Pretty Little Garments for Pretty Little Tots

And not one with several hundred included in the four following lots that is not fresh and spic span new from the hands of the tailor.

Sizes 4 and 6 only

A little odd that the sizes should be limited, there's a reason for it however, and that reason explains the extraordinary price cut, which is simply beyond the comprehension of the ordinary buyer, till everything that makes quality is fully weighed and reckoned up according to its true worth.

Here Are the Price Figures

On as pretty a line of Children's Jackets as you ever set eyes on. The cloths and shadings are the choicest. The tailoring is faultless, the get up all that could be wished for, with all its various touches and embellishments that may be summed up in the single word "style," are laid out with a lavish hand.

At $2.98, $3.29, $3.98, and $4.49

These dainty little coats represent the best value ever shown in any cloak house or department in this city right in the begining of the season. This week the choice is limitless.

pleasant diversions were enjoyed. Several piano solos were played by Misses Grace Acker and Mary Harris. At a seasonable hour refreshments were served.

Those present were the Misses Mary Harris, Gertrude Lloyd, Gertrude Will-hams, Laura Niebell, Elsie Keller, Edyth Jones, Bertha Kelly, Ethel Rinker, Grace Acker, Martha Davis and Harriet Davies, William Jamieson, Frank Jones, Morris Miller, William Lewis, William Reynolds, E. Druid Owen, William Hutton, John R. Jones, George Reese, Thomas Beals.

BECAME UNMANAGEABLE. Miss Edyth Jones, of South Main avenue, a well known and popular young lady, narrowly escaped serious and perhaps fatal injury Monday evening about 6.30 o'clock. Her brotherin-law, Robert Robinson, had driven over to call on the family and Miss Jones got into the buggy to take a drive around the block. in turning down Eynon street off Main avenue the horse, which is a spirited animal, took fright and start-d off. Miss Jones clung to the lines and called for help. She managed to turn the frightened animal into a telephone pole and men passing by seized him.

SIXTH ANNUAL AFFAIR.

The ladies of St. Patrick's society of the Irish Catholic Benevolent union conducted their sixth annual ball in Mears' hall last evening. The affair was well attended and proved to be as successful as the previous annuals. irs, Agnes Malott furnished the mu-

The grand march was led by Miss Margaret Cusick and M. F. Madden. About one hundred couples participatd. The programme of dances contained twenty-five numbers. M. F. Culkin acted as prompter and master of ceremoniez. The other committees were comprised as follows: Floor committee, M. F. Madden, Thomas J. Baldwin, P. J. McAndrew and Daniel Regan: reception committee, M. J. Jen-nings, J. H. Brown and J. P. Crowley.

NO DAMAGE DONE.

In some unknown manner a small outbuilding, used for storing small quantities of oil for use about the Mt. Pleasant breaker, took fire yesterday afternoon about 2.56 o'clock and for few minutes threatened to start a serious fire.

An alarm was sent in from box 14. orner of West Lackawanna avenue and Seventh street, but before the companies could respond willing hands had attached the colliery hose and the flames were extinguished. Little damage was done

Brother James, who is connected with the Branch of the Order of the Good Shepherd in this city, was present and addressed the meeting upon his "Observations in and About the Camp at Montauk Point." Brother James comes from the diocese of Long Island and was at work in that diocese when the soldiers were there and had ample opportunity to study affairs. His talk vas very interesting. It was almost impossible to take care of the large crowd of persons who patronized the ladies of St. John's German Catholic church, on South Main avenue, at the supper which they served last evening in the assembly rooms. The supper was an excellent one in every respect.

DUNMORE.

About one thousand people gathered in Washington hall last night to see he production of the stirring military drama "At the Picket Line," by the Young Men's F. L. and B. society. The olay was given throughout without a hitch of any kind. Misses Genevieve Patrick Kane, of Drinker street, Sport Hill, was injured Tuesday evening on his way home from Throop by being thrown from a wagon, which was struck by an electric car. Mr Kane had been to Throop and having a chance to ride home with a friend took it. When on North Blakely street the street car coming along struck the wagon with such force as to knock Mr. Kane from the seat to the ground with the above result. The wagon was slightly damaged.

Miss Eva Osterhout, of South Blake ly street, entertained a number of friends at her home Friday evening and a good time was enjoyed by all
