DEATH OF JOHN A. MURPHY. Stricken with Apoplexy While on

· His Way to Work. na A. Murphy, of 622 Beech street, very suddenly yesterday afternoon. He had been at work in the old rolling mill during the morning and while returning to the mili after dinner was stricken down, presumably by apoplexy, on Stone avenue, near St.

He was seventy-four years of age and lived in Scranton since coming from Ireland, thirty-five years ago, All these years he was employed about the rolling mill and by reason of his long service and faithfulness came to be one of the company's most highly regarded employes. He was a very quiet man, who sought no pleasure beyoud his family hearthstone, and who sought only to be known as a Godfearing man and good neighbor. His wife survives him: also two sons, Michael F. Murphy, master mechanic at the North mill, and Attorney John

J. Murphy, and one daughter. Margaret Murphy, teacher in Public school The funeral will take place Monday

TOWNSHIP CITIZENS ARE UP IN ARMS

INDIGNATION MEETING HELD IN MOOSIC LAST NIGHT.

Taxpayers of Lackawanna Township Propose to Prosecute Officials for Misconduct of the Affairs of the Municipality-Some of the Circumstances Which Give Rise to the Suspicion That There Has Been Wrong Doing-Startling Story of Misappropriation of Public Funds.

Only fourteen taxpayers of Lackawanna township responded to the call for an indignation meeting, at Dymond's hall. Moosic, last night, to protest against the manner in which the affairs of the township are being administered, but these fourteen brought along with them indignation enough to supply a dozen meetings, ten times as large. That the attendance was not large was due to the fact, one of the projectors of the meeting said, that the written notices, pasted here and there throughout the township, had been torn down.

Owing to the small attendance, it was decided to postpone the contemplated steps until a week from Monday next, when, it is expected, a full representation of the taxpayers will be on hand. Dodgers announcing the meeting and requesting all taxpayers to attend will be distributed all through the township, and the leaders in the movement will make personal efforts to bring about a full attendance.

From the tenor of the informal talks at last night's receting there is no question but that the people of the township are thoroughly aroused to the situation and that they are after the officers with a sharp-pointed, jaggededged stick.

C. W. Thompson called the meeting to order and proceeded to outline the purpose for which it was assembled. The disclosures of the school board investigation, the frauds that are being unearthed at the hearing before Commissioner Quinnan, the questionable auditors' report recently filed and the theft and probable destruction of the ownship records on the night followng the day on which the clerk was subpoenaed to bring them before the commissioner, all tended, he said, to put a foundation beneath the suspithe people have all along held that there was something "rotten in Denmark" and that at this particular time it is in a decidedly advanced state of putrefaction.

It is high time, he contended, for the axpayers to assert themselves and put stop to the corrupt practices which they have every ground to believing exist and have existed for years. The courts offer the means to that end, he said, and if the citizens will only stand together furnishing the moral and financial support the matter will be run down.

A BRIEF OUTLINE. As there were some present who probably had not given the scandal any close attention, Mr. Thompson outlined for city improvements on a bond issue, some of the circumstances on which the suspicions of wrong-doing were based, He told that one supervisor admitted derson and Lansing of the upper to him that he went into office $600 in branch, and Messrs. Oliver, Jackson, debt. In two years' time that superisor built three houses in Taylor, I bought a property on Lincoln heights, for which he paid $2,200, purchased a lot in Moosic and some other property in Minooka.

Relatives of a supervisor, he also went on to relate, had in their possession large orders which they admitted were given them for presents. That | duced in common council next Thursthey were telling the truth was evidenced by the fact that they had never done a tap of work for the township. One supervisor, it was shown from the auditors' report, put in a bill for 211 days' labor for himself and 221 days for his team. The other credited himself with 312 days' labor and claimed 224 days for his team. It was post-tively known, Mr. Thompson said, that one supervisor had worked with his team during a good part of the year hauling stone. Both supervisors charged $2 a day for their services, when the law, he claimed, only allows them $1.50. A suspicious item in Supervisor Toole's account, according to Mr. Thompson, was a claim of $327.50 for "blacksmithing, lumber, damages and incidentals."

Peter Mullen, of Minooka, who is foremost in probing into the alleged steals and who filed exceptions to the auditor's report, next made an address, in which he openly charged the most barefaced frauds on the part of the township officials. The auditor's report shows that $15,000 was expended during 1897 ,he said, while $6,934.50 was collect. i. the duplicate thereby being exceeded by over $8,000, an evidence in itself, he contended, that the affairs of the township were at least not carefully administered.

LARGE INDEBTEDNESS.

He then went on to tell that the indebtedness of the borough according to the stubs was fully $80,000, but that only half that amount was represented by the orders presented to the commissioner. The other orders are so paluably fraudulent, he said, that the holders, through their friendship for those from whom they got them, will not present them. 'It is easy for anybody to have Lackawanna township orders," said Mr. Mullen, "when they have a printing press up there in Mincoka, them out as fast as they need them."
