenue, and he says he will carry the suit to the Supreme court before he will have the street paved in front of his and his mother's properties until it is sewered. If payed without a sewer it would forever spoil the sale of their properties, and I think he is right, as they now claim there is no money to pay for the city's share of sewering the avenue. It looks to me, the way they are managing there won't be any money to pay the city's share for sometime to come, unless they bond the city as they should for this expense. The North End pays a heavy tax and should have some benefits. I must admit they give us a few police-men up here, and they look after our in-terest when not needed down town. I would ask the tax payers in general what has the North End ever had for the taxes we have paid into the city treasury, and would it not have been better to put nearly half a million dollars in sewers throughout the city than to put it in two bridges, that were built to benefit street cars and brewery wagons? The names of those I am allowed to print are against paving until a sewer is laid. There are some names that I am asked to withhold, as they are afraid of their jobs. Isn't this an awful state of affairs, when a man dare not make his name public because he wants a sewer before a pave in front of his prop-erty. On this avenue there are a number of cess pools running over and out into the middle of the street, as there is no gutter only in the middle of the street most of the way along North Main avenue, although we have a ward appropriation of about eight hundred dollars. I am told that should be used to keep the gutters open on a main avenue like this, and I would ask the people of the two blocks that are sewered, leaving about twenty-five blocks that are not sewered, and who wants to cover up with a pave about twenty-five blocks that are not sewered to satisfy a few who live in the two blocks that have been sewered. Many of them have not paid for their sewer, and say they wen't as the city should pay two-thirds of the cost of sewering. according to a decision of the Supreme Well, if they won't pay for the sewer, would they pay for the pave if it was illegal, and the contractors would be waiting for their money as Planagan & O'Hara are, who put down the sewer in the two blocks out of about twenty-eight blocks. As I have taken up considerable space in your valuable paper, I will give you the names of some of the parties who are fighting for their rights, and there are only two men on this list that did not give $5 or more each to carry on this suit, and some gave larger sums. George Brown, Mary A. Fetherby, John Hawks sr., Michael Loftus, John M. Kelsling, P. F. O'Hara, C. S. Lowery, O. V. Palmer, Peter Cerine, Mrs. Rachel Phillips, John T. Kennedy, John Heal, Samuel Arnold, Joshua Vail, George W. Constantine, Charles Shotto, John D. Reese, Isaac Owen, Frank Harris, Thomas F. Reese, L. W. Morse, E. L. Benjamin, Lawrence Homer, C. F. ### SNAKES IN AUSTRALIA.

Various Specimens That Cause Men to Shun All But Temperance

Drinks. 'rom Chambers' Journal.

There are five kinds of venomous snakes in Victoria: The tiger snake, the black snake, the brown snake, the copperhead and the death adder.

The last mentioned is very rare in Victoria and very venomous. It is about two feet long, very thick in proportion to its length, of a dull brown color, and with a flat, wide head. The strangest thing about it is that many people believe its sting is contained in the tail

Leaving the death adder out of the count, there are four species which are fairly common. The tiger snake comes first, in popular estimation if not in reality. It is regarded as the most venomous and the most savage. It attains in some districts a length of about six feet, but the majority of specimens are from three to four feet long. Its coloring variegated, black and brown on the back, and path brown on the belly. When attacked it some-times raises its head to a height of a foot from the ground, and its appear neck contracted, its forked tongue flick- in this line. ering out of its mouth, and its eyes blazing with rage, makes the average man rather chary of approaching. One good point is that the backbone of all snakes is easily broken by a blow from a stick, and the power of locomotion is thus taken away. Next on the list is the black snake. This is rather larger than the tiger, and the handsomest of all Victorian snakes. The back is of jet black, and shines like a well polished boot, and the belly is beautiful salmon pink. It is less common than the tiger snake, and is very frequently confounded with the copperhead. The brown snake is brown on the back, whity brown on the belly, and about the same length as the other two. The commonest of all, at any rate near Melbourne, is the copperhead, which is found in most parts of Victoria. As its name implies, it has a coppery head, a dark back and a yellowish belly.

An Urewera tohunga who has been en-taged in tattooing the Maori girls in the Bay of Plenty district during the last few weeks has shifted his residence to Otua-vhala, a settlement near Matipihi. He is still kept busy, and on this account has raised his price all round to $15 a head. As a rule, the Maori girls are not flush of ash, but, like their European sisters, when it comes to a question of adornment the meney is found somehow.—Auckland
