ABOUT CUBA

CONFLICTS BETWEEN SPAN-IARDS AND CUBANS.

Acts of Facetious Vandals in Havana-Settlement of Arrears of Pay Due to Spanish Troops. Handsome Profits Realized by an Astute Military Intendant-Spanish Bank Ready to Transfer Mortgages on Municipal Property. Lacks Confidence in Stability of Future Government of the Island. The Firing on the Camp of the Fifth Immunes at Santiago.

Havana, Dec. 7. (via Key West, Fia., Dec. 8).—The statue of Isabel la Catolica, which stands in the middle of Central park, in this city, was found this morning holding a value in one hand and a steamship rog in the other. An immense placard was slung across the back of the statue with the words "Hon voyage" inscribed on it.

Several disturbances occurred here vesterday afternoon between a number of Spaniards and Cubans, but luckily there was no serious consequences. At 5 o'clock in the afternoon of the day mentioned several Cuban officers who were walking down Obbspo street asked each other in tones rather louder than necessary when the Spaniards were to finally leave Cuba, and commented on what they termed the later's want of shame in parading the streets attired in their uniforms. Two Spanish officers who chanced to be passing overheard the conversation. and one of them approached and Several blows were exchanged, but the fighters were arrested soon and taken to the military governor's palace. where they were discharged.

A repetition of this incident occurred in the evening, when a Spanish officer in Central Park tore a panama hat off a Cuban's head and cut it into pieces with his sword. The offender was arrested, and Gen. Arolus, fearing further trouble, distributed a force of soldiers in the park and its vicinity. No other disturbances occurred, however.

Serious problems confront the last two days of Spain's sovereignty in Cuba. One of the most delicate and most difficult of solution is the question of return bonds given by civil officials and employes upon ceasing to hold of-Many of these are cash bonds furnished years ago, the refunding of which now becomes imperative. All and spent the government is therefore unable to meet these obligations or to fulfill the guarantees. The settlement of the arrears of Irregular troops offered a britiant opthe part of the military intendant.

QUARTERMASTER'S PLAN.

With money in hand for a full settlement of all pay due to the troops ingenious plan. Paying the men off in notes, payable in Madrid, he offered through trusted agents, to discount such notes at 20 or 30 per cent for cash, As practically every one of the irregular and mobilized troops will remain from Gounod's "Queen of Sheba." A on the island, the men cagerly embraced the opportunity to have their notes song, "Waiting in the Lane Pergy." and a handsome profit thereby accrued to the astute originator of the scheme.

The first mortgages held by the Spanish bank on municipal property here feet. Mr. McAndrews played a clar amount to $6,000,000. Propositions for the acquisition of the mortgages have been made by Lesion, New York and Perlin bankers. Although the mortgaged property represents a more solid otherwise by the handsome personnel investment, the Spanish bank seems ready to transfer the title to the foreign corporations through a lack of confidence in the stability of the future government.

Santiago de Cuba, Dec. 8,-The Cubans here are greatly excited over yesterday's proceedings, resulting from the commemoration of the death of Antonio Maceo, particularly at the fact that bullets reached the camp of the Fifth immunes, which proves that the shots were not fired by the Cubans who fired volleys in the air from the public square here. Those shots only damaged the cathedral slightly.

It appears that the builets which damaged the tents of the Fifth imnunes came from a different party of insurgents, near the trocha, who were also celebrating.

In respect to the action of the three drunken Cubans who entered the Spanish club and smashed chandeliers and furniture, which building in five days American viub, the Cubans say they deeply depiore the outrage and do not think it fair to regard it as a race act. The San Carlos club intends to hold a meeting and to tender an apology to for not making any arrests.

Colonel Beacom, the American acting military commander here, accompanied by the chief of police, personally arrested Juan Castillo this morn ing. He is a captain of the Cuban army and was the man who led his two negro companions into the club. tillo, who is well connected, objected to going to jail and offered his card instead. Colonel Beacom, however, was obdurate.

Bauer's Band Concert.

Bauer's band was greeted by a big. enthusiastic and representative audience last night on the occasion of the benefit at the Lyceum. If there is one thing that can arouse enthusiasm in this town it is Bauer and his band. They were greeted by an ovation from beginning to finish, and the programme was such as to warrant all the applause it received.

Robert Bauer is one of the most graceful conductors who takes the rostrum today, and the complete control in which he holds his players by his quiet, undemonstrative method is a strong attraction in the work of the

The ensemble effect was excellent last evening, and the programme was given with an abandon, a spirit and "go" that have perhaps never been equalled at any band concert previousheard in this city. While the selections were what may be called popular, the programme was varied enough to enthrall the listeners of all tastes.

The overture by Keler Belei was elaborate in detail and remarkable for the clarionet effects. The delicacy of shading in the Suppe overture was a clever example of the band's capabilities, and in the variations and fantasies great versatility was evinced. It is generally conceded that Bauer plays Sousa's marches as well as Sousa siapped the face of a member of the and his band produce these popular compositions.

The audience was assured of this fact in the many encores, particularly in the "Stars and Stripes Forever." when Messrs, Eugene Ham and Theodore Bauschman gave an innovation in a spirited flute obligate. Messrs. Griffith, Rasser and Turn afford a fine trombone trio in this one of the encorns rendered.

"The Crimson Fiush March," by Alexander, which gave as good an example of the able ensemble work of the band as anything attempted.

The great descriptive piece, "The Cavalry Charge," was the most bril-Hantly effective selection given, and needs to be heard to be appreciated. It contained all the elements necessary to the correct exposition of the

A feature of the evening was the piano solo by Miss Mabe! Rennie, who such moneys having been appropriated paid a graceful compliment to Bauer by wearing on her dark blue coat the red collar and gift epaulets of the band uniform.
