BOY WAS ABANDONED.

Lithuanian Lad's Parents Leave Him and Go to New York. The story of the abandonment of a 11-year-old Lithuanian boy by his mother yesterday in this city was made known to the police department yesterday in a letter from the New York society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children.

Following is the society's letter, dated Wednesday and signed by its superintendent, E. Fellows Jenkins: "The boy, who gives his name as George Smith, or George Lukoshowitz, age 11 years, and states that his father and mother, Anthony Dugan (step) and Mary Dugan, lived in Greene's alley, Scranton, until the 26th inst., when the removed to New York; that he remained in Scranton with an aunt named Mary Lukoshowitz, on Folve street, until yesterday when he decided to come to New York; that he does not know his mother's address here; that his father, George L., was killed by his brother, Paul L., about 4 years ago, and that he (Paul) attended the Greek Catholic church on Washington avenue, and that Father Reilly knows his people.

"Will you kindly ascertain the truth of the above, and if relatives are found induce them to search for the boy, or, if his mother is in this city, forward her address. Kindly wire society what disposition to make of the boy and then follow same with a brief written report as to home surroundings and point to be searched for."

SATURDAY'S FOOT BALL GAME.

St. Thomas and the All Scranton Elevens Will Line Up. The last, and by far the best, foot ball game of the season will be played at Athletic park Saturday afternoon. The contending elevens will be the champion St. Thomas team and an all-Scranton eleven composed of the best players on both the Scranton High school and the School of the Lackawanna teams. Play will begin at 2:30 sharp and the full playing time will be used. Ropes and policemen will be used to keep the field of play clear of spectators. The line-up of both teams will be as follows:

St. Thomas. All Scranton. Campbell, C. E. ... J. Vaughan. Tiche, ... L. S. ... Cosgrove. Coleman, ... L. S. ... Lewis. Langman, ... E. L. ... Moran. Kellner, ... E. L. ... Vaughan. J. J. ... H. ... Troop. Rickwood, ... C. ... D. ... Weir (capt.), ... J. ... DeBoy (capt.). W. O'Hara, ... C. ... Hanabue.

IT WOULD BE DANGEROUS.

Company Wants Time to Comply with Court's Decree. Testimony was taken, yesterday morning, before Judge Gunster, on the rule for a modification of the decree in the case of the Electric City Land and Improvement company against the West Ridge coal company, which decreed that the defendants should remove their air shaft and like buildings from the plot adjoining the land company's tract.

The defendants allege that it would endanger the lives of the workmen both in the mine and in the workings of the Delaware and Hudson company, which operates the lower veins, should the air shaft be removed forthwith. They ask a reasonable length of time in which to make arrangements which will permit them to remove the air shaft with safety.

NOON WEDDING IN ST. LUKE'S CHURCH

ONE OF THE MOST BEAUTIFUL IN HISTORY OF CITY.

The Bride Was Miss Susan May Jermy, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jermy and the Groom Mr. Arthur Downey, of Oswego, N. Y. Ceremony Was Performed by Rev. Rogers Israel—Costumes of the Bride and Her Attendants—Many Guests from Out of Town.

One of the most beautiful day time weddings ever celebrated in Scranton was that of yesterday, which has been the subject of eager anticipation for some weeks and will furnish a topic of conversation for days to come. This event was the marriage of Miss Susan May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jermy, the millionaire coal operator and his wife, of this city, to Mr. Arthur Downey, of Oswego, N. Y.

The ceremony took place in St. Luke's Episcopal church, which offers special advantages for ceremonies in which stately ecclesiastical details are a marked feature. "The long drawn aisle," the graceful gothic arches, the lofty, groined nave, the delightful glow through the leaded panes and the dimness of the interior, softening even the brilliance of a cloudless noontide, made the scene one of poetic beauty, upon which the Good Shepherd from the lovely chancel window seemed to look down gently.

The decorations, chiefly in green, were exceedingly profuse and made a rare background to the picture at the altar. The full surpliced choir sang "The Voice That Breathed O'er Eden," accompanied by J. Will Comant on the organ, and the Mendelssohn wedding march was the signal of the approach of the bridal party.

