It will be my purpose when elected to so conduct myself as to win the respecso conduct myself as to win the respect and good will of those who have given me me as well as those who have given me their support. I shall be the governor of the whole people of the state. Abuses have undoubtedly grown up in the legis-lature which are neither the fault of one party nor the other, but rather the growth of enstom. Panecessary investi-gations have been authorized by commet-tees, resulting in unnecessary expense to tech, resulting in nunceersary expense to the state: It will be my care and pur-pose to correct these and other cylls in v for as I have the power. It will be my purpose while governor of Pennsylvania, as It has been my purpose in the public positions that I have held, with God's help, to discharge my whole duty. The becopie are greater than the parties to which they belong. I am only jealous or their fayor. I shall only attempt to win their approval and my experience has taught me that that can best be done by an honest, modest, daily discharge of

To Conscientious Republicans.

The enthusiasm with which all factions of the Democratic party in Pennsylvania, a short time ago apparently Irrevocably hostile to each other, are now getting together for Jonks foretells what will happen two years hence to the Democracy of the nation if Jenks is elected. It will be the signal for a closing up of the national lines and the waging of a desperate and determined and hopeful fight for the election of Bryan and Bryanism. If the sound money Democracy can swallow Jenks they will not again bolt a free silver nominee for the presidency in 1900. We shall have the of 1896 to fight over again, lacking the help which in that year came to the sound money cause from sound money Democrats.

Substantially every Democratic vote in Pennsylvania will be cast on Tuesday for a free silverite and free trader. Republicans should not deceive themselves by thinking otherwise. Let them face the fact as it exists. George A. Jen's will receive next week a vote coming close to the vote polled by Bryan in Pennsylvania two years ago. What he will lose in the failure of a small proportion of his fellow partisans to come to the polls he will doubtless gain back through the help of the Wananaker element, which will cast its vote almost solidly for the whole Democratic Licker.

In this situation what is the duty of answer? The question virtually answers itself. The Republican voters of Pennsylvania cannot afford to let free silver and free trade carry the day, Whatever they may think of Quay or the last legislature; whatever alleged abuses may seem to them to be in urgent need of remedy at Harrisburg, they as Republicans cannot afford to turn this great state over to the enemy to be used against McKinley and Republicanism in 1900. The very possibility of such a disastrous mistake should be sufficient to arouse every Republican in the commonwealth to a sense of appalling danger.

A vote cast by a Republican for Dr. Swallow is a half vote east for Jenks. and free trade. It is a vote of injustice to Colonel Sione, than whom the Republican party has never had a more worthy nomince; a vete of injustice to William McKinley, who when beset by Spaniards, envious foreign nations, Democrats, Mugwumps and Copperheads ought certainly to have the full and cordial support of every Republican in the land; and it is a vote practically wasted, since there is no probability that Dr. Swallow will be elected. Let Republicans, therefore, ba wise in time: let them not unwittingly betray theoselves, their party, and their president, into the hands of the political enemy.

Vote for no candidate for congress who will not agree in advance to stand ment untrammeled by partisan or perby the president of the United States all along the line.

Spain's American Allies.

Spain's refusal of the American terms respecting the Philippines is evidently dictated by the opposition to them which has disclosed itself in the United States. Spain is not ignorant of the fact that, with a few honorable individual exceptions, the Democratic party in this country can be counted upon to help her in resisting the foreign policy of the McKinley administration; that as a matter of fact, that party is now fighting to gain centrol of corgress and thus block the policy and purposes of the American

If the Democratic party were as un-

The Scranton Tribune on national defence fund; if it had not permitted its hunger for office to cause it to recede from that creditable attitude and assume one of antagonism to the administration, can any man believe that Spain would now have the temerity to relect our terms of peace and play for delay in closing a treaty at Paris? The Spanish diplomatists have not recently gained any new strength in their own country of in Europe. Their gain has been wholly within the United States in the division of opinion and sentiment which has taken place among Spain's formerly united opponents. Consciously or unconsciously the leaders of the Democratic party in the United States and a few Mugwumps and disappointed Republican office-seekers have by their raising of the standard of revolt against the McKinley administration put new weapons into Spain's hands and Spain is shrewd enough to use them for all they are worth.

This is not a pleasant view to behold but it is the only view which fits the facts. Undoubtedly the American side of the negotiations at Paris will win in the end. It is bound to. American consistency and superiority require that we shall, if necessary, force our point. in the meantime, large forces of volunteers will have to be kept in reserve at great expense lest there shall have to be a renewal of hostilities, and the shadow of uncertainty will continue to hover over our bustness affairs and our politics. The American people have only themselves to blame for this; they should have remained by their president as one man. Let them repair their error next Tuesday.

