

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

FOURTH WARD CANDIDATES' MEETING LAST NIGHT.

Preliminaries Arranged for a Ward Caucus Which is to be Held in the Near Future—Usual Weekly School Deposits Were Made Yesterday—St. Paul's Pioneer Corps Accepts Invitations—Meetings and Services of St. David's Church Guild and Congregation.

The political caudron on this side is in a fierce state of agitation. Ward after ward is arranging affairs for next spring's election, though the echoes of the last election have scarcely died away.

Twelve aspirants were present representing three districts of the ward, which has four districts. The First district was not represented. Everything was conducted harmoniously.

St. Paul's Pioneer Corps. St. Paul's Pioneer corps has accepted an invitation to go to Georgetown, Pa. this evening and be the guests of Rev. J. J. McCall, at the Georgetown Parish fair.

At St. David's Church. A meeting of St. John, Evangelist chapter, of St. David's guild, will be held in the Sunday school rooms of St. David's Episcopal church on Wednesday evening.

Welsh Prize Singers. Final arrangements have almost been made by Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church, for the reception of the Welsh Prize Singers, who will appear in the above church next Thursday evening.

Personal Mention. Charles Freese and David Charlton, of Plymouth, spent last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Harris, of Swatland street.

Yesterday's School Deposits. The usual weekly deposits of those schools on this side wherein the savings fund idea is in vogue, were made yesterday in the West Side bank.

not as large as heretofore, but were on a fair average with all deposits since the opening of the schools. The deposit from the schools are as follows: For public school No. 13, David Owens, principal, $1.25; Miss Martha Watkins, 42; Miss Elizabeth Lewis, 50; Miss Alice Evans, 48; Miss Bertha Kelly, 20; Miss Nellie Richards, $1.35; Miss Nellie Kelly, 74; Miss Catherine Phillips, $1.14; Miss Edna Price, $1.41; Miss Sarah McDonald, $1.31; Miss Mary Harris, 22; grand total, $9.22.

For public school No. 19, Miss Josephine D. Lees, principal, 29; Miss Agnes Murray, 66; Miss Norma Nichols, $1.01; Miss Nellie Beamish, 29; Miss Morgan, 58; Miss Flynn, 79; Miss Agnes Evans, $1.07; Miss Edna Kent, 52; Miss Wade, 44; Miss Murphy, $1.48; Miss Della P. Evans, $1.32; Mrs. Ferber, 42; grand total, $4.88.

For public school No. 32, H. L. Moran, principal, $1; Miss M. W. Vaughan, $1.91; Miss M. T. Maghran, $1.19; Miss M. Lewis, 69; Miss Kate Mullen, 50; Miss Jane Fellows, 42; Miss Elizabeth Warner, 46; Miss Mary Carpenter, 35; Miss Sara O'Connor, 59; grand total, $5.

APPARATUS NOT ARRIVED. The new chemical apparatus for the Columbia Combination Chemical and Hose company, which was expected to arrive yesterday, had not put in an appearance up to last evening. It is on the way, however, and will probably be in the quarters by today or tomorrow.

AT ST. DAVID'S CHURCH. A meeting of St. John, Evangelist chapter, of St. David's guild, will be held in the Sunday school rooms of St. David's Episcopal church on Wednesday evening.

WELSH PRIZE SINGERS. Final arrangements have almost been made by Rev. Thomas De Gruchy, pastor of the Jackson Street Baptist church, for the reception of the Welsh Prize Singers, who will appear in the above church next Thursday evening.

IF YOU CAN'T SLEEP

the cause is pretty sure to be in the stomach. If that important organ be out of order, the nerves will be too, and disordered nerves keep you awake. Sound, refreshing, invigorating sleep, is sure to follow the taking of...

GATHERED IN SOUTH SCRANTON

THERE WILL BE MORE DELAY ON 17TH DISTRICT SEWER.

City Engineer Has Condemned a Big Lot of Pipe Which It Was Proposed to Use—Mrs. Hummer, of Cedar Avenue, Causes the Arrest of Her Neighbor, Mrs. Gannon. News of the South Side Fire Companies—Lesser Items of Interest.

In this column recently was published an interview with Thomas A. Dunn, junior member of Dunn Bros., the firm of general contractors, to whom was awarded the contract for the construction of the seventeenth district main sewer.

Early yesterday morning Mr. Phillips went to South Washington avenue at the Stafford Meadow brook and made a partial inspection of the main-moat pile of pipes which the firm has received for the sewer.

City Engineer Phillips, according to Harry Klumizer, an ardent sewerite, who later repeated the statement to The Tribune correspondent, said that this morning he would send two men from his force to make a thorough examination of the consignments of pipes now lying along the route of the proposed sewer.

Y. W. C. A. ENTERTAINMENT. A fine entertainment will be given at the South Side Young Women's Christian association rooms, 1021 Cedar avenue, this evening.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY. Mrs. Edward Hummer, of 258 Cedar avenue, went before Alderman Ruddy yesterday and gave information for the arrest of her neighbor, Mrs. Gannon, on the charge of assault and battery.

FIRE COMPANY NOTES. At the Neptune Engine company's quarters the work of improvement is being pushed towards completion with vigor.

At the regular semi-monthly meeting of Green Ridge colliery, No. 179, Improved Order of Heptasops, an entertainment programme was rendered and lunch served.

OBITUARY. Mrs. Hannah Loftus, mother of Mrs. James Hoise, Mrs. Robert Lynott and the late Mrs. McGovern, all of this city, died yesterday morning at her home on Broad street, Pittston.

At first try one-half Grain-O and one-half Coffee. HE CAN'T DRINK COFFEE BUT GRAIN-O FILLS HIS WANTS.

Which Half is the Better Half

The housewife's duties are harder than men realize. Cleaning alone is a constant tax on her strength, a never-ended task. More than half the work of cleaning she can have done for her, if she will, and the expense will be next to nothing.

Does the better half of cleaning; does it better than any other way known; does it easily, quickly and cheaply. Largest package—greatest economy.
