ELECTION DAY AT CAMP MEADE

MANNER IN WHICH THE VOTE OF THE REGIMENT WAS CAST.

Number of Votes That Each Candidate Secured-Those Who Had Charge of the Receiving and Recording the Will of the Soldier Boys-Some Amusing Incidents in Connection with the Election on the Tented Field.

Special to the Scronton Tribune.

Camp Meade, Middletown, Pa., Nov. 9 .- The excitement usually accompanying and immediately following an election has already practically subsided here. It was thought some days ago that the vote polled would be very slight, still, when the polls were once opened, many who intended at first to not cast their ballots, took sufficient interest in the contest to change their resolutions. In some companies the vote in others few electors absented themseives. There were no drills or dress parades, and at 9 o'clock in the morning the several companies of the Thirteenth were drawn up in line and judges of election were selected by a viva voice vote, and clerks were then chosen by the judges. Following are the names of those who served: B-Sergeant Jacob D. Keiper and Privates Charles Zeicler and John Baker, judges; Corporal George Biddleman and Private Arthur Beggs, clerks. D-Corporal Edward C. Koons and Privates Henry Smith and Jacob Cope.

Private Edmund Thompson, clerks. A-Corporal Lewis Carter and Privates William Meyers and Charles Warner, judges; Private Andrew Mitchell and Company Clerk Carr, clerks, C-Sergeant Ray Smith, Corporal Richard Bourke and Privates George Phillips, judges; Corporal Bernard Haggerty and Private Harry Angle.

G-Privates Frank Jones, John Godfrey and John Forkin, judges; Company Clerk George Griffiths and Private William Early, clerks.

G-Sergeants Franklin Gardiner and Lee Taylor and Private Ralzman, judges; Corporal Horton E. Cross and Privates William Loftus and Lewis Hill, judges; Sergeant Prentiss and Private Coleman, :lerks, H-Corporals Patrick Whalen and Thomas Mills and Private Joseph Birtley, judges; Lieutenant J. W. Benjamin and George W. Bailey, clerks.

THE VOTES BY COMPANIES. There was littue or no difficulty experienced in casting the ballots under the method required for soldier-voting. chief trouble consisted in the fact that in some of the companies there are voters from outside of Lackawanna county. For these, special poll books also in duplicate had to be made out The voting per company was as fol-

C was the last company to open its polls and in a few minutes after Chaplain Stahl, with his inseparable merschaum, came along and got into a conversation with a number of the boys who eagerly gathered around him in order to hear some "reminis-At ten o'clock this morning the Thirteenth, headed by the regimental band, fell into line and marched to General Gobin's headquarters to serenade him The greatest enthusiasm prevailed for the lieutenant governor-elect, the soldier of two wars. After the men were brought up in the form of a semicrole around the general's tent, Acting Adjutant Davis proposed three cheers and t tiger, which were given with a will. General Gobin then stepped to the front and warmly thanked the men of the Thirteenth for their act of couriesy. He said, too, that he was glad to see the Thirteenth there. He had beer onnected with it in one way or an other for fourteen years, and always felt proud of it, but never more so than at present. This war has been no more successfully fought and ended by our battleships and by our heroes of Santlago than by the thousands of hero patriot-soldiers, like you, who have been encamped throughout the country as a perpetual lesson, not only to Spain, but also to the would-be interfering nations of Europe. The band played several choice selections. General Gobin was delighted with his brigade. The Thirteenth not only gave him a larger vote than the Eighth, but also was the first to serenade him. He is now temporarily in command of the First Richard J. Bourke.

TEN YEARS CURED BY CUTICURA

For ten years I suffered untold agonies from Eczema, my lower limbs being so swollen and broken out that I could hardly go about. My brother, a physician of thirty years' practice, and other physicians of splendid ability, tried in vain to effect a cure and signally failed. I became absolutely disheartened, and had lost all bope, when a friend induced me to give CUTICURA REMEDIES a trial. I used two cakes of CUTICURA SOAP and two boxes of cakes of Curicuna Soar and two boxes of Curicuna (ointment), and it resulted in an absolute and permanent cure.