THE BRIDESMAIDS. The bridesmaids, Miss Dwight, of New York; Miss Alice Bell, Miss Lucy Welles, Miss Clara Simpson, Miss Frances Vinton, Mrs. C. W. Weston, Mr. G. B. Jermy, Misses Welles, Miss Dwight, Miss Simpson, Miss Winton, Miss Coleman, the Misses Matthews, Miss Clara Reynolds, Miss Hunt, the Misses Hubbard; Messrs. Edward Jessup, Mr. Louis J. J. Bates, Mr. J. Bates, A. H. Ames, John Downey, James Doyle, Decker, Green, Thorne, Neale, J. H. Brooks, Lawrence and Mortimer Fuller, Merrill, P. R. Bell, Hunt, Frank Fuller, Rollo and W. M. Jermy.

CARBONDALE WITNESSES.

They Give Reasons Why They Should Not Have Been Brought in on Attachments—All Not Examined Yesterday.

About forty of the Carbondale witnesses in the election contest, for whom attachments were issued, put in an appearance yesterday before the examiners. From the stories they told in cross-examination, it is safe to presume that on the previous day, the costs of the attachments and the extra expense to which the witnesses were put will have to be borne by the contestant.

Every man of them, with one exception, had answered when subpoenaed in Carbondale, some of them attending as many as a dozen times and none of them having been there less than twice.

The two exceptions were John Murray and Thomas A. Casey. They swore positively that they were in some possible slates, but sentiment has not yet begun to crystallize and probably will not for several weeks, as the convention will not be held until after the Republican nominations are made, unless some of the ambitious candidates should get the whip hand and force matters to an issue at an earlier date than the leaders think advisable.

PICTURESQUE EFFECT.

Miss Frances Jermy wore white orange and carried American beauty roses. Her picture had been of white chiffon and pink velvet. The lovely coloring made up by the attire of the bridal party formed an enchantingly picturesque effect at the chancel, where the betrothal ceremony took place. The bride was given away by her father and the beautiful marriage service of the Episcopal church was impressively conducted by Rev. Rogers Israel, rector of St. Luke's.

At the conclusion of the ceremony the bridal party was followed by the choir, which sang "The Happy Bride." Mr. Comant concluded the wedding music with "Hail to the Happy Bridal Day," from Lucia di Lammermoor.

A wedding breakfast was served at the family mansion at the corner of Jefferson avenue and Vine street, where a large number of guests offered their congratulations. Davis, of Orange, N. J., was the caterer. The guests were served on the third floor, where the tables devoted to the bridal party were particularly striking in effect, with their decorations of pink roses, the bride's table being marked with white flowers.

Many magnificent costumes were seen among the guests. Mrs. Jermy wore satin of a soft dove gray with lavender. Mrs. P. H. Jermy was beautifully gowned in lavender. Mrs. E. B. Jermy's costume was a lovely one of blue with white satin, and Mrs. G. B. Jermy wore a Paris gown of grey, elaborately combined with pink. Mr. and Mrs. Downey left on the 2:50 train for an extended journey. The groom is a coal and grain dealer in Oswego, where his family is one of the oldest and most distinguished in that portion of the state. Owing to severe illness, a number of his near relatives were unable to be present.

MUCH INTEREST IN COMING ELECTION

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATES BESTIRRING THEMSELVES.

The Crawford County Rules Are Responsible for This Early Beginning of the Spring Campaign—As This Is the First Test of the Rules Hereabouts the Result Will Be Watched with Much Interest—Dec. 15 Is the Last Day on Which Candidates Can Register.

Although the spring election is two and one-half months away, the interest already shown in it is something quite remarkable. The Crawford county rules which are to be tested by the Republicans of the city are in a measure responsible for the early interest in the campaign, for they require that the candidates get in the field early. Dec. 15 is the last day a candidate for a Republican nomination can enter the lists and most of them to be sure their opponents obtain to advantage, have already registered.

The convention will not be held until Jan. 17, but as each candidate for a nomination must go before the Republican voters for endorsement, the month that intervenes between the last day for registration and the primaries on Jan. 17 will be short enough for the men who are desirous of making a canvass of the Republican voters of the city.