As governor William A. Stone will be able, experienced and independent without forgetting what is justly due to the Republican party in state and nation.

An Incredible Assertion.

The Scranton Times estimates that 4,000 Republicans in Lackawanna county will this year vote against the Republican nomince for congress, thus causing the election of a Democrat. We have never taken much stock in the Scranton Times' political prophecies: certainly if 4,000 Republicans have informed the Times of such an intention they have not revealed this purpose

Why should any Republican this year vote against the Republican congressional nomince? In the great war congress he never missed an important vote or failed in any particular to do all that he could to sustain the credit of the nation, uphold its hands against the national enemy and stand by the Republican president. William McKinley was not badgered by him to de things which the president's good judgeent opposed: William McKinley never had to ask him for support. From the first day to the last William Connell was in his place of duty, doing his duty like a man and no Republican in either branch of congress was more faithful or loyal.

The Republican who at a time like this, when his country is yet under the shadow of a foreign war and the questions of a peace involving new and solemn obligations and responsibilities are awaiting answer, should permit any personal bias or disappointment to turn him against the nomince of his party for congress, would not deserve to be called a good Republican, Though he might claim to be a Republican his course would be that of an enemy to the Republican party, a deserter of the president and a man unworthy of exercising an influence upon the opinions and votes of his fellow-men. If there are men of this type opposing the Republican nominee in this campaign we trust that they will be given the power, ere election day, to see themselves as others see them; to realize in what an unworthy relation they are putting themselves toward the obvious best interests of their country.

But we cannot believe that there are enough of such misguided Republicans as to warrant the Democratic organ's sincere Republicans? Do we need to jubilation. Republicans should show on Tuesday that the Scranton Times is

An Upright Judge.

The presence on the Republican ticket of Hon, F. W. Gunster as its candidate for judge in itself recommends Judge Gunster to Republican support, since it came about in response to an overwhelming vote in open invention and constitutes a high testimonial of character and fitness. But intelligent voters owe it to themelves regardless of party and to the fair fame of the judicial office to reelect Judge Gunster. For years the drift of enlightened public opinion has licen in the direction of freeing the bench from all entanglements with ordinary party politics. In a number of the judicial districts of Pennsylvania the precedent has been established that an honorable and efficient judge should be retained during efficiency by cordial oncession of both parties, and the number of such precedents is continually increasing. This drift has followed awakened recognition of the fact that the man who sits in trial of issues affecting property and life should be absolutely free to give his best judgsonal obligations. The record which F. W. Gunster has made upon the Lackawanna bench has won the approval of an immense majority of the competent observers who have scrutinized it closely. He has seen not only learned in the law but fair and upright in its interpretation, evincing that analytical quality which probes to the marrow of causes and intent and decides for justice without fear or favor. An ornament to our judiciary in the judgment of every one whose judgment concerning such s matter is entitled to weight, his vote should be a measure of the county's progress in intelligence and quick discernment of judicial merit.

NO EXCUSE.

From the Altoona Tribune. There is no excuse for any Republicat refusing to support the regular state and county nominees this year. They were nominated after a fair, honorable and omewhat animated and exciting contest, nd they are entitled to the united support of their fellow Republicans. A vote for Swallow is really a vote for Jenks. The next governor will be Colonel Stone or his Democratic competitor. The gov-ernor has a good deal of influence in the shaping of national affairs. With a free olnage man in the executive chair, th influence of Pennsylvania would be ex-erted in a mischievous and dangerous way against the best interests of the nation. What worse than folly will be a led by Dr. Swallow's reckless assertion into voting to bring back into power this state the Democratic party which only five years ago stood with helpless hands in presence of the widespread dis-aster and desolation wrought by popular distrust of its intentions.

THE FACT IN THE CASE.

From the Philadelphia Inquirer.

