

SCRANTON SOLDIERS ARE UNDER CANVAS

FINE CAMP AT AUGUSTA IS THEIR PORTION. Boys Are Pleased with the Fine Climate, But Their Greatest Joy Is Caused by Elevated Ground and a Sandy Soil Which Will No. Make Mud—Colonel Coursen Compliments His Soldiers on their Camp Efficiency—Tribune the First Scranton Paper in Camp.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Camp General S. B. M. Young, Augusta, Ga., Nov. 16.—The Thirtieth is now under canvas and every man in the regiment is well and comfortably situated. We arrived here last night, the last section passing through Augusta shortly after 2 o'clock p. m. and reaching the camp, one mile from this place, a little before 3 in the morning. All slept in their respective sections.

They turned out this morning at 7 o'clock and set to work with a will so that before noon the regiment was under cover and the camp entirely laid out, every man was at his post and the speed with which everything was done surprised the neighbors and was most gratifying to the officers as well as creditable to the men. The regiment had made for itself throughout the entire trip a remarkable and excellent record of which every man now feels proud. This evening Colonel Coursen expressed himself to the Tribune correspondent as much gratified with the conduct of the boys and their promptness and efficiency in all the camps.

We are located about four miles from Augusta, on a perfectly level plateau where nothing ever grows but stunted oaks and cactus plants. The elevation is high, and, on account of the sandy soil, mud is an unknown quantity. It has been raining constantly since 5 o'clock this morning, but still it is dry. The ground does not hold the water and the climate is warmer than at Camp Meade.

The corps division and brigade headquarters are located here. The First Maryland, Tenth Ohio and Thirty-fifth Michigan, of the First brigade, and the Eighth and Thirteenth Pennsylvania, of the Third brigade, are encamped at this place. The last regiment to complete this camp, the Fifteenth Minnesota, will be here tomorrow. A detachment of the Third United States cavalry is here and is doing provost duty at present.

The Tribune was the first paper to arrive in the Thirtieth's camp. It reached here this afternoon and was read with avidity.

Richard J. Bourke. EIGHTEEN MORE RECRUITS. They Were Forwarded Yesterday to Huntsville.

When they arrive at Camp Force they will be distributed among the several companies of the Fifteenth United States infantry now stationed there. The men were recruited from the recruiting station on Washington avenue and are: Lewis Geschelke, Thomas McGraw, Patrick

The Value Of Little Things

We are afraid, has been lost sight of in our many presentations of store news in this column. We have written largely of our extreme features in wearing apparel and fabrics, until we fear you may presume them our only strong points. Not so. We are extremists in all that is good, new and ultra, yet this extremism never reaches our prices—they are decidedly moderate.

Extreme Bargains In Handkerchiefs

One of the little features, so necessary in all the positions of life are handkerchiefs. Our buyer has a failing for ALL LINEN sorts. So pronounced is this failing that none but all linen enter here. Here are values worth sending for and the liberal advantages of getting your money back if not suited is included in the offerings.

For Women: At $1.50 the dozen—All linen hand embroidered handkerchiefs, five different styles. Worth 50c each. At $2.00 the dozen—Plain Irish linen, very fine quality with half three-quarter or inch hem. Worth 20c each. At $2.75 the dozen—A dozen different varieties of plain, embroidered and lace trimmed handkerchiefs. A not unusual price has been 25c each. And other varieties in plain, embroidered, lace, and real lace trimmed, at prices from 25c each to $1.00.

For Men: At $1.50 the dozen—Of fine unlaundered Irish linen, half inch hem and hand worked in width. Worth 50c each. At $2.00 the dozen—A very fine quality of Irish linen in wide, medium and narrow hemstitching.

Sample any of the above in half or dozen lots and you will order more, before they are gone.

Our Dollar Glove

We can't emphasize too much the excellence of this special "spear point" stitched real kid glove. Compare it with most makes at a half more. It's a walking glove and comes in all the Fall glove shades. We've your size, and a post card request bring a pair—which, send back if not suited.

CHRONIC ECZEMA CURED BY CUTICURA. I was troubled several years with chronic Eczema, on my head and face. I took medical treatment, used ointments and several lotions, but received little relief. At times, the dreadful itching became almost intolerable. When I was located, the Eczema became painful, and almost distracted me. I tried CUTICURA REMEDY.
