EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

BRANCH PUBLIC LIBRARY HAS BEEN OPENED.

Rooms Are on the Second Floor Front of the Banner Block-B. Levi Charged with Receiving Stolen Goods-Concert in St. David's Episcopal Church-Plans for Organizing a Young Men's Christian Union-Officers of West Side Republican Club Named.

That which was suggested in The Tribune many months ago, was given its first trial yesterday and may, should the experiment prove successful, hecome a permanent feature. Yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock the Hyde Park delivery station and free reading room, which, to all intents and purposes, at present will be a branch of the Scranton Public library, was opened in the Weish Philosophical society's rooms, on South Main avenue,

These rooms are on the second floor from of the Banner block, and the entrauce leads unstairs at the doorway next to Waters' lewelry store entrance Miss Reba Thomas, of South Main ave-Superintendent Benjamin Hughes, of Washburn street, will be in charge. The rooms will be open from 4 p. m. until 5 p. m. every day, except Sundays and holidays. In time, all the leading periodicals will be found on the tables. The library owned by the Welsh Philos sophical society will undoubtedly be accessible also to the readers at the rooms as heretofore, when the trustees allowed free reading room to the pub-

Simple directions are posted or given to those who desire to obtain books from the main library. Each cardholder has but to leave their card and list with Miss Thomas and call the next afternoon or evening and receive the book. This delivery saves time and expense to the applicant, owing to the ion-necessity of having to go to Scranton. Librarian Carr accompanied Miss Thomas to the new station yesterday and made things plain as to the method of procedure. He has also arranged for the delivery, which will be done each day by Charles Dougherty, a student at the High school, who resides

As stated in The Tribune about three weeks ago, this step was the result of a conference between the Scranton Public florary trustees, Librarian Carr. and Trustees Judge H. M. Edwards, Benjamin Hughes, James A. Evans and Daniel J. Evans, of the Welsh Philosophical society. By this arrangement the expense incurred is borne mutually. The Public library pays the assistants and furnishes the periodicals, etc. the society furnishes the rooms, light Sunday evening the sucrament of the and heat, and care of rooms, and reasonable use of its large library at-ready on the premises.

Credit should also be given to Comon Councilman Joseph Oliver, of the Fifteenth ward, and to the West Side board of trade for very material ef forts in behalf of the station. Now that the "station" is an assured fact and will be until April 1, next, it re mains with West Scrantonians whether or not it becomes a success. The station is here in your midst to accommo and should be patronized, and thus relieve the strain on the main library, so far as book applications are Every person using the soms should not forget that disorderly iduct, loud conversation, or rudence f any sort is not allowed, and when t occurs, always lessens the benefit of och a public institution.

ASKED MILES FOR A LIGHT.

Private Soldier's Request Cheerfully Complied with by the General.

Washington Special in Chicago Record. A member of General Miles' staff tells of an incident down at Tampa before the departure of the troops for Santiago. The general was standing in the office of the Tampa Bay hotel one evening, dressed in a plain business suit and smoking a cigar, when a tail, raw-boned private from the Fifth Maryland regiment strolled up to him and said:

"Say, partner, give us a light. The man addressed put his hand in his pocket, drew out a silver case, took match from it, struck fire and handed it politely to the soldier, who thanked him and lighted his cigar. The encounter was witnessed by the porter of the hotel, who watched his chance and said to the soldier: "Who was the man that gave you the match?" "I don't know, except that he is a gentleman," returned the Maryland

"Well. I'll tell you who he is," said the porter, "and you won't feel so big when you know. It was General Miles." "The devil you say!" was the response as the soldier walked off in chagrin. Awaiting his opportunity he stepped up to the general with a salute and said: "General. I have to apologize for what may have seemed to you an impertinence, but I had never seen you before and you wore nothing to indicate your rank, so I took the liberty of addressing you as I would any stranger, and I hope you will excuse

"Don't let that worry you," said General Miles, "I was a private soldier once myself."