THIS CHANGE OF METHOD HAS ALREADY THROWN UNUSUAL ACTIVITY INTO THE FIGHT, WHICH WILL CONTINUE TO INCREASE UNTIL THE PRIMARIES ARE HELD. AS THIS IS THE FIRST TIME THE CRAWFORD COUNTY RULES HAVE BEEN TRIED HEREBOUTS, THE TEST IS BEING CLOSELY WATCHED BY THE MEMBERS OF ALL THE POLITICAL HOUSEHOLDS.

FOUR CANDIDATES.

For the Republican nomination for mayor four candidates have already registered. They are Captain James Moir, ex-Sheriff A. B. Stevens, Colonel George Sanderson and Benjamin Colton, of West Scranton, who registered yesterday. A number of other gentlemen have been spoken of in connection with the nomination, but they have not up to this time formally declared their candidacy by registering.

Of the three gentlemen who have registered, Captain James Moir is making the most energetic effort to secure the required endorsement of his brother Republicans. Mr. Stevens is also making quite an energetic canvass. Mr. Sanderson's content to leave the matter to the voters.

John Van Borgan, George Carson, Joseph Alexander, Jr., T. R. Brooks, who are ambitious to be city treasurer, will have a lively struggle for the nomination.

The situation as to city controller has been intensified by the appearance of ex-Controller F. J. Widmayer as a candidate. His exceptionally fine record while he filled the office gives him a strong argument to go before the Republican voters as an assessor the candidates are very numerous and it is not possible for any person to foresee who the three successful ones will be.

Much talk is heard about the possible make up of the Democratic city ticket and a good deal of figuring is done on possible slates, but sentiment has not yet begun to crystallize and probably will not for several weeks, as the convention will not be held until after the Republican nominations are made, unless some of the ambitious candidates should get the whip hand and force matters to an issue at an earlier date than the leaders think advisable.

POSSIBLE CANDIDATES.

City Treasurer C. G. Boland has announced that he will not seek a reelection. It is probable that he will not unless a ticket should be named that is to his liking. He looked with favor, 'tis said, on the candidacy of City Controller Edmund J. Robinson for mayor, because Mr. Boland would again like to run on the same ticket with the popular young South Side German.

The latter's friends are urging him to have nothing to do with the mayoralty. He is better fitted for the office of city controller or city treasurer, they contend, and argue that he can have either nomination if he desires it. As the office of city treasurer is the most desirable in the gift of the people of Scranton, Mr. Robinson, if a candidate at all, will undoubtedly decide that he would like that nomination.

When Mr. Robinson is spoken of for city treasurer Hon. John E. Roche is usually put on the same slate with him for the office of mayor. Hon. M. F. Sande is also mentioned frequently as the possible Democratic nominee for mayor, but he has not intimated that he wants or would accept the nomination. E. J. Lynett, editor of the Times, is another prominent Democrat who is frequently spoken of in connection with the mayoralty.

INSPECTION AT HONSDALE.

Colonel Watres and Staff Went There Last Night. Colonel L. A. Watres and several members of his Eleventh regiment staff went to Hondsdale yesterday to inspect Company L, of that town. They left Scranton on the 5:30 Delaware and Hudson train.

Colonel Watres was attended by Lieutenant Colonel Milton A. Chasler, of Lebanon; Adjutant D. B. Atherton, Quartermaster F. M. Vandling and Assistant Surgeon F. F. Arndt.

SCRANTON CLUB RECEPTION.

Elaborate Arrangements Are Being Made for the Event. Elaborate preparations are being made for the Scranton club reception tonight. About 500 invitations have been issued. Each member has the privilege of having two guests in addition to his family.

The ball, roses and the board of trade room will be decorated by Clark, the florist. Music will be furnished by Bauer.

To the Republicans of the City of Scranton.

The following city offices are to be filled at the February election: Mayor, City Treasurer, City Controller, Three City Assessors, Two School Directors for 3 years.

Any Republican who desires to become a candidate for any of the above offices must file his application with C. E. Chittenden, chairman of the city committee, on or before Dec. 15, 1898. The notice must state the office for which the writer is a candidate and the postoffice address must accompany the signature. C. E. Chittenden, Chairman.
