Compiling of the Returns Was Watched with Much Interest. The result of Tuesday's election was the one absorbing topic discussed about town yesterday. Wherever men congregated they commented on the small vote cast and the large amount of cutting that was done. At the court house where unofficial computations of the open returns were being made by the candidates and newspaper men there were many anxious inquiries from hundreds of callers for exact information about the exact status of the vote for the various candidates.

Judge Willard, chairman of the Republican county committee, was one of those who paid a visit to the prothonotary's office, where the returns were being compiled. He was in a very happy mood and if he felt any regret over the fact that the county had given a plurality to Dr. Swallow he did not give any expression to his disappointment. The result in the state was probably a sufficient balm for any irritation he might have felt over Lackawanna's attitude toward Dr. Swal-

He had the satisfaction of knowing that the large vote Dr. Swallow re-ceived did no particular harm and that with the exception of Hon. John F. Reynolds, in the Fourth legislative dis trict, every local candidate that the chairman and his committee waged such an energetic battle for was elected by a safe plurality. Mr. Willard's management of the good to contemplate in these days of John Wanamaker politics. It was aggressive and business-like from beginning to end, but entirely devoid of anything approaching mud-throwing or villification. Even when Republican candidates were attacked in a disreputable manner and by disreputable means he refused to be swerved from the honorable, manly course he had mapped out for the campaign. He had faith in the sense of fair play and decency of the people as a whole and the results give ample demonstration that he was right. Colonel F. J. Fitzsimmons, the Democratic county chairman, was not at his office yesterday. The hard work of the campaign told heavily upon him and he remained in his room for the greater part of the day to recuperate. He made a gallant fight for the men on his ticket and the vote they received is a testimonial of the earnest, systematic work done for them. A. G. Thomason, chairman of the Prohibition county committee, was hard at work in his office in the Traders' bank building yesterday afternoon and did not look at all as if he had just emerged from the most sensational and successful campaign in the history of his party in Lackawanna county. "I am proud of the intelligence displayed by the voters of Lackawanna county," he said. "They gave Dr. Swallow a very handsome vote; one that is entirely satisfactory. I am keenly disappointed, however, in the result in other parts of the state. If the people had voted as they talked Dr. Swallow would certainly have been chosen governor. There was a great deal of talk indulged in by the voters of the state that did not crystalizinto anything stronger than talk.

LATHROPE'S VOTE. "There is abundant evidence of a good deal of that kind of talk in this county in the comparative small vote received by W. W. Lathrope. We had & a capable candidate of unquestioned & worth and ability, yet hundreds who said they would vote for him evidently | & did not. I anticipated that he would a receive a much larger vote than he "Altogether we feel much encouraged & by this fight. We have taught a large body of voters to be more independent in casting their ballots and the victors of yesterday's battle will be better, because of the ordeal they went

The first thing Attorney Fred W.
Fleitz did when he reached his office yesterday was to send the following telegram to Hon. John Wanamaker at E. Fleitz did when he reached his office yesterday was to send the following

Up to midnight a reply had not been received from Mr. Wanamaker, Hon. M. F. Sando was at the prothonotary's M. F. Sando was at the prothonotary's office a good part of the day, figuring on the returns. He took his defeat for congress in a philosophical manner. To a Tribune reporter be said that taking into consideration the fact that $\mathbb{E}$ his opponent was Scranton's most & prominent citizen, the showing he made | & indicated to him that he has many K

loyal friends throughout the county 2

Hon, John F. Reynolds and his Democratic opponent, P. E. Timlin, were also hard at work on the returns until all the votes cast in the Fourth legislative district had been footed up and it was found that Mr. Timlin had been eleqted by a small plurality. He feared that the vote cast by the soldiers at Camp Meade might plurality the afternoon telegraphed to a friend in the regiment to send the vote for

Reynolds and Timlin. John J. Scheuer, Jr., the next representative from the Second district, was about the court house and was warmly congratulated by his friends. Congratulations were also showered on Hon, John R. Farr, Dr. J. J. Roberts, 16 the next coroner, and George Steven- | M son, the next county surveyor, all of & whom won substantial victories over & their Democratic opponents. To Senator J. C. Vaughan came & many messages of congratulation over & the splendid victory he won in the 2 senatorial district. His big victory is & one of the features of the election. Hon.