There are no state issues that the Republican party cannot handle much better than the Democratic party, and there are

N 1961, when Abraham Lincoln making his campaign for re-ejection, George A. Jenks was appresed to him. At that time Mr. Jenks was a bemo-cratic leader in Jefferson county. Mr. Jenks went upon the stamp and nounced the war as a failure and for Lincoln. The time has come when can judge the great war calmly and j ly. The southern states thought i were right, and fought accordingly. northern states, on the other hand, be-lieved differently and upheld their con-victions. Today we behold the specia-cle of southern troops rallying around the Stars and Stripes. There is old Joe Wheeler, for instance, battling for the flag before Santiago. In 1861 his state was in the Confederacy, while Per vania was in the Union,

In Pennsylvania, as in other norther states, there were men known as Coppe-heads, who opposed the war, and who, they had had their way, would has brought disaster. What is to be though of them? Jefferson county was the hor of numerous Copperheads. In 1861 the held many meetings and from the stun assailed Lincoln Instead of standing r assailed Lincoln Instead of standing by their state, as valiant men both north and south slid, they sought to undermine it and the Union by denouncing the war as a mistake. The calls for their meetings were worded in language which, to rut it mildly, was most unpariate, "Rally, Freemen," one of these great posters pasted upon the fences and the walls read, "Rally, Freemen, and put the scal of condemnation upon tyranny and opread. "Raily, Freemen, and put the scal of condemnation upon tyranny and oppression." And it went on: "Our country is in danger"—danger? and from what? Why, from Abraham Lincoln. At these meetings summoned to condemn "tyranny and oppression," and to save the nation from the danger of Lincoln. George A. Jonks appeared. Men are numerous who remember his assualts upon the war, upon Lincoln and upon the proposition to allow soldiers to vote in the presidential election. And this man, the-war-is-a-failure Democrat, the free the war-is-a-failure Democrat, the free silver advocate of Bryanism, is a caudi-date today for the governorship of Penn

The question which the Republicans of a political investment that will yield ennsylvania have to face is this: Shall George A. Jenks, representing the Copper-heads of the rebellion and the free sliver vagaries of the Bryanism of the present ay, he elected governor, or shall William . Stone, representing the McKinley ad ministration, be placed in the executive mansion? Dr. Swallow has been aban-dened by many of those who had intended to support him. The Wanamakerite are mostly for Jenks. Scratch a Mun wump on the back and you generally lin-Democratic sympathizer beneath. There s Major Merrick, the eminent Wanama-terite of Tiega county, for instance, who has declared openly for Jenks. In Chester county the Swallowcrats are turning to Jenks. The Democratic party is uniting, as it always does when it sees a chance. Bryan looms un before the Democrats, and they are gathering. This neans the overwhelming defeat of Swal low and the narrowing of the contes down to Stone and Jenks.

There will be comparatively few Demo-cratic votes for Swallow, who must draw his strength principally from the Republihis strength principally from the Republi-cans. With Swallow absolutely and hopelessly Leaten, these Republicans who have been ineculated by Swallowism must make up their minds whether they are prepared to see Jenks elected governor and Bryan made a hopeful candidate for president in 1998. A vote for Swallow is a half vote for Jenks; it cannot elect Swallow, but it might elect Jenks, the wards a failure Democrat. The time has war-is-a-failure Democrat. The time ha-come for every Republican to reason will fulfill the requirements of that high office and reflect credit upon the McKinley or Bryan, protection or free trade, honest money or free silver; it is Republicanists or Bryan Democracy, and be elected and that the Republican party his fight practically single-handed and ing 100,000.

HISTORY IS REPEATING.

From the Altoona Tribune.

Personal abuse of Republican candi-dates is an old Democratic trick. Affl-davits and statements alleging all manner of villainy have been numerous and effective A man whose memory extends over a period of forty years will recall the bitter personal ersaults that we're made upon the founders of the party Seward was a "black" Republican, a 'nigger worshipper," a "freedom shriek er." Lincoln, who is described by Lowell as the first American, and by Henry Walterson as a providential man, and whose riemory is universally revered, was de-nounced in the foulest terms. Doubts were cast upon his birth. He was de-nounced as a baboon and an ape. No pithet was too foul for his enemies to use and many thousands of his contem-poraries believed him to be a vulgar, unouth and ignorant fanatic. But the ma jority of his countrymen believed in him and history has confirmed their judgment. Grant, the greatest soldier of the century, was stigmatized as a brutal butcher, and there never was a Republican candidate who received a more co-pious dressing of Democratic mud.

AS TO STATE ISSUES.

From the Philadelphia Inquirer Here is a real live state issue which all of the wreckers invariably ignore, because it would in turn wreck all their arguments: Not one penny has ever been los to the state since the Republican party took hold in 2829. At that date the state debt was $40,000,000. That debt, under Re-publican rule, has been reduced to a little more than $1,000,000! Talk about state is-sues! Why don't they discuss real state issues—issues founded on facts, not on malice, misrepresentation and down right falsehood?
