HOW FARMER SCHAEFER BUN-COED THE COON HUNTERS.

Dates of the Farmers' Institutes. The First Woman Lawyer in Susquehanna County-Mormon Elders Make Converts in Susquehanna. Honesdale Not Dead-A Few Upto-Date Patriots.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Susquehanna, Nov. 29. - Thomas Schaefer, a farmer residing near Kirkwood, had in mind to fell a large oak tree on his land, when he met some Binghamton sportsmen out after game. He made fun of small game like squirrels, and said coons were the thing to hunt. They at once wanted to know where coon could be found. He told of a nest in the big oak. Thereupon the Binghamton chaps borrowed axes and went at the tree. They cut it down, encouraged by Mr. Schaefer, who seemed greatly surprised that no coons were found.

The Result of Imperfect Digestion of Food. Every living thing, plant or animal contains within itself the germs of certain decay and death.

in the human body there germs of disease and death (called by scientists Ptomaines) are usually the result of imperfect digestion of food; the result of indigestion or dyspepsia. The stomach, from abuse, weakness, does not promptly and thoroughly dicest the food. The result is a heavy sodden mass which ferments (the first process of decay), poisoning the blood, making !! thin, weak and lacking in red corpuscles; poisoning the brain, causing headaches and pain in the eyes. Bad digestion irritates the heart. causing palpitation and finally bring-

Poor digestion poisons the kidneys, causing Bright's disease and diabetes. And this is so because every organ every nerve depends upon the stomach alone for nourishment and renewal, and weak digestion shows itself not only in loss of appetite and flesh, but in weak nerves and muddy complexion. The great English scientist, Huxley, said the best start in life is a sound stomach. Weak stomachs fail to digest food properly, because they lack the proper quantity of digestive acids (lactic and hydrochloric) and peptogenic products; the most sensible remedy in all cases of indigestion, is to take after each meal one or two of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, because they supply in a pleasant, harmless form all the elements that weak stomachs lack.

The regular use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure every form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

They increase flesh insure pure blood strong nerves, a tright eye and clear complexion, because all these result from wholesome food well digested.

IN THE PLAY HOUSES.

"Said Pasha" Last Night.

Milton Aborn's Comic Opera company sang that tuneful opera. "Said Pasha," at the Academy of Music last evening. The comedy roles were en-acted by Mr. Aborn and Frank Deshon, who were very entertaining. The other roles were likewise in excellent ate a morsel of bread or meat in his hands. In the afternoon "The Street Singer" was the opera presented. The costuming of both operas was especially worthy of note. In the audience last night was Corinne, who was such a comic opera favorite in this city a few seasons ago, She arrived in the city during the afternoon. Corinne is now devoting her time to vaudeville and will introduce her specialties in all the operas to be produced by the Aborn company for the remainder of the week. Her husband, George Royerson, is musical director of the company. This afternoon the company will sing Fra Diavolo" and tonight "Boccacio,"

"Uncle Dicks Darling."

The new Standard Dramatic company, composed of local amateurs, presented "Uncle Dick's Darling" at the Lyceum last night for the benefit of the House of the Good Shepherd. The cast of characters was as follows:

Reginald Chevinex, a man of Bealth, Mr. Web Scism Joe Leonard, a blacksmith ... M. J. Coyne Dick Dolland, an old peddler, Robert W. Rankin

Mrs. Torrington, school mistress, Miss Gertrude M. Freeman ing on disease of this very important | Kate Landrall, Alice Renshaw, school girls, Miss Katle Thornton, Miss Neple Williams Mary BettonMiss Helen Charles Servants. Villagers, Etc.

The performance was probably the most creditable dramatic effort of local amateurs ever seen in this city. Miss Helen Charles, in the role of Mary Betton, demonstrated that she is graceful and clever. She possesses a clear, well-disciplined voice that is equally true in tender and impassioned scenes Miss Gertrude M. Freeman, of West Scranton, was excellent as Mrs. Tor rington, a dignified school mistress. Robert W. Rankin, M. J. Coyne and Webster Scism sustained the leading male roles in a very acceptable man Between the acts Mr. Coyne gave his whistling specialty and Alfred J. Harber and William Lynott sang drama was carefully staged and the performance was unmarred by the hitches and delays that are usual for amateur performances.

Modjeska Thursday Night.

Although Madame Modjeska has too. much common sense to expect that she can do anything else but play a general tour of the provinces while she adheres to the classic roles, she has, like many another, a longing for that comfort that a more less permanent residence provides and which seems only possible to the player identified with the modern stage. It is said her manager is seeking material which would enable the great actress to play longer engagements in New York. Among the writers of the stage just now there are possibly two dramatists who might fulfill the requirements-reference is made to James A. Herne in America, or Bernard Shaw in London. It might pay Madame Modjeska to look over the dramatic libraries of these forceful writers. She will be seen at the Lyceum Thursday night in "Macbeth."

What Happened to Jones?" George H. Eroadhurst's roaring farce 'What Happened to Jones' comes to the Lyceum Friday and Saturday nights and Saturday matinee. The company is an excellent one and comprises several well known favorites, among them Bert C. Thayer, E. Soldene Powell, Barney McDonough, Frank Hope, Philip Calvert, Charles Greene, Cora Williams, Blanche Johnson, Eleanor Brodhey, Helen Harcourt, Kate Weston and Francis Lois Clarke, "Jones" was played in New York for four months and has proved solid success in London, where it s running at the Strand theater. The beauty of "What Happened to Jones?" industries and to increase the size of is that it makes you laugh in spite of yourself.
