TENTH ANNIVERSARY.

The Knights of Pythias are laying plans for one of the largest kind of celebrations on their tenth anniversary. An entertainment will be given in which some of the best local talent of Scranton will participate. The program that will be carried out is a long and exceedingly interesting one. A grand banquet will be held in Hotel Anthon, which will be decorated for the occasion.

The committee on arrangements are working hard to make the affair a brilliant success. Mr. Burke has a number of personal friends in the city. On next Sunday night the knights will attend services at the Trinity church, when a special sermon will be delivered to them by Rev. H. A. Sawyer, the rector. The Mozart orchestra will be in attendance during the services, which will be divided into three parts, sermon, sacred concert and evening prayer.

ELROY STOCK COMPANY.

The Elroy Stock company will fill a week's engagement at the Grand this week. They are great favorites with Carbondale audiences especially so are Miss Church and Messrs. Burke and Cooke, who are the leading men of the organization. Mr. Burke has a number of personal friends in the city. An immense audience will witness the presentation of the "White Squadron" tonight. A large number of seats have been reserved at Reynolds' drug store. Matinees will be given on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

ANOTHER SET-BACK.

Work has not yet been resumed by Contractors Blair and Kennedy on the paving of Sixth avenue. The delay is due to their being unable to get any cars for the transportation of bricks to this city. Mr. Blair has endeavored to secure the requisite number of cars on almost every road in this section. However, they were on their way and will probably arrive today. They will be used in completing the lower part of River Street.

THE OPENING NIGHT.

The Mitchell home company will open their fair tonight in the Watt building, which has been very prettily decorated for the occasion. Several booths have been erected and they add to the attractiveness of the hall. The boys have done everything possible to make this affair the largest of its kind ever held in this city and no doubt their efforts will be crowned with success. Tonight they will hold a grand parade, which will be headed by the Mozart band, and in which a number of visiting companies will participate.

THE ROAD BED REPAIRED.

The Delaware and Hudson have had a large force of men engaged in filling in the road where it crossed in on Cottage street. Traffic may now be resumed although the improvements will be continued for a few days. Many tons of ashes were dumped into the large depression before it came to its former level. Work will be commenced on the raising of the house on the Byrne property this week. The cave was the most costly experienced by the railroad company for some time.

BUYING PROPERTY.

The Delaware and Hudson Canal company on Saturday purchased five hundred acres of land north of this city, embracing the properties of John Williams, William Evans, Dwight Mills, Patrick Barry, and Michael Conaghan. What the company will do with it is impossible to tell as the officials positively refuse to speak on the matter. It is generally supposed that they will strip the top vein of coal, which is some places less than fifty feet under the earth's surface.

FIRST COMMUNION CLASS.

A large number of boys and girls received first communion at the nine o'clock mass in St. Rose's church yesterday morning. The girls were neatly attired in white dresses and wore veils. They presented a charming sight on the march to and from the church. The church was crowded to its utmost capacity with people desirous of witnessing the ceremony. The class was the largest that has received in some time.

A PECULIAR REMEDY.

Something About the New Discovery for Curing Dyspepsia. The Rev. F. I. Bell, a highly esteemed minister residing at Weedport, Cayuga County, N. Y., in a recent letter writes as follows: "There has never been anything that I have taken that has relieved the Dyspepsia from which I have suffered for ten years except the new remedy called Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Since taking them I have had no distress at all after eating and again after long years CAN SLEEPS WELL. Rev. F. I. Bell, Weedport, N. Y., formerly Ithaca, Colo. Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is a remarkable remedy, not only because it is a certain cure for all forms of indigestion, but because it seems to act as thoroughly in old chronic cases of dyspepsia, as if it were a new attack of indigestion or biliousness. A person has dyspepsia simply because the stomach is overworked, all it wants is a harmless, vegetable remedy to digest the food and thus give it the much needed rest. This is the secret of the success of this peculiar remedy. No matter how weak or how much disordered the digestion may be, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest the food whether the stomach works or not. New life and energy is given not only to the stomach but to every organ and nerve in the body. A trial of this splendid medicine will convince the most skeptical that Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles can be cured. The tablets are prepared by the F. A. Stuart Co., of Marshall, Mich., but so popular have become that they are now being sold by all druggists. Send for a free package, which will be mailed to you on receipt of ten cents. Send for the book on stomach diseases free.

A meeting of the council was held Friday night. Among the bills passed were the following: Delaware and Hudson Canal company, $27.50; August Hummer, $1; W. P. Lawler, $1; Olyphant Water company, $210; D. G. Jones & Son, $1; commission, committee work, $100; police officers, $45 each. A bill from the Olyphant Record was referred back for correction. Mr. Howard reported that he had seen the attorney in regard to the new track being laid by the Delaware and Hudson company, and stated that he advised that as soon as the company commenced operations on the said street in dispute, it would be the duty of the burgess and president of council to notify the street and the workmen, and if they refused to cease working to communicate with him and he would have an injunction served on the company within two hours. The report of Mr. Howard was adopted. The light committee reported that a practical engineer had examined the electric plant on Monday to examine the engine to see where the defects are. The secretary was instructed to notify the street railway company to repair their tracks at Grassy Island, and they refused to do so, then the burgess would test the engine and charge the expense of the same to the company. In regard to the reported sewer transaction, Mr. O'Brien reported that he had consulted the borough attorney, who said that the New York syndicate had lost their charter, and had no right to operate in this borough and advised that the council reject all proposals from them. A PERSONAL ADVERTISEMENT.

