LECTURES ON LITERATURE.

First in the Series Delivered at the Home of Mrs. C. D. Simpson.

The first in the series of lectures on literature given by Mrs. Staples was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. C. D. Simpson, on Olive street and was largely attended. The subject of the date was Mrs. Browning. The lecture was prefaced by a characteristic recital by Mrs. Staples of a sketch from "The Birds' Christmas Carol."

The life of the great woman poet of the times was delightfully reviewed in the speaker's deftly charming way. The most ideal love story of all history embodied in the perfection of devotion between Elizabeth Barrett and Robert Browning was graphically portrayed. Mrs. Staples quoted many selections from the poems, quoting from Aurora Leigh and "The Cry of the Children," which latter she compared in its effect on a living thought and social questions with Thomas Hood's "Song of the Shirt." In conclusion she gave the most exquisite and pathetic lines of "Mother and Poet."

The second lecture will be held on Wednesday next at the home of Mrs. William P. Hallstead. The subject will be one of great interest—the two Scotch writers, Ian Maclean and James Barrie. Tickets may be had on application on that occasion, or from Mrs. C. D. Simpson at any time.

Among the representative ladies present yesterday were: Mrs. Thomas Dickson, Mrs. J. P. Dickson, Mrs. G. B. Jernyn, Mrs. W. W. Scranton, Mrs. James Scranton, Mrs. W. D. Kennedy, Mrs. E. H. Hipple, Mrs. F. T. Vail, Mrs. L. M. Gates, Mrs. M. R. Kays, Mrs. W. G. Parke, Mrs. C. E. Conroy, Mrs. C. M. Giffin, Mrs. N. E. Round, Mrs. William Matthews, Mrs. Brundage, Mrs. Little, Mrs. I. F. At the last session of the grand jury the criminal libel case of Rose Depuy, of Dalton, against Colonel F. J. Fitzsimmons, editor of the Sunday News, was returned ignored and the costs paid on the prosecutors.

The court was divided four to three and yesterday Judge Archibald handed down an order directing the district attorney to re-submit the case at the present session of the grand jury.

Quite Speedy.

The Lake Shore and Michigan Southern railway still maintains the very enviable record which it has made for itself in every way and the service is always the best. Its cars are the most luxurious extant, its attendants courteous and for fast time it can't be approached by any road running from Buffalo to Cleveland, Toledo, Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati and intermediate points at the same time safety is not sacrificed for speed, every safeguard being provided. This is why the Lake Shore never has any serious disasters. Be sure and travel via the Lake Shore.

INSPECTION DISTRICT.

Has Been Created by the Postoffice Department with Headquarters in This City—Gorman Will Be the Chief.

Scranton has again been signally honored by the Federal government. A new inspection district, embracing Northeastern Pennsylvania has been laid out by the post office department and this city has been designated as its center.

Horofores this territory was a part of the Philadelphia district and when anything at any of the post offices in the territory necessitated the attention of that department an inspector would have to be secured from Philadelphia. The inconvenience of this proceeding and the fact that the great importance of the district warranted it, induced the post office department to establish the new district.

The counties comprising the new district are those contained in the marshals and revenue collector's territory. H. J. Gorman, who was a deputy inspector at Philadelphia, has been made chief inspector of the new district. He will make his home in this city and establish his headquarters in the Federal building.

CANADA'S PROHIBITION VOTE.

From the Philadelphia Press.

Full returns have of late been received of the vote cast Sept. 29 in Canada on the prohibition question.

The vote was not a direct expression on the adoption of a constitutional amendment on the subject but merely a series of votes on the desirability of prohibition, with the understanding that the Dominion ministry would take the result as an indication whether or not to introduce a bill in parliament prohibiting the manufacture and sale of liquors in Canada.

The total vote cast was 243,847, out of a total voting list of 1,223,349. The vote in favor of prohibition was 57,483 and against prohibition 186,364, leaving a majority for prohibition of 13,887.

This is a small majority and the Canadian ministry will hardly feel justified in taking it as sufficient authority for framing and introducing in the Dominion parliament a prohibition bill. There was apparently little interest in the election in Ontario only 22 per cent. of the voters on the lists supported prohibition; in Quebec only 8 per cent.; in New South, 12 per cent.; in New Brunswick, 25 per cent.; in Prince Edward's Island 53 per cent.; in Manitoba, 25 per cent.; in British Columbia 16 per cent., and in the territories 27 per cent.

Taken in comparison with other elections the vote of September shows a widespread lack of interest in the question of prohibition. Only a little over one listed voter in four cast a ballot in favor of forbidding the liquor traffic. "One such election the Canadian ministry will be justified in ignoring the result."