By Kenneth Herford. From the Detroit Free Press. "I'll do it." Margaret Adams' eyes sparkled with delight as she thought occurred to her. She dropped the paper she had been reading, and the door of the porch and ran into the house. Shortly she came out with a block of stationery in one hand and a pencil between the fingers of the other. She picked up the pink paper that she had thrown down and read again the advertisement that had caught her eye. The paper was one of the common "matrimonial weeklies" which are circulated throughout the country, but which are never seen in the cities of their publication. The advertisement that the girl read was worded as follows: "A young man of excellent family and character, black hair and eyes, height 6 feet, worth $50,000, would like to correspond with young lady of good station, blonde preferred, object matrimony." Then there was printed the address of the young man with black hair and eyes. It was "Box K 12, Jackson, Mich."

Margaret Adams lowered the paper from her eyes and wondered if it might be "she" asked herself. "Of course it would be only in fun. He's in fun, too. Why should a man worth $50,000 advertise for a wife? Pah! The idea is ridiculous. I'll write to him at the address given and then if I see he is in earnest I'll write him back. He has been making of me. I hope he'll continue the correspondence, though; it will be a relief from the dreary monotony on the farm. What would the girls back in boarding school say to such an episode? I believe they all envy me the chance to write to a man like this one that I'm going to write to. And he's in another state, too, not in Ohio, and I don't believe there's any harm in it. Yes, I'll write, and I'll write now."

A PERSONAL ADVERTISEMENT.

By Kenneth Herford. From the Detroit Free Press. "I'll do it." Margaret Adams' eyes sparkled with delight as she thought occurred to her. She dropped the paper she had been reading, and the door of the porch and ran into the house. Shortly she came out with a block of stationery in one hand and a pencil between the fingers of the other. She picked up the pink paper that she had thrown down and read again the advertisement that had caught her eye. The paper was one of the common "matrimonial weeklies" which are circulated throughout the country, but which are never seen in the cities of their publication. The advertisement that the girl read was worded as follows: "A young man of excellent family and character, black hair and eyes, height 6 feet, worth $50,000, would like to correspond with young lady of good station, blonde preferred, object matrimony." Then there was printed the address of the young man with black hair and eyes. It was "Box K 12, Jackson, Mich."

Margaret Adams lowered the paper from her eyes and wondered if it might be "she" asked herself. "Of course it would be only in fun. He's in fun, too. Why should a man worth $50,000 advertise for a wife? Pah! The idea is ridiculous. I'll write to him at the address given and then if I see he is in earnest I'll write him back. He has been making of me. I hope he'll continue the correspondence, though; it will be a relief from the dreary monotony on the farm. What would the girls back in boarding school say to such an episode? I believe they all envy me the chance to write to a man like this one that I'm going to write to. And he's in another state, too, not in Ohio, and I don't believe there's any harm in it. Yes, I'll write, and I'll write now."

OLYPHANT.

A meeting of the council was held Friday night. Among the bills passed were the following: Delaware and Hudson Canal company, $27.50; August Hummer, $1; W. P. Lawler, $1; Olyphant Water company, $210; D. G. Jones & Son, $1; commission, committee work, $100; police officers, $45 each. A bill from the Olyphant Record was referred back for correction. Ex-Treasurer McLaughlin's commission amounting to $600 was ordered paid. Mr. Howard reported that he had seen the attorney in regard to the new track being laid by the Delaware and Hudson company, and stated that he advised that as soon as the company commenced operations on the said street in dispute, it would be the duty of the burgess and president of council to notify the street and the workmen, and if they refused to cease working to communicate with him and he would have an injunction served on the company within two hours. The report of Mr. Howard was adopted. The light committee reported that a practical engineer had examined the electric plant on Monday to examine the engine to see where the defects are. The secretary was instructed to notify the street railway company to repair their tracks at Grassy Island, and they refused to do so, then the burgess would test the engine and charge the expense of the same to the company. In regard to the reported sewer transaction, Mr. O'Brien reported that he had consulted the borough attorney, who said that the New York syndicate had lost their charter, and had no right to operate in this borough and advised that the council reject all proposals from them. Affidavits were read from Auditors P. J. Farrell and P. J. Walsh as to the amount of time they consumed in making their report. The bills amounted to $9 each and were paid. The secretary was instructed to part of the electric light accounts for August and September. It showed that the cost of operating the plant in those months was $125 in excess of estimates. It was reported that several of the sidewalks on Delaware street had not on a grade with the road, causing the water to flow over on them. The street committee was instructed to see that the walks are raised. Councilman Gallagher declared vacant, because he had not attended a meeting in several months. Mr. Lewis said that it would be hardly just to Mr. Gallagher to take any action of that kind, as he was away in New Jersey attending to some business interests. It was decided to notify Mr. Gallagher that unless he is present at the next meeting his seat will be declared vacant. Announcement is made of the coming marriage of Miss Mary A. Carbine to Michael J. McAndrew, both popular young people of this place. The ceremony will be performed in St. Patrick's church, Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock. Following the ceremony a reception will be held at the home of the bride on Delaware street. Harry Buddie, of Hoboken, N. J., is visiting at the residence of Justice of the Peace William Mason in Blakely. The funeral of the late Mrs. Ann Sheridan, who died on Friday last, took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. After the remains had been viewed at the home they were borne to St. Patrick's church where a short service was held. A large number of relatives and friends attended. Interment was made in St. Patrick's cemetery. PECKVILLE.
